Introduction

To realise the full potential of your life, to fill it with optimum joy and to lead a truly successful life is your inalienable right, provided, of course, that you understand the correct mode of living and the rules and etiquettes of a successful life; moreover, not only should you he acquainted with these rules and etiquettes, but you should also he constantly striving to adorn and civilize your life by translating these rules into practice. Civility and good manners, dignity and courtesy, neatness and purity, prudence and discretion, organization and discipline, keen aesthetic sense, magnanimity and nobility of temperament, sympathy and consideration, mildness and pleasant speech, hospitality and humility, selfleseness and sacrifice, lustlessness and sincerity, fortitude and perseverence, sense of responsibility and industry, fear of God and piety; reliance on God and hold initiative--these are the magnificent features of a truly Islamie life, which throw a halo of attraction round the graceful lives of the pious men and make their personalities charismatio; so much so that not only the Muslims hut even the non-Muslims are irresistibly drawn to them and the common mind is forced to the conclusion that the humanistic culture which confers on mankind such invaluable manners and etiquettes for adoring and reforming life and infusing it with charisma, is like air and light, the common patrimony of mankind. This humanistic culture, therefore, is worthy of adoption by the entire humanity so that all human beings may individually and collectively huild up a successful life order. This will not only make their earthly life a haven of contentment and comfort, folicity and joy, peace and tranquillity, but also seems in the world Hereafter all that is essential for a successful and redeemed life. The Etiputtes of Islamic Life is an attempt to present these etiquettes and manners of Islamic culture in conventional book form. This work which represents a pattern of life ordered in the light of the teachings of the Book of God, the precedent of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), the guidance provided by the immortal deeds of our forbearers and the Islamic taste and temperament, contains five important chapters:

Chapter I — Manners and Culture Chapter II — True Submission

Chapter III - Good Society

Chapter IV - Propagation of Religion

Chapter V - Sense of Devotion

Under these chapters, Islamic manners and etiquettes relating to all aspects of human life have been explained in a stylo whit has a characterized by:—

- * an impressive arrangement of material :
- plain and easy language;
- lucid and eloquent explanations;
- thought provoking arguments and;
- · rhetorical diction.

It is hoped that this manual of Etiqueties of Islamic Life will, by the grace and beneficence of Allah, prove useful for readers belonging to all age-groups and classes. Brethren and sisters devoted to Islam are expected to adorn their personal lives with these precious rules and prayers as well as strive to reform and mould the morals, habits and conduct of the younger generation along sound lines. They should try their utmost to impress upon the youngsters the value of learning these rules and prayers by heart.

The life adorned with these etiquettes will not only be acclaimed with reverence and admiration in this world but will also be deemed worthy of reward and favour in the hereinafter. Reference to important works which have been consulted during the preparation of this book are indicated at appropriate points within the text. I pray to the Venerable and Exalted Allah to favour this humble attempt with His approval and enable the Muslims to order their lives in conformity with these rules and etiquettes. They should foster an inclination. yearning and zeal for Islam in the hearts of people. This menual should serve as an effective means of attracting the people to the true religion of God, and that it should be deemed a basis for the author's redemption. May God reward all those serving the causs of Islam with His favour also whose valueble works have been drawn upon in the preparation of this Book. (Amin)

Hadrat Jabir (God he pleased with him) stated: "One day the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) visited our home to see us. He (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) beheld a man who had dishevelled his hair and was covered all over with dust. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Has this fellow no comh with which to set his hair!" And the Holy Prophet's (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) gaze fell on another man who wore very dirty garments. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "Can't this man procure even that thing with which to wash his clothes clean."

Purity and Neatness

Allah's favourites are those who make constant efforts to remain pure and neat. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed: "Purity end neatness are half of faith". In other words, Faith partly consists in cleensing one's soul end partly in keeping physically cleen and pure. The purity and neatness of soul implies cleansing the soul of all impurities such as infidelity, polytheism, sin and vice, and embellishing it with righteous beliefs end pure morals. The purity and neatness of the body denotes keeping it clear of all external filth and adorning it with neatness end good manners.

- On waking up, clean your hand before putting it in a pot of water. You never can tell where your hands lay during sleep.
- Do not discharge urine on the floor of the toilet, especially when it is made of soil.
- 3. When passing stools or nrine, do not sit facing the direction of Qiblab, nor with your back to Qiblab. Having relieved yourself, use a clod or water to clean the private parts or purify yourself with water only. Do not use the dung, bone or charcoal for cleaning purposes. When the private parts have been cleaned, scrub your hands with seep or earth and wash them.
  - Do not sit down to est when your howels are under pressure. Relieve yourself of urine or stool, before eating.

- Use your right hand in eating as well as in performing ablution. For cleaning the private parts of the body or for clearing the nose, use your left hand only.
- 6. Discharge urine on soft ground, so that its drops do not splash around. Always pass the nrine in a sitting posture. However, if the condition of the ground or some real hardship prevents from sitting down, you may urinate in a standing posture. Otherwise, in normal circumstances, it is a very dirty habit and should be strictly avoided.
- 7. Do not sit down to answer the call of nature on the riverside, the quay, on the thoroughfares or in shaded places. Such a practice causes inconvenience to others and is derogatory to rules of propriety and good manners.
- Put on shoes and cover your head with a cap etc. before going to the lavatory and read the following prayer on your way:

Allahumma inni a'udhu bika minal khubihi wal khaba'ith.
(Bukhari Muelim)

"God I I seek thy Protection against the devils of the masculine as well as the feminine species."

(Bukhari-Muslim)

On emerging from the lavatory, read this prayer:

ونسائی ، این ماجه،

(Nisāi, Ibn-e-Majah)
"I thank the Lord who relieved me of the burden and granted me ease." (Nasāi, Ibn·e·Majah)

9. Discharge your nose or phlegm with care in a spitoon, or do so in a place out of the sight of people.

- 10. Avoid patting your finger in the nostrils and clearing the wax of your nose too often. Clear the nose and clean it well out of the sight of people, whenever the need arises.
- Strictly avoid the practice of spitting phlegm into the folds of a handkorchief and rubbing them together. This is a despicable habit and must be avoided except when it cannot be helped.
- 12. While chewing betel leaf, do not talk in such a manner as to splash saliva on the person you are talking to, thus causing discomfort to him. If you chew tobacco or betel leaf frequently, you should take groat care in observing the rules of oral hygiene. Beware also, lest you should talk with your mouth too close to the person addressed.
- 13. Perform ablution with great eare and try to keep in a state of ablution most of the time, if not at all hours. Where water is not available, you may perform Tayammum. Recite:

Bismillah hirrahma nirrahim.

'In the Name of Aliah, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

at the beginning of ablution and say the following prayer in the course of its performance:

أَشْهِدُ أَنْ لَا اللهَ الاَّ اللهُ وَحَدَّهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَـهُ وَ اشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُمُ وَ رَسُولُهُ اللهُمِّ اجْعَلَىٰ مِنَ النَّوَّابِينَ وَاجْعَلَىٰ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُمُ وَ رَسُولُهُ اللهُمِّ اجْعَلَىٰ مِنَ النَّوَّابِينَ وَاجْعَلَىٰ

مَنَ الْمُنْطَهِرِينَ . «ترمذي»

Ashhadu an là ilàha illallahu wahdahu là sharika lahu wa ashhadu anna Muhammadan 'abduhu wa rasuluhu. Allahumn aj'ilni minat-tawu'abina waj'alni min-almutatahhirin.

"I beer witness that there is no god save Allah and He has no partner. And I testify that Muhammed is the servant of God and His Messenger. God I Join me with those people who repent most and take great care in keeping themselves pure and clean".

When the ablution is over, say the following prayer :

Subhanak-allahumma wa bihamdika ashhadu an l2 ilaha illa anta astaghfiruka wa atūbu ilaika. (Nasai)

"God! Thou art Pure and Supreme in Thy Praiseworthiness. I testify that there is no deity beside Thee. I seek Thy forgiveness end I appeal to Thee."

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"The emblem of my Ummah on the Day of Judgement will be that their foreheads and other perts of the body on which ablution is performed will be rediant with light. Hence whosoever wishes to enhance his light is free to do so."

(Bukhari, Muslim)

- 14. Brush your teeth with miswak (twig) regularly. The Holy Prophet (peece and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed:
  - "I would have decreed the brushing of teeth with a miswak (twig) during all ablations but for the inconvenience it would have caused to the Ummah".

On one occasion, some people arrived to see the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). Their teeth were stained with yellow grease. On observing their teeth the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) urged them to form the habit of using miswak.

15. You must hathe at least once a week. Make it a point to bathe on Friday and join the Friday congregation in clean and neat dress. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"Discharging of trust leads to Paradise". The companions (God be pleased with them) submitted: "O Apostle of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you)! What is meant by Trust?"

The Apostle of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"Allah has appointed no greater trust than cleansing oneself of impurity by taking bath". Hence a person must take bath when he needs one.

- 16. Do not go into or pass through the mosque in a state of impurity. If no alternative is available, perform the Tayammum before entering the mosque or passing through it.
- 17. Dress your hair with oil and comb. Trim the overgrown hair of your beard with seissors; apply collyrium to your eyes; and clip your nails and keep finger-nails clean. Adorn yourself with propriety, simplicity and moderation.
- 18. Cover your face with a handkerchief on sneezing, so that the exerction is not splashed on to anyone else After sneezing say:

رم. . . الحمد لله

Alhamdu lillah
"Praise be to Allah"!

The listener should say:

يىرحماك الله Yarhamukallah.

"May Allah show you Mercy" !

In response to this, you should recite :

Yahdikallah.

"May Allah guide you".

19. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was very fond of perfame. After performing the toilet on arising from sleep, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) invariably used perfume.

Maintenance of Health

1. Health is not only a great blessing of God but also e valuable trust from the Almighty. Regerd your health as of great value and take every care to sefeguard it. Health once lost is hard to recover. As the little worm eats into the books and destroys great libraries. similarly a little negligence or an ordinary sickness ruins the life. To neglect the rules of hygiene and to he indifferent towards the proper meintenence of health is callous, even as it is an act of ingratitude to the Almighty. The essence of human life is reason, morality, faith and knowledge. It is only the physice! health which ensures the proper functioning of human faculties of resson, morality, faith and knowledge. In fact, physical health is the basic factor in the development of mind and the growth of reason; it is also a pre-requisite for the performance of sublime acts of morality and the discharge of religious chligations. A weak end sick hody has e feeble mind whose faculty of reason cannot but he unsound and utterly hopeless. When life is devoid of longing and ardour; when there is no courage and the will is weak; when the passions have cooled down and are exhaustedsuch spiritless existence ie a drag on the infirm hody. The true helievers have to perform lofty deeds in life and discharge heavy responsibilities of atate. It is imperative, therefore, that they should have rohust physique, sturdy intellect and sound mind, firm will, high morale and a life full of spirit, enthnsiasm and sublime passions. Healthy and spirited individuals make dynamic nations and such nations by offering suprome sacrifices in the struggle for existence achieve a pre-eminent position and are a living symbol of the value and dignity of life.

2. You should always he cheerful, glad, alert and active. Make your life well-ordered, elegant, and 'healthy by means of good living, cheerful manners, joyful smiles and lively disposition. Avoid sorrow, anger, grudge or anxioty, envy, joslousy, slander, narrow-mindedness; don't lose your spirits and keep your mind elear of all comploxes. These moral ills have an adverse effect on the digestive system and a defective digestive system is the major cause of poor health. The Apostle of God (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed:

"Lead a simple life; adopt moderate habits and keep yourself cheerful". ( $\it Mishk\bar{a}t$ )

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) once saw an old man who was dragging on supported on either side hy two of his sons. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) enquired: "What has happened to this old man!" The people told him: "This man had vowed to travel to the House of God on foot". The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "It is not the will of God that this old man should torment himself" and then urged the old man to ride towards his destination.

Hadrat 'Umar (God be pleased with him) once saw a youth walking along slowly like a siok man. 'Umar (God be pleased with him) stopped the youth and enquired; "What siokness afflicts you"? He replied: "I am not ailing". Thereupon 'Umar (God be pleased with him) took hold of a whip and threatening him with it said to the young fellow: "Walk on the way energetically with firm foot".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to walk with a tirm foot and stepped on the ground as if he were descending a alope.

Hadrat 'Abdullah b. Ḥarith (May God be pleased with him) reports:

"I never met a man who smiled more often than the Prophet of God". (Tirmidh!)

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) taught the following prayer to his people and you should say this prayer more often:

Allahumma a'udhu bika min-al-hammi wal-huzni wal-'ajzi wal-kasli wa dala'iddaini wa ghalabat-ir rijal.

"O Allah! I seek refinge in Thee from the anxiety and grief from inability and sloth, from the burden of indebtedness and the domination of men".

(Bukhärt, Muslim)

Do not lift more burden than your atrength can bear.
 Do not waste your physical energy. It is obligatory that you should save and protect your physical atrength and use it with moderation according to your capability.

Hadrat 'A'isha (God he pleased with her) reports that the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"Act as much as is within your strength, for the Lord will not feel wearied but you will get weary". (Bukhārī)

Hadrat Abu Qais (God be pleased with him) reports that he went to see the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) when the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah bo, upon him) was delivering a sermon. Hadrat Abu Qais stood waiting in the sun. At the bidding of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessinge of Allah be upon him) he stepped into the shade. (Al-Adab Al-Mufrad)

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) forbade that a person should be standing in a position where a part of his body is under the shade and the other part in the sun.

A lady of the tribe Babla, Hadrat Mujiba (God be pleased with her) relates:

"Once my father called on the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) to seek religious knowledge. Having learnt some important matters about religion, my father returned home. A year later, be again went to see the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Alleh be upon him) found it impossible to recognize his visitor. Upon this, my father submitted: "O Prophet of God! Don't you remember me ?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said : "No. I do not recognise you. Introduce yourself". My father submitted: "I belong to the tribe of Bahla. I came to see you last year also". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Why are you in such a bad shape? When you came here last year you were in a much better state and looked fine". My father replied: "Since our last meeting. I have been continuously observing fasts. I eat only at night", The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "It was uttorly needless for you to torment yourself and ruin your health". Then the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) urged my father, "You should keep fasts during the whole of the month of Ramadan and in addition observe fast for one day during each month". My father submitted : "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you) | Permit me to keep more fasts". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) enjoined: "You should observe two fasts during each month". My father asked permission for more. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said : "Ynu can keep three fasts during each month". My father entreated for a further addition in the number of fasts. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him) replied : "Well then, you may observe fasts during sacred months each year and then leave a gap. You may follow this course every year". While observing this, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) made a aign with three fingers. joined thom and moved them apart,

The point that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) wanted to hring home to his visitor was that he should observe fasts during the months of Rajab, Dhiqa'dah and Dhulhijjah and leave a gap in fasting during the intervening years). The Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) has affirmed :

"It does not behave a believor to degrade himself". The people enquired: "In what manner does a heliover degrade himself ?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blossings of Allah be upon him) observed: "He subjects himself to intolerable sufferings and thus degrades himself".

(Tirmidhi)

4. You should always he industrious, energetic, hard working. painstaking and bold in your daily life. You should form the habit of facing all forms of hardship and tackling with the most difficult situations. Prepare yourself to lead the hard and simple life of a Mujahid (a fighter in the service of True Faith). Don't be ease-loving, careless, delicate, indolent, voluptuous, timid and a materialist. While despatching Hadrat Mu'adh b. Jabal (God be pleased with him) as Governor of Yemen, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) gave him the following instruction :

"Mu'adh! Deny yourself the love of pleasure, for the servants of God are not pleasure-seekers". (Mishkat)

Hadrat Ahu Umama (God be pleased with him) reports the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) as having said:

"Simple living symbolises true Faith". (Abu Dāwud)

The life of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) was ever a simple and hard one, like a Mujahid. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) took care to preserve his physical energy and strived to enhance it. The Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him? also liked to swim, for this sport proves the hest physical exercise. Once the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) and some companions (God be pleased with them) were swimming in a pool. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) arranged the companions in pairs of two and desired that each man should swim towards his partner. Hadrat Ahu Bakr (God he pleased with him) was paired with the Prophet (peace end hlessings of Allah be upon him). The Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah he upon him) swem towards Abu Bakr (God be pleased with him) caught him and held him hy the neck.

Horse was the Prophet's (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) favourite riding animal. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) himself tended his horse. He used to rub and clean the mouth of his horse with his own sleeve. He would tie the hair of its mane into knots and used to say:

"Goodness remains attached to its forehead till Doomsdey".

Hadrat 'Uqba (God be pleased with him) reports that the Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him) observed:

"Learn archery and horee-riding. I like the archers more than the horse-riders. He who learns the art of shooting arrows and then gives it up has paid scant regard to a Divine hlessing". (Abu Dāwud) Hadrat 'Abdullab b. 'Umar (God be pleased with him) reports that the Holy Prophet (peece and blessings of Allah be upon bim) stated:

"He who guerds the soldiers of Islam ageinst danger in the night pesses a night better than Shab Qadr".

In an address to his companions, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "A time will come when the other nations will fall upon my followers as diners scramble over food". Someone enquired: "O Prophet of God (peece and blessings of Allah be upon Will our numbers so dwindle that other psople will join forces in order to annihilete us ?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) answered; "Not thet your numbers will be small. In fact you will be much larger in number, but then your number will carry no woight, just as so many straws floeting in flood tide ere woightless. Your enemies will no longer feer you, cowardice will creep into your hearts". At this point a man enquired: "O Prophet of God (peace end blessings of Allah be upon you)! Whet will be the cause of this cowardico" i The Holy Prophet (peace end blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "The cause will be that you will grow to love the worldly life and hate death".

Hadrat Abu Huraira (God be pleased with him) reports that the Holy Prophet (peace and hiesings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"He who holds the reins of his herse firmly and rides to service the cause of Islam, lives the best life. From whichever spot the news of threat to the cause of Islam reaches him, he mounts his steed and rusbes thither. He is so fearless of death as if he is after it". (Muslim)

5. Women should also lead bard and strenuous life. They should perform all household chores with their own bands. They should form the hahit of being active and train themselves to bear hardships. They should abstain from being work-shy, indolent or voluptaoue. They should raise their children so as they learn to be sturdy, energetic and tough from the very beginning of their lives. Even when there are servants in hnme, do not encourage your children to depend on them for ndd jobs. Teach children to cultivate the habit of self-help. The ladies of the companions of the Hnly Prophet used to perform household tasks with their own hands. They would work in the kitchen ; they would grind at the millstone ; they fetched water for use in the home, washed clothes, sewed and led a strenuous life. In the hour of need, they took the responsihility of rendering medical aid to the wounded in the hattle-field and supplied water to the fighting forces. Hard work keeps women fit; it ensures the purity of their morals and the good example of the mothers serves as a model for character-huilding of their children. From the' Tslamic point of view, a good wife is the one who keeps herself husy in housekeeping tasks. She should he so angrossed in household activities that signs of exhaustion due to hard work, the blackness of the kitchen and tha sont of fire-smoke should be evident from her face. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) has stated : "I and the woman whose cheeks are hesmeared with

"I and the woman whose cheeks are heamcared with kitchen smoke will be close together on the Day of Resurrection". (While saying this, the Prophet made a sign hy joining his index finger with the middle finger).

6. Be an early riser. Keep ynur steeping hours within limits of propriety. Don't steep little, for in that case your hody will not get proper rest and your limbs will feel exhausted and weary. On the other hand, do not sleep for long hours, for in that case you will hecome lazy and inactive. Follow the maxim:

"Early to hed and early to rise" should be your motto of life.

Get up early in the morning and offers prayers to God.
Go for a stroll into the field or garden and relax there.

The fresh air of the morning has a salutary effect on health. Make it a point to do some light exercise daily according to your physical strength and endurance. The Holy Prophet (peace and hiesings of Allah be upon him) liked to divert himself by visits to the gardens. He used to go for a stroll in the garden once in a while. The Prophet (peace and hiesings of Allah be npon him) forbade to remain awake and engage in conversation after 'Isha' (night prayer) and observed:

"Only that person is permitted to remain awake after 'Isha' who is either engaged in talk concerning religion or has to discuss some important matter with the members of his household".

7. Learn self-control. Keep your passions, fancies, desires and lusts under control. Guard against your ideas gotting distracted or your eyes going astray. Peace of mind and contentment of the heart evaporate when the passions are given free rein and eyes begin to wander astray and the faces of such people lose all the heauty, grace and attractiveness of a yonthful man. Having lost these attributes, these persons prove to he timid, weak-minded and cowards in every sphere of life.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has stated:

"To esst a lascivious eye is the adultery of eyes and shameless talk is the adultery of tongue. Your lust presses a demand on you and your genitals either affirm or contradict this demand".

A sage observes :

- "O Muslims! Keep away from sin. Sin entails six evils; three evils relate to this world and the other three are concerned with the eternal world. Those evils that relate to this world are these:
  - Beauty and grace vanish from the face of man.

- The man is seized by the torment of poverty and destitution.
  - It shortens the life of man.
- Save yourself from intoxicants. They affect the brain as well as the stomach. Liquor, of course, is forbidden, hut you should refrain from using all other things having an intoxicating effect.
  - an intoxicating effect.
    9. Observe the rules of simplicity and moderation in all your activities. In physical labour, mental exertion, marital relations, eating, drinking, sleep and rest, anxiety, merriment, recreation, worship, walking and conversation —in short, in all your ectivities always follow a middle course, and regard it as the main source of virtue and wellbeing.

The Holy Prophet (pesce and blessings of Allsh be upon him) has said:

"How wonderful it is to be moderate in the mldst of plenty! And whet a fine thing it is to follow e middle course in deprivation, and what a better course it is to be moderate in offering prayers".

(Musnad Bazaz/Kanz al. Amāl)

10. Est at the proper time. Abstain from over-eating. Don't munch all the time. Take food only when you feel the appetite and stop eating before your stomach is filled, so that you should still feel slightly hungry when the meal is over. You must never indulge in over-cating. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"The believer fills only one intestine while the nonheliever eats to fill seven intestines". (Tirmidhi)

heliever eats to fill seven intestines". (Tirmidhi)
Good health depends on proper functioning of the stomach.
Over-eating makes the stomach sick. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) has explained this point in an allegory as follows ;

"The stomach servee as a cietern. The veins receive their life-hlood from this reservoir. Hence if the stomach is healthy, the veins will be irrigated with the juices of health, and in case the stomach is ill, the veins will only suck the juice of sickness".

(Bathaqi)

Percuading the people to be abstemious in taking food the Prophet of Ged (peace and hiersings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"One man's dinner is sufficient for two".

 Always eat simple fare. Eat whole wheat bread. Do not eat while the food is piping hot. Avoid spiced and pungent foods and have no unnecessary craving for tasty delicacies.

Make it a point to eat simple, easily digestible, nouriehing and healthful diet. Do not crave for delicious foods or foods that leave a pungent taste on the tongue.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) preferred whole wheat hread. He did not like hread made of soft flour or thin loaves. He never ate while the food was piping hot, but waited till it cooled. Referring to the eating of food while it is piping hot, the Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) sometimes observed:

'God has not ordained us to eat fire'; and some other time he would say :

"There is no virtue in eating piping hot food".

Meat (especially joints of leg, pieces of neck and flesh of the hackside) was the Prophet's (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) favourite food. In point of fact, meat is an important and essential food for the nourishment of body and for forging a bold attitude of mind; and the believers should always be bold of heart and sturdy in passion.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah he upon him) has affirmed:

"The person who died without fighting in the cause of Allah and had no desire for such fight has in a way died in the state of hypoerisy". (Muslim)

In the state of hypocrisy". (Muslim)

22. Eat in perfect peace of mind and in a relaxed mood and chew the food well. Avoid eating in a mood of sorrow, anger, anxiety or perplexity. The food that is eaten in a cheerful snd peaceful state of mind nourishes the body, whereas food that is guiped down in a state of anxiety or grief has an adverse effect on the stomach and afforda no strength to the body. Don't be silent, sad or woe-begone while taking meals nor show undue mirth by raising loud guffaws. Laughter during meals proves fatal sometimes.

Talk and laugh with moderation while taking meals. Eat in a pleasant and cheerful mood end offer thanks to the Almighty for His Blessed Provisions; end when ill, take every precaution with regard to your meals.

Umme Mundhir (mey God be pleased with her) relates:

"The Holy Prophet (peace end blessings of Allah he upon him) once visited me. Bunches of date-fruit were henging in the home. The Holy Prophet (peece and hleseings of Allah he npon him) plucked the fruit and started eating it. Hadrat 'Ali (God be pleased with him) did the same. The Holy Prophet (peece and blessings of Allah be upon him), however, forbade 'Ali (God be pleased with him) and said: "You have inst recovered from illness; you should not eat this fruit". So 'Ali God be pleased with him) stopped. Meanwhile, the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) continued to eat the fruit". Umm Mundhir (God be pleased with her) further relates: "Later, I cooked some barley and beet-root. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said to 'Ali (God be pleased with him): "'Ali, take this. This (Shama'il Tirmidhi) food will do you good".

When he (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) had a guest at meals, he (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to prompt the guest repeatedly to eat more and until he bad eaten to his fill and insisted on taking no more, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) then stopped to prompt him".

During meals, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) need to be engaged in amiable talk and maintained an atmosphere of joy and cordiality.

13. Take a nap after the the mid-day meal and go for a stroll after dinner. Avoid strenuous physical and mental exertion immediately after the meals. There is a well-known maxim in Arabic which runs thus:

تُفْدُىٰ تَمَدِّىٰ تَعَشَىٰ تَسَمَّىٰ تَسَمَّىٰ

Taghadda Tamadda, Ta'ashsha Tamashsha.

"Stretch out after the midday meal and take a stroll after taking dinner".

14. Take good care of your eyes. Don't expose your eyes to glaring light. Don't set your gaze upon the sun. Don't read in either faint or intense light. Always study ander a clear and soothing light. Avoid keeping yourself awaks for too long. Protect your eyes from filth and dust. Apply collyrium to your eyes and always try to keep your eyes cleau. Go for a walk in the fields, gardens and green pastures and amuse yourself. The eight of greenery has a pleasant effect on eyes. Gnard against casting evil glances, for this practice will dim the sparkle of your eyes and your genoral health will dectine. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has said:

"Your eyes have a right ou you".

It is, therefore, incumbent upon a believer to value this Divine blessing. He should use this blessing according to the will of the Almighty. He should be particular about the protection of his eyes and keeping them clean. He should nee all means which may be of benefit to his eyes and avoid everything that may cause injury to them. Similarly, the true heliever should take care to preserve the strength of other limbs and organs of his body. The Holy Prophet (peace end hleseinge of Allah be upon him) ohserved:

"O people! You should apply collyrium to your eyes. It clears away all wax from your eyes and helps in the growth of hair". (Tirmidhi)

15. Be careful shont dental hygiene and protect your teeth. Clean teeth keep you fresh, produce a good effect on digection and cleanliness makee the teeth firm too. Form the hahit of cleaning your teeth with a miswak (twig); use dental powder also. Don't spoil your teeth by too frequent chewing of hetel leef or nsing tohacco. Clean your teeth well after every meal.

Unclean teeth cause various diseases. It was customary with the Holy Prophet (peace and hleesings of Allah he npon him) that on getting np from sleep, he used to clean his teeth with a miswak (twig). (Apreed spon)

Hadrat 'A'isha (God be pleased with her) states:

"We used to keep the water for ablution and the mlewak (twig) ready for the nse of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him). By the will of God when the Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) got up from aleep he nsed to clean hie teeth with the miswak (twig). Later, he performed ablution and then offered prayers".

(Muslim)

Hadrat Anas (God be pleased with him) has reported that the Holy Prophet (peace and bleesings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"I have already laid much etress upon the need to clean your teeth with miewak (twig)". (Bukhari)

Hadrat 'A' isha (God be pleased with her) relates that the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) etated:

"The miewak (twig) cleans the mouth and the Lord is pleased by this act of cleanliness".

(Nasā'i) be upon

The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) is reported to have said:

"Had I not considered it a great inconvenience for my Ummah, I would have enjoined people to brush their teeth with a miswak (twig) before each prayer".

teeth with a miswak (twig) before each prayer".

(Abu Dawud)

Some Muslims once came to see the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him). Their teeth were unclean and were encrusted with yellow grease. Noticing this, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) said to them: "Your teeth look so yellow! You should clean them with a miswak". (Musnad Ahmad)

When the need arises to answer the call of nature fulfil it promptly. Delay in answering the call of nature affects the hrain and the stomach hadly.
 Pay full attention to keeping yourself pure, clean and tidy. The Holy Qur'an says:

"God's favourites are those who take great care in keeping themselves pure and clean". (At-Tauba)

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) has said :

"Cleanliness and purity are the half of Faith"

In view of the great importance of cleanliness and purity, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) has given detailed injunctions about neatness and has stressed the need for observing purity and cleanliness in every matter. Keep all articles of food under cover. Protect them from being soiled and keep the flies away. You should have clean ntensils. Keep your dress and hedcovers tidy and spotiessly clean. Keep your body clean hy performing allution and taking a bath. Cleanliness of hody, neatness of dress and tidiness of all articles of use is refreshing and pleasant for the soul. The hody also feels delightfully fresh. On the whole purity and neatness have a salutary effect on human health.

Hadrat 'Adi b. Hatim (God be pleased with him) stated:

"I always remain in state of ablution for each Salat (prayer) since I embraced Islam".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) once asked Hadrat Bilal (God be pleased with him): "How did you manage to reach Paradise before me yestorday !" Hadrat Bilal (God be pleased with him) submitted: "Whenever I proclaim the call for prayer, I invariably offer two Rak's at of Salat (prayer) and as soon as I am not in in a state of ablution, I perform ablution afresh and try to remain in this state siwsys".

Hadrat Abū Huraira (God be pleased with him) reports the Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) as having said:

"It is God's right upon every Muslim that he should take bath once a week and wash his head and body".

(Bukhari)

Etiquettes of Dress

 You should wear a dress which covers and protects your body and meets the requirements of modesty, honour and virtue. Your dress should also be an expression of culture, elegance and beauty. In respect of this blessing, God says in the Holy Qur'an:

Yabani Adama qad anzalnā alaikum libasan yuwāri saudtikum wa rīsha.

"O children of Adam! We have sent unto you raiments to conceal your shame and to serve as protection and decoration". (7:26)

As a matter of fact the word 'Rish' in the verse, literally means the wings of the bird. The wings of a bird lend beauty and grace to it and also serve as a means of protection for its body. The word, however, is commonly used when referring to beauty, elegance and fine dress. Of course the purpose of dress is to lend beauty and grace and to serve as protection against climatic effects. But the foremost use of dress is to cover private parts of the body. Alksh has inculcated modesty and diffidence in the nature of man. It was for this reason that when Hadrat Adam and Hadrat Hawwä (Evo) (peace be on both of them) were deprived of the elegant robes of Paradise, they began to use leaves of trees to cover their hodies. Hence consider this as the principal use of dress and choose a dress which conforms to the requirements of modesty. You should also make sure that your dress, hesides affording adequate protection against climatic conditions, should sho bo of such a style that it should lend an aura of grace, elegance and culture to your personality. Do not wear dress of a style which should make you an object of ridienle or provoke satirical comments among the people.

- 2. You should keep in mind while putting on clother that dress is a blessing which Allah has conferred on man only. It has been decied to all other living creatures. Offer thanks to Allah for this special favour and blessing. Endowed as you are with this distinctive bounty, you should never act contrary to the decrees of Allah or show ingratitude. Dress is a romackable favour from the Lord. While putting on dress, re-kindle this feeling in your heart and express your sense of gratitude in the words which the Hely Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) had taught to the believers.
- 3. Piety is the best apparel. Piety signifies purity of soul as well as righteous physical appearance. In other words you should wear dress of the kind which the Shari'sh has prescribed for the beliovers, which does not display arrogance or pride, which does not lend a feminine air to men nor a masculine appearance to women. The dress should be an emhlem of your righteousness and devotion to God. The women should strictly conform to the rules set by Shari'sh in respect of female dress and men must observe the laws of Shari'sh with regard to male dress.
- 4. Put on a new dress with feelings of joy. Name the cloth and acknowledge the munificence and blessing of Allah. Inspired by a sense of gratitude to the Lord, recite the prayer which the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to offer while putting on a new dress.

Hadrat Abū Sa'id Khudri (God be pleased with him) reports: "Whenever the Haly prophet (peace and hiesaings of Allah be upon him) put on a new dress, head dress shirt or a sheet covering, he used to recite the following prayer and insert the name of the garment in the recitation:

Allahumma lakal hamdu anta kasautanthi as'aluka khairahu wa khaira ma suni'a lahu wa a'udhu bika min sharrihi wa sharri ma suni'a lahu. (Abu-Dawud)

O God! Unto Thee helongeth ell praise. Even as Thou hast elothed me in this (garment), I sak of Thee the good thereof, and the good of that whorefor it hath heen made, and I seek refuge in Thee from the evil thereof, and the evil of that wherefor it hath been made.

The prayer bears the following meaning: God! Grant me the favour to use the dress which you have hestowed on me for the same purposes which you deem righteous. Grant me the favour to cover my modesty with this dress and to protect my soul and body sgainst immodesty and ahamelessness. Grant me the favour to make it a means of adornment and grace for my hody. God! Grant me the favour ta eschew displaying ostentation, pride or arrogance in dress and let me not transgress the hounds set by you in the use of dress by your slaves, both men and women.

Hadrat 'Umar (God be pleased with him) etasted:
"The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) abserved: "Whosoever puts an a new dress and has means, should give away his old dress to the poor. On wearing a new dress, a person should recite the following prayer:

َالْحَمْدُ لَنَٰهُ اللَّذِي كَسَانِي مَا أُوَارِي بِهِ عَوْرَتِيْ وَ اَنَجَمَّلُ بِهِ ۖ في حَالَىٰ .

Alhamdu lillah-il-ladhi kasāni mā uwart bihi 'aurati wa atajammalu bihi fi hayāti, Praise be to God Who clad me with that wherewith I cover my shame, and wherewith I adorn myself in my life.

Whosoever reads the shove prayer at the time of putting on a naw dress, Allah will keep him under His care and protection in this life and in the life Hereinafter?.

(Tirmidhi)

- 5. Take care to put on the dress with the right side first. While putting on the shirt, kurts, shervani or coat, wasr the right sleave first. Similarly while putting on a pyjama enter the right foot first. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) while putting on the shirt used to wear the right sleeve first and then put the left arm into the left sleeve. Similarly, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to put the shoe on his right foot first and then were the left shoe. On taking off his shoes, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) first took off his left foot and then the right one.
- 6. You must shake the garments before putting them on, lest there be deadly insect hidden in them which might cause you harm. Tho Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) was once wearing socks in a jungle. He put on a sook and was intending to put on the second one when a crow dived and carried off the sock. The crow soared to a great height and dropped the sock on the ground. The shock of landing threw out of the sock a anake which fell at some distance. On seeing this, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) offered thanks to Allah and observed: "It is the duty of e very Muslim that on intending to wear socks, he should chake them first". (Tabarani)

7. Wear white dress. White dress is ideal for men, especially. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Wear white dress. It is the best. You ought to wear white cloth in life and bnry your dead in a shroud made of white cloth". (Trimidht)

On another occssion, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) observed: "You should wear white elothes, for the white cloth stays eleaner and put your dead in white coffine".

The phrase 'white eloth stays cleaner' implies that white cloth showe off the slightest stain instantly, which a person may clean immediately. If the cloth is dyed, the stains will not be seen instantly. Honce a person will not pay immediate attention to wash a dyed garment.

It is recorded in Sahih Bukhari that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to wear white clothes. In other words, he (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) not only liked to put on white dress himself, but siso enjoined upon the male members of his Ummah to wear white clothes.

8. The length of your pyjama, lungi should fall above the ankles. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) holds such people as hopeless, the deprived ones and deserving of severe torment who out of pride and haughtiness let their pyjamas or lungis fall below their ankles. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed: "There are three types of people with whom God shall not speak on the Doomsday, nor look at them, nor will He admit them to Paradise after purifying them; rather God shall ordain a painful torment for them". Hadrat Abu Dhar Ghifari (God be pleased with him) submitted: "O Apostle of Allah (peace and plessings of Allah be upon you) who are these deprived and unfortunate people?" The Holy Prophet (peace and plessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"Firstly, he who out of pride and haughtiness lets his lower garments fall below his ankles.

Secondly, the man who reminds others of the favours, be has done to them.

And thirdly, the one who wishes to promote his business by misrepresentation on oath". (Muslim) Relating a personal anecdote, Hadrat 'Uhaid ibn Khalid (God he pleased with him) says: "I was once walking in the holy city of Medina when a voice said from behind: 'Lift up your lower garment-by so doing a man not only guards himself from physical filth but also from the imparity of soul". Looking over my sholuder, I saw the Apoetle of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). I submitted : "O Apostle of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you) ! It is a simple sheet of cloth that I am wearing. How can it show haughtiness and pride ?" The Holy Porphet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "Is it not obligatory for you to follow my example 1" On hearing these words of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), my eves at once fell towards bis lower garment and I saw that the length of his garment fell to the middle of his calf".

The Holy Prophet's (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observation that 'by keeping the length of his pyjama or lower garment above the ankles the man is guarded against not only physical dirt hut also impurity of soul, is highly significant. It implies that when the length of a garment falls helow the aukles, it gathers filth from the ground and hecomes dirty. Soiled clothes are always offensive to a person of neat and clean taste. Moreover, the habit of wearing garments whose length falls below the a nkles hetrays arrogance and pride and, these two evils are symptoms of the impurity of soul. These considerations apart, the Qur'anic injunction The life of the Prophet is the best example for you to follow' should suffice for a pious believer.

According to a tradition reported by Abū Dāwud, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him has given warning of terrible punishment for this offense. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "The pious boliever should wear the length of his 'lower garment' up to the middle of his celf; there is no harm If the length falls to the ankles; but any part of the length which falls below the ankles shall burn in the fire. And on the Doomsday, God shall not even look at the man who out of pride and arrogance wears an apparel whose length falls below his ankles".

9. Do not wear silk. Garments of silk are befitting for females only. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has strictly forbidden men to wear female dress or to put on effininate airs.

Hadrat 'Umar (God be pleased with him) reports that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Do not wear silk garments, for he who wears them in this world shall not wear them in the next" (Bukhari, Muslim). The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) once observed to Hadrat 'Ali (God be pleased with him):

"Cut this silk cloth into scarves and distribute them among these Fatimas". (Muslim)

2) 'Ratimaha' refers to following three illustrious ladies:

(i) Fatimah Zehra (God be pleased with her), favourite daughter of the Holy Frophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and the wife of Hadrat 'Ali (God be pleased with him).

him) and the wife of Hadrat 'All (God be pleased with him).

(ii) Fatimah bint Asad (God be pleased with her) august mother of Hadrat Ali (God be pleased with him).

(iii) Fatimah (God be pleased with ber) the daughter of Hadrat Hanza, the uncle of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him).

This also shows that silk dress is desirable for women. It was for this reason that the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allsh he npon him) urged Hadrat 'Ali (God he pleased with him) to cut the silk cloth into scarres for the ladies, otherwise the cloth could have heen used for some other pnrpose.

10. Women should not wear thin dress which should make their forms visible, nor should they put on a tightly fitting dress which might make their figures prominent and alluring. In this way, they would be exposing their hodies, despite having worn garments. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he npon hlm) has warned such immodest women of dire pnishment.

"Women who are nude in apite of having garments on them who allure others and are allured by others shall he consigned to Hell. Their heads are awry like the humps of the Bakht (c-i*) camels because of their coquettish poature. These women shall not enter Paradise, nor shall enjoy the sweet odour of Paradise, although the sweet odour of Paradise can he savoured from a long distance off". (Riyad-us-Satikin)

On one occasion, Hadrat Asma' (God he pleased with her) arrived in the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) wearing thin clothes. On seeing her, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) turned his face at once and observed:

"Aams' when a woman comes of age it is not lawful for her to expose any part of her hody except face and handa".

11. When wearing a Tehbund or pyiama do not lie down or sit in such a posture as to make prominent or lay bare any part of your body. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) has observed: "Do not walk with one shoe on. Do not equat with one knee raised while you are wearing a Tehbund. Do not eat with your left hand. Do not wrap np your whole body in a sheet in such a manner as to make it impossible for you to move your hands freely for performing your work or for offering prayers. Do not lie flat and put one leg over the other lest it should uncover your body.

12. Men and women should not adopt the same fashions in dress. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: "Allah sends curses on those men who adopt femunine fashions and Allah curses such women who adopt a masculine style". (Bukhari)
Hadrat Ahū Huraira (God be pleased with him)

Hadrat Ahū Huraira (God be pleased with him) states: "The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has pronunced a curse upon a male who puts on female dress and has cursed a female who dresses herself in masculine fashion". (Abū Dāwād)

Someone once mentioned to Hadrat 'A'isha (God ba pleased with her) that there was a certain woman who woro masculine shoes, whereupon Hadrat 'A'isha (God he pleased with her) observed: "The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has pronounced a curse upon such womou who adnpt masculine habita".

13. The women must cover themselves with a scarf and keep their head and bosom veiled. They should not wear scarf of such transparent stuff as to reveal their hair. The scarf is meant to veil the beauty of the person. God ordains in the Holy Qur'an:

Walyddribna bikhumurihinna ʻalā juyübihinna. (24:31)

"And draw their veils nver their hosoms".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be

The noty Propose (peace and Diessings of Allah be upon him) once received fine Egyptian voil. He (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) out nut a piece and handing it to Wahya Katbi (God ba pleased with him) observed: "Gut a piece and make a shirt for yourself and give the other piece to your wife to use as a searf, but tell her to stitch another layer of cloth under it so that her form may not he exposed to view". (Abū Dāwūd)

Bearing this clear injunction of the Holy Book and dunnah in mind, yon should scrupulously follow the purport of Divine Command. Do not make a mookery of the Ordinance of Allah and His Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) by wearing only a small strip of cloth around your neek.

Hadrat 'Ā'isha (God he pleased with her) states:
"When this injunction was revealed, the women discarded thin garments. They cut their sources out of coarse cloth".

(Abū Dāwūd)

14. Dress yourself in keeping with your means and status. Do not dress up to show off vanity and to display an attitude of haughtiness towards others or to make an indecent show of your affluence. On the other hand, your dress should not cost more than your means permit, for thus you will be guilty of the sin of extravagance. Do not look shahby and crest-fallen so as to make an impression of penury and helplessness apon others. Do not make a show of destitution, despite having everything, Put on proper, suitable and neat garments in keeping with your means and position. Some people appear destitute by wearing rags or patched garments and consider it piety or virtue. Moreover, they view those who nut on clean and nest dress as worldly minded and irreligious. This conception of religion is wholly fallacious. Hadrat Abu al-Hasan 'Ali Shazli (God he pleased with him) was once clad in very fine clothes. A destitute Sufi took excention to this elegant turn out of Hadrat Shazli (God be merciful to him) and remarked: "What need have the servants of God to put on such elegant dress?" Hadrat Shazlî (God he merciful to him) answered: "Brother, I have put on this elegant dress to express my gratitude and homage to the Grand and Magnificent Allah, Your shabby appearance is a show of misery. You appear as if you were begging alms from the people". In reality, virtue does not consist in wearing rage, patched garments or clothes of inferior quality, nor does it require wearing huxurious apparel. The ingredients of virtue are the pious intentions and right thinking of the man. The truth is that every man should adopt a moderate and balanced attitude in all matters in consonance with his means and position. He should not let his soul grow dull hy putting on destitute airs, nor should he display vanity and pride-by wearing resplendent garments.

Hadrat Abul Ahwaş (God be merciful to him) reports a tradition from his father, "Once I went to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). I was then clad in very ordinary and mean dress. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) asked me: "Do you possees wealth and means!" I submitted: "Yes, I do". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) then enquired: "What kind of goods of Allah be upon him) then enquired: "Allah has blessed me with all kinds of goods, camels, cows, goats, horas beeides slaves". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "When Allah bas blessed you with wealth and means, your person should manifest His Bounty and Favour". (Mishkat)

The implication is that when God has conferred ample means to you, why do you put on the garb of a beggar and destitute person? This is an act of ingratitude to God.

Hadrat Jübir reports: "Once the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) visited our house to see us. He (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) chanced to see a man who was covered all over with dust; his hair was dishevelled. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Does this man possess no comh with which to set his hair?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) then happened to see a man who was clad in a dirty dress. whereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Does this man not possess" even that (soap etc.) with which to wash his clothes clean".

(Mishkel)

A man submitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), "O Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you)! I like to have fine clothes and I like to dress my hair with oil, and wear nice shoes......' In this manner, he named several niceties he was fond of and oven montioned that he wished that his lash should also be of the best quality. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) listened to his conversation and then observed: "All these things are desirable, and God viows this tine taste with favour."

Hadrat 'Abdullah b. 'Umar (God be pleased with him) states: "I submitted to the Holy Apostle of Allah 'O Apostle of Allah le upon you.] Would I be guilty of vanity and haughtiness if I wore fine and nice clothes?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of of Allah be upon him) observed: "No, it is elegant to wear nice dress and elegance of dress pleases Allah". (Ibn Mājah)

The following tradition has also been reported by Hadrat 'Abdullah b. 'Umar (God he pleased with him): "The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: Put on both garments when saying prayers (in other words, dross yourself in full suit). Man owes it to God more than to any one elso that he should go into His presence in his best apparel and the neatest state". (Mishkat)

Hadrat 'Abdullah b. Mas'üd (God be pleased with him) states: "The Holy Prophet (peace and hissings of Allah be upon him) observed: He who has a little bit of pride in his heart shall not enter Paradise". A man submitted: "Every man wishes that he should put on fine clothes and wear nice shoes". The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "God Himself is Graceful and elegance pleases Him. In other words, elegant dress does not connote haughtiness, Haughtiness consists in ignoring the rights of others and looking down upon others as mean and base". (Muslim)

15. Observe good taste and propriety in dress and make-up. It is improper and offensive to good taste to go about with shirt unbuttoned at the chest, to wear buttons without proper arrangement, to roll up one leg of the trousers and keep the other down, to walk with one shoe on or to keep the hair dishevelled.

One day, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was seated in the mosque whon a man with dichevelled hair and unkempt beard came into his presence. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) made a gesture with his hand towards the man signifying that he should go and est the hair of his head and beard. The man went away and returned having settled his hair in better shape. Whereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) remarked: "Isn's it better to look elegant and exquisite than to wear unkempt hair? A man with dishevelled hair wears the look of the dovi!".

(Mishkut)

Hadrat Abu Huraira (God be pleased with him) states: "The Holy Prophet (peace and bleasings of Allah be upon him) observed: No one should walk with one shoe on; either wear both shoes or take off both".

(Tirmidh!)

It is in the light of this tradition that the 'Ulama have forbidden the wearing of only one sleeve or only one sock.

 Avoid wearing, red, gaudy or resplendent dress or showy black or yellow apparel. Red, gaudy and resplendent dress is suited only to women and even women should observe proper rules about wearing such dress. As regards assuming superior airs by donning flowing robes and yellow garments, for the sake of displaying one's distinction, it is a sure sign of pride and haughtiness. Similarly, do not put on strange and funny clothes which may lend you an outlendish appearance and you may become an object of public ridicule.

17. Always put on simple, dignified, civilized dress and spend moderately on your clothes. Avoid luxury and oxtavagant finesse in matters of dress. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed:

"Keep away from luxury, for the favourites of God are no lovers of ease and luxury". (Mishkat)

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) also affirmed: "Allah will adorn that man with the dress of honour and nobility who, in spite of possessing means and power, observes simplicity in dress out of humility and obedience to God". (Abū Dāwūd)

The illustrious companions (God he pleased with them) were one day sitting in company discussing worldly matters. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah eupon him) remarked: "Simplicity of dress is one of the signs of Faith". (Abi Dawūd)

Once the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "There are many a servant of God in the world whose ontward appearance is humble; their hair is dishevelled and dusty and their dress is ordinary and simple, yet in the sight of God their stature is very high. Should they take oath on something, Allah fulfils their oath. Bra' b. Malis (God be pleased with him) is one among this type of people". (Tirmidhi)

18. Give clothes to the destitute by way of expressing thanks to the Lord for having conferred the bounty of dress on you. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed: "Whosoever gives clothes to a Muslim to cover his body, Allah shall clothe that man on the Day of Judgement in the green dress of Paradise".

(Abū Dāwūd)

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) also affirmed: "A Muslim who gives clothes to another Muslim shall be afforded protection and safety hy Allah as long as those clothes serve as a covering for the body of the beneficiary". (Tirmidhi)

 Give fine clothes according to your means to your servants and slaves who serve you day and night.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "The slaves, male and female, are your brothers and sisters. God has given them under your charge. Hence to whomsoever Allah has given power and control over some one, he should give him the same to eat as he eats himself and the same kind of dress to wear as he wears himself and he should not give him work to do which is beyond his capacity, and should the slave be unable to cope with the load of work, the master should share his burden."

(Bukhari, Muslim)

Etiquettes of Eating and Drinking

- Wash your hande before taking your meals. It is in keeping with the rules of cleanliness and neatness that your mind should be eatisfied about the cleanliness of your hands before starting the meal.
- 2. Say (رحم الرحم) Bismilla hirrahhamā nirrahtm 'In the Name of Allah, the Most Beneficeut; the Most Merciful', while starting the meal. Should you forget this, then say we realise the oversight during the meal. Remember, the meal which is not consecrated by the Name of Allah is made lawful by the devil for himself.
- 3. Do not lean against anything when sitting down for a meal. Sit in a humble position with your knees raised or legs crossed or with one knee prostrate and the other one raised. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to sit for meals in this posture.
- 4. Always eat with your right hand. However, the left hand may be used simultaneously with the right hand, if needed.

  5. Use three finears while enting. If required was found

    19. Take three breathing pauses while drinking water. By
    - 19. Take three breathing pauses while drinking water. By this method you can drink according to your need and get full satisfaction. Beware, drinking sill the water there is in the container in one breath may be harmful.
    - 20. While eating in company pay due regard to the needs of the slow diners as well as those who eat et a rapid pace and rise only when all others have stopped eating.

- When you have finished eating, lick your fingers and then wash your hands.
- Do not pick up two pieces or alices at once while eating fruit.
- 23. Do not drink water from the spout of a water pot or a goblet etc. Drink from such a container that you may clearly see the water that you are pouring into your mouth in order that no filth or harmful substance goes into your stomach.
- 24. Say this prayer at the end of the meal:
  - ٱلْحَمْدُ للهِ ٱلَّذِي ٱطْعَمَنَا وَ سَقَانَا وَ جَعَلَنَا مِنَ ٱلْمُسْلِمِينَ .

Alhamdu lillahil ladhī at'amanā wa saqānā wa ja'alanā min-al-Muslimīn.

"Praise be to God Whn fed ue and gave us drink and made us Muslims".

Etiquettes of going to bed and getting up

 When the dusk falls call your children inside and do not permit them to play outside the home. It is as not to let the children go out at night except in the of an urgent need. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed;

"When the night falls stop your children at home, for at this hour evil spirits stalk the earth. However, after an hour has passed you may permit the children to move out".

At the hour of nightfall, say the following prayer. The Holy Apostle (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to instruct his Companions (God be pleased with them) to say the same.

Allahumma bika amsainā wa bika ashahnā wa bika nahyā wa bika namutu wa ilaikan-nushūr. (Tirmidhi)

"O God! with Thy help do we enter upon the morning and with Thy help do we enter upon the evening. With Thy help do we live and with Thy help do we die. And unto Thee shall be the Resurrection".

At the hour of the call for Maghrib (evening) prayer, say thie prayer :

Allahumma hādha iqbalu laūlika wa idbaru naharika wa aswātu du'ātika faghfirlt. (Tirmizi, Abu-Daud)

"God, this is the honr of the approach of Thy night and the departure of Thy day and this is the time of Thy Mu'addhin's call. Hence grant me salvation".

- 3. Do not go to bed-before saying 'Asha prayers. Often the 'Asha prayer may be missed if you take a nap before, prayer for who knows God will return life to man after this aleep (akin to death) or God forfeits his life for ever while he slumbers in death-like sleep. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) did not like to sleep in a house which was not lit up at night.
- Soon after the fall of night, light up your homes. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) abstained from sleeping in a honse which was not lit up at night.
- 5. Do not keep awake till late hours in the night. Adopt the habit of going to bed early at night and rising early at dawn. The Holy Apostle (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed in this regard: "After the time of 'Asha prayers, yon may either keep awake for the purpose of remembering God or to talk over necessary matters with the members of household".
- 6. Abstain from keeping awake at night and making up for sleep during the day. God has appointed the night a time for peace and rest. He has made the day a time for keeping awake and a time for labour to earn one's living. Sursh al-Furqan (47) affirme:

Wa huwalladhi ja'ala lakumul laila libasan wannauma subatan wa ja'alannahara nushura.

"And He it is Who created night a covering for you and sleep for repose and made the day (a time for) waking up".

And Surah-An Naba affirms :

Wa ja'alnd naumakum subatan wa ja'alndi laila libasan waja'aln-annahdra ma'dshd.

"And We made your sleep for repose and We made the night a covering and We appointed the day for livelihood". And in Surah al-Namal (86) God says:

Alam yarau annā ja'alnallaila liyaskunā fihi wannahāra mubsiran inna fi dhalika laāyātil liqaumiyyuminān.

"Have they not observed how We have made the night that they may rest therein and the day bright (so that they may strive during its course). No doubt, there are signs in it for a people who believe".

The implication of making the night dark so as to serve as a time of peace and rest and making the day bright so that man may lahour and strive is that one should keep a strict schedule of sleeping at night and working hard for earning one's livelihood during the day. In the light of day devote yourself energetically to work and make strenuous efforts to earn your living till your faculties and limbs begin to feel tired. Then in the night when an atmosphere of peace and privacy reigns, repose in bed in a calm and comfortable state. As soon as dawn breaks, arise and invoking the blessings of God enter the field of practical endeavour with renewed vigour. People who due to indolence and letbargy drone in day time or keep awake throughout night enjoying sensuous pleasures and making merry are guilty of violating the law of natore. They ruin their health and undermine their lives. Those who sleep long during the hours of the day not only neglect their daily work hut also deprive their body and soul of necessary repose and calm; for sleep during the day cannot serve as an alternative for repose at night in providing rest and nourishment. The Apostle of God (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) even disapproved of the idea that a man should remain awake all night for offering worship to God and thus suffer an unbearable trial.

The Apostle of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) once said to Hadrat 'Abdullah b. 'Amir (God be pleased with him): "Is it true what I have heard that you regularly keep fast during the day and pass all night in offering prayers?" Hadrat 'Abdullah (God be pleased with him) submitted: "I confess this true". The Holy Propbet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "No, don't go on like that. Keep fast sometimes and eat and drink at other times. Similarly get some sleep and then rise and say prayers. You owe a duty to your eye".

7. Do not sleep on a very soft bed. The true believers should forbear love of ease, indolence and luxurious living in the world. Life is a Jihad (struggle) for the true believers. The true believers should, therefore, follow an energetic, strenuous and a bardworking pattern of life. Ḥaḍrat ʿĀ'isha (God be pleased with her) related: The Holy Prophet (peace and bleesings of Allah be upon him) slept on a bed made of a hide-skin filled with the bark of a palm tree".

(Shama'il Tirmidhi)

Someone asked Hadrat Hafsa (God be pleased with her):

"What kind of a bed did you make for the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) in your house i" She replied : "There was a canvas cloth which wo used to fold up and spread under the Hely Prophet (neace and blessings of Allah be upon him). One day, I thought that if I folded the cloth into four layers it would make a rather soft bed. So I folded up the canvas into four layers and spread it for the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) to sleep on. Next morning the Apostle (neace and blessings of Allah be upon him) enquired: "What was it that you spread beneath me last night ?" I submitted : "It was the same canvas cloth. However. I had folded it up into four layers to make a softer bed". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "No, keep it folded in two layers. The softness of the bed proved a hinderance in rising up for midnight prayers last night".

(Shama'il Tirmidhi)

Hadrat 'Ā'isla (God be pleased with her) reports:

"One day a lady from the Ansīr visited our house and saw the bed of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). Sho returned home and prepared a bedding and heavily padded it with wool to make it sortra soft. She sent it as a gift for the Holy Apostle (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). When the Holy Apostle (peace and blessings of Allah the upon him) returned home, he saw the bedding and enquired: "What is it?" I submitted: "O Progress of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), so and so lady from the Ansār came and saw your bed.

She went hack and has sent this hedding as a gift for you."
The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) said: "No, return it to her". I liked that hedding so much that I did not really want to return but the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) insisted so hard that I had to send it back to the lady".

(Shama'il Tirmidhi)

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him) was one day sleeping on a mat. Because of this, the mat impressed some marks on his august hody. Hadrat 'Abdullah h. Mas'ud (God he pleased with him) relates: "On seeing the marks of mat on his hody I hroke into tears". The Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah be upon him) looked at me and enquired: "Why do you weep !" I suhmitted: "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah he upon you)! I The Emperors of Rome and Persia rest on silk and velvet cushins and you go to sleep on such a rough mat". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "There is no point for weeping in it. They love the world and we erave for the Hereafter".

On one occasion, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "How can I lead a luxurious, easy and earefree life while the angel Iarafil with a trumpet to his lips, with ears open, head bowed, stands waiting for the Lord's Command to hlow the trumpet to usher in the Day of Doom". (Trimidht)

The precedent of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) requires the trae believers to lead a strenuous life in the world and to shatsin from luxurious, earefree living.

8. Perform shlutions before going to bed and sleep in a clean and pure state. If your hands are greasy with fat, wash them well before going to bed. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has said: "The person whose hands are greased with fat and goes to sleep without washing his hands had only himself to blame if he comes to harm (if he is hitten by some insect)".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to perform ablation before going to sleep. On occasions when he wanted to sleep while in a state when a hath is ohligatory, then he used to wash the unclean part and go to bed after performing ablutions.

9. When going to bed, close the doors of your house, extinguish the wick lamp or lantern, and put out the burning fire. Once fire broke out in the home of a person in Medinah at night. On that occasion, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) enjoined upon the people: "Fire is your enemy. Be careful to put it out before going to bed".

The Apostle of God (peace and blessings of Aliah be upon him) further observed: "Do not permit your little children to go out at the hour of evening, for at that hour evil spirits stalk the earth. When an hour or so of the night has passed, let them go out if need be. Close your doors at night reciting and permit (Bismillah) the name of God and extinguish the light after reciting and permit (Bismillah) Ood's name, and tie the mouth of the waterskin with the recital of all permit (Bismillah) God's name and again recite all permit (Bismillah) the name of God and cover the vessels in which you eat and drink. If there is no cloth cover available for this purpose, cover the pots and pans with something else.

10. Take carc to keep the following things within reach of your bed, at the time of going to sleep. Drinking water and a glass, a Jug, a stick, a box of matchea or torch for lighting purposes, a miswak (twig for cleaning the teeth), a towel etc. If you are staying as a guest in a home, ask the host for directions to toilet rooms etc. You may thus save unnecessary inconvenience if a sudden need arises during the night. Seven things were always kept ready near the bed when the Holy Prophet (reace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was in repose: (1) A bottle of oil. (2) A comb. (3) Collyrium container. (4) Sciesors. (5) A Twig for cleening the teetb. (6) a Mirror. (7) And a small wooden needle used for scratching the bead etc.

- 11. Keep your chose and clothee near at hand while going to bed. This will save you the trouble of looking for them on arising. Do not put on shoes at once after leaving the bed. Similarly, do not put on clothes without ebsking them brickly. It is possible that some deadly insect may have crept into your shoes or clothes and, God forbid, may cause you harm.
- 12. Clean and give a brisk sbake to your bed covere before lying down for sleep. If you get up from sleep to answer a need and return to bed, chake the bed covers once egain. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessinge of Allab be upon him) observed: "When a person leaves the bed at night and returns to it again, he should dust it thrice with the edge of his wrapping cloth, for he doee not know what creature may have orept on to the bed in hie absence".

13. Say the following prayer, when you get into bed. The Prophet's (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) close attendant. Hadrat Auss (God be pleased with him) reports that on going to bed, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to offer the following prayer:

الْحَمْدُ للهُ اللَّذِي اَطْعَمَنا وَ سَقَاناً وَ كَفَاناً وَ اَوَانَافَكُمْ مِمَّنْ لا تَسَنَد مَا اللَّذِي اللَّهِ اللَّه

لَا كَافَى لَهُ وَلاَ مُـوْوِى . وشمائل ترمذى،

Alhamdu lillahil·ladhi at'amanā wa saqānā wa kafānā

Praise be to God Who gave as food and drink, provided us sufficiently, and gave us (a place for) shelter! How many there are who have neither a provider nor shelterer".

14. Recite some portion of the Holy Qur'an at the time of going to hed. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) invariably used to recite a portion of the Holy Qur'an before going to sleep. The Apostle of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed: "God sends an angel to a man who recites a portion of the Book of Allah on going to sleep to protect him from all harm till the time of his rising". (Ahmad)

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) has further observed: "When a man lies down on the bed, an angel and the devil call on him. The angel says to him: "Close thy deeds of the day with a virtuous act". And the devil says: "Close thy deeds of the day with an evil act". If that man then recites the name of God hefore going to sleep, the angel stands guard over him all night".

Hadrat 'A'isha (God be pleased with her) has reported:
"When the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) went to bed, he used to join his hands in the style of prayer and having recited the Suraha الناس الناس العاملة العاملة العاملة المعاملة ال

15. While going to sleep adopt the following posture: Put your right hand under the right cheek and burn on the right side of the body before falling asleep. Hadrat Brs., (God be pleased with him) relates: "The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to rest in this posture that his right hand lay under his right cheek. At the moment of taking ropose the Apostle (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him) used to say the following prayer:

Rabbi qini 'adhabaka yauma tab'athu 'ibadaka.

"O God! Save me from Thy doom on the day Thou wilt raise Thy bondmen".

Hisn Hasîn records that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) used to recite this prayer three times.

16. Do not lie down on your belly nor take a turn on the left side of your body when going to sleep. The father of Hadrat Mu'ish Tafkhat al-Ghifari (God be pleased with him) relates: "I was lying on my helly in the mosque. Presently a person startled me with a touch of his foot and ohserved: "God disapproves of this posture of lying down." When I looked up I saw the person of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him)".

(Abû Dāwûd)

- 17. Sleep in a place where fresh air is accessible. Do not sleep in closed rooms where there is no opening for letting in fresh air.
- 18. Do not keep your face covered when asleep. This habit is harmful to health. Sleep with your face uncovered so that you may inhale fresh air.
- 19. Take care not to sleep on roofs which are not surrounded with a ridge of the wall or railing. Put on light before stepping down the stairs as a little oversight often causes grave consequences.
- 20. Even in the freezing cold, do not keep the stove burning while you are asleep, nor keep the lantern on in a closed room. The gases produced by fire are deeply injurious to death. 21. Say the following prayer before falling asleep. Hadrat

Abû Hurairs (God be pleased with him) has reported: "The Apostle of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to say this prayer before going to sleep :

Bi-ismika Rabbi wada'tu janbi wa bika arfa'uhu in amsakta nafsi farhamhā wa in arsaltahā fahfazhā bima takfazu biki 'ibādakas-sālihin. (Bukhari, Muslim)

"In Thy name, my Lord! I lay my side (on the hed) and in Thy name I raise it. If Thon withhold my soul, then have mercy thereon. If Thou send it back, then guard it even as Thou doest guard Thy righteons hondmen".

In case memory does not retain this prayer, here is a brief prayer :

Allahumma bismika amutu wa ahya. (Bukhari, Muslim)

"O God !. In Thy name do I live and die".

22. Form the habit of waking np in the small hours of the night. It is essential to rise in the last quarter of the night and remember God to master your desires and physical demands and to establish communion with God. The distinctive trait of the favourities of God, as God has Himself affirmed, is that they wake up in the night and how in humility the God and make prostrations and seek His forgiveness for their sins. It was the custom of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) to repose in the early part of the night and to get up in the small hours and engage himself in devotion to God.

23. Say this prayer on arising from sleen :

Alhamdu lillahil-ladht ahyānā ba'da mā amātanā wa ilaihin-nushūr (Bukhari Muslim)

"Praise be to God Who restored us unto life, having caused us to die and unto Him shall be the Resurrection".

24. Offer thanks to the Lord on seeing a happy dream and take it as a good omen in your favour. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "Prophethood now bears glad tidings and nothing besides". The people enquired : "What do the glad tidings signify?" The Apostle of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "A happy dream". (Bukhari). The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) further remarked : "Whoever is the more truthful among ye will see a more truthful dream". The Prophet (peace and blessinge of Allah be upon him) instructed the people, "Offer thanks to the Lord and praise Him whenever you see a happy dream, And relate your happy dreams and relate them to your friends only". Whenever the Hely Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) saw a happy dream, he related it to his companione (God be pleased with them) and he used to say to his friends (God be pleased with them) : "Recount your dreams to me and I shall tell you the interpretation". (Bu' ....)

25. Invoke blessings frequently upon the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). Perchance God may hless you with a vision of His Apostle (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him).

Hadrat Maulana Muhammad 'Ali Mongiri (may God show him mercy) once asked Hadrat Fazol Rahman Ganj Muradabadi (may God show him mercy). "Teach me some special Darūd (prayer of Benediction) by which I may win the favour of being blessed with the vision of the Hely Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him)". Hadrat Fazol Rahman Ganj Muradabadi replied: "Thore is no special prayer of Benediction. You need to cultivate deep devotion only". Later after some deliberation he observed: "However, with the following Benediction Hadrat Syed Hassan (may God show him mercy) won his object:

Allahumma salli 'ala Muhammadin wa 'itratihi bi'adadi bulli ma'lümin laka.

"God! shower Thy Grace npon Muhammad and his family to the ultimate extent of numbers which are in Thy Knowledge".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon bim) observed: "He who sees my vision in dream actually sees me, for the devil cannot appear in my form".

(Shama'il Tirmidhi)

Hadrat Yazid Fārsī (may God show him mercy) nos blessed with the vision of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be npon him) in a dream. Hadrat Ibn 'Abbas (God be pleased with him) was alive at that time. Hadrat Yazid (may God abow him mercy) mentioned bis dream to him. Therenpon Hadrat Ibn' Abbas (God be pleasem to him. Therenpon Hadrat Ibn' Abbas (God be pleasem to him.

ed with him) related this tradition to him, "Whoever sees my vision in a dream actually sees me, for the devil can never appear in my form". Then 'Ahbas (God he pleased with him) asked Yazid (may God show him mercy) : "Can you describe the appearance of the person you saw in your dream ?" Hadrat Yazid (may God show him mercy) recounted: "His frame and height were of fine proportions. He had a brown complexion inclined towards fairness. had dark eyes and a smiling, handsome, round face. He had a thick beard covering his whole visage and flowing down to and spreading over his bosom". Hadrat Ihn 'Abbas (God he pleased with him) affirmed : "Yes, if you had seen the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be apon him) in his life you could not have given a better description of him" (i.e. The description given by you resembles the actual appearance of the Apostle (peace and blessings of Allah be upon himi". (Shama'il Tirmidhi)

26. When, God forbid, you see an unhappy or terrifying dream, never relate it to any one. Beseech God to protect you from the menace of the dream. If it pleases God, you shall remain free from the evil of the dream. Hadrat Abu Salama (God be pleased with him) relates: "I often used to fall ill on seeing unhappy dreams. One day, I described my complaint to Hadrat Abu Qatada (God be pleesed with him) who related to me the following tradition of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him): "A happy dream is a blessing from God. If any of you sees a happy dream, he should not relate it to any one besides his sincere friend. If any of you eees a had dream, he should not mention it to any one. On the other hand, as soon as he wakes from sleep he should recite "الشَّيطَانُ he wakes from sleep he should recite الرَّجِم and breathe a 'tut-tut' towards his left side and then take a turn over to the other side. In this manner, be will remain safe from the menace of the dream".

27. Do not relate false dreams conceived by your own imagination. Hadrat 'Abdullah b. 'Abbas (God be pleased with him) states that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "The person who relates concocted dreams which he has not seen shall be awarded a punishment to bind two grains of harley in a knot and he will never be able to do it". (Muslim)

And the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "It is a great calumny that a man should relate what he has not seen with his own eyes".

(Bukhari)

28. When a friend relates his dream to you, give him a favourable interpretation and say a prayer to invoke the blessings, the blessing of God upon him. A man once related his dream to the Holy Prophet (peace and bleesings of Allah be upon him). He observed: "You have seen a good dream and it shall have a happy outcome".

After the dawn prayers the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to sit cross-legged and asked the people to relate to him if anyone had seen a dream and before lietening to anyone's dream, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah' be upon him) used to observe this saying:

Khairan talaqqāhu wa sharran tawaqqāhu wa khairan lanā wa sharran 'alā ā'da'inā walhamdu lillahi rabbil 'ālamīn.

"May the goodness of this dream be bestowed on you and may you be protected from its menace. May this dream prove favourable to us and may it bring curse upon our enemies. Praise and thanksgiving is due to God alone Who is the Lord of all worlds". 29. If a dream strikes feelings of terror into you or an awkward dream perplexes you, you should recite the

29. If a dream strikes feelings of terror into you or an awkward dream perplexes you, you should recite the following prayer to get rid of fear or perplexity and ask your grown-up children also to learn it by heart.

Hadrat 'Abdullah b. 'Amr b. al 'As (God be pleased with him) related that whenever a person saw a terrible or awkward dream, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) in order to resolve his perplexity used to instruct him to say the following prayer:

وابوداۋد ، ترمذى»

A'udhu bikalimatillahittāammati min ghadabiht wa iqābiht wa sharri 'ibadiht wa min hamazatishshayātini wa anvahdurān.

"I seek the protection of the perfect words of God against His wrath and anger and punishment, against the ovil-doings of His creatures, against the fears of ovil spirits and against the possibility that these evil spirits or their fears should assail me".

Etiquettes of Walking

- Walk on a medium pace in the way. Do not rush to become, an object of ridicule for the onlookers, nor drag your feet ac wearily that people might think you are ill and start making anxious enquiries after your health. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to take long steps when walking and placed his feet firmly on the ground; he never dragged his feet in the course of walking.
- 2. Walk with poise and dignity with eyes cast down. Do not continue to look sideways at everything along the path. It is childish and improper. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to walk with his holy self inclined forward as if he were descending a slope. He (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to move with dignity at a rather quick pace and kept an alert but self-possessed posture of body. He (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) never looked sideways, right or left, on the road.
- 3. Walk humbly with even steps. Do not walk arrogantly and proudly. You can't split the earth with a kick nor are you going to scale the heights of mountains. What is the reason, then, for striking arrogant and haughty postures in walking?
- 4. Walk with shoes on. Do not walk bare foot. Shoes protect the feet from injury by thorns, pobbles or other harmful bits and pieces lying on the way, as well as from the bites of deadly insects. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "Keep your shoes on most of the time. A person who keeps his shoes on is a kind of rider".

- 5. Be mindful of good taste, propriety and dignity when walking along the road. Walk with both shoes on, or with hoth feet hare. It is ridiculous to walk with a shoe on one foot and the other foot hare. Observe utmost care not to display such had taste or improper hehaviour unless it is absolutely necessary. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "No one should walk with one shoe on. Walk with hoth ahoes on or with both feet bare". (Shama'il Tirmidhi)
- 8. Keep the ends of your dress folded in the course of walking to avoid the danger of ontanglements. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon bim) during walks used to roll up bis attire a bit.
- 7. Walk shoulder to shoulder with your companions without observing any formalities. Do not walk ahead of your companions to show off your higher rank. Sometimes walk hand in hand with your fellows in a spirit of close friendship. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon hlm) never displayed his distinguished rank while walking with his companions (God be pleased with them). Often the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) would walk behind his companions (God he pleased with them) and sometimes took the hand of a companion into his own sacred hand as a mark of intimate companionship.
- g. Strictly observe the following etiquettes while walking along the road. Do not stop or air on the way with the object of staring at the passers-by. If on occasions you must stop or air on the way, you should follow the following air rules:
  - (1) Keep your eyes downcast:
  - (2) Remove harmful hits and pieces out of the way.
  - (3) Respond to the 'salam' of nthers.

- (4) Persuade the people to do good and prevent them from doing evil.
- (5) Show the way to travellers who have lost direction.(6) Help those who are in trouble or are facing hardship.
- 9. In the course of a journey, seek the companionship of the good and avoid the chance of travelling with the
- 10. Men and women should not walk in a mixed company on the road. The women should avoid the middle path and walk along the edge of the road. The men should walk apart from the women. The Holy Prophet (peace and hieseinge of Allah be upon him) affirmed: "Collision with a mud-stained swine drenched in stinking slush is tolerable, yet it is inadmissible that a stranger should ruh shoulders with a female".

wicked

- 11. Whenever righteous women have to pass along the road out of any need or necessity, they should wrap their bodies, garments and all pieces of physical adornment carefully with a 'burqa' or a cheet and cover their faces with a voil.
- 12. Do not wear a piece of ornament which gives out a tinkling sound while you walk, or otherwise, walk with soft and even steps so that the tinkle of your ornaments may not invite the attention of titber unrelated to you.
- 13. Women should not use etrong perfumes if they intend to go out on the road. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) has disapproved of such women in etrong terms.
- 14. When you emerge from your home, look up to the eky and eay the following prayer:

Bismillahi tawakkaltu 'alallahi Allahumma inni a'udhu bika min an-nazilla au nusalla wa an-nadilla au-nudalla au naziima au yuzlama 'alainā au najhala au yujhala 'alainā,

"In the name of God, I rely upon God. O God Behold we seek refuge in Thee lost we slip, or go astray or wrong or he wronged, or act foolishly or any one should act foolishly with us".

15. On going to the bazar, say thie prayer :

Bismillahi Allahumma inni as 'aluka khaira hādhihissāgi wa khaira ma fiha wa a'udhu bika min sharrihā wa sharri mā fihā. Allahumma inni a'udhu bika an usība bihā saminan fājiratan au safaqutan khāsiratan.

"In the name of God. O God! Behold I ask of Thee good of this market and the good of that which is therein and I seek refuge in Thee from the ovil thereof and the ovil of that which is therein. O God! Behold I seek refuge in Thee lest I take a false oath or strike a bargain herein incurring loss".

Hagirat 'Umar b. Khattah (God be pleased with him) stated that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) had observed: "The man who says this prayer on entering the bazar, God adds ten lakh virtues to his account and forgives his ten lakh sins and raises his merite by ten lakh decrees:

لَا اللهَ اللهُ اللهُ وَحَدَّهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ بُحْيَ وَ يُمِيتُ وَ هُوَ حَى لَا يَدُوتُ بِيلِهِ الْخَيْرُ وَ هُوَ عَلَىٰ بُحْيَ وَ يُمِيتُ وَ هُوَ حَى لَا يُعُوثُ بِيلِهِ الْخَيْرُ وَ هُوَ عَلَىٰ

La ildha illallahu wahdahu la shartka lahu lahul-mulku wa lahul-hamdu yuhyi wa yumitu wa huwa hayyun la yamatu biyadihil-khairu wa huwa 'ala kulli shai'in qadir.

"There is no deity save God. He is alone. No partner hath He. His is the Sovereignty and His is the praise. He giveth life and He giveth death. He is the Ever Living that never dieth. In His hand is all the good and He hath power to do all things". (Tirmidhi)

Etiquettes of Travelling

- You should set out on a journey at a suitable hour so that the journey may be completed in the shortest possible time and bours of prayers may also be properly observed.
  The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) generally held Thursday to be a propitious day to start on a journey himself or for sending someone else on a journey.
- 2. Do not go on a journey alone. If possible, travel in a company of three persons. This ensures proper care of haggage and needs are easily met hy mutual oc operation. Companionship during a journey also ensures safety from several dangers and mishaps. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allab be upon bim) once observed : "If the disadvantages of travelling alone that I am aware of are made known to the psople, no rider would go on a journey alone during the night". (Bukhari). On one occasion, a man having made a long journey came to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him). The Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) enquired from the traveller, "Who is thy companion ?" The traveller submitted: "O Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon you) I have no companion. I have come alone". Thereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and hieseings of Allah be upon bim) observed : "A lone rider is a devil; two riders are devils too: hut three riders are riders all right". (Tirmidhi)
- A woman must go on a journey in the company of ber aponse or lawful kith and kin. In the case of ordinary travelling for a day or half, aba may go alone, but it is always (discreet for a woman not to move out alone. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) has observed: "It is not permissible for a woman who believes in God and the Day of Judgement to go on a journey lacting for three or more days alone". She may, however, nndertake such a long journey if she is accompanied by her father, brother, husband, her own son or any other lawful kith or kin". (Bukhari. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) is reported to have remarked on one occasion.: "A woman should not go alone even on a journey of one day and one night". (Bukhari, Muslim)

 On leaving for a journey when you get on to the vehicle of transport and it begins to move, say this prayer:

سُبْعَنَ اللّذِي سَخْرَلَمَنا هَذَا وَمَا كُتَّا لَهُ مُفْرِنَيْنَ وَ انَّا اللّهُ وَالنَّفُويَ وَمَنّا لَكُمْ مُفْرِنَيْنَ وَ انّا اللّهُ وَالنَّفُويَ مَنّا اللّهُ مَلّا اللّهُ وَالنَّفُويَ مَنّا اللّهُ وَالنَّفُويَ اللّهُمْ مَرَنْ عَلَيْنا سَفَرَنَا هَذَا لَوْ وَالنَّفُويَ بِعُدَّهَ اللّهُمْ اللّهُمْ وَالْخَلْفَةُ فِي الْأَمْلِ ، يُعَدّهُ اللّهُمْ أَنْ أَعُودُ بِكَ مَنْ وَصْنَاهِ السّفَر وَكَابَةَ المَنظَر، وَسُوهُ الْمُنْفَقِيقِ فِي الْمَالِ وَالْآهِلِ وَالْوَلَدُ وَالْحَوْدُ بَعْدَ وَسُوهُ الْمُنْفَدِي وَالْحَوْدُ بَعْدَ السّفَارِ وَ دَعْوَةً الْمَنْظُومِ . ومسلم ، ابوداؤد ، نرمذي ها اللّهُ والواقِد ، ومذي اللّهُ اللّهُ واللّهُ فِي اللّهُ والواقِد ، ومذي اللّهُ اللّهُ واللّهُ فِي اللّهُ اللّهُ واللّهُ اللّهُ واللّهُ اللّهُ واللّهُ اللّهُ واللّهُ واللّهُ واللّهُ واللّهُ واللّهُ اللّهُ واللّهُ وا

Subhan al-ladhi sakhkhara land hadhd wa ma kunna lahu mugrinina wa inna ila rabbind lamungalibun, Allahumma innd nas'aluka fi safarina hadhal-birre wattaqwa wa min-al-'amali ma tarda. Allahumma hawwin 'alaind safarand hadha wakwi 'amal bo'adhu. Allahumma anta-sahibu fis-safari wal-khalifatu fil-ahli. Allahumma innt s'idhu bika min wo'thd' is-safari wa ka'abat-il-manzari wa sii'ilmungalabi fi mali wal-ahli wal-waladi wal-hauri ba'dal-kauri wa da'watil-maslami.

(Muslim, Abu Dawud, Tirmizi)

"Glory he nnto God Who hath auhjugated this (heast) unto us, though we were unable to sindue it. Behold we are assuredly to return unto our Lord. O God! Behold, we heg of Thee in this journey of ours righteousness and piety and a conduet wherewith Thou will be well pleased. O God! Make this journey of ours easy for us, and roll up for us the distance thereof. O God! Thou art (our) companion in this journey, and representative in (our) household. O God! Behold, I seek rofuge in Thee from the toil of this journey, from holding a sad sight and a had reverse in my wealth and household and from deficiency after plenty, and from the curse of the oppressed".

4. Pay due regard to the comfort and convenience of others on the way. Your fellow-travellers have a right on you. The Holy Qur'an affirms : والصاحب بالجنب - Was-sahiti bil-Janbi. "Be nice to the companion heside you". The term 'companion heside you' includes all such persons who happen to he your fellow-travellers any time, anywhere. The hrief fellowship in the course of a journey imposes a duty on you to show the best conduct towards your fellowtraveller and take the utmost care not to cause him any physical or mental distress by atterance or deed. The Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah he upon him) affirmed: "The chief of the nation is the servant of the people. The person who excels others in rendering good service to his fellow men can be surpassed in piety hy no one, save those who attain martyrdom in the way of God". (Mishkat)

- Say two Raka ats of Thanksgiving on leaving for a journey and on returning from it. Such was the custom of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him).
- When your train or hus ascends a slope or your ecroplane takes off end is air borne, say this preyer;

Allahumma lakash-sharafu 'ala kulli sharafin wa lakalhamdu 'ala kulli hālin.

- "O God, Thou art supreme over all heights end elevetious. Praise and Thanksgiving under ell circumstances is due to Thes sione".
- If you have to hait your journey at night, stay at a safe place where your life and goods are sufficiently safeguarded against thieves and hrigands as well as from the menace of deadly animals or insects.
- 8. Having achieved the purpose of year journey, make haste to return home. Do not wender about aimlessiy.
- 9. On return from a journey, do not enter your house suddenly without cending in advance information of your arrival. Offer two Rake'sts of prayers in the mosque, thus effording time to the members of your household during which they may make preparations to accord you a bettting welcome.
- Take care of the comfort and cause of the animals accompanying you during the journey and look after the needs and protection of the rider who accompenies you.
- Travelling in the cold weather, carry your bedding with you. Do not ceuse unnecessary trouble to your host.
- Carry a tumhler and a prayer met during the journey to avoid inconveniences at times of need like purification.

ablution, prayer and taking a drink of water.

- 13. When some persons are travelling in a company, they should appoint one person from among themselves to act as their Amir (Leader). But each one should keep his ticket, money for necessary expenses and other baggage in his own custody.
- 14. When night falls in the conrse of a journey, you should say this prayer:

مَنْ وَاللَّدُ وَمَا وَلَكَ . ﴿ وَابُو دَاؤُدٍ،

Fa ardu, Rabbi wa Rabbukillahu a'udhu billahi min sharriki wa sharri ma khuliga fiki wa sharri ma yadibbu 'alaiki wa a'udhu billahi min asadin wa aswada wa min-al-hayyati wal-'aqrabi wa min-sharri zikin-il-baladi wa min-walidin-wama walad. (Abu-Dawud)

"'O earth! My Lord and Thy Lord is God. I seek refuge in God from thine evil, and evil of that which is in thee, from the evil of that which hath hem created in thee, and from the evil of that which moveth over thee. I also seek refuge in God from the lion and the Aswad, from the serpent and the scorpion, from the evil of the dweller in the land, from the begetter, and that which (the begetter) begetteth".

15. At the time of returning home from a journey, say this prayer:

أَوْبًا أَوْبًا لَرِبَّنَا نَوْبًا لَا يُغَادِرُ عَلَيْنَا حُوبًا. وحصن حصين،

Auban auban lirabbinā tauban lā yughādiru 'alainā hiban.
(Hisn Hassien)

"We are returners, penitents before our Lord, penitence that mey not let any effect of our misdeeds remein on us.

16. On sending off someone on a journey, accompany him for some distance. On taking leave, ask him to say a preyer and say this prayer for him when the traveller departs:

(حصن حصين)

Astaudi 'ullaha dinaka ,wa amanataka wa khawatima 'amalika. (Hisn Hassien)

"Unto God' I commend your faith, your tenst, and the conclusion of your deeds".

17. Extend a werm welcome to the traveller when he returns from the journey. Make affectionets remerks end shake hends with him or embrace him as need be or es the occasion demands.

Etiquettes of Mourning and Grief

1. Endure calamities with patience and calmness. Do not lose heart and never let your grief and sorrow exceed moderate proportions. No person in the world can remain safe and unaffected by sorrow, grief, calamity, hardship, affliction, failure or loss. The response of the believers and unbelievers is, however, different in this respect. The non-believer loses his sense under the burden of pains and sorrows and is completely immobilised by feelings of hopelessness and dismay. Sometimes he succumbs to grief and commits suicide. In contrast the believer remains undaunted in the face of the greatest calamity and never leaves command over his patience. At such times he becomes a symbol of patience and perseverance and stands firm like a rock. He takes the view that whatever has occurred . was decreed by God and no command of God is devoid of wisdom or purpose. Hence whatever God commands is for the ultimate good of man and surely there is always an aspect of grace in all the dealings of God with man. This reasoning produces a state of spiritual calm and satisfaction and the bitter taste of sorrow turns into sweetness. This faith in the predetermined destiny makes the burden of hardship light and calamity becomes easy to hear. God has affirmed :

مَا اَصَابَ مِنْ مُصِيبَة فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فِي اَنْفُسُكُمْ الَّا فِي كُتُبٍ مِنْ قَبْلِ اَنْ نَبْرَأَهَا اِنَّ ذَالِكَ عَلَى اللهِ يَسْيِرُ لَكَيْلاً

تَـاْسُوا عَلَى مَا فَاتَكُمْ . والحديد ٢٢-٢٣٠

Mā asāba mim-musibatin fil-ardi va lā ft anfusikum illā ft kitaabin min qabli annabra'ahā. Inna dhalika 'alallahi yasirun likailā ta'sau 'alā mā fatakum.

(Al-Hadeed : 22, 23)

"Nanght of disaster befalleth in the earth or in yourselves but it is in a Book before we bring it into being. Lo! that is easy for Allah that ye grieve not for the sake of that which hath escaped you".

In other words one of the merits of putting faith in a discipling appointed destiny is that the heliever finds solace even amidst the greatest suffering deeming it to be the decree of the Providence. He remains unshaken and in all matters looks towards the Merciful God and thinks only of His Grace and endeavours to seek good ont of every evil hy employing his virtues of patience and contentment under all circumstances. The Holy Prophet (passes and blessinss of Allah be npon him) has observed:

"How excellent is the state of the true believers! He wins Grace under all conditions. If he is afflicted with grief, sickness or powerty, he hears them in peace and such trials hring goodness to him. If he is rewarded with happiness and prosperity it becomes the cause of goodness for him".

 On hearing a tragic or painful news or if you suffer loss or sustain grief or injury or are beset with a sudden misfortanne, recite at once: الله قد والله أليه وَاجْسُونَ — Innal lillabi wa innā ilaihi raaji'ün.

"Lo | We are Allah's and lo! unto Him are we to return". (al-Bagarah)

The implication is that all our possessions belong to God; God has given as everything and He is the One

Who will take everything. We are his creatures and we must return to Him. We submit to the Will of God in all matters and are content with His Dispensation. All acts of God contain certain purpose, wisdom and justice, He acts with greater good in view. It is the duty of His faithful servant never to resent the actione of the Lord. God observes:

Wala nabluwannakum bishai'im minal khaufi walju'i wa naqsimminal-am-willi wal anfusi wasamaribi wa bashshiris-sibirin-al-ladhina isha-asibathum musibatun qili innal lillahi wa innal-laihi raji'un. Uli'ika 'alashim salaca-tummin Rabbihim wa rahmatun wa ula'ika humul muhta-din. (2:155-157)

"And surely we chall try you with something of fear and longer and loss of wealth and lives and crops; but give glad tidings to the eteadfast who say, when a mictortune etriketh them: Lo I we are Allah's and b I unto Him we are to return. Such are they on whom are blessing from their Lord and Mercy. Such are the rightly-guided".

God removes his affliction and blesses him with a happy outcome and bestows on him what his heart desires in reward for it".

"God forgives sli the sins of those Muslims who suffer a torment of the soul or physical psin, illness, sorrow, grief or affliction, even the injury on account of the piercing of a thorn (and hear all these trials with patience)".

(Bukhāri, Muslim)
Hadrat Anas (God he pleased with him) reports:

"The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) observed: "The more severe the trial and hardship, the greater its reward. When God oherishes love for a group of people, He puts them to trial to cleanse them more and to make them pure. Hence those who acquiesce in the Will of God win the pleasure of God. And those who harbour reseatment against God in the hour of trial, God also is displeased with them'."

(Tirmidki)
Hadrat Ahû Mûse Ash'ari (God be pleased with him) relates that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "When the shild of a person dies, God enquires from His angels: 'Did you extract the soul of the shild of one of my ereatures?' They suhmit: "Yes". God again sake them: 'Did you extract the soul of the most beloved of my creature?' They submit: "Yes". God then enquires from them: 'What did my creature say ?' They submit : "In his hour of affliction, he praised Thee and said : إِنَّا اللَّهِ وَإِنَّا اللَّهِ رَاجِعُون —Inna lillahi wa innā ilaihi raji'ūn. Thereupon God commande the angels: Build a dwelling for this creature of Mine in the paradise and call it 'Bait ul-Hamd' (The House of (Tirmidhi) Thanksgiving)."

3. It is natural to show grief on suffering pain or meeting an accident. However, care should be observed that even under the stress of extreme pain and grief the tongue should not utter an unholy remark, nor the virtnes of nationce and contentment he forsaken.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) had his son Hadrat Ibrahim (God he pleased with bim) in his iap when the child was about to depart this earthly life. On seeing this piteous sight tears started trickling down the eyes of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Aliah he upon him) and the Prophet of God (peace and hiessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "O Ibrahim, we grieve over thy separation, but our tongue shall ntter only that which conforms to the Will of God".

(Muslim)

4. Even in the depth of grief, do not commit an act which may smack of ingratitude or complaint or which transgresses the rules of Shari'ah. It is unlawful for a believer to give vent to lond weeping, tearing off clothes, slapping cheeks, crying and shouting or beating of head or the chest in mourning. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah, be upon bim) has said : "The man who tears off his clothes, slaps his cheeks and raves and shouts like pagans and wails is not a member of my ummah." (Tirmidhi)

> When Hadrat Ja'far Tayyar (God be pleased with him) attained martyrdom and the news reached his home, the women of his household began to shout and cry and started wailing loudly. The Holy Prophet (peace and hessings of Allah be upon him) seat word, "Stop wailing". But the women continued their lamentations. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him) forhade them a second time, but the women would not comply. Thereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "Fill their mouths with dust".

(Bukhāri)

On one occasion, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) was accommanying a functal procession. A woman came carrying a stove. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) reprimanded her so severely that the ran away at once.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hieraings of Aliah be upon him) observed: "No one should carry fire or funeral music behind a hier".

There was a custom in Arahia that people who walked heinind a bier used to cast away their closks as a mark of griof and only kept their skirts on. On seeing people in this state once the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed: Are you observing a pagan custom! I was thinking of invoking such a curse upon you that your appearances might be deformed". The people at once put on their closks and never setted in this fashiom again.

(In Majsh)

Do not curse your illness, nor utter any word of complaint.
 Exercise utmost patience end self-control and pray for tha reward in the Hereafter.

The sins of the believers are washed away hy suffering illness or enduring tortures. The soul of the heliever is purged and he attains capital reward in the Eternal world. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) has affirmed: "All pain that the believer endures on account ni physical torture, illness or some uther cause is rewarded by God in such fashion that God purges the believer of all his sine even as a tree sheds its leaves". (Bukhārī, Muslim)

Once on seeing a lady shivering, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) enquired from her, "O Umm Sa'ih or Musayyih I Why are you shivering so i" She replied: "I am seized with fever. May God curse it!" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) advised her, "No, don't curse the fever. Fever purges the progeny of Adam of sins even as fire smelts the ore to extract pure iron". (Muslim)

Hadrat 'Ata h. Rahah (may God he merciful to him) describes a first hand account as follows : "On one occasion when we were near the Ka'ba, Hadrat 'Ahbas (may God he pleased with him) said to me, "Would you like to see a woman who will go to Paradise ?" "Yes, certainly". Hadrat 'Ahhas (may God he pleased with him) said : "Look at that hisck woman. She once went to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah he upon him) and suhmitted, "O Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon you) I am seized with such deep fits of epilepsy that I lose all consciousness and in this state I become enmpletely naked: O Prophet of God (peace and hiessings of Allah ha upon you) ! Pray to God in my hehalf". The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) abserved : "If you continus to endure this affliction with patience, God will send thee to Paradise or if you wish I shall pray to God to cure thee". On hearing this, the lady submitted: "O Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon you) ! I am willing to endure this affliction in peace. However, pleasa pray to God to save me from the humiliation of heing rendered naked in the state of epilepsy". The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) thereupon prayed to God on hehalf of this lady. Hadrat 'Ata (God

6. Do not observe mourning for more than three days on the death of any one. It is natural to be stricken with grief and to weep on the death of relations, yet the period of mourning should not exceed three days. The Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah he upon him) observed ; "It is not lawful for a heliever to mourn the death of someone for a period of more than three days. However, the lawful mourning period for a widow is four months and ten days : During this period, she should not put on a colourful dress, nor use any perfume nor should bedeck herself."

(Tirmidhi) On the fourth day after the death of the brother of Hadrat Zaiuah hint Jahah (God he pleased with her). some ladies visited her to offer condolences. Hadrat Zainab (God be pleased with her) applied perfume to her person in the presence of everyone and remarked : "I did not need to use perfume at this time. However, I have done so now because I have heard the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) to say, "It is not lawful for a Muslim lady to observe mourning for more than three days for any relation except her husband".

7. Advise each other to hear sorrow, grief or calamity calmly and patiently. When the Holy Prophet (peace and hiesaings of Allah be upon him) returned from the hattle of Uhud, the ladies came to his holy presence to enquire after their relations and kin. When Hadrat Hamna hint Jahah (God be pleased with her) appeared, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) instructed her to hear her grief calmly, and said: "Be patient over the martyrdom of your hrother 'Abdullah (God be pleased with him) and she recited : انَّا لَهُ و أَنَّا أَلَيه وَاجْعُون . Inna lillahi wa innā ilaihi raji'un. It is from Allah and we have to return to Allah and prayed for the salvation of her brother".

The son of Hadrat Ahu Talha (God be pleesed with him) was gravely ill. Leaving hie son in this precarious state, Talha (God he pleased with him) had to go out to work. The child died in hie absence. Ahu Talha's wife (God he pleased with her) instructed the people not to report the news to Abu Talha (God he pleased with him). When he returned home in the evening after work, he enquired from the wife : "How is the child ?" She replied ; "He is in a more restful state". Then she brought dinner for Abu Talba (God be pleased with him). He ate it in peace and went to hed. Next morning the pious wife conveyed the sad news to her hushand in a very wise manner. She asked him: "If someone lends something to somehody and then demande it back, what right has the possessor to withhold the thing from the real owner ?" Ahu Talks (God he pleased with him) replied : "It is impossible for the borrower to claim such a right". Thereupon the patient wife observed: "Be patient over the lose of your (Muslim) son then".

8. Welcome all hardships in the way of righteouenese in good oheer and feel joy rather than sorrow at whatever distress hefalls you in this way. Offer thanks to the Lord that He thus accepted your sacrifice in His way. Hadrat Asma' (God be pleased with her), the illustrions mother of Hadrat 'Ahdnllah h. Zuhair (God be pleased with him) once fell gravely ill. Hadrat 'Ahdnllah (God he pleased with him) came to enquire after her heelth. The mother said to him "Son I in the first place, I wish that God should keep me alive until I witness one of the two things that either you.

should attain martyrdom on the field of battle and I should obtain the Grace of being patient on hearing the report of your martyrdom or you should gain victory and seeing yon a victor I should gladden my sight. As God willed it so Hadrat 'Abdullah b. Zuhair (God be pleased with him) attained martyrdom in the lifetime of his mother. Hajjaj ordered to keep his dead body banging on the stake. Hadrat Asma' (God be pleased with her) was at that time too old and weak yet in spite of her old age and weakness she arrived to look at this piteous sight. Instead of crying and wailing on seeing the dead hody of her dear son, she addressed Hajjaj and said to him: "Has not the time yet come for this rider to dismount the borsel" Support one another io grief and pain. Share the sorrows

9. Support one another io grief and pain. Share the sorrows and afflictions of your friends and lend all help you can to alleviate their suffering. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) observed: "All Muslims are like one human body. If the eye becomes sore, the entire body feels distress. If there is a pain in the bead, all organs of the body suffer the agony". (Muslim)

At the time when Hadrat Ja'far Tayyar (God be pleased with bim) attained martyrdom, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon bim) observed: "Let food be sent to Ja'far's bouse, for the immates of his house in their abundance of grief will not he shle to cook meal".

Hadrat Aho Hursira (God be pleased with him)

thatrat Ano Huraira (tood be pleased with him) reports that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "A man who offers condolences to a woman whose child is dead shall he admitted in Paradise and he shall be wrapped in the sheet of Paradise." (Tirmidhi)

And the Holy Propbet (peace and hiersings of Allah be upon him) also observed: "The man wbo solaces an afflicted person shall he rewarded in the same degree as the afflicted one". (Pirmidhi)

In the same connection the Hely Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be apon him) enjoined upon the people to join the funerals. Hadrat Abn Huraira (God be pleased with him) has reported: "The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: The person who joins the funeral and says the funeral prayer will get a reward equal to one Qirat (Carat) and the person who after the funeral prayers attends the burial also will get reward equal to two Qirats (Carats)". Someone asked: "What will be the mass of these two Qirats?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "The mass of these two Qirats will be equal to two mountains".

afflioted with sorrows, turn to God; offer worship and how in humility to Him and say prayers to Him. The Holy Qur'an affirms:

Yā ayyuhalladhina amanust'ainū bissabri wassalah.

"O ye who believe l Seek help through perseverance and prayer".

It is natural to be sorrowful and ahed tears in a griefstricken state. However, avoid weeping loudly. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to weep in a mnffled voice. He (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to heave a cold sigh; tears would stream down the eyes and the voice which came out of his holy bosom used to be similar to the sound of a bubbling kettle or the turning of a grinding wheel. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has himself described the state of his grief and weeping.

"The eye sheds tears'; the heart is filled with sorrow; yet our tongue utters only those words which are pleasing to our Lord".

> ياً حَىٰ يَا قَيُوم . «ترمذى» Yā hayyu ya qayyūmu.

(The Alive, The Eternal)

11. Say these prayers in the moments of intense grief and sorrow; when calamities befall and you are under heavy etress of grief and unrest. Hadrat Sa'd h. Waqqās (God be pleased with him) reporte that the Holy Prophet (pesse and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: The prayer which Dhun-Nūn¹ offered to God from the belly of the fish wee as follows:

لَا اللَّهِ الَّا ٱنْتَ سُبْحَنَّكَ إِنَّى كُنْتُ مِنَ الظَّلَمِينَ .

La ilaha illä anta subhanaka inni kuntu min-az-zalimin.

"There is no deity except Thee. Be Thou glorified!
Lo I have been a wrong doer". (21 . 87)

Hence any Muslim who says this prayer to God in times of distress or hardship, God enrely accepts his prayer. It is reported by Hadrat Ibn 'Abbas (God be pleased with him) that in moments of sorrow or grief, the Holy Prophet

(peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to say this prayer :

Lā ilaha illallahu rab-ul-'arsh-il-'azīm. La ilaha illallahu rabb-us-samawati wa rabb-ul-ardi rabb-ul-'arsh-il-Karīm.

"There is no deity except God. He is the Master of Great Heaven. There is no deity except God. He is the Master of Heaven and Earth and the Master of High Heaven".

Hadrat Abu Musa (God be pleased with him) states that the Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

La haula wala quw-wata illa billahi walā malja minallahi illā ilaihi

This prayer is a panacoa for ninety-nine ills. The least benefit to be derived from saying this prayer is that he who says this prayer remains safe from grief and sorrow.

Hadrat 'Abdullah b. Mas'üd (God be pleased with him) reported that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: "Any one who is afficied

It is God only Who bestows the strength to abstain from sin and bestows the favour to perform righteous deeds. There is no refuge from the punishment of God, save in His own Being (i.e. only he can escape from the punishment of the Lord who seeks refuge in the mercy of the Lord.

"God! I am Thy servant. My father is Thy servant and so is my mother. Thon hast power aver my whole being. It is thy Law which rales my life. All thy Commands in my case are mast just. I beseech Thee in the name of all Attributes which thou have mentioned thy own or those which than revealed in thy Book or revesled to some among Thy creatures or kept them hidden in Thy veiled Treasures, to make the Great Book Qur'an the pleasure of my heart, the light of my yese, the balm for my affliction and a cure for my anxiety".

12. If, God forbid, matters come to such a pass that the calamities and hardships oppress you so hard that life hecomes unbearable and distress assume such fearful proportions that the burden of life hangs heavy on you, even under such circumstances do nover call for death nor should you ever think of the disgraceful act of taking your own life. The act of suicide is a symptom of cowardies; it is the worst form of breach of trust and the most heinous sin. Under such conditions of perplexity and unrest, pray constantly to God in these words:

(Muslim, Bukhari)

"God! Keep me slive as long as it is better for me to live and if there be goodness for me in death, send me death".

13. Say this prayer when you find any one afflicted with hardship. Hadrat Ahu Hurairs (God be pleased with him) related: The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"He who says the following prayer on seeing the other afflicted with trouble will, God willing, himself remain safe from this trouble:

Etiquettes in Fear and Panic

1. Assailed by the dread of the sianghter, devastation, tyranny, barharity, mischief and strifs nnleashed by the enemies of faith or paule-stricken by the catastrophic effects of natural calamities—under all circumstances use the insight of a true heliever and probe into the real causes of these visitations. Instead of wasting time on superficial remedies, focus all your energies on putting into effect the injunctions contained in the Book of God and the Sunnah. The Holy Qur'an affirms:

Wa mā asābakum min mustbatin fabima kasabat aidikum wa ya'fu an kathtir. (Ash-Shura: 30)

"Whatever of misfortune striketh you it is what you have earned by your own deeds. And He forgiveth much".

And the Holy Qur'an itself reveals the remedy:

Wa tübü ilallahi jamt'an ayyuhal-mu'minüna la'allakum tuftihün. '

"And all of you together should turn to God in repentance, O Believers, so that you may get salvation". 'Tanba' (Repentence) denotes: 'To return', 'To have recourse to'. Immersed in the fearful cesspool of sins and vices, when the Ummah (Muslim Nation) feels a sonse of shame and turns to God in a spirit of devotion and having washed the stains of her vices by tears of repentance, renews her pledge of allegiance to God—this state is described in the Holy Qur'an by the term 'Tanba'. This 'repentance' and 'petition for mercy' is the most efficacious and genuine remedy against the fear and dread of all forms of ovil and strife.

- 2. Do not degrade the honour of your national life by adopting a cringing stitinde before the tyranny, oppression and mischievous evils of the enemies of faith; do not reduce yourself under their awe to the indignity of begging the ornel enemy for mercy. Gird up your loins; strengthen your faith and remove weakness which produces cowardice in you and encourages the enemies of faith to oppress and extinguish you. The Holy Prophet (peece and blessings of Allah he upon him) bes identified two causes for this weekness:
  - (1) Attachment to the world.
  - (2) Fear of Death.

Make a resolve that you will not rest in peece until you have eliminated these two evils from your own self "as well as from the general body of the Muslims. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Ailah be upon bim) observed:

"My Ummah will pass through a time when other nations, considering you an easy prey, will fall upon you just as the hungry rush towards food. Someone asked: "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you): Will our number diminish inviting the other nations to unite together and make an assault to devour us?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah baupon him) observed: "No, you will not then be less in number but will render yourself weightless like straws that float helplessly in the flood water. Your enemies will no longer fear you and your hearts will be stricken with cowardice and helplosaness." At this stage, a man enquired: "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you)! What will be the cause of such cowardice?" The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "There will he two causes:

*You will start loving the world and

*You will feel allergic to death and hate the very idea of it. (Abu Dawud)
3. Purge your society of sensuality, frivolity, dominance of women, and wickedness. Make your collective strength impregnable and use it to cradicate cril and mischief. Make a determined effort to inculcate and promote bravery, zest and courage in each and every individual of your fraternity (Millat). The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him has affirmed:

"When your rulers are righteous, and the rich among you are generons and parge-hearted and when your collective affairs are decided by mntual consultation, then life

"When your rulers are righteous, and the rich among yon are generons and parge-hearted and when your collective affairs are decided by mntual consultation, then life on the surface of the earth is far better for you than death i.e. to be buried down the earth beneath the surface of the earth. But when your governors and rulers are persons of wicked character and the rich in your society are lovers of wealth (materialists) and are stingy and misers; and when the course of your affairs is determined by your wives, then death i.e. to be huried down the earth is far better for you than life on the surface of the earth."

(Tirmidh)

4. Never fail to support the right even under the most dreadful circumstances. To give away one's life in support of right is far better than to lead a godless and ignominions existence. Do not shrink from upholding the truth in the severest of trials and in the face of the greatest dread, Respond to the threat of death with a smile and welcome.

the chance of attaining martyrdom with zest and eagerness. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allsh be upon him) affirmed:

"The wheel of Islam is on the move, beware you must turn towards the direction given by the Holy Our'an. Be vigilant! The Our'sn and the political power will shortly part company. Boware lest you should forsake the Our'an. In the times to come there will be rulers who will impose their will on you. If you obey thom, they will lead you astrs v from the path of rightconsness. And if you rebel against them, they will put you to death." A companion (God be pleased with him) submitted : "What should we do then, O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah he upon you) !" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) replied : "Do what the companions of Jesus (peace be on him) did. They were cut through with saws and hanged on the cross. It is far better to glvo one's life obeying the commandments of Allah than to live a life of dischedience to the Almighty".

5. Strive constantly against those evils of the society which produce an atmosphere of fear and panie in the people and lead to poverty, famine and violence reducing the whole nation to a miserable and helpless lot suffering the oppreselons and tyranny of their enemies.

Hadrat 'Abdullah b. 'Ahbas (God be pleased with him) remarks: Wherever dishonesty hecomes the order of the day, the people lose heart and ourage and srs afraid of their enemies and wherever adultery becomes a common practice the people are destined to perish. Whenever people start bungling in weights and measures, they certically face famine and starvation and where justice is denied blood is inevitably to be shed there. Any nation which commits breach of promise is doomed to become the slave of its enemy''. (Michkat)

6. When you are assailed by the dread of the foos, say this prayer:

وال داؤد ، نسائي بحواله حصن حصين،

Allahumma innā naj aluka fi nuhūrihim wa na udhu bika min shurūrihim.

(Abu-Dawud, Nasai, Hisn Hasien)
"O God! Behold, we place Thee in front of them and seek refuge in Thee from their mischiefe".

When you are surrounded by the enemy, say this prayer;

واحمد بحواله حصن حصين

Allahummastur 'aurātinā wa āamin rau 'ātinā.

(Ahmad, Hisn Hasien)

"God! Do safeguard our honour and respect and bless us with peace in this state of fear and harassment".

8. On seeing the windstorm rising or a cloud overcasting the ekv. vou should feel apprehension and fear, Hadrat 'Aisha' (God be pleased with her) reporte that "I never beheld the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be . upon him) breaking into langhter in such a manner as to make his sacred mouth wide open. In moments of joy, a smile used to play on his august face. When a windstorm arose or a cloud darkened the sky, he (peace and bleesinge of Allah be upon him) used to feel appreheneive and began to eay prayers. In a mood of grave apprehension, he alternately stood up or sat down and this mood lasted until the clouds had buret into rain. I submitted : "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you) ! I see that other people rejoice when they see a cloud and look forward to rain with joyous hope, yet I eee that your holy face shows feelings of heaviness and anxiety on watching a cloud". Thereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: 'A'isha (God be pleased with you), how can I avoid the apprehension that this cloud will not bring down a calamity, when I have the precedent before me that the nation of 'Ad were visited with a calamitons windstorm. On beholding this cloud, the people of 'Ad had said: "This cloud will pour rain over us". (Bukhari, Muslim). Say this prayer when you see a cloud or a windstorm rising:

Allahumma j'alhā riyāhan walā taj'alhā rīhan. Allahumma j'alhā rahmatan wa lā taj'alhā adhābā.

(Tabrani)

If the windstorm fills the horizon with deep darkness say:

Qul a'adhu birabbil falaki.

Qul a'adhu birabbin nasi.

I seek refuge with the Lord of the Dawn and I seek refuge with the Lord of Men (Snrah 113-114)

Hadrat 'A'isha (God be pleased with her) relates:
"Whenever the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) beheld the windstorm rising, he used to say the following prayer:

God make this wind a blessing, not an evil. God make it a bounty, not an ordeal.

اللهم إلى اسألك خيرها و خير ما فيها و خير ما أرسلت به و أعود بك من شوها و شر ما فيها و شر ما أرسات به و أعود بك من شوها و شر ما فيها و شر ما أرسات به . «مسلم» ترمذي

Allahunma innī as'aluka khairahā wa khaira ma fihā wa khaira ma ursilat bihī wa a'udhu bika min sharrihā wa sharri mā fihā wa sharri mu ursilat bihī.

"O God! Behold, I beg of Thee the good of this (wind) and the good of that which is therein, and the good of that which hath heen sent therewith. And I seek refuge in Thee from the evil theroof and the evil of that which is therein and the evil of that which hath heen sent therewith".

When excessive rain threatens loss and destruction, say this prayer:

Allahumma hawālainā la'alainā Allahumma 'alal āakāmi waz zirābi wa butūn-il-audiyati wa manābit-ish-shajari. (Bukhāri, Muslim)

"O God! let there he downpour in our suburb; but not on us. Let the rain fall on hillocks in the thickets on the mountains, rivers, and on the hot beds of plantations". (Bukhāri Muslim)

10. On hearing the roar of clouds and the thunderbolt, stop conversation and hegin reciting the following verse of the Holy Qur'an:

والرعد ١٣٥

Wa yusabbihur ra'du bihamdihi wal-mala'ikatu minkhifatihi. (Al Ra'd : 13)

"And the thunder (of the clonds) hymneth His praise and (so do) the Angels for awe of Him".

Hadrat 'Abdullah ihn Zubair (God be pleased with him) on hearing the thunderholt used to stop talking and recited the same verse. (Al-Adab al-Mufrad)

Hadrat Ka'b (God be pleased with him) states that any one who recites this verse three times on hearing the thunderbolt will remain safe from its danger. (Tirmidhi)

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) on hearing the roar of the clouds and the thunderbolt used to say this prayer :

ذَالك والادب، المفردة

Allahumma la taqtulnā bighadabika wa la tuhliknā bi-'adhābika wa 'āfinā qabla dhālik. (Al-Adab al-Mufrad)

"O God! Slay us not with Thy wrath and destroy us not with Thy punishment but preserve us before that".

11. When fire breaks out, make energetic efforts to extinguish رو مورق راوره و (God is Great, God) الله أكبر؛ الله أكبر: is Great). The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed : "When you see a fire blazing out, say : الله أكبر -Allahu akbar. (God is Great). 'Takbīr' (Praise of God) extinguishes the fire".

12. When you are soized with fear and panic, say this prayer. Godwilling fear will vanish and you will attain peace of mind. Hadrat Brab. 'Azis (God be pleased with him) reports: "A person once complained to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him): "I suffer from panic all the time". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) enjoined upon him to say the following prayer. He recited this prayer frequently and God freed his heart from panic.

Subhan-allah-il-malik-il-Quddüsi rabbul-mala'ikati warrühi jallall-as-samäwäti wal-arda bil-'izzati wal-jabrüt. (Mw'jamal-Tabrani)

"Pure and Supreme is the Lord, the Real Sovereign.
Faultiess. Oh Creator of Angels and Gabriel! Your Power and Awe reigns over the Heavens and Earth".

Etiquettes of Rejoicing

1. You must celebrate occasions of joy in a befitting manner. Rejoicing is a domand of human instincts and a natural urge. Religion gives due importance to the satisfaction of natural instincts and permits their fulfilment subject to some useful restraints and conditions. Religion disapproves of marring the attractiveness of your personality hy assuming such poses as artificial dignity, unnecessary sombreness, permanent sorrow and gloom. Religion allows you full rights to celebrate joy on all lawful festive occasions and enjoins upon you to keep your spirits high with a bold attitude, restful living and fresh aspirations. To avoid celebrations of joy on lawful occasions and to consider the sentiment of rejoicing as unbecoming to the genuine spirit of religion.

If God grants you the favour of performing scheen religious duty; yon or one of your relations attains high honour in learning and excellence; God confers on you prospority, wealth or some other bounty; you return safe from a long journey or any of your relations comes back from his travels to distant parts; you receive a visit from an honourable guest; a marriage comes off or the birth of a child takes place in your home; you receive report of the health and well-being of a near relative or the happy news of the victory or glorious achievement of the people of felam; or on festivals—tis your natural right to celebrate these occasions with rejoicing. Islam not only allows the holding of festivities, but regards this act as in perfect harmony with the spirit of religion.

Hadrat Ka'h ibn Malik (God he pleased with him) relates: "When God had accepted my prayer for forgiveness and I received the glad tidings of it, I at once went to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him). I offered my salam(peace be on you). At that moment, the holy face of the Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) was radiant with joy. Whenever the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) attained some happiness, his face would glow with the radiance of moon and we used to take the hrightness and radiance of his face as index of exceedingly joyous feelings in him (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him).

(Riyād-us Sālihīn)

 Make arrangements to celebrate the festival with free rejoicing and open merriment. Feel quite informal and let yourself join the festivities without inhibitions. On arrival at Medina, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) observed;

"You used to celebrate festivities on two days during a year. God has now blossed you with two hetter day. I.e., 'Id al-Fitr and 'Id al-Adha. Celebrate these two festivals of the year with great happiness and complete rejoicing and arrange rennions and indulge in fun and recreation in joyous mood and give vent to your feelings of happiness in a natural manner. It is hoeause of this injunction of the Holy Prophet (posee and hlessings of Allah be upon him) that fasting is forbidden on the occasions of these two festivals." The Holy Prophet (pasce and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed.

"These two days are meant for feasting, celebration of joy in union with other people and to remember God".

(Sharah M'aāni-ul-Athar)

On the day of 'Id, he neat and clean and take a hath, put on the best dress according to your means, use perfume, eat good food and let the children enjoy themselves with proper mesns of recreation and games and permit to observe fun freely and without let or hinderance.

Hadrat 'A'isha (God be pleased with her) relates: "It was the 'Id day and some slave-girls were singing the vec-ses which the Ansar had composed ahout the hattle of Bu'sth. While-the girls were thus engaged in singing, Hadrat Ahr Bakr (God be pleased with him) some and exclaimed in astoniahment: "How atrange! Singing in the household of the Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him)!" The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) answered: "Ahn Bakr, never mind. Each flation has a festivel day and today we celebrate our 'Id."

Once on 'Id day some negro acrobats were giving a demonstration of some military manoeuvres. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) himself watched these exercises and let 'A'isha (God be pleased with her) elso to see them from behind his hack. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) gave the scrohets constant cheers. When 'A isha (God be also have a superior of the holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) permitted her to depart.

(Bukhari)

3. Observe the manners, injunctions, taste and spirit of Islam in your rejoicings. On receiving happiness, offer thanks to your Benefactor and prostrate before Him in gratitude. In the excitement of your joy, do not perform any act nor adopt any attitude which does not conform to the spirit of Islam or is contrary to Islamio manners and injunctions. You must express your joyous centiments, but observe the rule of moderation and do not let your expression of happiness submerge the sentiments of obedience, devotion and humility and turn into a display of haughtiness and pride. The Holy Qur'an affirms:

Wa la tafrahû bimā atākum wallahu lā yuhibbu kulla mukhtālin fakhūr. (57:23)

"And exult not because of that which hath been given. Allah loveth not all prideful boasters".

Do not be so intoxicated by happiness as to forget the remembrance of God. The supreme happiness of the pious is to remember the Bestower of happiness all the more and offer proetration before Him in gratitude and acknowledge by action and speech the Bonefactions, Favour, Greatness and the Glory of God.

After observing fasts during the month of Ramadan . and obtaining the favour of reciting the Holy Qur'an and eaving 'Taravih' prayers at night, when you eight the 'Id moon, your happiness knows no bounds. On realising that you have been successful in carrying out the injunctions of God by His Grace, you at once give away the share of your poor and needy brethren out of your wealth so as to make amends for any negligence in worship or error in discharging the duty of Devotion to God and also to enable the poor people to participate with others in the joys of the 'Id. In acknowledgement of this favour of God, you express your befitting sentiments of joy by offering two prayers of thanksgiving to God and on the day of 'Id al-Adha you commemorate the great and unique sacrifice of Hadrat Ibrahim and Hadrat Isma'il (peace be on them) and thus finding your own heart filled with the eagerness to make sacrifice you offer prostration to God in gratitude. And then the hymns of 'Praise be to God', 'Takbir' and 'Thanksgiving' resound through every community and are heard in all streets, lanss and roads. And when on 'Id days you eat well and put on your hest clothes and celebrate your joys in lawful fashion according to the injunctions of ths Shari'ah all these activities of yours are recorded as submission to and acknowledgement of the authority of Allah.

Invits others to join your celebrations of joy and similarly participate in the rejoicings of others to suhance their feelings of bappinsss. Exchange massages of felicitation on occasions of joy.

When the repentance of Hadrat Ka'h h. Malik (God be plasæed with him) was accepted by God and the Muelims got newe of this fact, they came in crowds to offer congratulations to Hadrat Ka'b (God be pleased with him). They expressed their unbounded joy. Hadrat Ka'b was so deeply impressed by the felicitation and expressione of rejnieing displayed by Hadrat Taiba (God be pleased with him) that its memory never faded all through hie life. In his old age Hadrat Ka'h (God be pleased with bim) related the case of his trial and repentance to his son 'Abdullah and especially mentioned about Hadrat Tailha'e (God be pleased with bim) spress sions of joy. He remarked: "I can never forget Taiha's manner of felicitation and feelings of joy".

The Holy Prophet (peace and hissings of Allah be upon him) on conveying to Ka'b (God be pleased with bim) the glad tidings of the scoeptance of his repentance expressed his personal feelings of exceeding joy and cheerved: "Ka'h, this ie the happiest day of thy life! (Rivad-us-Salika)

On occasions of marriage or birth of a child or on similar events of joy, in the homes of other people, join in their calshrations and congratulats them on that happy occasion.

Hadrat Ahū Huraira (God be pleased with him) reports that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to congratulate the newly-wedded in these words:

Barak-allahu laka wa baraka 'alaikuma wa jama'a bainakuma fi khairin. (Tirmidhi)

"May the Lord keep you in prosperity and confer His blessings upon both of you and may He grant you the favour of living together in perfect harmony".

On one occasion Hadrat Husain (God be pleased with him) instructed comeons to congratulate others on the birth of a child in the following manner:

"May God grant you grace in this gift. May God grant you the favour of offering gratitude to Hlm. May God develop this child into a full-blanded youth and raise hlm submissive to yon".

5. When a near relative or an acquaintance returns from a long journey, go and welcome him and express your feelings of joy on his safe return and successful conclusion of his mission. If he holds a function to celebrate the happy occasion of his safe return from the journey, go and join the party. On the other hand, when you return home safe from your travels and arrange a function to celebrate the occasion, invite your near relatives to the party. However. you must avoid unnecessary expense or ostentatious and lavish display. Do not incur expenditure which is beyond your average means. When the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be apon him) returned from the battle of Tabük, the Muslim men and children had advanced to Thaniyyat-ul-Wada' to receive him (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). (Abū Dawūd)

When the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) migrated from Mecca and reached Medina and prepared to enter the eity from the southern side, the Muslim men, women, boys and girls came out of their homes to greet him (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). The small girls of the Ansar were singing these happy songs:

Tal'a albadru 'alainā Min Thaniyyatilwadd'i, Wajabash shukru 'alainā, Ma d'āa lillahi dā'i, Ayyuh al-mab'ūsu fina, Ji'ta bil-amrilmulā'i,

"Today, the moon arose upon us from the southern hill, Thanlyyatul Wadar. I tis our duty to offer thanks for the call and teaching of the Apostle who invited us towards God. O Prophet! Who has been sent among us, you have brought such a religion that we will bear allegiance to it."

Once on his return to Medina from a journey, the Holy Prophet (peaco and blessings of Allah bo upon him) slaughtered a camel and a cow and arranged a feast for the people.

(Abū Dawūd)

 Celebrate the occasions of marriage with great joy and happiness and invite your relatives and friends to partici-

Thaniyyatul-Wada' was the name of a mound in the south of Medina.
The citizens of Medina used to accompany their departing guests up to this point. It was due to this reason that the mound come to baknown as Thaniyyatul Wada' or the mound of departure.

pate in the celebration of the happy event. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) permitted singing and playing of music especially 'adf' on weddings. This injunction is meant to serve a two-fold purpose: the fulfilment of the feelings of joy and the public announcement and propagation of the news of wedding.

Hadrat A'isha (God be pleased with her) married one of her female relations to a man from the Ansar. At the time of the departure of the bride, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Why didn't these people send a slave-girl with her to play duff and sing some songs on the way".

(Bukhāri)

On the occasion of the wedding of Hadrat Rābi' bint Mu'avvidh (God be pleased with her), soms girls were sitting with her and playing on 'att'. They were singing soms verses in praise of their fathers who had attained martyrdom in the battle of Badr. One of the girls recited this lins: "And there is a prophet in our midst who knows what is to happsn tomorrow". On hearing this, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Leave it ont and sing those verses which you were singing before". (Bukhāri)

7. On the happy occasions of wedding, arrange a feast for your relatives and friends according to your position and means. The Holy Prophot (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) established the precedent of arranging 'Walima' feasts on his own marriages and enjoined upon others to follow the same practice. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "If nothing else, slaugher a goat and serve its meat to guests".

If for some reason you cannot attend a wedding party, do send a message of congratulations. The practice of exchanging gifts on nuptials, weddings and on similar occasions of joy, renews and deepens the relationships and augments love and lends warmth to it. Nonetheless be careful to send gifts of the value which your means can afford and by restraining your feelings of sincerity and love, avoid ostentations display.

Etiquettes of Respect of Mosque

The best portion of the earth in the sight of God ie that upon which e mosque is raised. The distinctive feature of the devotee of God is that he loves the mosque also. On the terrific day of doom when there will he no shade anywhere, God will keep that person under the shade of His Heaven whose heart is devoted to the mosque. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed

"The man whose heart is devoted to the moeque will rest under the shade of Heaven". (Bukhāri)

Do service to the mosque; keep the house of God populated. To reader service to the mosque and keep it populated is a sign of faith. God affirme:

Innamă Ya'muru masājid-allahi man āmana bil-lahi wal yaum-il-ākhiri. (Al-Tauba: 18)

"He shall tend Allah's sanctnaries who helieveth in Allah and the Day of reckoning".

3. Always say your obligatory prayers with the congregation in the mosque. Maintain a reguler system of congregation and announcement of the Prayer-call in the mosque and discipline your whole life in conformity with the system of the mosque. Mosque is the pivot around which the whole circle of a true believer's life revolves. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"There are certain peopla among the Muslims who stay in the mosque permanantly and do not leave the place. They have angels as thair companions. If such people disappear from the mosque, the angels go about looking for them. If these peopla fall ill, the angels enquire after their health and when they are engaged in some task, the angels aid them—A person who sits in the mosque anticipates blessings of the Lord".

(Musnad Ahmad)

- 4. Go to tha mosque with agorness and enthusiasm to eay your prayers. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Alleh ba upon him) affirmed: "The act of going to the mosque morning and avening is like going to fight in the cause of God". And further oheerved: "The people who go towards the mosque in the dim light of the dawn will be eccompanied by full radiance of light on the Day of Doom". In addition, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessinge of Allah he upon him) affirmed: "Each step that a man takes towards tha mosque to eay his prayers with the congregation, daletes one ein and adds one virtua to his account". (Ibn Hibban)
- 5. Keep the mosque clean and tidy. Sweep the place and clean out all dust or filth. Burn incease, especially on Fridays so that the whole mosque hecomes fragrant with the aroma of the incease. The Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him) observed: "To sweep the mosque; to keep it tidy and clean; to cast out all dust and filth from the mosque; to burn incease in the mosque, especially to make the place fragrant with the aroma of the incease on Fridays—all these are acts which lead to Paradise". (lbn Majah)

Moreover, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah ha upon him) affirmed: "To clean out the dirt and dust of the mosque is the mehr (,4.4) (the consideration paid for the marriage contract) of a pretty-eyed Honri".

(Tabrant)

- 6. Go to the mosque in a state of fear and trepidation. Say 'Assalamo 'Alaikum' (peace be on you) on entering the mosque. Sit down quietly and pray in such a manner that your heart should be filled with the awe of the Greatness and Glory of God. Those who eater the mosque laughing and talking are careless and impudent. The hearts of such people are devoid of the fear of God. Some people in their bid to join the congregation hefore they lose any Rak'ah rush forward into the mosque. This act is contrary to the sanctity of the mosque. Whether you are able to join the 'Rak'ah' or not, walk in the mosque with poiso, dignity and in humility; avoid hurried movement.
  7. Sit down in the mosque in peace and avoid worldly talk,
- To shout or make a noise, to cut jokes and raise laughter, to discuss bazar rates, to comment on the world affairs or to strike business deals in the mosque is a sacrilege. Mosque is a place of Divine Worshlp; use it for the purpose of offering devotions to God only.

  8. Do not take such emall children with you in the mosque
- Do not take such small children with you in the mosque who have not yot attained awareness of the sanctity of the mosque lest they chould discharge urine, defecate or spit in the mosque.
- Do not use the mosque as a thoroughfare. On entering the gate of the mosque it becomes chligatory upon you to eay preyers, or sit down and engage in the remembrance of God or recite the Holy Qur'an.
- 10. If you lose something somewhere else, do not make an announcement of your loss from the mosque. Whenever someone made such an announcement in the mosque of the Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him), the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was offended and used to remark.

لاَ رَدُّ اللهُ عَلَيْكَ ضَالَّتَكَ

La radd-al-lahu 'alaika däallataka.

"May God restore not the lost thing to thee !"

11. On entering the mosque put your right step in and say 'peace and hieseings of Allah be on the Holy Prophet' end then say the following prayer. The Holy Prophet (peace and hieseings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Whenever any of you enters the mosque, he should say 'peace and blessings of Allah be on the Holy Prophet' and then say this prayer:

Allahumm-aftah II abwāba rahmatika.

"O God! Open the gates of Thy Mercy for me".

(Muslim)

After entering the mosque, say two Rak'ah' of supercrogatory prayers. These two-Rak'ah are described by the term the "Lak | "Lak | "Tak | yat u | Masjid". Similarly, whenever you return from a journey, go first to the mosque and ay two Rak'ah of supercrogatory prayers and then proceed to your house. On return from a journey, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to go first to the mosque and offered supercrogatory prayers and afterwards proceeded home.

12. On coming out of the mosque, put your left step out and say this prayer;

"O God ! I seek your Favour and Blessings

(Muslim)

- 13. Maintain a regular eystem of announcing the prayer call and holding a congregation for the saying of prayere. Appoint only such percons as announcers of the prayer-call or Imam as are on the whole better than othere in their devotion to religion and possese superior morals. If possible try to appoint those people as Mu'adhdhins and Imams who demand no honorarium for their services and are willing to discharge these duties voluntarily in anticipation of the reward in the Hereafter.
- 14. Say this prayer after hearing the prayer-call. The Holy Prophet (peacs and blessinge of Allah be upon him) observed: "The man who after hearing the announcement of the prayer-call offere the following prayer will thereby acquire a right over me to say prayer for him on the Day of Doom". (Mishkat) of Muhammad's (peace be upon him) intercession with Thee on our helbalf. Undouhtedly Thou never take hack Thy promises".

17. The women should say their prayers in the home instead of going to the mosque. On one occasion the wife of Hadrat Abu Humaid Sa'adi (God be pleased with them) suhmitted: "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you)! I ehsrish a great desire to say prayers in your company". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "I am aware of your eagerness. But it is better for you to say prayers in your room than in the verandah outside your room and saying prayers in the verandah of your house is hatter for you than saying prayers in the courtyard of your home".

Etiquettes of Saying Prayers

- 1. Observe perfect cleanliness and parity for the purpose of saying the prayers. Brush your teeth also when performing ablutions. The Prophect of God (peace and blassings of Allah be apon him) affirmed: "The distinctive mark of the members of my Ummah on the Doomsday will be that their brows and organs of ablation will he glowing with the radiance of Divine Light. Hence it is open to everyone to enhance his share of the Divine Light as much as he wants".
- Put on clean, neat, respectable civilized and proper dress for observing prayers. The Holy Qur'an affirms:

Yā bant ādama khudhū zīnatakum 'inda kulli masjidin.

"O sons of Adam I Adorn yourself properly at each hour of prayer,"

Be punctual in the observance of prayers.

Innassaldta kānat 'alalmu'minīna kitāban maugūtā.

The prayer has been made obligatory for the helievers to be observed at prescribed hours. Hadrat 'Abdullah b. Mas'ud (God be pleesed with him) once submitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him);

"O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you) ! Which deed is the most favonrite one to God". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon bim) replied : "To say prayer at the proper hour". Furthermore, the Holy Prephet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "God has made five prayers obligatory. A person who after performing ablutions carefully observes these prayers in perfect humility at their proper hours acquires a right of salvation hy God; but he who neglected these prayers has no right to anticipate forgiveness and salvation by God. In this case, it is entirely up to the Will of God to forgive him or to punish him" (Malik) 4. Aiways say your prayers in congregation. At times when you miss the congregation for any reason, try to say the obligatory (Fard) prayers in a mosque. However, offering of Sunnat1 prayers is permissible at home also. The Holy Prophet (peace and bleseings of Aliab be upon him) bas observed: "The person who joins the congregation for prayer at the start i.e. first Takhir for forty days at a stretch is secured from the torments of Hell as well as from the evil of discord".

become aware of the rewards and blessings of offering prayers in a congregation, they would basten to join the congregation for prayer despite a thousand binderances. The first row of a congregation for prayer is like the row of angels. It is better for two men to offer prayers together than separately. The larger the congregation the dearer it is to God". (Abū Dawud)

In addition to this, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Ailah be upon bim) also affirmed : "If the people

"O God, forgive ms, be merciful to me, act me on the right path, remove my misery, grant me peace and provids for my sustenance."

The Holy Prophat (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) has observed: "The person who observes prayer properly, the prayer itself hlesses him with good wlahes in these words 'May God protect these in the same mannar in which thou took care of ma'".

And the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) also affirmed: "The worst form of thaft is the theft of prayer". The people suhmitted: "O Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon you)! How can one commit a theft in prayer". The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him) answered: "By skipping over the complete performance of hows and prostrations".

- 8. Start making preparations for the prayer at once on hearing the call. Perform ablutions and reach the mosque well before time. Sit down quietly in the line and wait for the congregation to form. It is symbolic of hypocrites to be singgish, to tarry and go for the prayers in a languid manner after hearing the prayer-call.
- 7. Annonnee the prayer-call with eagerness and zest. A person saked tha Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon) him: "O Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah ha npon yon)! Tell me a deed that can lead me to Paradise". The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "Announce the call for prayer". The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) further affirmed: "Within the extent to which the call of the Mu'adhhin reaches each man who hears the call will bear witness in favour of the Mu'adhhin on the Day of Judgement. A shepherd who grazes his flock in the pasture and pronounces the call in a load voice at the fixed hour, all things within the radius of the area in which his voice vibrates will stand testimony in his favour on the Day of Judgement". (Bukhāri)

- 8. If you are acting as an Imam, discharge your functions in relation to the saying of prayer in accordance with all the manners and rules prescribed by religion. Keep in view the interests of the congregation and perform your duty as a leader well. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) affirmed: "The Imams who lead the congregation in prayer in a proper manner and catertain a high sonse of personal responsibility for the good performance of worship by members of their congregation will obtain reward for the prayers of their congregation will obtain reward for the prayers of their congregation also. The Imam's reward in this case will he equal to the combined neward of the congregation. However, the reward and virtue of the members of the congregation is not curtailed thoreby". (Tabrant)
- 9. Say your prayers with humility in such a state that the heart should he filled with a sense of awe of the Greatness and Glory of God and your entire heing should he overwhelmed with trepidation and solemnity. It is a great sacrilege to make nanecessary movements of hand and foot, scratching any part of the hody, to pass fingers through the heard, to ping the nose with a finger or to fold up your dress. Take the utmost care to avoid such actions.
- 10. Seek to gain nearness to God through prayers. Say prayers in such a state of mind as if you are in the presence of God or at least ha mindful that God is watching you. The Holy Prophet (peace and hessings of Allah he upon) him) observed:

"The bondman is nearest to God at the moment when he is lying in prostration before Him. Hance while you are performing the act of prostration, pray fervently."

(Muslim)

- 11. Say prayers with eagerness and zest. The formal observance of prayers as if prayer were a burden or a compulsion is no genuine form of worship. Having said prayers of one time, look forward to the next hour of prayers with eagerness and fervour. One day after having offered the Maghrih prayers, some people stayed waiting for the hour of 'Isha prayers. Presently, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) arrived with such hurried steps that he (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was panting for breath. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "O people i Be happy, your Lord opened a gate of the heavens and showed your view to His angels and said with pride : Look my devotees have finished one prayer and are awaiting the next hour of worship'." (Ibn Maigh)
- 12. Do not say prayers in a hurried manner with a sense of 'Let us get over with it', like the careless and carefree persons. Remember God with a sineere heart and say prayers with omplete devotion and a solemn awareness of duty and direct your heart, mind, feelings, passions, thoughts and ideas to converge on God. Prayer, in order to become a genuine form of worship, must contain remembrance of God. The prayer of the hypocrites is always devoid of the remembrance of the Lord.
- 13. Discharge the duty enjoined upon you by prayer even after the prayer and manage your whole life in such a manner that it should fully reflect the injunctions contained in the prayers. The Holy Qur'au affirms: "Prayer serves as a deterrent to immorality and contumeny". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) clucidated the same point through a deeply impressive simile:

The Holy Prophet (peace and bleesings of Allah be npon him) shook a dry branch of a tree briskly so that all the leaves of the branch fell off. Thereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "The sins of those who eay prayers drop off as the leaves of this dry branch fell off". Afterwards the Holy Prophet (peace and bleesings of Allah be npon him) recited this were of the Holy Quran:

Wa aqimissaldta tarafayinnahdri wa zulafan min allail. Innal hasandti yudh-hibnassayyidti. Dhdlika dhikrd lidhdhdkirin. (11:114)

"Establish worship at the two ends of the day and in some watches of the night. Lo! good deeds annul ill deeds. Thie is a reminder for the mindful".

- 14. Recite the Qur'an elowly in the course of prayers and observe other narrations of the prayer at a clow pace with careful attention and devotion of heart and mind. The practice of reciting the Qur'an and saying other words of the prayer with understanding augments your fervour and the prayer then attains the form of genuine worship.
- 15. Observe prayers regularly and don't ever miss any prayer. It is the basic attribute of the believere to be regular and punctual in observing prayers:

والمعارج ٢٦-٢٢١

Il lal mussalinalladhina hum 'alā salātihim da'imūn.

"Save worshippers who are constant at their worship".

16. Alongwith regular observance of obligatory prayers, you should offer supercrogatory worship and offer praises to God frequently. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Any man who offers twelve Rak'ahs (supercrogatory prayers) during a period of day and night in addition to the five obligatory prayers, God ordains a dwelling to be built for this man in Paradise". (Muslim)

17. Say your supererogatory prayers (Sunnan and Nawafil) off

- and on in your homes also. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed: "Offer some super-crosstory prayers at home after asying obligatory prayers in the mosque. God shall bestow goodness in your homea as a reward for these prayers". (Muslim). The Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) himself frequently offered Sunan and Nawäfil at home.
- 18. When you set out from the house for dawn prayers, say this prayer:

اَلْهُمْ اَجْعَلَ فِي قَلْبِي نُورًا وَ فِي بَصَرِي نُورًا وَفِي سَعِيْ
نُورًا وَ عَنْ يَمِينَى نُورًا وَعَنْ شَمَالَى نُورًا وَ فِي عَصَبِي نُورًا وَ فِي عَصَبِي نُورًا وَ فِي عَصَبِي نُورًا وَ فِي عَصَبِي نُورًا وَ فِي تَصْبِي نُورًا وَ فِي لَمْ نُورًا وَ فِي اللَّهِ لَا يُؤرًا وَ فِي اللَّهِ لَا يُؤرًا وَ فِي اللَّهِ لَا يُؤرًا وَ فِي اللَّهِ لَا يَوْرًا وَ فِي اللَّهِ لَا يُؤرّا وَ فِي اللَّهِ لَا يُؤرّا وَ فَي اللَّهِ لَا يَعْمِلُوا وَ فَي اللَّهِ لَا يَعْمُ إِلَّهُ لِهِ اللَّهِ لَا يَعْمُ اللَّهُ لِللَّهِ اللَّهِ لَا يَعْمُ اللَّهِ لَا يَعْمُ إِلَيْهِ اللَّهِ لَا يَعْمُ لِلَّهُ وَلَا اللَّهِ لَا يَعْمُ اللَّهُ لِللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ لِللَّهُ لِللَّهُ لِللَّهُ اللَّهُ لِللَّهُ اللَّهُ لِللَّهُ لِللَّهُ لَا لَهُ لَا لَهُ لَا لَهُ لَا لَهُ لَا لَا لَهُ لِللَّهُ لِللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِللَّهُ لَا لَهُ لَا لَهُ لَا لَهُ لَا لَهُ لَا لَهُ لَا لَهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لَا لَا لَا لَهُ لَا لَهُ لَا لَا لَا لَهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلْمُ لَا لَهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلْمُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلْمُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِللللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِللللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ للللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِلللَّهُ لِللَّهُ لِللللَّهُ للللّهُ لِلللّهُ لِلللّهُ لِلللّهُ لِلللّهُ لِللللّهُ لِلللّهُ لِلْمُ لِلللّهُ لِلللّهُ لِللللّهُ لِلللّهُ لِلللّهُ لِلللّهُ لِلللللّهُ لِلللللّهُ لِلللللّهُ لِلللللّهُ لِللللّهُ لِلللللّهُ لِلْمُلْلِمُ لِلللللّهُ لِللللللّهُ لِللللللّهُ لِلللللّهُ لِللللللّهُ لِللللللّهُ لِلللللللللّهُ لِللللللّهُ لِلللللللّهُ لِللللللّهُ لِلللللللّهُ لِللللللللّهُ لِللللللللّهُ لِلللللللللللللللللل

19. When you have finished the performance of dawn and evening prayers, repeat the following prayer seven times before engaging in conversation.

ٱللُّهُمُّ آجرني منَّ السَّار

Allahumma ajirni minan nār.

"O God! Protect me from the Fire".

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed :

"After the dawn and evening prayers, repeat the following prayer seven times before engaging in conversation. If perchance you die in the course of that day or night, you shall certainly be saved from Hell".

Astaghfir ullah three أستغفر أنقد Astaghfir ullah times and then say this prayer :

Allahumma ant-assalāmu wa mink-as-salāmu tabarakta yā dhal-jalāli wal-ikrām. (Muslim)

"O God! Thou art the peace and from Thee is the peace: Blessed art Thon, O Lord of Majesty and Glory.

Hadrat Thauban (God be pleased with him) reports :

"The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be I seck forgiveness from (آ اَسْتَغَفْرُ الله (I seck forgiveness from Allah) three times after finishing each prayer and after-(Muslim) wards said this prayer".

21. Observe proper care in keeping the lines straight for offering the prayer in congregation. Keep the lines perfectly straight and at and shoulder to shoulder close to each other, leaving no space in between. Do not form lines in the rear unless the front lines are filled. On one occasion in a congregation for prayer, a man was standing in line in such a manner that the position of his chest was inclined forward. On seeing the man standing in this fashion, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) warned: "O people of God ! you must stand in straight lines in a proper manner else God shall cause you to stand in opposite directions to each other" (Muslim, Vol. 1). On one occasion, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "Any man who arranges the line in a formation, God shall bestow Grace on him; and any man who causes disarray in the line, God shall cause him to suffer chaos".

of men. Do not let the children stand with their elders. However, in the 'Idgah, where certain difficulties might be faced or where the possibility of the loss of children exists, there is no need to send the children to form lines in the rear. Make them stand with you. The lines of women should be formed either at the farthest rear or separately if a separate enclosure has been built in the mosque for women. Similarly, in the 'Idgah make separate arrangements for the congregation of women,

Etiquettes of Reciting the Qur'an

- Recite the Holy Qur'an, with eagerness end fervour and put all your heart and soul in the recitation. Be sure that love of the Qur'an means love of God. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: "The heat form of worship for my followers is recitation of the Qur'an".
- 2. Engage yourself in the recitation of the Qur'an most of the time and never feel weary of reciting the Holy Book. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon hlm) has affirmed: "God has ordained that any men who engages himself in the recitation of Qur'an so constantly that he finde no time to send prayers to me, I shall provide him more without asking than those who ask". (Tirmidht) Further than this, the Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "The servant gete nearest unto God by means of reciting the Qur'an. (Tirmidat) Instructing the people to recite the Holy Qur'an, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) also chaerved: "The man who has studied the Qur'an and recites it daily can he likened to a basket full of mask whose sweet smell is making the whole atmosphere fragrant. And the man who has studied the Qnr'an hut does not recite it may be likened to a hottie full of mask whose mouth has been sealed with a (Tirmidhi) stopper".

3. Recite the Qur'an with the sole motive of seeking gnidance. Do not recite the Holy Book for the sake of gaining popularity, or establishing a reputation for good, harmonious recitation or making a name for piety. These are base motives and he who recites the Qurfan with those motives in mind can obtain no guidance from the Qurfan.

- Take care to be completely near and clean before you sit down for recitation. Do not touch the Holy Book without performing ablution and recite it sitting in a clean and tidy place.
- Sit cross-legged with your face towards the Qiblah and recite the Qur'an with your head bowed, with utmost care, complete attention, eagerness of heart and in a proper manner. God affirms:

Kilābun unzalnāhu ilaika mubārakun liyaddabbarā āyātihi wa liyatadhakkara ulul-albāb. (38:29)

"(This is) a scripture that We have revealed unto thee, full of blessing, that they may ponder its revelations, and that men of understanding may get guidance from it".

6. As far as possible recite the Qur'ân in a clear and distinct manner and read the letters correctly and utter the syllables in proper style and recite slowly. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Use your voice and style to recite the Qur'ân in the best manner".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to recite each word in a clear and distinct manner and read each verse separately.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed:

"He who recites the Qur'an will be told on the Day of Judgement". Recite the Qur'an now in the same clear and distinct manner and in the same harmonious style in which you used to recite it with eare and propriety in the world and as a reward for the recitation of each vorse you shall be elevated one degree higher and your ultimate place is near the end of the final verse". (Tirmidhi)

Do not recite in an extremely loud or very low voice.
 Keep your voice at a medium pitch. God ordains:

Wa lā tajhar bisalātika wa lā tukhājīt bihā wabtaghi baina dhālika sabīlā. (17: 110)

"Be not loud voiced in thy prayer nor too low voiced but follow a way between".

- 8. Recite the Qur'an whonever you find time, but do try to recite Qur'an in the course of Tahajjud prayer at dawn. This recitation of the Qur'an entails the reward of highest degree and it should be the sepiration of the true believers to attain the apex of excellence in reward for recitation.
- 9. Do not complete the reading of the whole of the Holy Qur'an in less than three days. The Holy Prophet (peacand blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "He who completes the recitation of the full text of the Qur'an in less than three days does not understand the meanings of the Qur'an at all".
- 10. Keep in mind the glory and value of the Qur'an and as you observe the etiquette of keeping your person neat and clean while reciting the Qur'an, so also you must purge your heart of, evil thoughts, wicked passions and impure purposes. The heart that is tainted with evil and wicked thoughts and passions cannot appreciate and admire the glory and value of the Holy Qur'an, nor can the hearer of such an evil heart grasp the meanings and realities of the Qur'an. Hadrat 'Ikrama (God he pleased with him), whenever he opened the Qur'an, he often fainted. He used to say: "These are the words of my Great and Glorious Lord".

11. Recite the Qur'an with the conviction that on this earth this Book is the only source of guidance for mankind. Meditate and reflect deeply over the meanings of the Qur'an from this viewpoint and try to grasp the realities and learn the wisdom contained in this Book. Do not recite it rapidly but form the habit of reading clowly, distinctly and with careful understanding of the meanings and try to ponder over the message conveyed to us. Hadrat Abdullah h, 'Abbas (God he pleased with him) often remarked: consider it far better to recite small Surahs like 'Al-Qari'ah' and 'Al-Qadr' with understanding and care than to read through the longer Surahs of 'Al-Baqarah' and 'Ali-'Imran' at a rapid pace without careful understanding of the meanings of the words. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) once recited this one verse over and over again all through the night.

In tu'adhdhibhum fa-innahum 'ibāduka wa in taghfir lahum fa-innaka ant-al-'azīz-ul-Hakīm. (5:118)

"If Thou punisheth them, Lo! they are Thy slaves, and if Thou forgiveth them, Lo! Thou only Thou art the Mighty, the Wise".

12. Recite the Qur'an with full determination to adapt your life to the injunctions of this Holy Book and to reform the pattern of your living in the light of the guidance provided by it. Moke constant endeavours to order your life in conformity with the Qur'ainc injunctions and purge your life of all impurities. The Holy Qur'ain like a mirror will cleerly reflect each hlot and spot on your character. It is entirely your own responsibility to wash off these hlots and stains from your life.

13. Feel the full impact of the verses during recitation of the - Holy Qur'an. Rejoice and feel happy on reading about the narrations of Divine Morey, Forgiveness and the Everlasting bounties of Paradise. And on reading about the narrations of the wrath, anger and the terrifle punishments of Hell you, hody should tremble, eyes should flow and the heart should melt with the sentiments of repentance and shame. Your face should glow with the light of happiness on reading about the euccesses of the pious and faithful people and you should be soized with deep sorrow on reading about the destruction of nations. The study of verses containing warnings and forebodings of torments should make you tremble and your soul should be filled to the brim with the sentiments of gratitude on reading the verses which beer glad tidings.

  14. After reciting the Holy Qur'an offer a prayer. The words
- 14. After reciting the Holy Qur'an offer a prayer. The words of one of the prayers offered by Hadret Umar (God be pleased with him) are as follows;

Allahummarzugnii tafakkura wal-tadabbura bimā yatlāhu tisānt min kitābika wal-fahma lahā-wal mai rifata bimā'amihi wan-nazara fi 'ajā'bihi wal'amala bidhalika ma bagitu innaka 'alā kuti shai'in gadir. edge of its meaning, and spirit, and the vision to see its niceties. Grant me the favour to act according to its injunctions as long as I live. Your Being is without doubt

Etiquettes of Friday

Take full measures to clean and purify yourself on Fridays.
 Bathe and adorn yourself in the best possible manner.

Hadrat 'Abdullah h. 'Umar (God he plsased with him) reports that the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "The person who comes to offer prayers in the Friday congregation should bathe himself first". (Bublari, Muslim)

According to the statement of Hadrat Abu Huraira (God he pleased with him), the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Every Muslim ows duty to God that he should take bath every week and wash his head and body".

Hadrat Abu Sa'id (God be pleased with him) relates that the Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: It it obligatory upon every adult youth to take hathon Friday and to brush the teeth and use perfums if available".

(Bukhāri, Muslim)

Hadrat Salmin (God be pleased with him) states that the Holy Prophet (psace and helseings of Allah he upon him) affirmed: "Any man who bathes on Friday and takes full care to keep himself neat and clean and uses hair oil and perfume and then reaches the mosque just after mid-day and does not part two men sitting in a line in the mosque and then offers the prayer which God had decreed to him and afterwards listens to the sermon seated caimly when the Imam ascends the pulpit, God shall pardon all the sins committed by him during the intervel between this Friday and the preceding one. (Bukhāri)

2. Take care to perform good deeds on Fridey such as most frequent remembrance of God, recitetion of the Holy frequent remembrance of God, recitetion of the Holy Qur'an, prayer, Sadaqa, charity, enquiring after the welfare of the sick, joining the funerals, visit to the greveyard and other pious acts.

Herdat Ahu Huraira (God be plessed with him) reports that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Alleh he upon him) observed:

"The most important dey that ever dawned is the Friday. It was on this day that Adem (peece he upon him) was creeted and on thie dey he was admitted to Forediee end it was on Friday when he was expelled from there (and wes appointed the vicegerent, of God) and it is on this day that the Doom will descend". (Muslim) Hardat Abu Sa'id Khndri (God he plessed with him, reports that the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "There are five such acts that if a man shall perform them in the course of a single day, God shall write his name among those destined to enter Paradiae. These acts are:

1. To enquire after the welfare of the sick.

1. 10 and the area are

- 2. To join a funeral.
- 3. To keep a fast.
- 4. To offer Friday Prayer. 5. To emencipate a slave.

(Ibn Hibban)

It is evident that the performance of all these five acts together ie possible only on a Friday.

In another tradition Hadrat Ahu Se'id Khudri reports thet the Holy Prophet (posco and hiessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "Any man who recites Surah Kahf on Friday, a radiant light will glow for him in the space between two Fridays". (Nata'i)

And Hadrat Abn Huraira (God be pleased with him states that the Holy Prophet (peace and bleasings of Allab be upon him) observed: "Seventy thousand angels beg merey for the man who recites Surah Ad-Dukhan on Friday night and all of his sins are pardoned". (Tirmidhi)

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed: "There is a certain blessed moment in the course € a Friday that any prayer said in by a believer is accepted by the Almighty". (Bukhāri)

Which blessed moment is this? The opinion of the 'Ulama is at variance on this point, because of the reason that traditions mention different times in this respect. However, the 'Ulama agree that two statements are more correct than the others. According to one statement, the intervening time from the moment the preacher ascends the pulpit to deliver the sermon to the end of the prayers is the most propitious one. Another version holds that blessed moment is the end of Friday when the sun is about to set in the horizon. It is advisable, therefore, that you should pass both the times in offering prayers and supplications in utter humility and reverence to the Lord. It is better to add the following prayer with your other prayers:

اَلْهُمْ آنَتَ رَبِّي لَا اللهَ الَّا آنَتَ خَلَفْتَنِي وَ آنَا عَبِلُكُ وَ آنَا عَلَى عَهْدِكَ وَ وَعْدِكَ مَا اسْتَطَعْثُ اَبُوهُ لَكَ بِنَعْمَتُكَ عَلَّى وَ ٱبُوءُ بِهَذِينِي فَاغْفِرْلِي فَانَّهُ لَا بَنْغِفُرِ الذُّنُوبِ الِّذَ انْتَ آغُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا صَنَعْتُ .

Allahumma anta rabbī lā ilaha illā anta khalaqtani wa anā 'abduka wa anā 'alā 'ahdika wa wa'dika mas tata'u abū'u laka bini'matika 'alayya wa abu'u bidhambi faghfirit fainnahū lā yaghfir-udh-dhunūba illa anta a'udhu bika min sharri ma sana'tu. (Bukhāri, Nasā'i)

"God! You are my Lord. There is no deity except You. You created me. I am Your servant and I hold firm to my promise and allegiance to You as far as lies in my power. I acknowledge all the bounties and favours that You have conferred on me. I confess my ain; forgive me, for there ie no one else except You Who has the power to grant pardon for sins and I beseech protection against the ovil effects of my own ains".

effects of my own ains".

3. Observe Friday, prayers according to all the prescribed etiquettee. Friday prayer is obligatory upon every adult, bealthy, resident and same Muslim male. If there be two men heaide the Imam present at a place, the Friday prayer must be offered. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"The people ought not to miss Friday prayer under any circumstance or else God shall seal their hearts (and having been denied Divine Guidance) they will become one with those who are forgetful (of Religion)". (Muslim)

According to the testimony of Hadrat Abu Huraira (God be pleased with bim), the Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: "Any man who comee to the mosque for saying the Friday prayer after bathing and washing himself clean and then offers 'Sunnah' prayers which God had decreed and then sits quietly till the end listening to the aermon of the Imam and afterwards offers obligatory prayers with the Imam, God shall grant him pardon for the sins which he committed between the preceding Friday and this one and the eine committed till three days before".

Hadrat Yazid b. Maryam (God be pleased with him) relatee: "I was going to offer Friday prayers when I chanced to meet Hadrat 'Abaya b. Rifa'ah (God be pleased with him) on the way. He asked me: Where are you going t" I said: I am going to offer Friday prayers. Ḥaḍrat 'Abaya (God be pleased with him) remarked: "I congratulate you. Every step you move, oy u move on the path leading towards Allah". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: "Fire is made unlawful for the man whose foet are soiled with dust while walking aolng the path of God".

4. Hasten towards the mosque the moment you hear the call for Friday prayer. Close your business and stop your other activities at once. Listen to the sermon and say prayers with perfect devotion. Resume your business as soon as the Friday prayer is over. The Holy Qur'an affirms:

يَايُّهَا الَّذِينَ أَمَّنُوا اذَا تُودِي لِلصَّلُوةِ مِنْ يَّرْمِ الْجُمْعَةِ
مَاسُمُوا الْيُ ذِكْرِ اللهِ وَذَرُوا الْبَيْمَ ذَالِكُمْ حَبْرُ لَكُمْ اِنْ
كُنْتُمْ تَعْلُمُونَ . فَإِذَا تُصْبِّ الصَّلُوةُ فَاتَشْرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ
وَابِشَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِ اللهِ وَاذْكُرُ والله كَشْبُرًا لَّعَلَّكُمْ

تُـُفْلِحُونَ . والجمعه ٩ ـ ١٠ع

Ya ayyu-halladhina ümanü iddä nüdiya lisealüli min yaumil jum'ati jasau ilä dhikrillahi wadhar-ul-bai'a dhallikum khairullakum in kuntum cidamün. Faidhä qudiatisealdiu fantashirü filardi wabtaghü min fadlillahi wadhkur-ul laha kathiran-la'allakum tufithin. (Al-Jumah: 9-10)

"O ye who believe I When the call is heard for the prayer of the day of congregation hasten unto remembrance of Allah and leave your trading. That is better for you disperse in the land and seek of Allah'e hounty, and remember Allah much, that ye may be euccessful".

These verses contain the following injunctions for the true helievers:

- A true believer chould offer Friday prayers with complete devotion and full awareness of all the etiquettes of this prayer. He chould stop all other engagemente on hearing the prayer-call and hasten towards the mosque.
- It is unlawful for the true believer to carry on business or to engage in other worldly interests after hearing the announcement of the prayer-call and thue having forsaken the memory of God to turn into a world-loving creature.
- 3. The secret of a pioue man's selvation lies in his living as a servant and slave of God in thie world. Whenever the call of God reaches him, he should, as a devoted end obedient servant forsake all interects and eet aside all worldly advantages and rush to respond to the cell of his Master. He should proclaim by deed that the escrifice of worldly advantage for the eake of fulfilling the demands of religion does not eignify ruin and failure. On the other hand, destruction and failure lies in transgressing the hounds of religion in hie lnet for gaining worldly interests.
  - 4. The theory of renouncing the world altogether is fallacious. Man should not he commch immersed in spiritual pursuits that he chould become incapable of dealing with worldly affairs. The Holy Quran, in fact, enjoins upon the faithful to disperse on the earth as soon as the prayer is over and to take full advantage of all the resources and means of livelihood that God has provided on the earth. The Quran affilme that the pious should exert all their energies and employ all faculties in the hucinese of saruing their share of the subsistence provided by God. It is not proper for a true heliever to he dependent on others for his neede, nor is it advisable for him to neglect his duty of providing for the needs of his dependants and to cause them suffering and dismay.

5. The final important injunction is that the true believer should not be engrossed in worldly affairs so deeply that he should forget God. He should remember under all oircumstances that the real gain and essence of his life is the remembrance of God. Hadrat Savid h. Juhair (God be mereiful to him) remarks: "The remembrance of God does not only consist in announcing the greatness of Allah or uttering praises of God.

All those are engaged in the remembrance of God who are busy ordering their lives in conformity with the Commands of God''.

Make an effort to reset the mosque for the Friday prayer as soon as possible and try to get a seat for yourself in front line by arriving early.

According to the statement of Abū Huraira (God be pleased with him), the Hoty Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "Any man who bathes bimself and washes his whole body to cleanse it of all impurities and then reaches the mosque first is like the person who offers the sacrifice of one camel, and he who arrives next to him is like the person who ascrifices one ow (or haffalo) and the one who reaches in the third place is like a person who offers the sacrifice of a horned ram. Coming next to him is like a person who gives away as it were, one egg in the way of God. Later when the Imam comes forward to deliver the sermon, the angels leave the gate of the mosque and come over to sit in the mosque to hear the sermon and say the prayers". (Bukhdri, Muslim)

Hadrat 'Irbad b. Săria (God be pleased with him) states: "The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) used to invoka mercy of God three time npon those who formed the first line and only once npon those who were in the second line". (Ton Mājah, Nasā'i)

And Hadrat Abū Huraira (God be pleased with him) observes: "The people do not know the high degree of reward and blessings reserved for the people who form the first line of prayer. If they know it, they would start drawing lots for the privilege of joining the first line." (Bukhārī, Muslim)

6. Offer your Friday prayers in a congregational mosque. Take your seat wherever it is available. Do not jump over people's heads and shoulders in an effort to got a seat in front. This causes considerable mental and physical discomfort to the people, disturbs their pace of mind and devotion and diverts their attention.

Hedret 'Abdullab b. 'Abbas relates that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon blm) observed:

"The person who retreate from the first line of preyer and stends in the second line with the intention that his brother Muslim may suffer no inconvenience, God will grant such a man reward and blessing twice as much as to people in the first line". (Tabrānt)

Hadrat Salman (God be pleased with him) reports that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: The person who bathes himself on Friday and cleanses and parifies himself as much as he can, and then uses oil and applies perfume and reaches the mosque just after mid-day and does not part two men sitting together (in other words he does not commit the error of jumping over the heads and shoulders of people, or making his way through the lines or sitting between two men by pushing them apart, but sits down quietly wherever he finds room) and offers prayer and Suunah which God had decreed upon him. and afterwards listens quietly to the sermon when the Imam takes the pulpit, God will pardon all his ains which he committed during the period between that Friday and the preceding one" (Bukhāri)

7. The sermon should be hrief as compared to the prayer. The sermon in fact is meant to induce people to offer devotions and worship to God, while prayer is not only worship in itself, but the best worship. Hence it is in no way proper to prolong the sermon and go through the prayer quickly in a shorter period of time. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed:

"To prolong the prayer and deliver a hrief sermom is an attribute of the wise preacher. Hence say prayers for a longer period of time and make the sermon brief".

(Muslim)

8. Listen to the eermon in silence and rspt attention, and with devotion, cagerness and in a receptive mood. Make up your mind with all eincerety to act upon the injunctions of God and His Messenger (peace and hiesenges of Allah ha upon him) that you have come to know through the sermon. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) has affirmed:

"The man who hathes and comes to offer Friday worship and says the prayer which God has destined for him and than sits quitely and listens to the earmon in rapt attention and with perfect devotion till the prescher has finished the sermon and afterward says ohligatory prayer with the Imam, God shall pardon all his sins which he committed during the period between that Friday and the preceding one and his sins even committed during three days hefore it".

(Mustim)

According to another tradition: "When the Preacher comes forward to deliver the sermon, then it is improper to say any prayer or engage in conversation".

9. The second sermon must be delivered in Arshio. However, in the first sermon describe some injunctions of God and His Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him), give some advice, provide guidance and remember God in tha local language of the participante of the congregation. The sermons which the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) preached on Fridays reveal that the Preacher should provide advice and guidance to the Muslims in regard to the prevailing circumstances. This purpose can only be achieved if the preacher delivers his sermon to the congregation in the people's own language.

10. It is highly porpitious to recite Surah al-'Alâ and al-

Ghāshiya or Surah Munafiqun and Surah al-Jum'ah in the obligatory prayers on Friday as was the practice of the Holy Prophet.

 Make it essential to offer Darūd as much as possible and pray for His peace and blessings upon the Holy Prophet on Fridays. The Holy Prophet (peace and bleasings of Allah be upon him) has observed:

"Recite as much Darüd for me as poseible on Fridays.

The angels join this 'Darüd' prayer and Darüd is presented to me. (Ibn Mājah)

Etiquettes of Funeral Prayers

1. Do join the funeral prayers. The funeral prayer is a petition of mercy for the deceased and this ie a duty which everyone owes to the dead. If you fear the funeral prayer will be over by the time you have performed ablutione, then perform 'Tayammm' and join the prayere at once. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed: "Do say the funeral prayere. May he this prayer induces feelings of sorrow in you. A corrowful man remains under the shadow of God and welcomes every pioue deed". (Hākim)

The Holy Prophet (peace and hleesings of Aliah be upon him) also sfirmed: "The deceased whose funeral prayers are offered by three lines of Muslims will certainly be admitted to Paradise". (462 Dāwād)

- At the time of saying funeral prayers, put the bier on the ground so that the head is towards the north, the feet towards the south and the face of the dead is turned in the direction of the Qiblah.
- If you are leading the funeral prayer, stand facing the bosom of the dead.
- 4. The number of lines in a funeral prayer must be odd. A single line would anfilee if those present at the funeral prayer are few, but if there are enough present, fall in three. As the number of people increases, form more lines, yet the number of lines should be kept odd.

Make a resolve in your mind before starting the funeral prayer that you are eaying the funeral prayers to beg Mercy from the Kind and Beneficent Lord for the deceased. The Imam as well as the followers should make this resolve.

- 6. Whatever the Imam says in the funeral prayer, the followers must repeat the same. The followers should not keep silent. However, the Imam should say Takbirs in a loud voice and the followers should repeat them in a low sound.
- Say four Takbirs in the funeral prayer. Raise your hands up to the ears while saying the first Takbir and then fold them on your shdomen and offer praise to God:

سُبْحَنَكَ ٱللّٰهُمَّ وَ يَحْمَدُكَ وَتَبَارَكُ اسْمُكَ وَتَبَالُهُ جَدْكَ وَجَلَّ ضَنَامُكَ وَلَا الْمَ غَيْشُرُكَ .

Subhānakallahumma wa bihamdika wa tabarakasmukā wa ta'Ala jadluka wa jalla thana'uka walā ilāha ghairuk.

"God! Thou art Pure and Supreme. High Praise and Thanksgiving is due to Theo. Thy Name is the Most Blessed one and the Bestower of Good. Thy Exaltedness and Glory art Most High. Thy Praise is Great and there is no deity except Thee".

Now say the second Takbir, but do not raise your hands, nor make a motion of the head. At the end of the second Takbir, recite the 'Darūd':

اَلْهُمْ صَلِ عَلَى مُحَدَّدٌ وَعَلَى الْ مُحَمَّدٌ كَمَا صَلَّمْتُ عَلَى ابْسِرَاهُمْ وَعَلَى الْ ابْسِرَاهِمْ النَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ. اللَّهُمْ بَارِكُ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٌ وَعَلَى الْ مُحَمَّدُ كَمَا بَارِكْتَ عَلَىٰ اِسْرَاهِيمَ وَ عَلَىٰ أَلَ اِسْرَاهِيمَ انْـكَ حَمِيدَ مَجِيدَ .

Allahumma Salli 'alā Muhammadin Wa 'alā āli Muhammadin kama sallaitu 'alā lörāhima wa-'alā-āli Brahīma innaka Hamid-um-majid. Allahumma bārik 'alā Muhammadin b 'alā-āli Muhammadin kamā bārakta 'alā lörāhīma wa-'alā-āli lörāhīma innaka Hamidaum-majid.

"God: May Thy peace and hlessings be upon Muhammad and his family, as Thou sent Thy peace and hlessings upon Ibrahim and his family. Without doubt Thou possessoth this greatest attributes and art Most High. God! May Thy peace and blessings ha upon Muhammad and his family, as Thou sant peace and blessings upon Ihrahim and his family. Without doubt Thou possessoth the greatest attributes and art Most High".

Now say the third Takhir without raising your hands and offer a prayer with prescribed supplication to heg mercy from the Lord for the dead. Finally, say the fourth Takhir and say 'Salam' turning the head to right and left.

 If the decased is an adult male or female, say this prayer after tha third Takhir.

اللَّهُمَّ أَغْفَرْ لِحَيِّنَا وَ مَيْنِنَا وَ شَاهِدَنَا وَ غَافِينَا وَ صَفْيِرَانَا وَ صَفْيِرَانَا وَ حَفْيرَانَا وَ كَالْهُمَّ مَّنْ اَخْيَيْتُهُ مِنَّا فَكَيْنِهُمْ مَّنْ اَخْيَيْتُهُ مِنَّا فَلَوْمَ مَنْ الْمُؤْمِ وَمَنْ تَوَقَّيْتُهُ مِنَّا فَتَوَقَّهُ عَلَى الْإِسْلَامِ وَ مَنْ تَوَقَّيْتُهُ مِنَّا فَتَوَقَّهُ عَلَى الْإِسْلَامِ وَ مَنْ تَوَقَّيْتُهُ مِنَّا فَتَوَقَّهُ عَلَى الْإِسْلَامِ وَ مَنْ تَوَقَّيْتُهُ مِنَّا فَتَوَقَّهُ عَلَى

"God! Show mercy to our living, to our dead, to those who are present with us here and to those who are not present, to our youngsters, to our elders, to our men and to our women. God! Whomsoever it pleases Thee to keep alive among us, keep him alive as faithful of Islam and upon whomsoever it pleases Thee to send death, let him die in faith".

If the deceased is a minor boy, say this prayer:

Allahummaj'alhu land faratan waj'alhu land ajran wa dhukhran waj'alhu land shaft'an wa mushaffu'd.

"God! Let this boy serve as a means of Thy grant of salvation to us and let him be a repository of our reward and welfare in the eternal world and let him be our successful intercessor".

If the deceased is a minor girl, say this prayer. The meaning of this prayer is identical with the prayer offered for the boy.

Allahummaj'alhā lanā faratan waj'alhā lanā ajran wa dhukhran waj'alhā lanā shāfi'atan wa mushaffa'atan. 9. In this pensive and thoughtful frame of mind, you will gain the be proceeding one day to bury you in the earth. In this pensive and thoughtful frame of mind, you will gain the favour of remembering your ultimate end for some time at least and the worries and cares of the world will vanish from your mind.

Etiquettes for Attending the Death-bed

 When you visit a person whose end is neer, keep on reciting the Kalimah أَالَ اللّٰهُ مُعَدِّدُ رَبُولُ اللهِ Lā ilaha illallahu

Muhammad-ur-rasil ullah. (There is no god hut Alleh and Muhammad is His Apostle) in e loud voice. Do not press the petient to atter the Kalimeh. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) hes observed: "When you sit hy the doath-bed of any Muslim, keep reciting the Kalimah".

- 2. Recite 'Surah Yasin' when the patient is heaving lest hreaths. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed: "Recite 'Surah Yasin' by the death-hed". (Fatunca Alampiri, p. 100, Vol. 1). When the person has breathed his last, do not recite the Qur'an near the deceased till his body has been washed. The man who needs a hath and the woman who is pessing through the period of her menses or the efter birth course should not go near the dead.

4. Abatain from loud lamentations and wailing for the

- deceased person. However, if the eyes are filled with tears out of grief it is hut natural. When the Holy Prophet's (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) son Hadrat Ihrahim (God be pleased with him) expired, the eyes of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) were filled with tears. Similarly, when his grandson, the child of his daughter Zainab (God be pleased with her) passed away, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) shed tears. The people asked: "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you)! How is it ?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "This is a blessing which God has bestewed upon the hearts of His creatures. God shows mercy to those among His creatures who are tender hearted and kind". The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) further observed : "He who slaps his face, teers his clothes and indulges in lamentation like the pagans, has nothing to do with us".
  - 5. As soon as one expires, straighten out his arms and legs; olose the eyes and pass a wide bandage below the ohin and tie its ends over the head. Both toes of the feet should be tied together with a strip of cloth. Wrap the body in a

- —Bismillahi wa 'alā millati rasālillah. "In the name of God and according to the custom of the followers of the Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). Pass around an obituary notice among the people. At the moment of lowering the corpse in the grave, continue to say the same prayer.
- 6.º Mention the virtues of the dead and avoid narration of his demerits. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Do mention the virtues of your dead and keep silent about their vices". (Abū Dāwūd). In addition, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: "When a man dies and a few of his neighbours testify that he was a good man, God observes—"I accept your testimony and I grant him pardon even for these of his acts which remained a secret to you".

(Ibn Hibban)

On one occasion the companions (God be pleased with them) praised the virtues of a dead man in the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) whereupon the Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "This dead person's abode has been made in Paradise! O people, you are the witnesses of God on earth. If you testify that a certain man is good, God admite him to Paradise and if you bear witness that a certain man ie wicked, God consigns him to Hell". (Bukhārt, Muslim)

And the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) also affirmed: "When you visit a patient to enquire after his welfare or join a funeral procession, do utter good remarks, for the angels say 'So be it' ('Amin) after each good remark you make". (Muslim)

 Always show patience and fortitude on the death of your near and dear ones. Do not utter any ungrateful remark. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed: "When a man observes patience on the death of bis child, God enquires from His angels, "Did you extract the soul of the child of my hondsman?" The angels reply: "O, Sustainer! We have complied with Thy hidding". Then God enquires: "Did you extract the life of the darling of my hondsman"? The angels suhmit: "Yes". God then asks: "And what did my servant say?" They suhmit: Lord! He offered praise to Thee and recited

"We all helong to God and to Him shall we return".
Thereupon God ordains the angels: "Build a dwelling in Paradise for this servant of mine and name this dwelling 'Bait sl-Hamd' (House of Thanksgiving)". (Tirmidht)

8. Do not delay washing the body of the deceased. It is hetter to put some leaves of the 'plum tree' in the bath water and heat it a little. Stretch the body on a clean wooden board ; take off its garments and wrap a sheet round the lower part of the body. Cover your hand with a clotb and clean the front and back private parts of the hody. Take care that the wrapping sheet does not slip off. Then perform ablution on the body; there is no need, however, to rinse the mouth or pass water into the nose of the body during the performance of ablution. When washing the corpse block the ears and nostrils with cotton wool so that water does not enter into them. Then wash the head clean with soap or something else. Turn over the corpse towards the left side and pouring water from the right side bathe the body from head to foot. Similarly, pouring the water from the left side wash the hody from head to foot. Take off the water soaked sheet and wrap a dry sheet round the lower part of the body. Now lift the body from the hoard, and place it in the coffin on the cot. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) has observed: "God shall pardon forty capital sins of man who hathes a corpse and conceals the sins of the dead person; and the man who lowers the corpse in the grave, provides, as it were, a home to the deceased to live in until the Day of Doom". (Tabrani)

- 9. Use a white cloth of average quality as a ahrond for the body; don't use a very costly cloth nor a cloth of very low quality. For men the shrond should consist of three garments : one sheet, one 'Tehband' (a sheet for wrapping round the lower part of the body) and a 'Kafni' or 'shirt' (a covering for the upper portion of the body). The length of the sheet should exceed the stature of the dead in measurement so that its ends may be tied on the side of the head as well as on the side of the feet. The measure of the width of the sheet should be adequate to cover the body well. For women, include an additional apparel 'sarband', a piece of cloth to cover the head and concea the hair in the coffin. It should be one yard long and measure a little less than a yard in width. A 'Cheat Band', a cloth to provide an additional covering from armplts to the knees, should also form part of a woman's coffin. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed: "God will provide dresses made of Sundus and Astabraq1 in Paradise for him who puts the body of a (Hākim) deceased in coffin".
- and Astabraq¹ in Paradise for him who puts the body of a deceased in coffin'.

  10. Keep your pace quick while taking the bier to the grave-yard. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed: "Make haste in the matter of funerals". Hadrat Ibu Mas'ud (God be pleased with him) submitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him): "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you)! What should be the pace of our steps while taking the bier to the gravyard"? The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Keep the pace of your steps short of running. If the deceased was a good man, carry him to his good end quickly. If he was wicked one, make haste to remove his evil from your midst".

- 11. Accompany the funeral on foot. On one occasion, when the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was walking with a funeral procession, he (peace and blessings of Allah be upon bim) eaw a few participants riding along. The Holy Prophet (poace and blessings of Allah be upon him) reprimanded them thus: "Don't you feel ashamed of yourselves! The angels are walking on foot, while you are riding on the backs of the beasts". However, on your way back from the burial, you can use a transport. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) went with the funeral procession of Abu Wabidi (dod be pleased with him) on foot and returned on borseback.
- 12. Stand on your feet on seeing a funeral approaching and if you do not wish to accompany it, wait till the procession has moved on to some distance before resuming your journey or other activities. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) sfilmed:
  "Stand on your feet on seeing a funeral procession

"Stand on your feet on seeing a funeral procession approaching. Those who accompany the funeral procession should not ait down until the bier has been placed on the ground".

13. Do offer funeral prayers. You should also participate in funeral processions and put your shoulder under the bier for some time. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) has observed:

"Every Muslim owes a duty to accompany the funeral procession of a deceased Muslim". The Prophot of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) further observed: "A man who participates in the funeral procession and offers funeral prayers will get a reward equal to one Carat. He who attends the burial also after saying the funeral prayers will receive a reward equal to two Carats". Some one submitted: "What will be the size of these two Carats?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: "It will be equal to the mass of two mountains". (Bukhārt, Muslim)

- 14. Let the grave be excavated from north to sonth lengthwise. Keep the body of the deceased turned towards the Qiblah when lowering it in the grave. If the hody is light, two men are enough, otherwise three or four men may join in interring a hody into the grave. At the moment of internment, untie the knots of the shroud and turn over the body towards the Oiblah.
- 15. Do observe purdah when interring a female hody into the grave.
- 16. Start filling the grave with earth from the side of the head. Pick up the earth in both hands and throw it into the grave. Repeat the act three times. When throwing in the earth the first time say ..... Minhā Khalagnākum.

"We created you out of this earth". When throwing in the earth the second time, say وَ فَيْهَا لُعِيدٌ كُمْ Wa fiha nu'idukum. "And We return you to the same earth". And when you به ورو دروه برام ده. و منها نخر چکم تارة اخری throw in the earth the third time, say

-Wa minhā nukhrijukum tāratan ukhrā. "And We shall resurrect you from the same earth". 17. Do not raise the grave very high, nor make it in the form - of a square. Fill the grave with the same amount of earth which was excavated from it. Sprinkle some water over the grave after filling it with earth.

- 18. Stay a while near the grave after burial. Offer prayers hegging mercy for the deceased. Recite some verses of the Qur'an and send its blessings after the departed soul. Ask other people to offer prayers to God to show mercy to the dead person. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) himself used to offer prayers to God for the grant of mercy to the deceased and observed to other people: "Pray to God that your hrother may remain steadfast and beg mercy for him from the Lord as now is he to account for every moment of his wordly life".

- 19. If a bereavement occurs among tha kin, relatives, or in the neighbourhood, send cooked food for one or two times to their house, because they will be too overcome with grief to think of cooking meals. 'Jami' Tirmidhi' records that when the martyrdom of Hadrat Jaffar (God be pleased with him) was reported the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) commanded : "Prepare some food for the family of Ja far. They are pre-occupied with grief today".
- Do not mourn for the dead for a period of more than three days. However, for a woman whose husband is dead, the prescribed period of mourning is four months and ten days. Whan Abu Sufvan (God be pleased with him), the father of Umm ul-Mo'minin Hadrat Ummi Habibah (God be pleased with har) axpired, the illustrious lady Zainab (God ba plaased with har) came to offer condolences to her. Hadrat Ummi Habibah (God be pleasad with her) sant for perfume in which some quantity of yellow saffron had been mixed. Umm nl-Mo'minin rubbed that perfume on her slave woman and then applied some to har own face. Sha then observed: "God knows I did not need perfume, but I have heard the Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) say: "No woman who believes in God and the Day of Judgement should observe mourning for more than three days for any man. However, the period of mourning in the case of her husband's death is four months and ten days". (Abū Dāwūd)

21. Offer some charity on bahalf of the deceasad according to your means. However, atrictly avoid performance of unpropitious and improper rites in this case.

Etiquettes of Visiting Graveyards

1. Accompany the funeral procession to the graveyard and attend the burial. Do pay visits to the graveyard off and on. These visits remind one of the life hereafter and induce one to start making preparations for the life after death. On one occasion the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) accompanied a funeral procession to the graveyard and sitting down beside a grave shedded so much tears that the earth became wet. Then addressing the companions (God be pleased with them), the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Brothers ! Prepare yourself for this day".

(Ibn Majah)

Once when he was seated near a grave, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab he npon him) affirmed: "Every grave proclaims in the most terrific voice; O Progeny of Adam! Have you forgotten me I I am the house of loneliness. I am a strange land of wilderness I am a hole of mitees and worms. I am a place of hardship and trial. Save those fortunate one for whom God makes me commodique and wide. I am for all other human beings a tortnous place". In addition, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon upon him) observed: The grave is either one of the pits of Hell or a small flower-garden out of the gardens of Paradise". (Tabrani)

Take a warning from the sight of the graveyard and form the habit of concentrating your thoughts and imaginative powers on the meditation of life after death.
Once upon a time. Hardat 'Ali (God be pleased with him) visited a graveyard. Hadrat Kameel (God be pleased with him) accompanied him. On reaching the graveyard, Hadrat 'Ali (God be pleased with him) looked at the graves and then addressing the immates of the graves, observed:

O inmates of graves ! O inhabitants of ruins ! O those whol ive in isolation in a land of wilderness! Say, how you are ? As regards conditions over here, the assets left over have been divided, the offspring are rendered orphans, the widows have entered into new marriage contracts. This is the state of affairs in onr world. Now toll us what is happening to you". Hadrat 'Ali (God be pleased with him) then remained silent for some time and then turning towards Hadrat Kameel (God be pleased with him observed: "Kameel, if the inmates of these graves were allowed to speak, they would say: 'Piety is the most valuable treasure'. Having said this, Hadrat 'Ali (God be pleased with him) wept and continued to weep for a long time. Later Hadrat 'Ali (God be plessed with him) remarked : "Kameel, the grave is an enclosure where only deeds matter and as soon as one meets death he realises this fact".

3. Say this prayer on entering the graveyard :

Assalāmu 'alaikum ahlad-diyāri min-al mo'minina wadmuslimina wa innā inska' allahu bikum lähiqūna as'alullah lanā wa lakum-ul.'aftyah.

"Peace be on you, O pious and faithful inmates of this habitation. God willing, we shall soon join company with you. We pray to God, for our sake and for your sake, that He may protest me from His Torture and Wrath".

- 4. Don't laugh, crack jokes or engage in worldly talk in the graveyard like careless and carefree persons. Grave is the gateway to Eternity. Let the sight of this gateway turn your thoughts to the mext world and overcome by feelings of care and remoras let your eyes shed tears of repentance. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "I had forbidden you to visit graveyards (so that faith in one God may take firm roots in your heart). But now if you wish you may go to the cemetries, for the sight of graves makes one remember the life hereafter". (Muslim)
- 5. Avoid building graves of bricks and mortar and do not embellish them. When the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was close to end of his (peace and blessings of Allah be upon bim) eartily life, he was restless with physical pain. In this state, he would sometimes draw the aheet over his holy face and then remove it. While the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was in this turbulent condition of restlessness, Fiadrat 'Aisha (God be pleased with her) heard him uttering the following words: "God's curse be on the Jews and Christians. They tyroed the sepulchres of their Prophets into places of worship".
- 6. Do pray that God may bestow rewards on the dead and grant them mercy, whenever you visit the graveyard. Hadrat Sufyan (God be pleased with him) states: "Just as the living stand in need of eating and drinking, so do the dead stand in dire need of prayers for their salvation".

Tabarāni records the following tradition: "When God elevates a pious man one degree higher in Paradise, the man submits—"O Creator! How did I come to deserve this reward?" God thereupon affirms: "This reward has been conferred upon yon by virtue of your sons' petitions of merey on your bebalf".

Etiquettes on Eclipse of Sun or Moon'

- 1. When the sun or the moon is celipsed, do engage yourcelf in the remembrance of God. Offer prayers to Him. Praise Him, and give charity. As a bleesing for thece pious deeds, God puts off all trials and calamities. Hadrat Mughirah b. Sho'bah (God be pleased with him) relates that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "The cun and the moon are the two signs of God. They do not go under celipse on the birth or death of anyone. Do call for the grace of God, offer prayers to Him, worship Him when you see the sun or the moon in celipse and continue to offer devotione to the Almighty until the celipse clears off". (Bukhāri, Muslim)
  - 2. When the sun is under eclipse, offer prayers in a congregation in the mosque. However, do not announce the prayer-call, nor say 'Iqāmat'. Call the people together by some other means. When the moon is in eclipse, offer supercrogatory prayers (Nawäfil). Do not assemble a congregation.
  - 3. When the eun is eclipsed, say two 'Rak'ahe' of eupplementary prayers (Naß) in a congregation and recite long from the Holy Qur'an and continue your prayers until the eun is cleat. Recite the Holy Qur'an loudly during the prayers. In the days of the Holy Prophet /peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) once the sun came under eclipse. The same day Hadrat Ibrahim (God be pleased with him), the infant son of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) expired. people began to say to each other that since Hadrat Ihrahim, the son of Mnhammad (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) has passed away, the sun has gone under eclipse. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) assembled the people in a congregation and led them in prayer consisting of two Rak'abs. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he noon him) engaged in long recitation of the Holy Qur'an in the course of this prayer and read through the whole of 'Surah al-Bagarah'. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) then observed to the people : "The ann and the moon are the two Signs of God. They do not so into eclipse on the birth or death of anyone. O People! Whenever such an event occurs, do engage in devotion to God. Offer prayers to Him, praise Him, hymn His greatness end oneness. Say prayers and give oherity".

(Bukhāri, Muslim)

Hadrst 'Abdul-Rahman b. Samurah (God be pleased with him) relates: "During the propisious days of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) the sun went into an esclipso once. I was at that time practising archery outside Medinah. I at once flung away the arrows to see what would the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) do at the occurrence of this event. Sn I went to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). He (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was occupied in offering praises the God and repeating His Attributes and natering? Takbr and Tehlil and observing prayers and making anplications with his hands raised to the Heevens. Then the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him) offered preyer consisting of two Rak'shs and recited two long Surehs of the Qur'an in the course of the prayers and continued to offer devotions till the sun cleared off the eclipse".

The illustrious companions (God he pleased with them) also used to offer prayers during 'Kusuf' and 'Khusuf'. Hadrat 'Ahdullah h. Zuhair (God be pleased with him) offered prayers on the appearance of an eclipse in Medinah. Similerly, on another occasion when an eclipse appeared Hadrat 'Abdullah h. 'Ahbas (God be pleased with him) assembled the people cud offered a prayer in congregation.

- 4. In the course of the prayer on the occasion of an eclipse of the sun, recite Snrah 'Ankabit after Surah Fatiha In the first Rak'sh and recite Surah al Room in the second Rak'sh. It is propitious to recite these Surahs, but not obligatory. Surahs other than those mentioned above may also he racited.
- 5. If the women wish to join the congregation for prayer on the occasion of an eclipse of the sun and the facility for including thom in the congregation exists, do let them join. Persuade the children also to join prayers so that faith in one God takes firm roots in their hearts in their early years and no other notions derogatory to the belief in one God may infiltrate their minds.
- 6. If the eclipse of the sun occurs during those hours in which the saying of prayers is forhidden i.e., the hours of sunrise, sunset and the declining hours of the day, avoid offering 'Namaz'. Do offer praises to God however and give charity to the poor and the destitute. If the eclipse continues even after the hour of sunrise or the declining hour of the day have passed, then say prayers also in addition to performing the above-mentioned deeds.

Etiquettes of Ramadan

- Start preparing your mind from the month of Sha'ban for according a befitting reception to Ramadan. Keep fasts frequently before the fifteenth of Sha'ban. Hadrat 'A'isha (God be pleased with her) relates: "The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon bim) used to keep fasts more often in Sha'ban than in any other month".
- Make an effort to sight the Ramadan moon with full attention and eagerness and say this prayer on sighting the moon:

Allahu akbar Allahumma ahillahu 'alaind bil-amni walimāni was-sālamati wal-Islami wal-taufiqi limā tuhibbu wa tardā rabbund wa rabbukallah.

God is the greatest 1 O God 1 Do make the appearance of this moon a token of peace, faith, salvation and Islam (nobelnee) for us. Do make this moon arise as a favour to us so that we may perform deeds which conform to Thy Will and are dear to Thee. Onr Lord and thy Lord is God 1"

And say the same prayer on sighting the moon of each month. (Tirmidhi, Ibn Hibban, etc.)

3. Do take special interest in offering devotions during the month of Ramadan. In addition to obligatory prayers, make it a point to observe supererogatory prayers (Nawāfil) also. Make a firm resolve to win the maximum favour of God. God has reserved His special favours and blessings for this great and propitions month. On the final day of Sha'han, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allsh he upon him) in a discourse on the blessings of the month of Ramadan affirmed:

"O people! A great and hlessed month is going to est in on you. Each night of this month is better than a thousand months. God has made fasting obligatory during this month and has ordsined Tarävih as a supplementary prayer. Any man who performs a good deed during this month of his own free volition will receive a reward equal to the reward for ohligatory deeds performed during other months. And any man who performs a single ohligatory act during this month, he shall receive a reward equal to the reward of eeventy ohligatory acts during other months".

- 4. Keep fasts whole of the month with deep eagerness and zeal. Even if you can't observe fast due to some serious illness or for any other reason permissible in charish, strictly avoid eating before others out of respect for the sanctity of Ramadan. To all intents and purposes, you must appear as if you are feating.
- 5. Make it's point to recite the Holy Qur'an. The month of Ramadan has a special connexion with the Holy Qur'an. The Holy Qur'an was revealed in this month and the other Divine Books also descended in the same month. Hadrat Ihrahim (peace be upon him) received scriptures on the first or the third day of this month. 'Zabūr' descended on Ḥaḍrat Dāwūd (peace be upon him) on the twelfth or eighteenth dey of this month. Torah was revealed to Hadrat Müse (peace be upon him) on the sixth day of this propitious month. On the twelfth of thirteenth day of the same blessed month, the Bihle was transmitted to Hadrat Isa (peace he npon him). Hence recite Qur'ān es many times as possible in the course of this month. Hadrat Gabriel (peace be upon him) nsed to recite the Holy Qur'ân to the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) and also heard recitation of the Qur'ân from the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) every year during the month of Ramadan. In the final year of the Holy Prophet's earthly life (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). Hadrat Gabriel (peace be upon him) completed the whole text of the Qur'ān twice during the month of Ramadan.

- Try to recite the Qur'an distinctly and with understanding. Along with frequent recitation, be careful to grasp the meaning of the Holy Qur'an with a clear impact of its message on your mind and heart.
- During 'Tarāvih' do listen to the recitation of the whole text of the Qur'an. The Holy Prophet used to listen to the whole text of the Holy Qur'an at least once during Ramadan.
- 8. Say 'Taravih' prayers with humility, eagerness and devotion. Do not just complete the number of Rak'shs in a mechanical fashion. Offer prayers with understanding and devotion so that your life may be influenced by the propitious influence of the Namāx and your devotion to God may become firm and deep. Do offer Tahajjud prayers elso by the favour of God.
  - 9. Give charity and spend whatever you can in the way of Allah. Look after the needs of the poor, the widows and the orphans and arrange provisions for them for 'Sahri' and 'Iftari'. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed: "This is a month of Mawasat"1, Hadrat Ibn 'Ahhas (God be pleased with him) reports : "The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was hy nature generous and munificent, but his munificence (peace and hiessings of Allah be upon him) knew no bounds during the month of Ramadan. When Hadrat Gahriel (peace be upon him) visited the Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah be upon him) each night and recited the Holy Qur'an to the Prophet and heard the recitation of the Holy Book from the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him), during that period the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him) became even more generous than the blowing wind".

 Do offer maximum rakats of snpplementary prayers during 'Shab Qgdr,2 and recite the Holy Qur'an. The importance of this night is affirmed by the fact that the Holy Qur'an was revealed during this night. The Holy Qnr'an says :

Lo! We revealed it in the Night of Power. And do you understand what the Night of Power is! The Night of Power is hetter than a thousand months. The angels and the spirits descend therein, by the permission of their Lord with all decrees. (That night is) Peace until the rising of dawn.

The traditions record that 'Shah Qadr' is one among the odd nights in the last week of Ramadan. Say this prayer during this night :

2. Lails tul Qadr i.e., the night when the decisions for the whole year are announced and the desting is shaped.

<sup>(1)</sup> The word 'Mawasat' means to show sympathy to the poor and the needy. Sympathy means offering financial help to the poor or expressing your sympathy in conversation. Be nice in your speech and behaviour towards them. Provide all facilities to your employees and give them financial support.

Allahumma innaka 'afuwwun tuhibb-ul-'afwa fa'fu anni. (Hisn Hasien)

"God! Forgiveness is Thy Greatest Attribute, for thou likest to forgive. So forgive me".

Hadrat Anas (God be pleased with him) relates that once in the month of Ramadan, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) observed: "A month has come upon yon people in which there is one night which is better than a thousand months. The person who misses offering devotions in the course of this night deprives himself of all the bliss. And only that person remains deprived of the Grace and Blessings of this month who really deserves deprivation". (Ibm Majah)

Observe I tikaf in the last week of the month of Ramadan.
 The Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) used to perform I tikaf during the last ten days of Ramadan.

Hadrat 'A'isha (God be pleased with her) reports:
"When the last week of Ramadan approached, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to keep awake during most part of the nights and devoted himself to worship. He (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) also decreed the female of the household to remain awake and engaged himself in the worship of God with full zeal and perfect devotion".

- 12. Show utmost tenderness and affection to poople in the month of Ramsdan. Provide maximum facilities to your employees and supply their needs with extreme liberality. Deal with members of your household with kindness and generosity.
- 13. Say the maximum rakata of prayers with humility, zeal and devotion. It is related in *Durn Manthay* that when the Holy Month of Ramadan came, the pattern of the Holy Prophet's (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) life underwent a change. The namber of the rakats of supercragative prayers offered by him (peace and and blessings of Allah be upon him) increased. He (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed deeper humility in prayers and appeared totally overcome with fear of God.

The traditions record: "In the month of Ramadan, God ordains the heaven supporting angels to give up their supplications and aay 'Amin (So be it!) after the prayers of the fasting persons".

14. Pay 'Sadaqa Fitr' (charity ordained before Eid prayers and at the end of Ramadan) with a willing heart and give it away before saying 'Eid prayer. If possible, pay it well before the 'Eid so that the needy and destitute may also buy necessary provisions for the 'Eid and go to the 'Idgah with everybody clas and join in the festivities of the 'Eid. It is reported in the traditions that the Holy Prophet (pesce and blessings of Allah be upon him) made the payment of 'Sadaga Fitr' obligatory for his followers for two reasons: first, as an atonement for any improper or licentious deed that the fasting people may have committed unconscionsly in the period of their fast; and secondly, 'Sadaga Fitr' is. to be paid to make provisions of food for the poor and the indigent to afford them to enjoy the auspicious Eid day. (Abū Dawūd) auspicious Eid day.

16. Besides practioning maximum possible piety yourself in the holy days of Ramadan, persuade others also with fervour, zeal, tenderness and tact to do acts of piety, so that the fear of God, love of piety and goodness may reign supreme over all and the society, as a whole, may derive the greatest benefit from the limitless hlessings of the holy month of Ramadan.

Etiquettes of Fasting

 Keeping in view the great reward and great blessings of Fasting, make arrangement for observing fasts with full zeal and complete earnestness. No other form of worship can serve as an alternative to Fasting. For this reason, God made Fasting obligatory for every Ummah (Followers of a Prophet). God affirms:

Yd-ayyuhalladhina Amand kutiba 'alaikumusiyamu kamd kutiba 'alalladhina min qablikum la'allakum tattaqun,

"O ye who believe! Prescribed for you is fasting, as it was prescribed for those before you so that you may become God-fearing".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) elucidated this sublime objective of Fasting as follows:

"A person who does not renounce false speech and practising falsehood while he fasts, God cares not for his abstinence from food or drink". (Bukhari)

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) further observed:

"The person who fasts with a perfect sense of devotion to faith and 'Ibtisab'l (sense of accountability), God will pardon all the sins which he may have committed in his (Bukhari) pravious life".

2. Observe all fasts of Ramadan with full care and miss any fast save in case of severe illness or on the ground of some religious excuse. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed :

"Anyone who misses a single fast during Ramadan except in case of severe illness or on ground of religious excuse cannot make amends for this offence by keeping fasts on all the remaining days of his life."

(Tirmidhi)

- 3. Keep yourself busy in your daily occupation and be active and cheerful in work so as to avoid hypocrisy and false appearances during fasting. Do not show weakness or lethargy in your behaviour during the fast. Hadrat Abu Huraira (God he pleased with him) remarked: "When a man observes fasts he ought to annoint himself with oil as usual so that the effects of fasting do not show off".
- 4. Make your best efforts to avoid all forms of evil during the fast, hecause the very objective of the fast is to purge the life of man of all evil and make it righteous. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed :

"Fast serves as a shield. When any of you is in a state of fasting, be should take care not to utter any evil speech by his tongue or to start an affray. In case someone starts railing at him or is inclined to start a fight with him, the man who is fasting should reflect that he is in a state of fasting (bow can be reciprocate offensive (Bukhari, Muslim) language ?)

I. The term 'Intisab' means that the fast should be observed only to please God and to win reward in the eternal world and to avoid all evils which violate the spirit of fasting.

5. Covet the great reward for fasting as reported in the Traditions. Offer a prayer to God especially near the bour of Ifter (breaking the fast). "O God! Be gracious to accept my fast and grant me that favour and reward which you bave promised". The Holy Prophet (pesce and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: Those who observe fasts will enter Parsdise through a special gateway. The name of this gate is 'Riyyan'. When the entire number of all those who observe fasts have gone in, the gate will be closed and no one will be allowed to enter it afterwards". (Bukhari)

(Bukhari)
The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allsh be upon him) also observed: "On the Day of Judgement, Fast will intercede with God and say: "O Crestor! I restrained this man from eating, drinking and taking other pleasures during the day. O God! be gracious to accept my intercession on behalf of this man". And God shall grant this petition".

In addition, the Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Any prayer which a fasting person offers at the hour of Iftar (time of breaking the fast) is granted and is never refused."

(Trimidh)

- Bear the hardships of the fast in good cheer. Do not degrade the sanctity of the fast by complaining of the panes of hunger or thirst or weakness.
- 7. If you are unable to observe fast during a journey or because of severe illness, you can forgo it, but atone for it on other days. The Holy Qur'an affirms:

 &#x27;Riyyan' means 'that which irrigates'. The Holy Prophet (peacs and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed: "Those whoenter the Gateway of 'Riyyan' will never more feel thirst".

Waman kāna maridan au 'alā safarin fa 'id datun min (2:185)ayyamin ukhara. "But whosoever among you is sick or on a journey (he is required to observe fast instead of these days) the same number of other days".

Hadrat Anas (God be pleased with him) reports: occasions when we went on journeys with the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him), some of the companions observed fast and other did However, neither those who had kept fast criticised those who had missed the fast nor the latter objected to the (Bukhari) fasting of the former".

8. Avoid back-hiting and castling an evil eye strictly during the fast. The Holy Prophet (peace and bleesings of Allah be upon him) has observed :

"The person who keeps fact is in fact offering devotion to God from morning till evening nnless, of course, he backhitee against someone. When he indulges in backhiting, his fast is broken." (Ad-Dailmi)

9. Earn a lawful living. No devotion of the body fed on illicit earnings is admissible. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed : "The body fed on illicit earnings is a proper fnel for Hell-Fire."

(Bukhari)

"On

10. Do eat 'Sahri' meal. This alleviates the hardship of fasting as well as safeguards against weakness and lethargy. The Holy Prophet (peace and bleesings of Allah he npon him) has observed : "Do est the 'Sahri' meal, for the eating of 'Sahri' meal entails blessing". (Bukhari)

Moreover, the Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah he noon him) observed : "Eating of 'Sahri' meal entails blessing. Take a few draughts of water, if nothing else. The angels of God send peace and hiessings npon those who eat the 'Sahri' meal." (Ahmad) Furthemore, the Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"Take some rest at noon and get some ease in the night prayers. Eat Sahri meal to obtain nourishment during fast in the day time." (Ibn Majah). Sahih Muslim' records: "The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "The only difference between our fasting and the fasting observed by other people of the Book is that we begin the fast by eating the Sabri meal."

11. Do not delay in ending the fast after sunset, for the main objective of fasting is to inculcate the spirit of submission rather than abstinence from food and drink, The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allab be upon him) affirmed:

"The Muslims will remain in good condition if they hasten to Iftar (meal taken at sunset to end the fast)".

(Bukhari)

12. Say this prayer at the time of Ifter :

Allahumma laka sumtu wa 'ala rizqika aftartu.

(Muslim)

"O Allah l it is for thee that I observe fast and it is with Thine blessing that I break it.

After ending the fast, eay this prayer :

Dhahab-az-zam'u wabtallatil 'urüqu wa thabat-al ajru inskā Allah. (Abu-Daud)

No more was the thirst, moistened were the veins and reward became due. If the Lord so Willed. 13. When you perform Iftar (ending the fast) at the house of somebody else, say this prayer:

Aftara 'indakum-us-sa' imūna wa akala taāmakum-ulabrāru wa sallat 'alaikum-ul-mala'ikatu. (Abu-Daud)

"May it please God, that the fasting people may perform Ifter at your bouse and pioue people may enjoy the hospitality of food provided by you! May the angels invoke blessings upon you by their prayers!"

14. Do arrange Iftar parties. This act entails a high reward. The Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed:

"Any man who supplies meal to a fasting person to perform Ifter, God shell pardon his sine in reward for this act and grant him salvation from Hell-Fire. The man who supplies meal for Ifter to a fasting person will receive an equal reward with him. The reward of the fasting person will not, however, be curtailed." The people submitted "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be npon you)! Where shell all of as find the wherewithal to make provision for the Ifter of a fasting person and to feed him". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "It is enough to feed a fasting person at Ifter with a date or some quantity of milk or even supply him a single draught of water for Ifter".

Etiquettes of Zakat and Sadaqat

1. Give away in the way of God with the sole motive of winning the favour of God. Do not waste your virtuous deed by keeping in view some ulterior purpose or motive. Do not expect the beneficiaries of your deed to offer thanks to you or acknowledge your favour or testify to your magnanimity. The true believers anticipate reward for their deeds from God only. The Holy Qur'an expresses the sentiments of the true believers in these words:

«الدهر ـ ۹»

Innama nut'imukum liwajhillahi la nuridu minkum jazaan wa la shakura. (76:9)
"We feed you for the sake of Allah only. We wish for

"We feed you for the sake of Allah only. We wish for no reward nor thanks from you".

- Avoid display, ostentation and showing off. Hypocrisy destroys the virtue of the best of deeds.
- 3. Pay Zakat openly, so that others may also be induced to perform their duty. However, offer other Sadaqat (charitable acts) secretly so as to promote feelings of deep sincerity in your heart. Deeds performed with true sincerity are of great value in the cycs of God. On the Day of Judgement in that terrible field where there will be no shade, God shall keep under the shadow of heaven that man who spends in the way of God in such extreme secreey that the left hand does not know what the right hand has spent." (Bukhari)

After expending in the way of God avoid reminding the beneficiaries of the favours you have done to them nor cause them any distress. To administer shocks to the self-respect of the indigent and poor, to injure their feelings by rominding them of favours done to them and to expect that they should acknowledge their obligation to you, that they should always bumbly bow to you and regard you as their superiors—auch sentiments when you have given away charity in the way of God, are wicked and despicable. The heart of the true believers should be free of such notions. God ordains:

Yaayyuhalladh'na āmanu lā tubtilu sadaqatikum bilmanni wal adha kalladhi yunfiqu maluhu riaannāsi.

Ye who believe l Render not vain your alms giving by reproach and injury like him who spendeth his wealth only to be seen of men".

5. Do not take pride or assume an air of arrogance after expending in the way of God. Do not advertise your magnanimity among the people. You should rather tremble at the thought whether your sacrifice has been accepted by God or not. God ordains:

Walladhina yutuna ma atau gulubuhum wajilatun annahum ila rabbihim raji'un. And those who give what they give while their hearts are full of fear that to their Lord they shall return.

6. Show tenderness to the poor and destitute. Do not rehuke them, not try to rule over them nor show off your superiority over them. In ease you have nothing to give to a supplicant, excuse yourself with extreme humility and politeness, so that he may depart silently invoking hlessings upon you even without receiving anything from you. The Holy Qur'an says:

Wa Imma tu'ridanna annahumub tighd'a rahmatin min rabbika tarjuhd faqul-lahum qaulam maisurd. (17: 28)

"But if you turn away from them seeking mesns from thy Lord, for which thou hopest, then speak unto them a reasonable word".

And God also ordains :

Wa-ammas-sā'ila falā tanhar.

"Therefor the beggar drive not away".

- Spend in the way of God liberally with eagerness. Do not spend with a stingy or grudging heart, nor consider it an oppressive fine. Only those people deserve grace and aucoess who forswear misorliness, narrow-mindedness and stinginess.
- 8. Spend only 'Halal' (earned by righteous means) goods in the way of God. God accepts only those goods which are pure and have been earned through righteous means. How can a believer who is eager to spend in the way of God bear that his lawfully earned goods should be mixed with illicit gains ? God ordains:

Yaayyuhalladhina āmanu anfiqu min tayyibāti mā kasahtum.

"Ye who believe! Spend of the good things that you have earned".

Give away the best goods in the way of God. God ordains:

Lantanā lulbirra hattā tunfigu mimmā tuhibbūn. (3:92)

"You shall never attain righteousness until you expend

"You shall never attain righteousness until you expend of that which you love".

Goods given away as Sadaqa (charity) are being accumulated for the benefit of eternal life in the Hereafter. How can a believer bear the thought of defective goods for his everlasting life.

- If you are liable to pay the Zakat (poor-due), do not delay the payment. Pay it at once after careful accounting so that, God forbid, nothing remains due in your account.
- 11. Pay the Zakat (poor-due) nuder a collective system and spend it under the collective system. Where Muslim governments do not exist, the Muslim citizens can form parties and create a Baitni Mal for the receipt and expenditure of Zakat (noor-due).

Etiquettes of Performing Hajj

1. Do not delay or keep putting off the performance of Hajj. Whenever God heatows enough means on you for the fulfilment of this interesting obligation set out for Hajj at the earliest opportunity. You do not know how much longer life will last, so why should you keep putting off the performance of this duty from one year to the next. The Holy Qur'an affirms:

Walillahi 'alannāsi hijjul baiti manistataā ilaihi sabīla wa man kafara fainnallaha ghaniyyun 'anil'ālamīn.

"And the people owe this duty to God that whoever has the means to journey to His House should make a pilgrimage to it. And whoever refuses to obey this command should know that God needs no favour from any one in the world".

A greater ruination and deprival of man cannot be imagined than that God should thus openly proclaim His indifference and disconcern to man.

The Traditions relate: "The person who makes up his mind to go on the pilgrimage should make haste to perform this ohligation. It is possible that he may he taken ill; or his she-camel may get lost, or perhaps an event occurs which makes it impossible for him to go to the Hajj". (Ibn Majah)

The implication is that when means are available a person should not evado the performance of this duty without sufficient reason, for one never knows if these means, freedom and facility will still he available to him in the near future, and, God forhid, the man may remain deprived of the blessing of performing the Haji for ever. May God save every heliever from this deprival! The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) has reprimanded such persons in very strict terms. The Tradition records that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) observed : "A man who is not prevented by illness or genuine need or is free from the restraints of a tyrannical and despotic ruler and yet does not porform the Haji may die a Jew or a Christian for aught we care."

(Sunan Kubra, Vol. 4) Hadrat 'Umar (God he pleased with him) was heard as saving: "I wish to impose jizya on those who, despite having means, do not perform the Haji, for they are not Muslims, they are not Muslims at all".

2. Go on a pilgrimege to the House of God and perform Haji to please God elone. Do not stain this pure objective with any worldly motives or interests. The Holy Qur'an affirms :

Wa la ämmin-al-baital harama yabtaghuna fadlan mir rabbihim wa ridhwana (5:2)

"And hinder not those who are proceeding to the Sacred Honse seeking the graces and pleasure of Allah."

Wa atimmul hajja wal-umrata lillah. (2:196)

"And complete the Hajj and 'Umrah for Allah's (sake)"

And the Holy Prophet (peace and hiersings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed: "The reward for the performance of 'Hajj Mabrur' is certainly no less than admission to Paradise".

- 3. Do not circulate the news of your going to the pilgrimage. Keep your departure for Haji and your return a private matter. Avoid strictly all those customs and ceremonies which smack of estentation or display. Even though the real test of righteousness and acceptability of a deed is that it should be performed with the sole intention of pleasing God, and that the motive of the act should be free from all taint of eny extraneous desire, but this point should be especially borne in mind in the cess of Haji, for Haji is the last resort for effecting a spiritual revolution and the purification of soul and the morel conduct of man. The 'spiritual patient' who is not successfully cured by this efficacious treatment has no hope of healing by any other means.
- 4. Even if you have no wherewithal to proceed to the pilgrimage, you should cherish the desire to view the House of God, to offer 'salam' (peace and hlessing) on the Mauseleum of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) and keep the Ibrahimi sentiments of sacrifice which are produced in the souls of the believer by Hajj ever afresh in your heart. The heart which is devoid of these sentiments is not that of a true heliever hut resembles to a desolate ruin. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) has affirmed:

Hajj Mabrur refere to the pilgrimage performed with all the proper rules and conditions in order to earn the pleasure of God.

Those who go to perform Hajj or Umrah are the special guests of God. Their prayers are granted by God and if they supplicate for mercy, He forgives them".

(Tabrani)

5. Take the hest provisions with you when yon go for Hajj. The hest provision in this case is fear of God. In this journey of righteouness, the man who avoids transgressing the Commands of God and who resps the maximum henefit of the hiessings of pilgrimage is the one who fears God under all circumstances, and has a burning seal to win the favour of God. The Holy Qur'an says:

Wa tazawwadu fa-inna khairazzadit-taqwa. (2: 197)

"And take provisions for the journey (to perform Hajj) for verily the hest provision is the fear of Allah."

6. Heving resolved to go to Hejj, start making preparations with single-minded devotion. Keep the date of the Hejj constantly in view. Reflect upon each article of the obligation of pilgrimage. Try to realise the feelings which God intends to promote in the heart of the heliever through the observance of these articles of the obligation of Hejj. Like a conscious and knowledgeable believer, observe all the erticles of Hejj with full awareness and imhihe the reclities contained in the erticles of Hejj and endeavour to hring shout e righteous revolution in your life in conformity with these realities. It is for this reason that God has ordained the performance of Hejj obligatory for the helievers. God ordains:

Wadhkurühu kam nadākum wa inkuntum min qablihi (2:198) lamin addāllīn. "And remember Him as He has guided you and verily prior to it you were of those gone astray".

For this purpose, deeply reflect upon those portions of the Holy Qur'an which describe the reality, importance and the sentiments created by the performance of Hajj. A careful study of the Traditions of the Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah be upon him) and those hooks which deal with the date of the Hajj and discuss the articles of Hajj will also prove useful in this respect.

- 7. Memorise the propitious prayers which should be offered siluring the Hajj. These may he found in the Books of Traditions. And in the words of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) heg not from God than what the Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah he upon him) himself had asked for.
- 8. Protect your Hajj from all unpropitious motives or actions. Beware lest your Hajj should become like the Hajj of those who will get no chare in the Heresfter, because the latter group shuts its eyes from the rewards of the eternal world and begs exclusively for worldly hliss. When they reach the House of God, they offer the following prayer:

Rabbanā aatina fid-dunya wa ma lahu fil akhirati min khalãg. (2:200)

"Our Lord, give tn ns in this world. And for such there shall be no portion in the Hereafter".

Make a plea to God for grace and success in hotl worlds hy means of the Hej and pray to God in these words: "Creator, I have come to Thy Presence to supplieate for anccess and the fnlfilment of my righteous desires in hoth this life and the life Hereafter". Keep saying this prayer also:

Rabbanā aatina fid dunya kasanatan wa fil-aakhirati kasanatan wa qinā 'adkāban-nār. (2:201)

"God! Grant ns goodness in this world and good in the Heresfter (also) and protect ns from the agony of Fire".

9. During Hajj avoid transgression of God's commands with extreme sensitivity. The journey to perform the Hajj is in fact a passage to the Honse of God. You are the guests of God there. You have gone there to renew your covenant of devotion to God. By putting your hand on the 'Hajar Aswad' you are in fact taking a pledge of faith and hondage and when you kiss the atone, you kiss the emblem of suhmi ssion to God You proclaim your fidelity hy chanting repeated Takbir (praises) and Tahlil (La ileha Illa Illah) of God. Imegine, then, that in such an atmosphere how disgusting would be the commission of even a minos vice or the hlemish of a small transgression. God has warned His acreants who present themselves in His Court in these words:

Wa lā fusüga.

"There should be no ungodliness".

10. During Hajj keep away from all sorts of quarrels. In the course of the journey when there is a rush of people everywhere, when you suffer discomforts, when there is a class of interests at every step, when feelings are injured every moment, it is the duty of the guest of God to display large-heartedees and self-sacrifice and show toleration, liberality and kindness to everybody. Abstain from rebuking your servant even.

Wa lā jidāla fil Hajj.

"And there should be no quarrels".

11. Safeguard against sexual matters and continue to be vigilant against carnal sentiments in the course of Hajj. In the course of the journey when there ie a greater possibility of provocation of sexual passion or of eyes going astray, you should become more alert against the evil promptings of your passions and the devil and try to protect your piety at all costs. In case you are accompanied by your spouse, you should not only avoid indulgence in sexual relationship with her, but also shun all that can stir up esqual passion. In order to warn the pilgrims, God ordains:

Alhajju ash-hurrun m'alümätu faman farada fihinnalhajja falä rafatha.

The pilgrimage is (in), the well-known month, and whoseever is minded to perform the pilgrimage (let him remember that) there is (to be) no lewdness". (2:197)

And the Holy Prophet (peace end blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed:

"Any man who comes here to perform Hajj in the House of God and keeps away from immoral and sexus! affairs and has not indulged in nagodly acts returns in that stets of purity and innoceases in which he was born from the womb of his mother".

12. Pay full reverence to the symbols of God. The word 'Sha'irah' refers to the symbol appointed by God to remind and bring home to the people some spiritual or meaningful reality. 'Sha'iir' is the plural of the above word. All things associated with the Hajj serve as symbols to bring home to you of some reality about devotion to Allah. You should rever them all. The Holy Qur'an affirms:

يَـاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اَمُنُوا لَا نُعطُّوا شَعَائِكِ اللهِ وَلَا الشَّهْرَ الْحَرَامَ وَلَا الْهَدِّى وَلَا الْقَلَالَدُ وَلَا أَمَيْنَ الْبَـنِّبَ الْحَرَامَ بَـبْسَتُعُونَ فَشَلَا مِنْ رَبِيمٍ وَ رِضُوانًا .

Ya-ayyuhalladhina āmanu la tuhillā sha' āirallah wa lashshahral harama wa lalhadya walalqala'ida wa la dmmina-l-bailal harama yablaghāna fadlam-mirabbihim wa ridubīnā.

O ye who believe! Profane not Allah's emblems nor the Sacred Month nor the offsprings nor the garlands nor those repairing to the Sacred House, seeking the grace and pleasure of Allah.

'Sura Haji' affirms :

وَ مَنْ بُعَظِّم شَعَائِرَ اللَّهِ فَأَنَّهَا مِنْ زَيْفُوى الْفُلُوبِ .

Wa man yu'azzim sha'āirallahi fa-innahā min taqwal qulūb.

And whose observe the sanctity of what have been ordained as Symbols of Allah, do so because of the piety of the hearts.

God, for above all God likes the virtues of humility, ordained as Symbols of Allah, do so because of the piety of the hearts.

13. Perform the articles of Hajj with utmost humility and adopt an attitude of destitation and helplessness before modesty and poverty in man. Someone enquired from the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), "Who is a Haji"! The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "The person who has dishevelled hair and is covered with dust all over".

14. Say Tabih with a lond voice after tying the 'lhram', after each prayer, while ascending a height or descending a slope, on joining a ceravan and on waking up each morning. The words of the Tabih are as follows:

Labbaika Allahumma labbaika labbaika la sharika laka labbaika inna-l-hamda wa-n-ni'mata laka walmulkalä sharika laka. (Mishkat)

Here I am O Lord. Here I am, Here I am. No partner hast Thon. Here I am. Behold nnto Thee belong the Praisa and the Bounty; and slee the Sovereignty. No partner hast Thon.

15. On arrival at the plain of 'Arafat', say the maximum number of prayers for mercy and offer penitence. The Holy Qur'an affirms:

Thumma afidhu min haithu afadhannasu wastaghfirullah. Innallaha Ghafoor-ur-rahim. (Al-Bagarah)

"Then hasten onward from the place whence the multitude hasteneth onward and ask forgiveness of Allah. Verily Allah is Forgiving, Merciful",

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab he upon him) bas observed :

"The day of 'Arafa is the best of all days in the view of God. On this day, the Lord of the Heavens especially turns His attention towards the world and expresses His Pride before the angels on the humility and misery of His pilgrims. God observes to the angels: "O angels, look ! my servants atend before me in the sun in a helpless state. They have gathered here from afar and the hope of hegetting My Mercy has drawn them to this place although they have not yet seen the agony of punishment." After expressing His pride, God then ordains that these people have been granted salvation from the terments of Hell. On no other occasion are such a greater number of men granted salvation as on the day of 'Arafa.

(Ibn Hibban)

16. On reaching Mina, offer sacrifice with the same passionate zeal and devotion to God with which the friend of God, Hadrat Ibrabim (peace be upon bim) had placed the knifeon the neck of his deer son Hadrat Isma'il (peace be upon him). Imbibe these feelings of sacrifices and let them be embedded in your mind and heart so that you may be willing to offer eacrifice in every field of life and your practical life reflects an image of :

Inna salāti wa nusuki wa mahyaya wa mamātt lillahi rabbilalamina lā sharīka lahu.

Verily my prayer, and my eacrifice, and my living and my dying ere for Allah, Lord of the worlds". (Al-An'am) 17. Occupy yourself continuously in the remembrance of God in the days of Hajj and never let the memory of God fade from your heart. Remembrance of God is the essence of all worship. God affirms:

Wadhkurullaha fl avvamin m'adudātin.

"Remember Allah during appointed days". Further God observes:

Fa-idhā qadaitum manasikakum fadhkurullaha kadhikrikum abaa'kum au ashadda dhikrā.

"And when you have completed your devotion then remember Allah as ye remember your fathers or with more lively remembrance".

The main purpose of the articles of Hajj is that during the days of Hajj, you should keep yourself completely absorbed in the commemoration of God and the memory of God should so permeste through your soul that the mundane activities and struggles of life may not succeed in turning your thoughte away from the memory of God. In the days of paganism, people used to laud the memory of their ancestore and made lond boasts about them after performing the articles of Hajj. God ordsined that these days should be opent in the remembrance of God and in acknowledging His grandeur alone Who is truly Great.

 Perform circumambulation of God's House with feelings of great love and devotion. God ordains:

"And you should circums mhulate the House of God".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed: "Each day God confers a hundred and twenty favours

"Each day God confers a hundred and twenty favours on His pilgrims. Sixty blessings are showered upon those who circumsmbulate the House of God; forty blessings are bestowed upon those who offers prayers in House of God; and twenty blessings are conferred upon such as only keep gazing at the Ka'ba (Baihaqi). Furthermore, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allsh be upon him) observed:

"He who has performed fifty circumambulations of the Baitullah (House of God) is purged of all his sins and is transformed into that state of innocease in which he was on the day of his delivery from the womb of his mother".

Etiquettes of Dealing with Parents

1. Behave well towards your father and mother and consider this good conduct as a propitious ant which will earn God's grace in this world as well as in the next. Next to God, man owes the greatest chligation to his parents. The greatness and value of this chligation towards one's parents may be realised from the fact that the Holy Qur'an at several points mentions the rights of parents and the rights of God simultaneously at one piace. Furthermore, the Holy Qt'an has ordained the duty of offering thanks to the parents along with thanksgiving to the Lord.

ەبنى اسرائيل ـ ٢٣»

Wa qadā rabbuka an-llā ta'budū illa iyyāhu wa bil wālidaini ihsānā. (17:23)

"Thy Lord hath decreed that ye worship none save Him and (that ye show) kindness to parents".

Hadrat Ahdullah ihn Mas'ud (God be pleased with him) relates "I submitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him) which deed will win the highest favour of God!" The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) answered: "The prayer which is offered at the appointed hour". I auhmitted again: "Next to this which other deed will win the greatest favour of God!" The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) affirmed: "Good conduct towards father and mother". I again submitted: "And next to this?" The Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) observed: "Jihad (Fighting) in the way of Allah". (Bukhari, Muslim) Hedrat 'Ahdullah (God be pleased with him) reports : "One dey a person went to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) and snhmitted : "I give my hand into your hand and sweer ellegiance for performing Hijrat and Jihad and I beseech a reward from God in return for this". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him) enquired : "Is one of your parents alive ?" He submitted: "Yes, preise he to God, both my father and mother are alive". Thereupon the Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed : "Well then do you really want to receive a reward from God for performing Hijrat and Jihad !" The man replied : "Yes, indeed, I heseech reward from God in return for these acts". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) observed : "Go then. Attend to your parents and serve them well".

Hadrat Ahu Umama (God he pleased with him) reletes:
"A man enquired from the Holy Prophet (peace end hleasings of Allah he npon him): "O Prophet of God (peace and hleasings of Allah be upon you)! What are the rights of parents over their offspring!" The Holy Prophet (peace and bleesings of Allah be upon him) effirmed: "Your entry into Paradise or Hell depends on your good or bad conduct towards your parents". (Ibn Majah)

In other words, if you treat them well, you will be sent to Paradise and if you violate the rights that your parents heve over yon, you will be consigned to serve as fuel for Hell-Fire".

 Be grateful to your parents. Thanksgiving and an acknowledgement of deht and gratitude are the first duties which a beneficiary owes to the Benefactor. It is a fact that the parents are the palpable cause for our existence. Again, it is under thair protection and upbringing that we grow up to an aga of maturity. The extraordinary self-secrifice, unparalleled davotion and deep affection with which they patronise us demand that our hearts should be filled with sentiments of reverence, indebtedness, love and an acknowlegement of their magnanimity and every fibre of our heart should pulsate with feelings of gratitude to them. It is for this reason that God has ordained offering of gratitude to parents along with thanksgiving to Him.

Anishkurli wali walidaika.

"(We willed) that you should offer thanks to Me and remain grataful to your father and mother".

3. Always try to make your parents happy. Do not say anything in opposition to their will or temperament which may displease them, especially when they are advanced in age they acquire a peeviah and irritable temparament. In old age the parents start making nexpected damands and hegin proferring impossible claims. In this case also tolerate their behaviour in good obser and do not say anything in anger in response to thair demands which may cause them pain and may injure thair feelings.

Imma yablughanna 'indakal kibara ahadu-huma au kilahuma fala tagullahuma uffin wa la tanharhuma.

"If one or both of thy parents reach an advanced age with thee, say not 'fia' unto them nor rep." them".

As a matter of fact, the strength to tolerate unplessant things is sapped during old see and weakness increases the some of self-importance in old people. Hence they react sensitively to even the minor offensive matters, Keeping in view their delicate and sensitive nature, do not let your parents feel angry by any of your words or deeds.

Hadrat 'Ahdullah b. Amr (God be pleased with him) relates that the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) affirmed: "The pleasure of God is contained in the pleasure of the father even as His displeasure is contained in the displeasure of the father."

(Tirmidhi, 1bn Hibban, Hakim)

In other words, any one who wants to please God should seek the pleasure of his father, for if the father is angry, the favour of God cannot be earned. The one who makes his father angry provokes the wrath of God."

Another statement of Hadrat 'Abdullah (God be pleased with him) runs as follows: "A man left his parents weeping and came to the presence of the Hoiy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Aliah he upon him) for the purpose of offering allegiance to the Prophet (peace and hlessings of Aliah be upon him) Frophet (peace and blessings of Aliah be upon him) observed to him: "Go back to your parents and return after making them happy as you came after leaving them crying". (Abu Dawud)

ADUS D'ANNUAL)

4. Do service to your parents with heart and soul. If God has afforded you the opportunity to serve your parents, it is in fact a favourable opportunity for you to earn entitlement to Paradise and to win the Pleasure of God. Good service to parents secures blessings and grace in both worlds and man ohtains salvation from the calamities of this world and the next. Hadrat Anas (God be pleased with him) relates:

"Any man who desires that his life should be prolonged and his subsistence may be increased ought to do good service to his parents and show kindness to them". (Al. Tarahib.o. Tarhib)

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah herupon him) has observed ;

"Let that men he disgraced, and disgreced again and let him he disgraced even more". The people enquired : "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you) who is that man?" The Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him) affirmed : "I refer to the man who finds his parente old in age -- both of them or one of them -- and yet did not earn entitlement to Paradise hy rendering good service to them". (Muslim)

On one occasion, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) gave precedence to the ohligation of looking after one's parents over one of the supreme forms of worship like Jihad. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) forhade a companion (God he pleased with him) to proceed on Jihad and urged him to look after his parente.

Hadrat 'Ahdullah ihn 'Amr (God he pleased with him) relates that a person came to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) with the intention of participating in the Jihed. The Holy Prophet (peace and hieseings of Allah he upon him) enquired from him : "Are your father and mother elive?" He suhmitted: "Yes, they are alive". The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) thereupon observed: "Go and render good service to them. This (Bukhari, Muslim) is the Jihad".

5. Respect and adore your parents and do not show disrespect to them hy a single word or action. The Holy Our'an affirms :

وَ قُـلُ لَّهُمَا قُولًا كَرِيْمًا . وبنى اسرائيل ٢٣=

Wa qullahumā qaulan karīmā. (17:23)

"Bnt speak to them a gracious word".

On one occasion Hadrat 'Abdullah b. 'Umar (God be pleased with bim) enquired from Hadrat Ibn 'Abbas (God be pleased with him): "Do you wish to ward off Hell and gain entry into Paradies?" Ibn 'Abbas (God be pleased with him) answered: "Yes, wby not, I swear in the name of God I cherish this desire". Hadrat Ibn 'Umar (God be pleased with bim) then asked: "Are your parents alive!" Ibn 'Abbas (God be pleased with bim) replied: "Yes, my mother is alive". Ibn 'Umar (God be pleased with bim) remsrked: "If you talk to them in a polite manner and look after their needs and feed them well, you will certainly be admitted to Paradise provided you abstain from capital evils".

(Al-Adab-ul Mufrad)

Hadrat Abu Huraira (God be pleased with him) once saw two men. He asked one of them: "What is your relationship with the other man" The person replied: "He is my father". Hadrat Abu Huraira (God.be-pleased with him) thereupon advised him, "Look, never call bim by his proper name, walk abead of him nor sit before he takes his seat".

(Al-Adab-ul Mufrad)

6. Be faithful and bumble towards your parents.

Wakhfid lahumā janāhadh dhulli minar rahmah.

"And lower unto tham the wing of submission through meroy". (17:23)

To offer humble chedience to parents implies to pay constant regard to their dignity. Do not assume a baughty attitude towards them, nor treat them with insolence. 7. Love your parents and consider this ect as a privilege end a source of reward in the eternal world. Hadrat Ihn 'Ahhaa (God he plessed with him) relates thet the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be apon him) observed:

"The pious offspring who easts a single look of affection at his parents receives a rewerd from God equal to the roward of an accepted Hajj." The people submitted:
"O Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon you): If someone easts a hundred such glances of love and effection at his perents, what then?" The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) cheeved: "Yes, indeed, evan if one does so a hundred time a day, he will get a hundred fold reward. God is far greater than you imagine and is completely free from petty narrow mindedness."

(Muslim)

8. Ohey your parents with full devotion. Even if they show some intransigence, obey their will cheerfully. Keeping in view the great favours which they have done to you, try to fulfil all their demands willingly which may he offensive to your own teste or temperament, provided, of course, they are not derogatory to the tenets of religion.

Hadret Aba Sa'id (God be pleased with him) narrates that a person came to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) from Yemen. The Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) enquired from him: "Do you heve any reletions in Yemen ?" He submitted: "Yes, my father and mother ere there". The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) then asked: "Did they give you permission to leave ?" He submitted: "No, I did not take their permission". The Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him) thereupon chserved : "Go hack then and ask the permission of your father and mother. If they agree, come back and join the Jihad, otherwise, attend on them and render good service to (Abu Dawud) them".

Realise the value of rendering obedience to parents from the fact that a man eame from miles intending to join the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) in Holy war for the glory of religion, yet the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) turned him back saying: "You can join the Holy War only if both your father and mother allow you to do so".

Hadrat Ibn 'Abbas (God be pleased with him) reports that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "The man who wakes up in the morning having previously discharged all the duties and obligations laid upon him by God concerning his parents, be will find the two gates of Paradise open for him on waking up in the morning; and in case there is only one parent, the person will find one door of Paradise open for bim. And in contrast if a man wakes up in the morning baving previously disreg-"ded any obligations or duties laid upon him by God concerning his parents, then he will find two gates of Hell open for him on waking up in the morning; and in case one of the parents is alive, then the man will find one gate of Hell open for him". The man submitted: "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you), if the parents are treating bim wrongly, what then?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: "Yes, even if they are treating him wrongly; yes, indeed, even if they are treating him wrongly". (Mishkat)

 Consider your own goods as the property of your parents and spend your capital on them with an open hand. The Holv Qur'an affirms:

فَللوَالدَبْنِ . والبقره ٢١٥

Yus'alunaka mādha yunfiqūna qul ma anfaqtum min khairin falil walidaini. (2:216)

They sak thee, what they shall spend. Say what ye

They ask thee, what they shall spend. Say what ye spend for good must go to parents".

On one occasion a man came to the presence of tha Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and complained that his father took whatever goods he wanted from him. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allsh be upon him) sent for that man's father. An old. infirm man came walking with the help of a stick. When the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Alleh be upon him) interrogated him on the point, the old man submitted: "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you)! There was a time when I was strong and he was weak and helpless. I had money and he was emptyhanded. I never forhade him then to lay his hands on anything that I possessed. Today, he is strong and healthy and I am old and infirm. He has money and I am empty handed. He now denies me access to his goods". Upon hearing this tale of the old man, the Benefactor of the humanity (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) hurst into tears and addressing the son of the old man observed: "You and your goods are the property of your father".

10. Even if your father and mother are non-Muslims, treet them well. Continue to pey them respect and devotion and serve them faithfully. However, in case they command you to become a polytheist or indulge in a sinful act, refuse to obey them end sternly repulse their demend.

وَ انْ جَاهَدَاكَ عَلَى اَنْ تُشْرِكَ بِي مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِـه عِلْمٌ فَلاَ تُطُهَمًا وَصَا حَبُهَا فِي الدُّنْمِيا مَعْرُوفًا .

Wa in jahadaka ala antushrika bimā laisa laka bihi 'ilmun fala tuti 'huma wa sahibhuma fiddunya ma 'rūfa. "And if your (parents) pressurise you to associate some one with Me of which you have no knowledge, obey them not, yet continue to treat them well in the world."

Hadrat Asma' (God be pleased with her) states: "In the sacred lifetime of the Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah be upon him), my mother visited me ou one occasion. She was a polytheist at that time. I submitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him): "My mother has come to pay me a visit and she is an unbeliever in Islam. How should I treat her?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Yes, you should continue to show kindness to your mother".

(Bukhāri)

 Offer prayers begging grace for your parents, Bring to mind their fervent appeals to the Lord and beg His mercy for them with a zeelous and sincere heart. God ordsins:

Waqul rabbirhamhumā kamā rabbayānt saghtra.

"And say: My Lord! Have mercy on them both as they did care for me when I was little."

In other words, say: "O Creator, with mercy, devotion, affection and love my Lord they reared me in childhood and sscrificed their own pleasure and ease for my sake but, they, in their infirmity and helplosaness of old age, are more deserving of kindness and love than I ever was. God! I can pay them no recompense. Do patronise them and show them mercy in their miserable state".

12. Observe special care in looking after your mother. By nature, the mother is weak and more sensitive and needs your better treatment and devotion. Moreover, her favours and secrifices are comparatively far greater than the father. Hence religion has conceded preferential rights to the mother and has enjoined upon the believers to treat their mothers with special consideration. The Holy Qur'an affirms:

Wa wassainal insana biwalidaihi ihsana. Hamalal hu ummuhu kurhan wa wada' alhu kurhan wa hamluhu wa fisaluhu thalathuna shahra. (46:15)

"And We have commanded unto man kindness towards parents. His mother beareth him with suffering, bringeth him forth with suffering, bearing of him and weaning of him is thirty months"

While enjoining upon the believers to show good behaviour towards both father and mother, the Holy Qur'sn has drawn a poignant picture of constant suffering of pain and hardships by the mother and has excellently pointed out in a psychological manner the fact that the devoted mother deserves comparatively more of your service and kind behaviour than your father. The same fact has heen elucidated in greater detail hy the Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him).

Hedrat Ahn Huraira (God be pleased with him) reports: "A man came to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings, of Allah be upon him) and snhmitted: "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you! Who deserves the nohlest treatment from me?" The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Your mother". He again snhmitted: "And next?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "Your mother". When the man submitted for the fourth time: "And who noxt"? The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upou him) observed: "Your father". (Al-Adabul Mufrad)

Hadret Jähma (God be pleased with him) paid e call on the Hely Prophet (peace and bleasings of Allah he upon him) and submitted: "O Prophet of God (peace and hleasings of Allah he upon you)! I wish to join yon in the Jibed and have come to solicit your guidance in this matter. I seek your command". The Holy Prophet (peace and hleasings of Allab be upon bim) enquired from him: "Is your mother alive?" Jahma (God be pleased with him) suhmitted: "Yes, she ie alive.". Thereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and bleasings of Allab be upon bim), said "Return to her then and devote yourself to ber service, for Faradise lies under ber feet". (Ibn Majah, Nasa'i).

Hadrat Awais (mey God show bim meroy) was a contemporary of the Holy Prophet (peace end blessings of Allab be upon him), but be could never attein the privliege of calling on the Holy Prophet (peece and blessings of Allah be upon him). He had an old mother to whose service he devoted himself dey and night. He oberished a great desire to see the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Alleh be upon him) and it was but netural for every Muslim to have a burning desire to catch a glimpes of the Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Alleh he npon him). Hadrat Awais (God he merciful to him) indeed wanted to pay a call, yet the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) forbede him to come. Similarly, Hedrat Awais (mercy of God be on him) cherished an emhition to discharge the obligation of Hajj, yet es long es his mother remained alive, Hadrat Aweis (God be merciful to him) never set out for the Hajj alone. He falfilled the desire to perform Hajj only after his mother's demise.

13. Treat your foster mother well. Do service to ber and show her respect and adoration. Hadrat Ahn Tufail (God be pleased with him) states: "I once witnessed the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) distributing meat at a place called 'Ja'rana'. Presently, a lady arrived and approached near the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him). The Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) spread ont his sheet for her and the lady sat on it. I enquired from the people, "Who is this lady!" The people told me: "This lady is the foster mother of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him). (Abu Dawūd)

14. Remember' your parents after they have passed away. Observe the following etiquettes to render good service to your deceased parents:

 Offer prayers continuously invoking mercy of God upon your dead father and mother.

The Holy Qur'an enjoins upon the pious to say this prayer:

Rabbanaghfirli waliwälidayya wa lil mo'minîna yauma yaqumül hisāb.

O our Lord! Grant forgiveness to me and my parents and pardon all the faithful on the day of Reckoning.

Hadrat Abu Huraira (God he pleased with him) states:
"When the deceased is elevated to high degrees of favour, he enquires in astonishment: "How so?" He is informed hy God, "Your offsprings have heen offering prayers begging mercy for you (and God has accepted those petitions of mercy)".

Hadrat Ahu Huraira (God be pleased with him) also states:

"The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed: The opportunity to do something ends with one's death, yet there are thres things which continue to afford benefit to him after death—a recurring charitable act; knowledge which he has imparted to others from which people derive henefit and thirdly, pious offsprings who continue to offer prayers invoking mercy of God upon him.

2. Fulfil all the contracts and promises made by your parents and carry out their will. Your parents must have made many agreements with some people, they might have made a covenant with God; they might have taken a vow; they might have promised to deliver goods to someone; they might have owed a debt to somehody but were unable to discharge it before death overtook them; they might have made a will at the time of their death. Fulfil all these obligations to the extent of your means.

Hadrat 'Abdullah h. 'Ahhas (God be pleased with him) narrates: "Hadrat Sa'd h. 'Uhada (God he pleased with him) submitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), "O Prophet of God (peace and bleaslugs of Allah he upon you)! My mother had taken a vow, but she expired before discharging it. Can I oarry out the vow ou her hehalf!" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: "Why not!
You must carry out the vow takeu by her".

3. Show good coudnot to the friends of your father and the female companions of your mother. Treat them with respect. Seek their advice just as you seek the advice of your elders and psy due regard to their opinions and advice. On one occasion, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allsh be upon him) observed: "There is no superior deed of piety than that man should do good service to the companions and friends of his father".

Ouce Hadrat Abu Darda (God he pleased with him) fell ill and his condition continued to aggravate till they lost all hopes of his life. Hadrat Ynauf h. Abdullah (God he pleased with him) made a long journey and came to enquire after his health. On eeeing him, Hadrat Ahu Darda asked in actonishment: "How are you here?" Ynsanf b. 'Ahdullah (God be pleased with him) replied: "I have come here only to enquire after your health, for you were on terme of deep friendship with my late father".

Hadrat Ahu Barda (God he pleased with him) relates:
"When I arrived in Medinah, 'Abdullah b. 'Umar (God he pleased with him) paid me a visit and said: ''Abu

Barda (God be pleased with you), do you know why I have come to see yon?" I replied : "No. I have no idea why you have come here." Therenpon Hadrat 'Abdullah b. 'Umar (God he pleased with him) said : "I have heard the Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him) as affirming: "The man who wishes to render good service to his father, who is in the grave, ought to show good treatment to his father's companions and friends." Having related this saying of the Holy Prophet (peace and bleesings of Allah be upon him) 'Ahdullah h. 'Umar (God be pleased with him) remarked: "Brother, my father 'Umar and your father (God he pleased with him) were on terms of deep friendship. I wish to commemorate this friendship and fulfil its duties." (Ibn Hibban) 4. Show constant good treatment to the relations of your parente and entertain full respect and pay due regard to the sanctity of these connexions. An indifferent and irresponsible conduct towards these relations is tantamount

- the sanctity of these connexions. An indifferent and irresponsible conduct towards these relations is tantamonnt to treating your own parents with indifference and negligence. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) observed: "Do not observe indifference towards your forefathers. To show careleesness in your conduct towards your parents is to display ingratitude to God."

  15. If, God forbid, you have been guilty of negligence in treat-
- 15. If, God forhid, you have been guilty of negligence in treating your parents well or discharging your full obligations towards them during their lifetime, do not despair of God's merey. Offer prayers constantly invoking blessings of God upon your deceased parents. It is possible God may forgive your sin of negligence and admit you among the ranks of the pious people.

the ranks of the pious people.

Hadrat Anas (God be pleased with him) relates: The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him)

Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed:

"If a person does not observe filial devotion to his parents during their hifetime, and both parents or one of them passes away, the person ought to offer prayers for his deceased parents and beg His Mercy and beseech Him to grant salvation to them till God in His Mercy ordains their admission to the rolls of the pious people".

Etiquettes of Married Life

The sublime culture and civilization which Islam envisages can only come into existence when we succeed haliding up the structure of a righteous society. And a stable and well-organized family system is a prerequisite for the hirth of a righteous society. Family life begins with the ascred matrimonial connexion hetween busband and wife and the development of this connexion into a permanently bappy and pleasant matrimonial life chiefly depends on the full awareness of the etiquettee and duties of marital life in both busband and wife and their real, sincerity and devotion to observe those etiquettee and discharge obligations of martied life. Let us in the first place deal with those etiquettee and obligations which concern the busband and then we shall proceed to discuss the etiquettee and duties to be observed by the wife.

 Treat your wife well in life. Discharge your obligations towards ber with a liberal heart and adopt a favourable and self-sacrificing attitude in every matter concerning your wife. God ordains:

We debirahunna bilma'rufi.
"And live with them in a good manner".

In a sermon to a mammoth congregation on the eve of Hajja-tnl-Widah (Last Hajj) of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him), the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) enjoined upon the Muslims:

"O people! Lieten! Behave well towards women, for they are like captives with you. You have no right to give them harsh treatment save in the case when they show open dischedience. If they are guilty of dischedience, keep away from them in the bed room. In case you punish them, take care not to cause them severe injury. When they come round and ohey your will, do not find pretexts to harass them. Listen carefully! you have some rights over your wives and your wives have some rights over you. They owe an ohligation to you not to let your beds be trampled by anyone whom you dislike and not let snyone trespass into your house whose visit you do not like. And listen, you owes duty to them to feed them well and provide good clothing to them."

(Riyad.us.Salibin)

In other words, make such provisions for their feeding and clothing as are befitting to a marital relationship of unique intimacy, union of hearts and a spirit of companionship.

2. Entertsin s good opiniou about your wife as far as possible and adopt an attitude of politeness, toleration and magnanimity for the sake of amicable living with her. If she lacks hearty of face or person or is deficient in good manners, morality, good sense or skill in household affairs, bear these faults with patience. Look to her virtues and maintain a harmonious relationship by meane of generosity, liberality of mind and self-sacrifice. God ordains:

Was-sulhu khair

"And smity contains goodness."

And the believers are enjoined upon as follows:

فَانْ كَرِهُ تُدُوهُمْنَ فَمَنَى أَنْ تَكَرَّهُواْ شَنْنًا وَ يَجْعَلَ الله فَيْهِ خَيْرًا كَلِيرًا . والنساء ١٩ه

Fa-in-karihtumühunna fa-'asā antakrahu shai'an wa ya'j alallāhu fihi khairan kathīra. (4:19)

"For if ye hate them it may happen that ye hate a thing wherein Allah hath placed much good".

The same subject has been elucidated by the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) in the following Tradition:

"No believer should hate his pious wife. If he dislikes one habit of his wife, it is possible he may like her for some other aspects of her character".

As a matter of fact each woman has some weakness of one sort or another and if the hasband turns against her on account of her hearing a certain deficiency and conceives a hatred for her, a pleasant home life becomes impossible for the couple. Commonsense dictates that man should adopt a liberal attitude and reposing his trust in God should endeavour to live amicahly with his wife. It is possible that God may vouchsafe to that man, merely for the sake of this woman, such bounties which his limited mind cannot comprehend. For instance, this woman may possess excellent virtues of religion, faith, character and morality in reward for which God may shower blessings upon her own family or may be a pious soul is born of this woman who may prove beneficial for the whole mankind and may serve as a Sadaqa Jariah (Contining Charity) in favour of the father till the end of his life, or perhaps the woman may serve as a means of reforming the character of her man and thus may help him to gain proximity to Paradise or it may be that God may bless this man with large subsistence and prosperity because such a blessing of prosperity was destined for his wife. At any rate, do not ruin your married life impetuously on the grounds of an apparent defect in the woman. On the other hand, be wise and try to promote gradually an atmosphere of happiness and concord in the home.

3. Adopt an attitude of forgiveness and kindness. Forget all the faults of omission, stupid actions and disobedient attitude of your wife. The woman is deficient and weak in wisdom and commonsense and bears an extremely passionate temperament. Hence try to bring her round with patience, calmness, kindness, affection and devotion. Try to get along with her with patience and restraint. God ordains:

يَّابِهَا الَّذِيْنَ آمَنُوا انَّ مِنْ آذُوَاجِكُمْ وَ آوُلادُكُمْ عَدُوا لِّكُمْ قَاعَلَرُوهُمْ وَ انْ تَنْعَفُو وَ تَصْفُحُوا وَ تَنْغَفُرُوا فَانَّ اللهَّ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيْمٌ . والننابن ١٤٥

Yā-ayyuhalladhina āmanu inna min azwājikum wa aulddikum adwwcan lakum fahdharühum wa in tu'fü watasfahü wa taghfirü fa innallaha ghafürurrahim.

(Attaghabun: 14)

"O ye who believe! verily, among your wives and your children, there are enemies for you, therefore beware of them. And if ye efface and overlook and forgive, then Allah is Forgiving, Merciful".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed:

"Be good to women. The woman has been created out of the rib and the uppermost part of the rib ends in a curve; so if you try to straighten out the curve, it will break, yet if you leave it alone, the curve will remain.

Hence, be good to women. (Bukhāri, Muslim)

4. Treat your wife politely and show love and affection to her. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed:

"The believers who possess perfect faith are those who display the best manners, and the best among you are those who treat their wives in the host possible manner".

(Tirmidhi).

Politeness and tenderness of behaviour can best be judged in the home. People are constantly living amidst their family members and the real temper and moral con duct of man is completely revealed in the free and uninhibited atmosphere of the home. It is a fact that only such believers possess perfect faith who display civility, kindness and affectionate behaviour towards their family members and who support, sympathise, love and adore inmates of their household.

Hadrat 'A'isha (God be pleased with her) reports: "I used to play with dolls along with my playmates in the house of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). On the arrival of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) all of them used to hide themselves in the nocks and corners of the house. The Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to search out each one of them and send them to join me in the play".

(Bukhāri, Muslim)

Once on the occasion of Haji, the camel of Hadrat

Once on the occasion of Hajj, the camel of Ḥadrat Sañya (God be pleased with her) sat down on the ground and she was therefore left behind while the entire caravan passed on. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) same to her and found her weeping without restraint. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) stood there wiping off her tears with the edge of a sheet with his own holy hands. While the Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) wiped off tears from her ayes, sha (God be pleased with her) continued to weep unrestrainedly for a long time".

- 5. Make liberal provisions for all the needs of your wife and do not stint in expenses. Feel a sense of pleasure and comfort in spending your lawful earnings on members of your family. You owe an obligation to your wife to provide her with food and clothing and to struggle energetically, in order to earn enough monay to discharge this obligation, is the most pleasant duty of a bushend. The performance of this duty with an open and obserful beart earns for the believer the raward of a happy marital life in this world and a favourable recompense and hounty in the world to come. The Holy Prophet (peace and hleesings of Allab he upon him) has affirmed:
  - "You epend a dinar in the way of God; you spend another dinar to ransom a slave; you give away one dinar as alms to a beggar; and there is one dinar which you spend on your family. Among all these, the dinar that will earn the heat roward and blessings of God is the one which you have spent on you family".

    (Mustim)
- 6. Teach your wife the rnlee and manners enjoined by religion Let her cheever Islamic morality and make her life graceful. Make every possible effort to train and mould her according to the Islamic pattern of life so that she may prove to be a good wife, good mother and a pious devotee of God and may discharge ber duties as a wife efficiently and faithfully. God affirms:

Yā-āyyuhāllādhīn manu qū anfusakum wa āhlikum nārā.

"O ye who believe! Sava yourselves and your family from the Fire of Hell".

As the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) devoted bimself to preaching and teaching the laws of religion outside the home, likewise he continued to perform the same function inside his home. Making an illusion to this fact, the Holy Qur'an addresses the wives of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) in these words:

"And remember the verses of God and the matters of wisdom that are conveyed to you in your house".

The Qur'an has advised the believers through the ministry of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him);

Wa'mur ahlaka bissalāti wastabir 'alaihā.

"And urge upon the inmates of your house to observe prayers and fully abide by this obligation yourself too".

The Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirms:

"When a man wakes up his wife during the night and they offer two Rak'ahs of Prayers together, God ordains that the man's name should be included in the rolls of the male rememberers of God and the woman's name in the register of those females who offer praises to God and remember Him."

(Abu Dawud)

The second Caliph Hadrat 'Umar (God be pleased with him) used to stand all night offering devotions to God. Near the hour of dawn he used to wake his wife saying: "Rise, get up and say prayers", and later he (God be pleased with him) used to recite this verse also:

Wa'mur ahlak bis-salatı wastabır a'laıha.

"And urge upon the inmates of your house to observe prayers and fully abide by this obligation yourself".

7. If you possess several wives, show equal treatment to all of them. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to observe great care in dispensing equal treatment to his wives. On the eve of setting out for a journey the Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to draw lots and took with him the wife whose name was decided by the toss. Hadrat Abu Huraira (God he pleased with him) states that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"If a man has two wives, but does not treat them with squality and even-handed justice, he shall be resurrected on the Day of Judgement in such a condition that half of his body, is paralyzed". (Tirmids)

Justice' and 'equality' imply to treat them equally in all matters and show the same kind of behaviour to each wife. As regards the fact that a man may be specially attracted towards one wife or may be drawn to her or cherish deeper feelings of love for her, God will award no punishment to the man for it.

8. Obey your husband with a willing heart and feel pleasure and satisfaction in being faithful to him. This is what God commands a wife to do and the believing woman who acts according to the will of God wins His Favour. The Holy Qur'an affirms:

Fas sālihātu gānitātun.

"The pious wives are those who show obedience to their husbands".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"No woman should keep fast without the permission of her husband". (Abu Dāwud) Stressing the importance of rendering chedience and Stressing the importance of rendering obedience and devotion to her husband, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has warned the woman:

"There are two types of persons whose prayers do not rise above their heads—the prayer of a slave who deserts his master until he returns to his service and the prayer of a woman who showe disobedience to her husband until she recents from this behaviour".

(Al-Targhib-o-Al-Tarhib)

9. Protect your honour and chastity. Keep away from all matters or activities which contain a possible threat to violate your honour or chastity. This is what God commands and it is also an essential percentisite for making your marital lifs happy and pleasant. No amount of devotion and obedience of the wife can win the hast of ther husband if the seeds of suspicion about her infidelity are once sown in his mind. Even an ordinary act of carelassness on the wife's part may prompt the devil to fill the heart of her husband with indelible doubts and suspicions. Hence keeping in view this human weakness, exercise utmost vigilance in such matters.

The Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed:

"If the woman offers prayers five times a day, protects her honour and chastity, remains faithful to her husband, she may enter Paradise by whichever gate she likes".

(Al-Targhib-o-Al-Tarhib)

10. Do not go out of the bouse without leave or permission of your husband. Do not call at homes of which your husband disapproves, nor admit anyone into your house whom your husband dislikes.

Hadrat Mu'adh ibu Jabai (God be pleased with him) narrates that the Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"It is not lawful for a woman who believes in God to admit a man into her bonse whose visit is disapproved by her husband or that she should go out of the house against her husband's will or she should obey the will of someone else in opposition to her hushand's wishes".

(Al-Tarohib.o-Al-Tarhib)

In other words, obey the wishes of your husband, even watch and be mindful of the elightest indications of his approval or disapproval. Do not follow the counsels of others which are in opposition to the will of your husband. 11. It should be your permanent concern to make your manners. This is not only the real secret of a successful marriage, but a means to win the favour of God and admittance into Paradise. The Holy Prophet (peace end blessinge of Allah be upon him) has affirmed : "The woman who dies in such a state that her husband was entirely satisfied and in concord with her, will certain-husband happy by your words, actions, behaviour and (Tirmidhi) ly enter Paradise". Furthermore, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed :

"When a man calls his wife to fulfil the sexual urge and she declines and for this reason the husband remains angry with her all night, the angels send curses upon such (Bukhari, Muslim) a wife till dawn."

12. Love your husband and value his companionship. He is the adornment of your life, your life's support and a great companion and helper in the course of your life. Give thanks to God for this great Bonnty and value this Bounty too with all your heart and soul. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessinge of Allah be upon him) observed on one occasion :

"For the two who love nne another there is no better thing than the 'Nikab' (matrimonial tie)".

Hadrat Safiyya (God be pleased with her) cherished deep love for the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). When illness overeame the Holy Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), Hadrat Safiyya (God be pleased with her) spoke with genuine concern: "Would God that I had fallen ill instead of you, O Huly Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah he upon you)!" At this expression of deep love hy Hadrat Safiyya (God be pleased with her), the other wives of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) looked towards her in astonishment. Thereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed:

"She is not merely making a show of her affection; she is expressing her genuine love".

13. Acknowledge the deht of gratifude you owe to your husband and remain grateful to him. Your greatest henefactor is your hushand who is always concerned with making you happy, providing for your needs and feels satisfied when he has made all provisions for your comfort.

Hadrat Asma' (God he pleased with her) narrates the Tradition: I was once with my neighbour friends when the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him) passed near me. He (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) said 'Salam' (peace be on you) to us and observed: "Avoid being ungrateful to those whom you owe a debt of gratitude. One of you, for instance, lives with ber parents in an unmarried state for a long period. Then God confers upon her a husband. Subsequently, God grants her offspring. Yet in spite of all these favours when she feels enraged with her bnaband on some matter, she utters, 'Nover have I received anything good from you!'

(Al-Adab ul Mufrad)

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) in a warning statement to an ungrateful and unthanking wifa observed:

"On the Day of Judgement, God will not even look at a woman who is ungrateful to her hushand, despite the fact that a wife can nover get along without her husband". (Reas'i)

14. Feel happy in doing service to your hushand and afford maximum comfort to him at the expense of your own inconveniance. Devote yourself to his welfars in all matters and by means of this sincero service capture the deep affections of his heart. Hadrat 'A'isha (God he pleased with her) used to wash the clothes of the Holy Prophet (pasca and blessings of Allah be upon him) with her own hands, annointed bis sacred head with oil, combed his hair, and rubbed perfume on his holy person (peaca and blessings of Allah be upon bim). The other contemporary pious ladies (God be pleased with tham) served their husbands in the again manner.

On one occasion, the Holy Prophet peace and blassings of Allsh be upon him) observed: "It is unlawful for a human being to prostrata befora

"It is unlawful for a human being to present below another human. If it had heen permissible, the wife would have heen ordained by God to offer prostration to her husband. The husband has the supreme right over his wife, and such is the optimum degree of this right that in case a husband's whole body is covered with wounds and the wife licks them all with her tongue, tha obligation she owes to her husband is even then not discharged in full measure".

(Musnad Ahmad)

measure.

1. Safeguard the home, property and goods of your husband. After marriage consider the husband's home as your own and spend the wealth of your husband wisely and economically on the adornment of your home, on the enhancement of the prestige of your husband and on securing a better prosperity of your husband as your own personal achievements. Praising the virtnes of the women of the tribe of Quraish, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) observed : "How excellent are the women of the tribe of Quraish!

They are most affectionate towards children and most efficient guardians of their hushand's homes", Describing the virtnes of a pious wife, the Holy Prophet (pesce and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "Next to the fear of God the most useful and the hountiful reward for a believer is a pious wife. When he asks her to do something, she does it cheerfully. When he looks at her, she pleases him to the core of his heart. When swears upon her trust, she fulfils his oath. When he goes away, she her honour and chastity in his absence and finally in superintendence of her hushand's goods and property she remains truly faithful and devoted to his interest." (Ibn Majah)

16. Ohserve cleanliness, manage your household affairs wisely and look after the decoration and furnishing of your homes. Keep your honse clean. Arrange everything tidily and use things with proper care and skill. A clean and tidy home, neatly furnished rooms, good management of hongehold affairs and home economy and a beautifully dressed and adorned wife wearing a pleasant smile on her lips......all this charges the home atmosphere with currents of deep love and affection and the marital life is enriched with happiness and hlessings. This is the only way for a wife to gain her personal salvation and to win the favour of God. On one occasion during a meeting Hadrat 'A'isha saw that the wife of 'Uthman h. Maz'un (God be pleased with both of them) was dressed in plain clothes and wore no adornmenta. Hadrat 'A'isha (God be pleased with her) was taken shack and enquired:

"My good ladyl Has your huaband 'Uthman gone out on a journey!"

You can judge from the exclamation of Hadrat 'A'laha (God he pleased with her) what a propitious act it is for a married woman to adorn and beautify hersef for her husband

Once a Muslim lady of Medina (God be pleased with her) presented hereelf before the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). She was at that time wearing gold hanglea. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) expressed his disapproval of her wearing the gold bangles. The lady submitted:

"O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah he npon you)! If a woman does not a dorn heraelf and make her person attractive for her hnaband, she would acon lose her value for him. (Nasa'i)

Etiquettes of Bringing up The Children

- 1. Consider your children as a bounty of God. Celebrate the birth of a child with joy and exchange messages of congratulation on such occasions. Welcome the birth of children with prayers for grace and blessings of God. Offer thanks to the Lord that He has conferred upon you the favour of rearing one of Ris creatures and that He has afforded you the opportunity of leaving babind an heir to represent you in spiritual as well as mundane life.
- If you are childless, pray to God for favour of granting you pious offspring in the sams manner as the venerable Prophet of God Hadrat Zakaris (peace be apon him) had prayed to God for the grant of pious offspring.

Rabbi habit min ladunka dhurriyyatan tayyibatan innaka sami'-ud-du'a. (3:38)

Lord! Bestow upon me by Thy bounty goodly offspring. Lo! Thou art the Hearer of prayer".

Do not feel downcast on the birth of a child. Strictly guard against feeling remores or considering the birth of a child as a burdan on account of financial hardship, illhealth or for any other reason. 4. Do not procure an abortion. Abortion or killing a child after birth are both acts of heinous harharity, gruesome cruelty and extreme cowardice and entail ruination in this world and hereinafter God affirms:

Qad khasi-ralladhina qatalü aulādahum safahan bighairi-tilm. (6 : 140)

"Those who kill their children out of their foolishness are the greatest losers",

In an impressive condemnation of buman shortsightedness, God has clearly forbidden the genocide of children:

Walātaglulā aulādakum khashyata imiāg nahnu narzuguhum wa iyyākum innā qallahum kāna khita'n kabira. (17:31)

"Slay not your children fearing powerty. We shall provide for them and for you. Lo! the slaying of them is great sin".

"On one occasion a companion (God be pleased with him) enquired from the Holy Prophet (peabe and hlessings of Allah he upon him), "O Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon you) 1 Which is the greatest sin"? The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "Polytheism". The companion (God he pleased with him) again asked: "And what next" The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Disobedience to parents". The companion (God be pleased with him) enquired the third time: "And which sin is the greatest next to it?" In answer to this, the Holy Prophet of God (peace allessings of Allah be npon him) observed: "To kill your children fearing that they will ahare your sustenance."

5. At the time of delivery, recite Ayat-ul-Kursi and the following two verses of Sursh Al-A'rsi near the prognant woman. Recite also Sursh 'Al-Valaq' and Sursh 'An-Nas' repeatedly and after each recitation blow your breath over the woman awaiting delivery:

الله لا الله الا هُو الْحَيْ القَيْومِ لا تَناخُلُهُ سَنَةٌ وَلاَ نَـوْمُ of them and that which is behind them while they encompass nothing of His knowledge save that what He wills. His throne includeth the heavens and the earth and He is never weary of preserving them. He is the Sublime, the Tremendous".

The two verses of Surah A'raf are as under :

انَّ رَبَّكُمُ اللهُ الَّذَى خَلَقَ السَّوْاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ فِي سَنَّهُ اللَّهُ مُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ حَيْنًا وَالشَّمْ وَالْقَرْمَ وَالنَّجْوَمَ لَسَخْرات بِالْمِهُ . الآلَهُ لَمُ الْخُلُقُ وَالنَّمْ تَبَارَكَ اللهُ رَبُّ الْمَالَمِينَ . أَدْعُوا رَبِّكُمْ لَهُ الْخُلُقُ وَالْأَمْ تَبَارَكَ اللهُ رَبُّ اللَّمَالَمِينَ . أَدْعُوا رَبِّكُمْ تَبَارِكَ اللهُ رَبُّ اللَّمَالَمِينَ . أَدْعُوا رَبِّكُمْ تَبَارِكَ اللهُ لَا يُحِبُ اللَّمَالَدِينَ . أَدْعُوا رَبِّكُمْ تَبَارِكَ اللَّهُ لَا يُحِبُ اللَّمَالَدِينَ . اللَّهُ لَا يُحِبُ اللَّمَالَدِينَ . اللَّهُ لَا يُحِبُ اللَّمَالَدِينَ . اللَّهُ لَا يُحِبُ اللَّمَالَدِينَ .

"Lo! your Lord is Allah Who created the heavens and the earth in six days, and then sat upon the throne of his Kingdom. Who makes the night cover the day which is in haste to follow it and has made the sun and the moon and the stars subservient by His Command. His verily is all creation and commandment. Elessed be Allah the Lord of the worlds! (O mankind) Call upon your Lord humbly and in scoret. Lo! He loveth not aggressors". 6. After birth, bathe the infant and say adhan in its right and qumat in its left ear. On the birth of Hadrat Hussin (God be pleased with him), the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) had said adhan and laamat in his ears". (Tabrani).

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) is also reported to have affirmed: "Whenever someone begets a child and says Adhan in its right and Iquant in its left ear, the child is immunised against the afficietion of Umm-ul-Sibiyan' by this act". (Abu Yu'la)

There is great wisdom in conveying the names of God and His Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) to the ears of a new-born infant.

"In his work entitled 'Tukfa-tul-Wadud', 'Allama Ibn Qayyim observes: The eignifeance of this act is that the proofamation of the Greatness and Glory of God should be the first to reach the ears of a human being'. And the affirmation of belief which he will render in full consciousness later in order to enter the fold of Islam should be conveyed to him in the very first day of his life as a man is prompted to recite Kalimah Tauhid (Affirmation of belief in One God) at the time of his death. Another advantage of saying the Adhan and Igamat in the ears of the child is that the devil, who lies in ambush planning to entrap the human being in trials, flees on hearing the sound of Adhan and before the devil can draw the soul of the child towards himself, the child is called towards Islam and worship of God'.

7. After the Adhan and Iquant get a date chewed by some pious man or woman and paste its pulp on the palate of the infant and sak that man nr woman to offer a prayer invoking grace and blessings nf God upon the child. Hadrat Asma (God be pleased with her) reports: "When 'Abdullah ibn Zubeir (God be pleased with him) was born I put him in the lap of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him). The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) asked for a date, chewed it and applied his sacred saliva inside the mouth and pasted the chewed pulp of date on, the pelate of 'Abdullah inn Zubair (God be pleased with him). Afterwards, the Roly Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) offered a prayer invoking grace and blessings of God upon the child".

Hadrat 'A'iaha (God he pleased with her) states:
"Infants were brought to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peece and hlessings of Allah he upon him). The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to Tehnit! and pray for the favour and blessings of God upon them". (Muslim)

When Hadrat Imem Ahmad inn Henbel (may God be merciful to him) was hiessed with e child, he asked for Maccan date which was aveilable in the home and requested a pious lady Umm 'Ali (may God show her mercy) to perform the Tehnik.

8. Give your child a fine name, preferably a name resembling that of the Prophets (peece he upon them) or put a prefix 'Abd with some attribute of God, just es 'Abd-Allah or 'Abd-Rahman, to make up a name for your child.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) has affirmed: "On the Day of Judgement, you shall he called by your names. So prescribe fine names for yourselves". (Abu Dawad)

Furthermore, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Among all your names 'Abdullah and, 'Ahdul Rahman are the most favourite of God". In addition; the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) affirmed "Prescribe those names which resemble the names of the Prophets (peace he upon them)".

It is recorded in Bukhari that the Holy Prophet

(peace and blessings of Allah benpon him) also observed: "Name your children after my name, but do not give them my 'Kuniyyat".

9. If you have prescribed a wrong name due to ignorance, change it and prescribe some good name. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to alter wrong names. The name of one of Hadrat 'Umar's (God be pleased with him) danghter was 'Asiys. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) changed it and named her Jamila (God he pleased with her). (Muslim)

The original name of Hadrat Zainah (God he pleased with her) tha daughter of Abu Salama (God he pleased with him) was 'Barrah', which meane 'the pious one'. On hearing this name, the Holy Prophet (peace and hleasings of Allah he upon him) observed: "Do you make e self-proclamation of piety?" The people submitted, "What other name shell we prescribe then?" The Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) observed: "Name her Zainah".

10. Perform the 'Aqiqa' ceremony on the seventh day of the birth of a child. Sacrifice two lamhs for a hoy and one if the baby is a girl. However, it is not obligetory to slaughter two lambs for a boy. You may sacrifice one animal also. Get the hair of the head of the baby shaved off and give away in charity gold or silver equal in weight to these hair. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him) has observed:

"Prescribe a name for the child on the seventh day after birth and perform 'Agiqu' ceremony after getting the baby's head shaved off". - (Tirmidhi)

- 11. Get the male child circumcised on the seventh day after birth. However, if for some reason the operation is put off, it is obligatory to get the circumcision performed befor the male child reaches the age of seven. Circumcision is part of Islamic faith.
- 12. When the child learns to speak, teach him first of all to recite: 411 141 7, La tlaha illallahu. (There is no god but Allah). The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) has observed:

"When your offspring starts speaking, teach him to recite':— 4!! N! a!! N. La ilaha illallahu. (There is no god but Allah) and never fear ahout his end. When the mik teeth are uprooted, order your child to observe prayers".

The Tradition also records that whenever a child in the household of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) began to speak, the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) used to teach him the second werse of Surah al-Furqan in which the concept of the belief in One God has been beautifully expressed in a concise form.

Alladhi lahu mulkussamāwāti walardi wa lam yattakhidh waladan wa lam yakun lahu sharikun fil mulki wa khalaqa kulla shaiin faqaddarahu taqdirā.

"He unto Whom belongeth the sovereignty of the heavens and the earth. He hath obseen no son nor hath He any partner in the sovereignty. He hath created everything and hath meted out for it a role".

- 13. Feed the child on your breast-milk. The mother owes this ohligation to the child. The Holy Qur'an has made repeated references to this favour of the mother to her child and has enjoined the pious to treat their mothers with extraordinary devotion in return for their favour. It is the duty of the mother to inculcate in the soul of the child belief in One God, devotion to the Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) and love of religion along with the drops of her milk which she feeds to the child. She should make sure that the heart and soul of her child completely assimilates the spirit of religion. Do not ease your hurden hy transferring the duty of rearing the child to a nurse, Perform this pleasant obligation of religion yourself and enjoy spiritual satisfaction and costasy. 14. Avoid frightening the children. The fright instilled in the - mind of the child in the early years overshadows his mind and intellect for the remainder of his life and these children usually prove incapable of achieving extraordinary success in life. 15. Make it a point not to shout at, reproach or rebuke children on every trifling matter. Make an affectionate endeavour to train the children to form good habits with devotion and good sense instead of expressing annovance or contempt on the faults of children. However, act in such
- a way that children must remain in fear that you will not tolerate any of their actions which do not conform to the dictates of religion. 16. Always treat your children with affection, love and tenderness. Keep them happy by providing for their needs and requirements according to your means. Promote sentiments of loyalty and devotion in your children.

Once Hadrat Mu'awiya (God he pleased with him) asked Ahnaf ihn Qais (God be pleased with him), "Say, in what manner the offspring should he treated?"

Ahnaf ihn Qais (God be pleased with him) answered : "Amir-ul-Mo'minin, the offspring are the fruit of our hearts, a support for our backs; we are like the sky providing a protective shade over them; we are like a soft and harmless ground on which they recline. It is they who give us the incentive to perform great deeds. Hence if they demand snything from you, fulfil their demand with a generous heart. If they are atricken with sorrow, alleviate their grief. Consequently they will love you and appreciate your paternal concern. Do not he an intolerable burden on them to the extent that they should in annoyance wish that you were hetter dead than alive and hate to come near you".

Hadrat Mu'awiya (God be pleased with him) was deeply moved on hearing this wise speech of Ahnaf inn Qais (God he pleased with him) and remarked: "Ahnaf (God he pleased with you) I ewear in the name of God that when you came and ast beside me I was hurning with rage against Yazid".

Later, when Hadrat Ahnaf (God be pleased with him) departed Hadrat Mu'awiya's (God be pleased with him) anger had cooled down and he feit reconciled to Yazid. He at once sent two hundred dirhams and two hundred dressea as a token of love to Yazid. On receiving these presents, Yazid divided them into two equal portions and despatched one hundred dirhams and a hundred dressea as a gift to Hadrat Ahnaf ihn Qais (God be pleased with him).

7. Pat the heads of children with affection; take them up and seat them in your laps, fondle them and treat them in good humour. Do not rule over them as an irste tyrant. Such an attitude stunts the growth of affectionate sentiments towards parents in the hearts of children, destroys their self-confidence and adversely affects the development of their inhorn faculties.

On one occasion Aqra' ibn Habie (God be pleased with him) came to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him). The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) was at that time engaged in fondling Hadrat Hassan (God be pleased with him). Aqra' (God be pleased with him) felt rather surprised and submitted, "O Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you) do you also fondle children. I have ten children and have never shown fondness to even one of them".—The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) raised his eyes and taking a look at Aqra' observed: "If God has deprived your heart of kindness and affection, what can I do!"

Hadrat 'Amir (God be pleased with bim) beld a high post in the government during the reign of Hadrat Umar (God be pleased with him). He once paid a call at the house of Hadrat 'Umar (God be pleased with him) and was atounded to see that a few children had mounted the chest of the Caliph and were engaged in play. The Caliph realized the feelings of annoyance writ large on the face of 'Amir (God be pleased with him) and enquired, "What manner of treatment do you show to your children 1" 'Amir (God be pleased with him) now got the opportunity to express his viewpoint on the matter. He said: "Amirul-Mo'minin, as soon as I enter my house the people of my household are struck with terror and stand dumh with fear'. On hearing this, Hadrat 'Umar (God be pleased with him) said in a deep tone of sorrow:

"'Amir (God be pleased with you), you are a follower of the Holy Prophet (pesce and blessings of Allah be upon him) and yet are ignorant of the important injunction that a Muslim should behave towards his family members with extreme love and deep tenderness."

18. Concentrate all your efforts to train and educate your children in piety and honesty and consider the greatest sacrifice too little to achieve this purpose. This is an obligation laid upon you by religion; it is a favour you own to your children; and it is the greatest good that you can do to yourself. The Holy Qur'an affirms: يَـايَهُا الذِّينَ أَمَنُوا قُوا أَنْـفُسَكُمْ وَ آهْلِـيكُمْ نَارًا .

Yā ayyuhalladhina āmanu qū anfusakum ua ahlikum nārā.

"O Believers, protect yourself and the people of your household from the fire of Hell".

The only means of obtaining salvation from Hell-Fire is that man should be aware of all the requisite knowledge about religion and his life should pass in loyalty and devotion to the commands of God and His Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be upon bim).

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed: "The best gift that a father can bestow upon his son ie to arrange good education and training for him." (Mishkat)

In addition to this, the Apostle of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: "The actions of man cease with his death. But there are three deeds whose reward end blessing continue to reach him even efter death: One that he should make a Sadaqa Jariah (Recurring Chsrity). Secondly, he should leave behind a legacy of knowledge from which people may continue to derive benefit; thirdly, pious offspring who continuously invoke mercy of God upon bim." (Musism)

In fact the pious offspring are the only means of keeping alive your cultural traditions, religious doctrines and the concept of faith in One God, after you have expired.
The believer prays for pious offspring so that the younger generation may keep the message of the old generation ever green and alive.

When the children attain the age of seven years, tesch them 'Namaz' and urge them to observe prayers. Take them to the mosque with you to arouse their interest. If the children neglect to observe prayers when they here attained the age of ten, administer suitable punishment to them. By word and action make it absolutely clear to them that you will not tolerate their evasion of saving prayers.

20. When the children attain the age of ten years, give them separate beds to sleep in. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) has observed:

"When your children are seven years old, urge them to observe prayers. When they attain the age of ten and neglect saying prayers, punish them, and after this age provide separate beds for them to sleep in."

- 21. Always keep your children clean and neat. Take care that they are clean, neat and hathed. Keep their dress pure and clean. However, avoid excessive adurnment or ostentation in dressing up ohildren. Keep the dress of a female child simple and clean. Do not epoil the nature of your children hy dressing them up in gaudy and flambuoyant clothes.
- 22. Do not point out the faults of your children in the presence of others and strictly abstain from degrading or hurting the self-respect of your children.
- 23. Do not express your dismay at reforming your children in their presence. Instead praise them generously even for their ordinary virtues in order to hoost np their morale. Make constant endeavours to encourage them, and to foster self-confidence and boldness in them so that they may strive for the highest goals in the field of life.
- 24. Keep telling the children the stories of the Prophets (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon them), teles of the pious people (God be pleased with them) and episodes of the courageous fests of the illustrious companions of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him). This must be considered an essential meaus of training, civilizing, character-building and arousing love for religion among the young and despite countless other precoccupations you must find some time to talk on these subjects with your ohildres. Resite to them the Holy Qnr'an in a sweet rhythmical voice frequently and on occasions relate to them the stirring stories and traditions of the life and work of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allsh be upon him). In this manner, you should try to inculcate in the hearts of the young warm sentiments of true love and devotion to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allsh be upon him).

25. Let the children distribute food or money to the poor with their own hands sometimes so that the virtues of liberality, generosity and charity to the poor may dovelop in their hearts. On occasions, let brothers and sisters distribute shares of food or other estables among themselves without your sid. This will create in them an awareness of the rights of others and accustom them to fair-dealing.

26. Do not comply with each legitimate or non-genuine desire of the children. By means of patience and commonsense teach them to give up this hahit. Be strict with them at times and do not turn them into obstinate and self-willed youngsters by showering excessive love upon them.

27. Avoid thundering and shouting at the highest pitch of your voice and urge the children to speak softly in a moderate tone and abstain from shouting or railing at each moderate tone and abstain from shouting or raining at each other.

28. Inculcate the habit of self-help in children. They should not look to the servants to do every little job for them. This habit makes the children lazy and crippled in some not look to the servants to do every little job for them.

This babit makes the children lazy and crippled in some ways. Foster the babits of eturdiness, hard work and strenuous application among the children.

In the event of an altercation taking place among children,

29. In the event of an altercation taking place among children, do not lend undue support to your own child. You must realise that the sentiments which you cherish in your heart for your child are exactly the same which other people have for their children. Keep in view the faults of your own child and in all untoward circumstances try to pinpoint the error and fault of your own child and then make an earnest endeavour to eliminate these childien chortcomings in a wise manner by exercising coostant vigilance.

30. Show equal treatment to all your children and avoid going to extremes in the matter of hehaving towards children. If you are naturally drawn towards a particular child then, of course, it can't be helped. Yet in behaviour and dispensation of requirements you must show equal treatment and evenhanded justice. Do not show distinctive favour to a child to the dismay of other children. This will foster inferiority complex, hatred and frustration and all this will finally crupt into rebellious conduct. These evil sentincents greatly retard the development of natural faculties of a child and leave an adverse effect on the moral and spiritual growth of the child's personality.

On one occasion Hadrat Bashir (God he pleased with him) took his son Hadrat Noaman (God he pleased with him) to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be open him) and submitted : "O Prophet of God (peace and blessiogs of Allah be upon you)! I possessed one slave and I have transferred that slave to the ownership of this son of mine". The Holy Prophet (peace and bleesinge of Allah be upon him) enquired : "Have you given a slave to each of your coos ?" Hadrat Bashir (God be pleased with him) submitted : "No". Therenpon the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Aliah be upon bim) commanded him : "Take the slave hack from him. Fear God and show equal treatment to all of your children". Hadrat Bashir (God be pleased with him) retorned home and revoked the transfer of ownership of the elave to No'man. According to another traditon, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) had observed on that occasion: "Do not make me a witness of ein. I shall not be a witness to injustice". In yet another tradition it is reported that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed to Hadrat Bashir (God be pleased with him): "Do you wish that all your sons should behave equally well towards you?" Hadrat Bashir (God be pleased with him) submitted : "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you) : Yee, why not !" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "Do not set in this manner then". (Bukhari Muslim) 31. Always present a good practical model before the children.

Your own life style serves as a mute and permanent precept for your children. Children constantly learn and adopt leseons from your own conduct in life. Do not tell a lie even as a matter of fun before the children. Hadrat 'Abdullah b. 'Amlr (God be pleased with him) relates an epicode from hie own life ac follows: "One day when the Holy Prophet (peace and blessinge of Allah be upon him) was present in our house, my mother called for me and said : "Come here, I have something for you". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was watching. He (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) observed to my mother, "What is it that you want to give to the child ?" My mother submitted : "I wish to give him a date". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be nuon bim) observed: "If von had called the boy on the pretext of giving blm something and in fact did not give bim anything on his arrival, surely this sin of falsehood would have been added to the scroll of your deeds". (Abu Dawud) 32. Celebrate the birth of a female child with as much rejoicing as you observe on the birth of a male child. Boy or girl, both are a gift from God and only He knows better whether a boy or a girl ie propitione for yon. It does not behove a faithful of God to demure or feel crest fallen on the birth of s girl. Such behaviour is the height of ingratitude and an insolence towards the Omniscient and Merciful God.

The Tradition recorde: "When a girl is born to someone inmates of this honse! peace be on you". The angels take the baby girl under their wings and passing their hands on her head in a gesture of affection observe: "This is a weak creature born ont of a weak creature. Whoseover protects and rears this infant girl, God shall sustain him till doomsday". (Tabrani)

33. Train and bring up your girls with a sense of great pleasure, spiritual satisfaction and in the spirit of religion. In return for this pious service anticipate from God that He will admit you to the uppermost level of Paradise". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) has affirmed: "The man who patronises three daughters or three sisters, educates them and teaches them good manners and behaves kindly towards them till they become independent of his care by the will of God, is entitled by God to enter Paradise." Thereupon a person submitted: "If there be only two daughters or two sisters?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: "The same reward will be given for similar conduct towards two daughters or two slaters". Hadrat Ibn 'Abbas (God be pleased with him) observes: "Had the people enquired about the reward for rearing one girl in this manner, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) would have given the (Mishkat) same glad tidings".

Hadrat 'Aishah (God be pleased with her) narrates, "One day a woman accompanied by two small girls came to visit me and begged me to give her aomething. I had only one date which I handed over to ber. The woman divided the date into two halves and gave one balf to each girl, leaving nothing to eat for herself. Afterwards she stood np and went out. The same moment the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) entered the house. I related the whole matter to him (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him). On hearing the case, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him observed: "Any man who is put to trial on account of daughters being horn to him and he comes out of the trial successful hy virtue of showing good treatment to his daughters, these girls will serve him as a shield against the fire of Hell on the Day of Judgement". (Michkat)

34. Do not look down up the female child, nor show preference to the hoy over the girl in any matter. Treat both with equal love and hehave towards hoth in an equal manner. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) has affirmed: "Anyone who is blessed with the birth of a girl and does not hury her alive in the manner of the pagan days and does not look down upon her; neither shows preference to the boy over the girl nor considers the boy in any way superior to the girl, such a man will surely be admitted into Paradise hy God". (Abu Downd)
35. Give the prescribed share to the girl out of your property.

35. Give the prescribed share to the girl out of your property willingly and careful attention. This share is ordained by God and no one has the authority to increase or decrease the amount of this share. It does not behove a piona believer to make excusee in the matter of paying the abare of the girl or to feel content by giving away some fraction of it according to his own personal views. Such an action is a breach of covenant with God as well as tantamount to offering an insult to the religion. (God forbid!,

Along with these practical measures, say prayers from the depths of your soul and with singere devotion of heart for your offspring. We may trust the Munificent and Kind God that He will not let earnest prayers offered by the parents out of the depth of their soul go unanawered.

Etiquettes of Friendship

1. Love your friends and become the object of love of your friends. The man who is held in deep affection by his friends and who charishes feelings of love for his friends is the most fortunate person. The person who avoids the company of other people and whom the people regard with feelings of disgust is the most deprived man. The man who has no wealth is not poor. In point of fact great poverty consists in being friendless. A friend makes life beautiful, acts as a supporter in the journey of life and is a gift of God. Make friends and become friends of others. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed:

"The believer is an embodiment of love and affection.

And the man who neither loves others nor is loved by others has no good or virtue in him."

(Mishkat, Bab al-Shafqat)

The Holy Qur'an has affirmed:

Walmo'minūna walmo'minati ba'duhum auliyāu ba'd. (9:71)

, . . . ,

"The believing men and believing women are protecting friends of one another."

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to cherish deep feelings of affection for all his illustrious companions (God be pleased with them) so each one of them entertained the happy thought that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) loved him more than any one else.

Hadrat 'Amr b. al-'As (God be pleased with him) reports: "The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allahbe upon him) used to converse with me with such deep attention and eincerity and lavished such great care on me that I came to believe myself to be the best person among my people. And one day I submitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and bleseinge of Allah be upon him) : "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you) : Who is better-Me or Abu Bakr t" The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "Abu Bakr is the better one." I submitted again : "Who is better-Me or 'Umar (God he pleased with him) ?" The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: "Umar is better." I submitted once more : "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you : Who is better-Me or 'Uthman (God be pleased with him) ?" The Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "Uthman ie better than you". I then requested the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) to explain the real matter in detail whereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upou him) told me the plain trutb. I felt greatly ashamed of myself and wondered what impelled me to ask such questions!

2. Maintain amicable social relations with your friends and try to develop sincere links and continue to cement friendships. Avoid adopting an attitude of annoyance with your friends or keeping aloof from them. When a man lives in the society of other men and has to participate in social matters, it is inevitable that he should suffer different kinds of shocke. Sometimes his sentiments are hurr; at other times his reputation is tarniched; one time his peace is disturbed, other times his neual activities are interfered with. Sometimes thinge are done against his temper and desires; at other times hie patience and endurance are severely tried and at times he has to suffer great financial loss. In other words, he has to face all kinds of trials and tribulations. But when a man suffers these hardships. his heart is strengthened and he gains in wisdom and experience. Good morals develop in his personality and passing through a natural process of training and purification he mekes rapid spiritual and moral progress. He thus acquires the sublime virtues of patience, forbearance, selflessness, affection, sympathy, humanity, respect, loyalty, devotion and co-operation, sincerity and love, generosity and gallantry, kiuduess and favour to the highest degree and he becomes au instrument of goodness and blessing for the human society. Every man holds him in esteem and values his friendship; each man considers him a source of blessing in his favour. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) has observed :

"The Muslim who participates in social matters with other men and shows forbearance if he suffers any pain from them is a far better person than the one who isolates himself from the people and is dismayed at the hardships caused by others."

(Tirmidhi)

3. Form frieudships with the pure and righteous people. In the choice of friends do keep in mind the thought as to, how far the people with whom you are forging honds of amity and friendship can prove useful to you from the viewpoint of religion and morality. There is a famous maxim which says: If you wish to ascortain the moral state of a man, look at the moral condition of his friends." And the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) has observed: "A man follows the beliefs of his friend. Hence each man should deeply consider the question as to what kind of a man is the person with whom he is striking a friendship". (Musnad Ahmad, Michkel)

The observation that a man will follow the beliefs of his friend implies that when a man keeps the company of his friend he wilt be affected by the sentiments, thoughts; taste and the montal outlook of his friend. He will inovitably begin to judge things according to the standard of likes and dislikes adopted by his friend. Hence e man should excesse utmost care in choosing a friend and should establish bonds of affection and friendship with a person whose taste, temperament, and activities conform to the teuets of faith end religion. The Holy Prophet (peace and hleesings of Allah he upon him) has enjoined: "Develop a reletiouship of love and friendship with a believer only and eat and drink in his company only". Furthermore the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) effirmed:

"Keep company with the heliever and only the right. cous chould eat from the Dastar Khwan' of a believer."

Esting together unturally stimulates sentiments of warm affection and love between friends and these links should only be doveloped with the heliceves who are Godfearing and righteous people always keep away from those who have forgotten God and are irresponsible and indifferent in carrying out the commands of religion and are immersed in immorality. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) has described the nature of relationship with a good and bad friend in a sublime allegory:

"The example of e good or a had friend is like that of a dealer of must perfume and an ironamith who stokes the furnace. In the company of the perfumer you will certainly derive some heacht i.e. you will hay musk perfume or at least its sweet odour will afford pleasure to you. On the other hand, the furnace of the ironamith will hurn your house or set your clothes ablaze or the foul fumes emitted by the furnace will give you a headcohe."

(Bukhari, Muslim)

The Tradition is recorded by Ahu Dawud in the following words:

"The example of a pious friend is like that of a muskperfumery shop-keeper. If uothing, at least the benefit of sweet amell can be derived from this friend. The example of an evil friend is like that of a furnace. Even if your clothes are not set ablaze, your dress will certainly be blackened by the fumes of the furnace".

4. Love your friends for the sake of God. The favourites of Allah are those who join together on the basis of God's religion and struggle shoulder to shoulder with perfect unity of mind and soul to discharge their obligation of establishing the religion of God and stand like a solid wall in defence of their creed.

The Holy Qur'an affirms:

Innallaha yuhibulladhina yuqdiidina fi sabilihi saffan ka-annahum bunyanum marsüs (61 : 4)

"Lo! Allah loveth those who battle for His cause in ranks as if they were a solid structure".

And the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed:

"God will ordain on the Day of Judgement: Where are those people who used to love their fellows for my sake only. I shall place them under My own shadow".

(Muslim)

The enviable stats of dignity in which these people will find themselves on the Day of Judgement has been described by the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) in these words:

"There are some loyal servants of God who, though they are not Prophets or martyrs, yet they shall be elevated to such high status by God on the Day of Judgement that the Prophets and martyrs will enry their good fortune". The illustrious companions (God be pleased with them) submitted: "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be prop you)! Who will he these fortnate persons i" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) affirmed: "These will be the people who loved each other on the basis of the religion of God—they were not related to one another hy blood, nor had any commercial connection with each other. I swear by God, the faces of these people will be glowing with radiance may they will he the emhlems of pure light. When all the people shall be tremhling with fear, they shall he free from fear. When all the people will be grief-stricken, they shall know no sorrow". Afterwards the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) recited this verse of the Holy Qur'an:

Ald inna auliyd allahi lä khaufun 'alaihim wa lä hum yahzanan. (10:62)

"Lo! verily the friends of Allab are (those) on whom fear (cometh) not, nor do they grieve".

Hadrat Abud-Darda (God be pleased with him) states that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Some people shall he raised from their graves on the Day of Judgement in a state that their faces will be glowing with radiant light. They shall be seated on pulpits made of pearls. Other people shall envy their elevated state. These dignified people, however, will neither include Prophets nor martyrs". The companions submitted: "O Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon you! Who are these people! Tell us their distinguishing qualities". The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "These are the people who love each other for the sake of God only". (Tabrani)

5. Consider the love of pious people as a source of salvation in the eternal life and a means of winning the favour of God. Pray to God to hless you with the love of righteous people and hesceeh His favour to admit you to the ranks of the pions. Hadrat 'Ahdullah ibn Mas'ud (God be pleased with him) narrates : "A person came to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) and submitted: "O Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon you), a person loves a pious man for his piety, yet himself does not emulate the good deeds of this pious man, how shall he he treated in the next world ?" The Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) affirmed : "It does not matter at all. Man shall find himself in the company of that person whom he loves." (Bukhari)

One night the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) was blessed with the vision of God. God said to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him): "Ask what thou wilt?" Thereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) said this prayer:

اللهم إِنِّي اَسْئَلُتُ فَعْلَ الْخَيْرَاتِ وَ تَوْكَ الْمُنْكَرَاتِ وَحَبُّ الْمُسْكَرَاتِ وَحَبُّ الْمُسَاكِيْنِ وَ اَنْ آنَـ فَغَرَلَى وَ تَدْرَحَنْنِي وَ اَذَا اَرَدْتُ فَسَنَةً فَى قَوْمٍ فَنَوْفَنِي غَيْرِ مَفْتُونَ وَ اَسْتَلُكَ حُبِّكَ وَحُبَّ مَنْ يَقُومٍ فَنَوْفَنِي غَيْرِ مَفْتُونَ وَ اَسْتَلُكَ حُبِكَ وَحُبَّ مَنْ يَعْرِبُنِي الْيُ حَبِكَ . ومسند احمده يُحِبُكُ وَ حُبَّ عَمْلٍ بُعَرِبُنِي الْيُ حَبِكَ . ومسند احمده

Allahumma inni as'aluka filal khairdi wa tark-almunkardi wa hubb-al-maedirni wa an taghfira li wa tarhamni wa idhi aradia finatan fi quamin fatawaffini ghaira maftunin wa as'aluka hubbaka wa hubba mah yuhibbuka wa hubba 'amalin yugarribun'i ilā hubbika.
(Musnad Ahmad)

"God! I heseesh Thy favour to perform good deeds and evoid evil deeds and I seek the love of the poor and I implore Thee to grant me forgiveness and show me Thy Mercy. When you wish to send a calamity over a people, lift me in a state in which I mey enjoy Your protection from the calamity. I implore Thy love end I beseech Thee to grant me love of that person who loves Thee end grent me the favour to perform deeds which may serve as means of obtaining nearness to You".

Hadrat Mu'adh ibn Jabal (God be pleased with him) stetes that the Holy Prophet (peace and bleaings of Allah he upon him) sfiltmed: "God ordsins that I owe love to those people who develop links of love and friendship among themselves for My sake and assemble at one place to recite My name and meet each other for the lova of Me and show good treatment to each other in order to win My favour." (Ahmad, Tirmidhi)

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) giving an inspiring description of the meeting of two friends observed:

"A man set out to eall on his friend who lived in enother habitation. God appointed an angel to await him on the way. The angel enquired of him: "Where ere you going?" The man made the enswer: "I em proceeding to that village to eee my hrother." The angel further enquired: "Does he owe yon e deht of favour which you are now going to receive from him?" The man replied: "No, I em going to meet him only heee nse I love him for the sake of God". The angel thereupon told him: "Listen then I God has sent me to convey to you the glad tiding that God loves you as much as you love your friend for God's sake."

(Muslim)

Meke friendships with those who deserve to be your friends from the viewpoint of Islam and then try your ntmost to maintain a loyal and devoted friendly relationship throughout your life. As the choice of pious people as friends is a matter of ntmost importance, so equally is the continuous endeavour to maintain and strengthen these bonds of friendship.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed: "On the Day of Judgement when there will be no shade anywhere except under the beaven of God, only seven types of people will find place under the shade of God's heaven. Of the first type will be two persons who were friends of each other for no other purpose except for the sake of God. The love of God would have forged a common link of friendship between them and they would separate from each other in the same condition. In other words, their friendship would be hased on their common love of God and they would endeavour to maintain and cement this hond of friendship throughout their lives. And when one of them would be near the end of his life, their friendship would be intact at that time and they would part in this world as friends.

7. Trust your friends. Behave eheerfully while you are in their company. Avoid heing gloomy and making your friends gloomy. Be informal, frank and good natured amidst friends. Do not frown; nor stand on formality. Try to set as an informal companion, a good-natured mate and a cheerful comrade among your friends. Your friends should not feel bored with your presence; rather they should feel drawn thappy and alive in your company and should feel drawn towards you.

Hadart Abdullah ihn Härith (God he pleased with him) relates: "I have never seen e person who smiled more often than the Holy Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him). (Trimidht)

Hadrat Jabir h. Samrsh (God be pleased with him) narrates: "I was present in over hundred sittings with the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him). In these sittings the illustrious companions (Allah be pleased with them) used to recite verses and related stories and ancedetes dating back to pagan times. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) used to hear all this in silence and even joined in laughter himself at times". (Tirmidhi)

Hadrat Shuraid (Allah be pleased with him) reports that "on one occasion I was aitting behind the Holy Prophet (peace and hiesaings of Allah be upon bim) on the back of an animal. During the journey I recited a hundred verses of Umaiya ion as-Salt to the Holy Prophet (peace and hiesaings of Allah be upon bim). After each verse the Holy Prophet (peace and hiesaings of Allah be upon bim) asked me to recite some more verses and I complied."

Similarly, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon bim), sometimes himself used to relate stories in bis company. Hadrat 'Aisha (Allah be pleased with ber) reports: "Once the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) related a story to the membere of bie bousebold. A lady submitted: "This strange tele resemblee the etories of Kbursfa." The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) asked ber: "Do you know the real story of Khursfa l' and then himself narrated the true story of Khursfa l' areat detail." Similarly, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) once related a very interesting story of eleven women to Hadrat 'Aisha (God he pleased with her).

Describing the informal conduct and cheerful temper of the illustrious companions (Allah he pleased with them), Hadrat Bakr ıhn 'Abdullah (Allah be pleased with him) relates:

"The illustrious companions (Allah he pleased with them) used to throw the peelings of melon at each other in playful fun, yet when the time came for attack or defence the valour of the companions (God be pleased with them) outweighed others in this field also".

. (Al-Adab-ul-Mufrad)

Hadrat Muhammad h. Ziyad (God be merciful to him) reports: I have seen the times of the righteous forebears. Several families of them lived in a single mansion. On many occasions it so happened that a family received a visit from a gnest. At that moment food would be ecoking in a pot in the quarter of another family. So, the host who bad received a guest would go to the quarter of his neighbour and hring over the food without informing the family. The owners of the pot would then go about searching for their pot of food and would ask the people : "Who has taken away my pot ?" The bost who had taken the pot would then confess to him, "Brother, I had received a visit from a guest so I took away your pot of food". The owner of the pot of food would thereupon say, "May God bless you by increasing the quantity of this food". Muhammad ibn Zivad (God he merciful to him) also states that when these people baked bread, the same thing happened.

(Al-Adab-ul-Mufrad)

A saving of Hadrat 'Ali (God be pleased with him) is as follows:

"Let your heart be free at time. Let your mind eonceive pleasant notions, for mind also gets weary even as the body is fatigued".

8. Do not be dall and spiritless. Be of good cheer and keep your spirits high. Beware, however, that your cheerful temper and humour does not exceed proper limits. Along with a cheerful temper, fun and recreation. you should never forget to observe sanctity of religion. prestige and self respect, halance and moderation in your activities.

The illustrious companion of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), Hadrat Abdul Rahman (God he pleased with him) reports that the illustrions companions of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) neither were devoid of humour nor walked about in a lifeless manner They need to recite verses and narrate takes and legends of pagan times in their cittings. But when in any matter something was demanded of them which did not conform to instice and truth, the pupils of their eyes were inflated with much intense anger as if they were seized with a fit of madness."

(At Adab ul. Mufrad)

Somehody remarked to the renowned traditionist Hadrat Sufyan h. Uyains (May God show him mercy) that humour is a nnisance. He answered: "No, humour is a Sunnah, hut only for that man who knows the suitable occasion on which to practice it and has the ability to indulge in good jokes". (Sharh Shama'il Tirmidhi)

9. If you love someone, you must express your love to that person. Its psychological effect on that person will he that he will develop a sense of nearness to yon. The exchange of feelings and passions on hoth sides will augment love and sincerity to an extraordinary extent. Love then will no longer be merely a feeling confined within the heart hut will begin to play a potent role in practical life. Thus people will have an opportunity of taking deep interest in the individual lives of each other and coming nearer to each other.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) has affirmed: "Any person who cherishes in his heart sentiments of love and sincerity for his brother, he should express these sentiments to his hrother and tell him clearly that he holds him in love and affection".

(Abū Dawūd)

On one occasion, a man passed in front of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him). Some people were at that time in attendance the Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him). One of them suhmitted; "O Frophet of God (peace and bleasings of Allah he on you)! I love this man for the sake of God alone". On hearing this the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) enquired from him: "Have you told this to the man "! The man submitted: "No, I have not". Thereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) urged the man: "Go and tell the man that you love him for the sake of God". The man stood up at once and approaching the peasestly expressed to him his sentiments. The passerhy made the answer: "May the Lord love thee for whose sake you entertain feelings of love for me".

(Trimidhi, Abu Dawud)

In order to eement the honds of friendship and to hring friends closer to each other for their mutual henefit, it is essential that you should take proper interest in the individual and private matters of your friends and express to them your special feelings of devotion and concern.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah he upon him) has observed:

"When a man establishes ties of friendship and fraternity with another person be should ascertain from him his name, father's name and particulars about his family as this strengthens the roots of mutual friendship". (Tirmidhi)

10. Adopt a moderate course in expressing your love and in the conduct of mutnal relationship. Do not display such unconcern that your love and connexion may appear doubtful, nor permit yourself to go to such extremes of passion that your love and friendship may assume the form of craziness and perchance you may suffer a shock at times (God forhid !) Always observe moderation and keep your feelings at halance. Adopt a moderate attitude which may be enduring and long-lasting. Hadrat Aslam (God he pleased with him) states that Hadrat 'Umar (God be pleased with him) observed: "Your love should not assume the form of madness, nor should enemity excite you to perpetrate tortune on other". I suhmitted: Sir, how should we do so "! Hadrat 'Umar (God be pleased with him) observed: "In this manner that if you love someone you start hungging him in a childlike fashion and display other forms of childish behaviour. And if you feel angry with someone, you resolve npon the destruction of his life and property and utter ruination". (Al-Adab-ul-Mufrad).

Hadrat 'Uhaid Kindi (God be merciful to him) reports: I heard Hadrat 'Ali (God be pleased with him) observing: "Adopt a tender and moderate attitude towards your friend; hid might turn your enemy tomorrow. Likewise, follow a tender and moderate course in your conduct towards the enemy; he might become your friend sometime later."

(Al.Adab.ul.Mufrad)

11. Be loyal and devoted to your friends. The heat form of devotion to your friend is that you should increasingly try to elevate his morals. You should be more concerned with his salvation in the eternal world than his advancement in the material world. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) cohserved: "Religion wholly consists in seeking the welfare of others". The real test of a well-wisher is that one should wish for his friend the same thing that one wishes for his own self, for a man can never be his own ill-wisher.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him) has affirmed:

"I swear by Him Who hath power over my life, no man can he truly pions nuless he wishes for his brother the same thing that he wishes for himself".

same thing that he wishes for himseli".

Laying down six ohligations which each Muslim owes to the other, the Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "And the believer should act as a well-wisher of his brother hoth in his presence and absence". Furthermore, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed:

"Without doubt God has ordained the ordeal of fire for that men and He has forbidden his entry into Paradise who forfeits the right of a brother Muslim after having aworn to fulfil his ohligation". Someone from among the illustrious companious (God be pleased with them) submitted: "What if that obligation relates to a very minor thing"? The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: "Yes, even if he owes an ordinary branch of the 'Pelu' tree to another Muslim".

12. Share the grief and sorrow of your friends. Likewise, participate actively in their joyous occasions. The purpose of your sharing their grief should be to alleviate their suffering and the aim of your participation in their festivities ought to be to enhance their joy. Every friend rightly expects from his sincere associates that they will stend by him in times of trial and will never desert him in the hour of need. Similarly, he anticipates that his friends will add to his falicity by increasing the grace of his festive parties with their presence and activa participation.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed:

"The Muslim fraternity is like a mansion. Even as as a huslim act as a supporter and a source of strength for the other Muslim". So saying the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah ba upon him) interlocked the fingers of his both hands and thus explained the mutual link and close connexion that ought to subsist among the Muslim community".

(Bukhārī, Muslim)

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) enjoined: "In their sense of mutual love and affection and perception of common distress, you will find Muslims as one body; if one organ of this body is afflicted, the whole body is affected by fever and sleeplessness". (Bukhāri, Muslim)

13. Meet your friends in a cheerful, amicable, joyous and sincere manner. Greet them warmly and observe proper etiquettes in receiving them. Avoid showing an indifferent. cold and unconcerned behaviour. These evils create a rift in the hearts Say words of praise and thanks and joy and satisfaction during meetings with your friends. Abstain from talk which reveals sorrow, grief and low spirits. Behave in such a manner during meetings with your friends that they should be thrilled with feelings of joy and liveliness. Do not greet them with such a gloomy face that they may feel crestfallen and may come to regard your fellowship as intolerable nuisance.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed : "Do not look upon any pious deed as insignificant, may it be greeting your brother with a cheerful heart".

(Muslim) On another occasion, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "Your smile on seeing a brother is also an act of sacrifice on your part". (Tirmidht)

Tenderness, politeness and civility generate feelings of affection and love in the heart and it is on the basis of these virtues that a good society can be formed.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observes : "I tell you the distinguishing marks of a person for whom the fire of Hell has been made unlawful and who is a forbidden person for the Hell Fire to consume : He is a man who bears a sweet temper, tender heart and is soft-(Tirmidhi) spoken". The illustrious companions (God be pleased with them) ... relate that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) used to he attentive with his whole posture towards the person with whom he was talking and listened to the talk in rapt attention. Once the Boly Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) was sitting in the mosque. A man paid a call and the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) shifted his posture and shrank a little. The mau submitted: "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon upon)! There is ample room here". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"A Muslim owes it to his brother that on seeing him, he should move for him a little." (Baihaqi)

Describing the virtnes of the helievers, the Holy Qur'an affirms:

آذَلَّة عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ .

'Adhillatin 'alal mo'minin.

"They are always very gentle to the helievara".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has elucidated the same fact in the following words:

"The believers are forbearing and soft-hearted like a case who is tied with a nose band; the camel is drawn to whichever direction his nose-band is tugged and if he is made to sit on a etone, be complies". (Titrmidhi)

14. Whenever you differ among yourselves on any matter resolve it at once. Always take the initiative to seek forgiveness and to admit your fault.

Hadrat Ahud-Darda (God be pleased with him) reports: "Once there was an exchange of hot words between Hadrat Abu Bakr and Hadrat 'Umar 'God be pleased with them.' Hadrat Abn Bakr (God be pleased with him) felt it hard and went to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) in a very sad and sorry mood and submitted : "O Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon you)! A difference arose between 'Umar and myself whereupon I flew into rage and we exchanged some bitter words. Later, I felt greatly ashamed of myself and solicited 'Umar (God he pleased with him) to forgive me. But, O Prophet of God (peace and bleesings of Allah be upon you) ! 'Umar was not reconciled and declined to forgive me. I am feeling very much upset and uneasy so have I come to you. The Holv Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) observed: 'God will grant you forgiveness and salvation', Meanwhile Hadrat 'Umar (God he pleased with him) also realised his fault and rushed to Hadrat Abu Bakr's (God be pleased with him) house. He was informed that Abu Bakr (God be pleased with bim) has gone to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). Whereupon 'Umar (God be pleased with bim) also hurried to the psesence of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). Signs of anger and displeasure appeared on the countenance of the Holy Prophet (p. b. u. h.) on seeing Hadrat Umar (A. b. p. h.) Noting the displeasure against Hadrat Umar, Hadrat Abu Bakr (God be pleased with him) felt deeply perturbed. He fell on his knees and submitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) in great humility "O Prophet of God (peace and hlessinge of Allah he upon you) ! 'Umar (God be pleased with him) is not at fault. All blame rests on me. I committed the fault. It was I who spoke harshly to bim". Thereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessingsof Allah he upon him) observed : . "God sent me as His Prophet among you and when in the early days you refuted me, it was Ahu Bakr who affiirmed his faith in me and stood by me at the cost of his life and property. Would you now aggrieve my companion" t

Do not lose time in making peace. The longer the delay in resolving quarrels, the deeper grow the roots of contention, and the wider grows the gulf of separation between the hearts. The following precept of Hadrat 'Isa (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) contained in the Bible is intensely heartwarming:

"So if you are engaged in offering sacrifice at the altar and you suddenly recall to mind that your brother has some complaint against you, leave your offering at the altar and return at once to your brother to make peace with him. Then go back to the altar and make your offering".

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) has observed;

"The deeds of the people are presented to God on every Monday and Thursday and every believer is granted pardon except the one who nurses a grudgs against any of hie believing brothers. God ordains: "Leave them so that they may resolve their quarrel".

Who knows whether the next moment will bring death or life! Who knows whether he will witness the next Monday or Thursday! Why and on what hope do you delay in purifying your heart and settling the compaints of your friends? Is any sensible person who believes in the Day of Judgement ready to present himself with an impure, dark and gruesome heart before the Almighty God!

Beware also that if your friend admits his fault and requests pardon, you should accept his excuse and forgive him from the core of your heart.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed.

"The Muslim who declines to accept the confession of his fault and a request for forgiveness from his brother Muslim is held guilty of a sin as grave as the sin of cruelty and oppression committed by an Octroi man who extorta an illegal cess". 15. Restrain your tongue even if friends talk or hehave in a manner which is offensive to your temper or taste. Do not utter harsh or offensive speech in retaliation. Instead let the matter pass with tact and gentle conduct.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed :

Hadrat Müsa (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) submitted to God: My Lord! Which one is the dearest to you among your creatures" ? God affirmed : "That one who hath the power to take revenge, yet forgives". (Mishkat)

In addition to this, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed :

"The heaviest thing put in the halance of a believer on the Day of Judement will be his politeness. God looks upon that person with intonse wrath who utters indecent and foul speech", · Hadrat 'Abdullah ihn Muharak (God he merciful to him) has defined the virtue of politeness in three ways : A person should meet others with a hright,

- smiling face.
  - 2. A man should spend his wealth on the destitute and needy persons.
  - 3. A person should not cause harm to any one. Hadrat 'Aisha (God he pleased with her) reports : "The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed : "The worst man in the eyes of God on the Day of Judgement will he the one whom the people avoid on account of his indecent and foul speech".

(Bukhari, Muslim)

16. Do not shirk your duty to reform your friends and train them in righteousness. Do not let vanity and pride take root in the character of your friends which is the greatest hurdle in their reformation and moral uplift Always try to persuade your friends to realise their omissions and errors and develop moral courage to confess their faults. They should always be mindful of the fact that failure to realise one's shortcomings and insistence upon one's faultlessness mars one's spiritual development.

As a matter of fact it is very easy to show off falce humility, to call oneself as insignificant and to display submissiveness in etyle and manners, but it is extremely difficult to custain an injury to your feelings, to listen to and admit your shortcomings with a cool mind and to tolerate the criticism directed by your friends against your personal faults. Yet true friends are those who keep an enlightened eye on the conduct of their friends and are slways alert and alive to the task of protecting each other from the evils of vanity and pride hy sincere counsel and practical example.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirms:

Three things are fatal ?

- The pession which is allowed to prevail upon ones good sense.
- The greed and lnst which is allowed to become the gulding principle of one'e life.
- And vanity——the most dangerous of the three ills". (Baihaqi, Mishkat)

Criticism and accountability are lancets which purge the moral existence of man from all undesirable elements. They augment moral strength and infuse new life into the individual and the society. To take offence, to get irritated and to consider oneself as above the criticism and accountability of friends is detrimental to one's moral being as well as to evade healthy and constructive criticism of one's friends to check and protect them from moral degradation. Do feel unessy if you find hideous faults, and chortcomings in your friends and take wise measures to eliminate those hlemishes on the characters of your friends. Similarly, give a chance with genuine humility and lerge-heartedness to your friends that they should expose to you your own foihles and faults. When your friends discharge this unpleasant duty towards you, do not be vainglorious, hut welcome their criticism with large-heartedness, cheerfully and with a grateful heart. Express your gratitude to them for their sincerity and kindness. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) has described this exemplary friendship in a most eloquent allegory.

"Each one of you serves as a mirror to his brother, Hence if you see any fault in your brother, eliminate it".

(Tirmidhi)

There are five illumicating points in this allegory which can make your friendship exemplary in genuine terms:

- (1) The mirror reflects the spots and stains on your person when you stand before it with the intention of locating these spots and stains. . When you stand aside, the mirror ceases to reflect these blemishes. Similarly, you should expose the foilles of your friend only if he willingly presents himself before you for criticism and chastisement with an open-mind. At the same time, make it sure that his mind is receptive to your criticism and that his heart is eager to accept suggestions for the correction of his faults. In the absence of these conditions, you should keep silent and put off the matter wisely for a later occasion. In the absence of your friend especially you should exercise the ntmost care not to utter a single word pointing to any shortcoming of your friend, for this would be counted as back-hiting and backhiting divides the hearts rather than uniting them .
- (2) The mirror reflects very honesty all such spots or stains which are really present on the face; it neither hides their number nor makes an addition to them. Furthermore, the mirror reflects only those deformities which are outward and apparent; it does not expose the hidden blemishes, neither probes inward, nor presents an illusory picture of your demerits. Likewise, you should also present a genuine and true picture of the inadequacies and faults of your friends. Moved by sentiments of undue politeness and flattery you should neither suppress the exposure of a few foibles of your friends nor exaggerate their dimensions or add to their number in the heat of your passionate oratory and declamation. Moreover, point out only those faults of your friends which are exposed in the normal conduct of life. Do not display curiosity or an eagerness to spy into the secrets of others. To expose the secret faults of your friends is no moral service, in fact it is a perilous and immoral act on your part.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) once ascended the pulpit and warned the congregation in a very high tone of his holy voice:

"Do not pry into the vices of Muslims. God exposes the hidden vices of a person who seeks to expose the faults of his brother Muslims; and when God decides to expose the faults of someone, He inevitably reduces the man to disgrace, even if such a man hides himself in the inner recesses of his home". (Trimids)

(3) The mirror discharges its duty unaffected by any sort of motives. Any one who faces the mirror, the mirror shows him his true image without any reservations. The mirror nurses no grudge or vendetta against anyone, nor wreaks vengeance on anybody. You should also chastise your friends unaffected by personal motives, feelings of vendetta, grudge, pique, or dishonesty. Your only motive in criticising your friend should be to enable him to reform himself, as a man adorns himself by eliminating spots and stains from his person by locating them through their reflection in the mirror.

(4) No one feels annoyed at seeing his true image in the mirror, nor commits the blunder of bresking up the mirror in a fit of rage. Instead most people on looking into the mirror hegin to adorn themselves by removing the apparent defects on their persons and in fact realizing the valuable services of the mirror in this regard are thankful to it in their hearts. They are fully conscious of the fact that the mirror has proved extremely helpful to them in the task of embellishing their persons. They believe that the mirror has done its natural duty remark. ahly and they put it way a carefully for use at another time. Similarly when someone presents your true picture before you in his own words, do not retaliate in annoyance. Instead express your gratitude to him for his sincere performance of the obligation of friendship. Feel grateful to him in your heart also, apart from offsring him thanks in words and eet about reforming yourself at once. Realizing the value and greatness of your friend with an open mind and with a sense of extrems gratitude, request your friend to continue to show you tho favour of his valuable euggeetione.

(5) The final point is that "every Muslim serves as a mirror unto his brother Muslim". A brother is an emblom of sincerity and love for his brother. A brother is loyal, devoted, sympathetis a well-wisher and a helper in grief to his brother. He feels restless on seeing his brother in trouble and is overjoyed at his happiness. Hence the criticism of a brother and a friend is motivated by feelings of extreme sincerity, devotion, sympathy and love. It will be characterised by a desire for the welfare and extreme concern for the best intorests of his friend. Every word of this friendly criticism will reflect the spirit of reformation. Such a form of criticism may he rightly expected to unite the hearts and correct the wrongs.

expected to unite the neares and correct the wongs.
17. Exchange gifts in order to express your feelings of sincerity and love for your friends and to deepen the relationship of love and affection. Mutual exchange of gifts unites the hearts and cements the bonds of love. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him) has observed:

"Exchange gifts with each other. This will generate mutual feelings of love and eliminate feelings of animosity and estrangement from your hearts".

(Mishkāt).

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) himself often used to send gifts to his illustrious Companions (God he pleased with them). The Prophet's Companions (God he pleased with them) also frequently exchanged presents and gifts among themselves. In the matter of exchanging gifts always keep within your means. Whatever the status of the receiver, do not think that your gift should necessarily be a costly one. Give according to your means and whatever is easily available, worth of your gift depends on your sincerity and the nature and depth of feelings with which you have presented the gift. It is the feelings of sincerity and deep passions of love and devotion which mnite the hearts and the cost or value of the gift is insignificant in this regard. Do not regard the gift of your friend as insignificant, however cheap in cost it may be. Instead put a high value on the feelings of love and sincerity reflected by the gift of your friend.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) observed:

"Even if someone offers me the leg of a goat as a gift, I shall accept it and if someone invites me to a dinner consisting of a cooked leg of goat, I shall certainly join the feast". (Tirmidhi)

You must answer a gitt with a gift. The Holy Prophet (peace and hiesings of Allah be upon him) need to observe this rule strictly. The Holy Prophet's (peace and hiesings of Allah he npon him) favourite gift was perfume. You should also consider the present of a perfume as a propitious gift. In the present-day circumstances, the present-tation of s hook can also be regarded as a propitious gift. In this connection, you should hold common feasts at times. Invite your friends to dinner at home. When friends invite you to functions at their homes, make it a point to join their parties. Mutual entertainment promotes feelings of love and affection, and honds of fraternity are further cemented. However, on these occasions instead of ohserving excessive formalities and laying out lavish quantities of food and drink, you should put more emphasis on displaying and augmenting the feelings of love and sincerity.

18. Look after your friends. Stand hy them in their hour of need, even at the cost of your own life and property. Asbahani relates in a tradition : "A person came to Hadrat 'Ahdnllah h. 'Umar (God be pleased with him) and saked : Which one is the most favonrite of God among the people"? Hadrat 'Ahdullah h. 'Umar (God be pleased with him) answered . "The most favourite person of God among the people la he who affords the greatest henefit to his fellow men. The deed which wins the greatest favour of God is that you should make a Muslim happy in such manner that von should alleviate his suffering or hardship or make a provision of food to satisfy his hanger. I would go out with a brother Muslim in order to help him in his need rather than sit in the mosque of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) and perform I'tikaf. God shall fill the heart of that man with His tayour on Doomsday who controlled his rage at a time when he could give vent to his fury, if he so wished. And the person who accompanied his hrother in order to help satisfy his need and actually provided for his need shall he rewarded with the favour of God on Doomsday when the other people will be staggering, this person will walk with a firm gait".

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allsh be npon him) has affirmed: "Any man who provides for the need of his hrother, Allsh shall always keep fulfilling the needs of that man. And any person who alleviates some hardship of a Muslim, Allah on Doomsday shall remove one of his bardships out of the many hardships of that day". (Bukhārī, Muslim)

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) also affirmed: "Allah continues to belp a man as long as he continues to help his hrother." (Tirmidhi)

Hadrat 'Abdullab h. 'Ahhās (Allab be pleased with him) bas reported that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) ohserved: 'The reward and blessing for the set of providing for the need of a brother Muslim exceeds the reward and hlessing for performing an I'tikaf for a period of ten years."

(Tabrani)

Hadrat Anas (Allah be pleased with him) states that the Holy Prophet of Allah (peace and hiessings of Allab be upon him) observed: "A Muslim who conveys a message of felicity and happiness to a hrother Muslim and thus affords him happiness, Allah shall, on Doomsday, make this messenger happy." (Tabarāni)

19. Be a trustworthy confident. If a friend, relying on your good faith, confides his secret in you, you should safeguard his secret. Do not betray the confidence of your friend. Make your beart an iron vault for the safe keeping of secrets, so that friends may take counsel with you without hesitation and also in order that you may proffer good advice to your friends and extend your full co-operation to them.

Hadrat 'Umar (Allah be pleased with him) narrates:
"When Hafas (Allah be pleased with her) was widowed, I called on 'Uthman (Allah be pleased with him) and said to lim: "If you are agreeable I should give Ifafas in marriage to you." 'Uthman (Allah be pleased with him) answered: "I shall think over the matter". I waited for bis message for many nights. Later 'Uthman (Allah be pleased with him) met me and said: "I have no intention of marrying at the moment". I then went to see Abn Bakr (Allah be pleased with him) and proposed: "If you wish you may take Hafas (Allab be pleased with her) as your wife". Abu Bakr (Allah be pleased with him) kapt silent and made no answer. I was offended at the silenca of Abn Bakr (Allah be pleased with him). I was more deeply offended with him than even at the response of Uthman (Allah be pleased with him). Many days passed and one day the Holy Prophet (pesce and blessings of Allah be upon bim) sent me a proposal to marry Hafsa (God be pleasad with her). I sccepted the proposal and gave Hafsa (Allah be plessed with her) in marrisge to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). Later one day Abu Bakr (Allah be pleased with him) met ma and said: "You talked to me concerning Hafsa (Allah he pleased with ber) and I kept silent. My response might have caused you some pain," I replied: "Yes. I did feel sore at your silence". Ahu Bakr (Allah he pleased with him) therenpon told me: "I knew that the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) himself intended to send a proposal for marriage with Hafsa (Allah be pleased with her). The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) had confided this secret to me and I did not intend to reveal it. If the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) had not expressed his Intention concerning Hafsa (Aliah be pleased with ber), I would certainly have sccepted your proposal." (Bukhāri)

Hadrat Anas (Allah be pleased with him) relates: "One day I was playing with boys of my age when the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) arrived and blessed us with 'salām' (peace be on you). The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him) told me his need and sent me on some errand. The errand took rather a long while. When it was over and I reached home late my mother enquired: "Where have you been for so long?" I answered: "Tha Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) had sent me on an errand". She akked: "What for?" I said: "It is a secret matter". There-akked: "Chart for?" I said: "It is a secret matter". Thereupon my mother advised me: "Look, do not reveal the secret of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) to anyone". (Muslim)

20. Your moral conduct towards the people should be characterised by a cosmopolitan, vast, comprehensive, and tolerant outlook, so that people of every taste and temper, thought and ideal may feel an nncommon sense of attraction towards you. Keeping in view the particular taste, viewpoint and temperament of every one, behave towards each person so wisely that no one's feelings are hurt. Do not adopt the unwise attitude of measuring everyone according to your own particular standard of propriety, nor make an absurd and unsuccessful attempt to mould every one according to your own taste and temprament. The variety of tastes and temperaments is a beauty of Nature. Do not deform the beauty of Nature for the sake of acquiring artificial beauty. Keep your relations according to the nature of acquaintance and the temperament of your friends, give them respect and importance accordingly and keep them attached in bonds of friendsbip with you by means of your own liberal behaviour and good character. An all-round genius as the Holy Prophet (peace and

An all-round genius as the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) was, men of all tastes and temperaments found consolation and contentment in his august company. Nobody felt any uneasiness due to the magnanimous toleration and extraordinary obsritable nature of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). The august company of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be npon him) included embodiments of toleration and affection like Abu Bakr (God be pleased with him) and men of iron nature and conrage like 'Umar Farooq (God be pleased with him), paoifists who trembled at the prospect of war like Hassân b. Tobitt (God be pleased with him) as well as the gallant victor of Khybar Hadrāt 'Ali (God be pleased with him). There was Abu Dhar Ghifari (God be pleased with bim) a saintly, gloomy figure as well as 'Abdul Rahman h. 'Anf (God be pleased with him), sumptnously rich and elegant in person. It was hy virtue of the cosmopolitan outlook, excellent conduct, deep love for humanity and the highest degree of statesmanship of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) that men of divergent personalities were extremely devoted to the person of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and the Prophet of Allah (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) himself treated everyone of them with such deep consideration that every one thought himself the most favourite friend of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him), Again, it was owing to this cosmopolitan moral viewpoint, statesmanship, wisdom and unique selflessness that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon bim) formed that matchless group of illustrious Companions (God be pleased with them), who despite their variegated natures and temperaments, were welded together in a unique combination characterised by uncommon unity, co-operation and enviably deep mutual love and affection. The mankind as a whole may rightly consider this era as the essence and . substance of its long existence so far.

Your friendships, in fact, can only be successful and long-lasting when your collective attitudes and behaviour reflect rationality, liberalism, patience and tolerance, forbear ance and magnanimity, forgiveness and selftesness, mutual understanding and humility, submissiveness, mutual accommodation of each other's sentiments and due consideration of each other's intereste in every day life. You may judge from the following few references from the life of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) how considerate, magnanimous, liheral, forbearing and tolerant was the Prophet of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) towards the natural needs, feelings and frailties of human beings.

* "I come to offer prayer and wish to prolong the prayers. But I hear some infant crying on the woman's side and I aborten my prayers, for I cannot afford to put the mother of the child to inconvenience by prolonging the prayers". (Bukhārf)

- * Hadrat Mālik bin al Hnwarith states : "Some of us young men of the same age group paid a visit to the Holy Prophet (peace end blessings of Allah be upon him) in order to learn religion from him. We stayed with the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) for twenty days. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was very kind and tender in his dealings. At the end of our twenty days' stay, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) felt that we were anxious to return home. The Prophet of Allah (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) enquired from us: "Tell me about the people you have left behind at home". We related to him (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) the affairs of our households in detail. Whereupon the · Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) commanded us: "Go back to your wives and children. While living among them teach them everything you have learnt here and urge them to oberve piety Tell them the proper timinge for offering prayers. When the time for prayer comes, one of you should call the people for prayers by saving Adhan and he who excels in knowledge and good morals among all of you, should act as leader in the prayer". (Bukhart Muslim)
  - * Hadrat Mu'awiya h. Hakam Sulami (Allah be pleased with him) relates one of his own experiences as follows:
  - "I was saying prayers behind the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) when a man sneezed. Forgetting that I was saying my prayers I spontaneously replied all prayers I spontaneously replied all prophets are discovered in rebuke at me. I said to them: "May God protect you, why do you stare at me?" I felt, however, that the people wanted me to observe silence, so I kept mum. When the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) had finished the prayers—May my father and mother be sacrificed for him, for never had I seen nor saw afterwards anyone who was a hetter teacher and guide than the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Alleh be upon him)——he did not reproseh me, neither beat me, nor rebuked me. He (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) only observed: "This is worship and it is not proper to talk in the prayer. Prayer is meant to announce the purity of God, to acknowledge His Greatness and to recite the Qur'ān."

21. Be very much particular in prayers. Pray for your friends and request them to remember you in their preyers. Pray for your friends in their presence as well as in their absence. Think of your friends and pray for them by name in their absence. Hadrat 'Umar (Allah be pleased with him) reports: "I requested leave of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) to perform 'Umrah. Granting the leave, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "O My brother, do not forget us in your preyers'. Hadrat 'Umar (God he pleased with him) says: "I felt so happy on hearing this observation of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) thet I would not have felt happier had I been offered the whole world".

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed: "When a Muslim says a prayer for his brother Muslim in absentia, Allah accepts his prayer and eppoints one of his angels on the Muslim who is offering the prayer so that when this Muslim prays for his brother Muslim the angel says: "Amen, you shall receive from Allah for yourself too what you are asking for your brother."

(Muslim)

Beseech Allah in your sincere prayers: "Allah, clear our hearts of all grudge, vendetta, enemity and misunderstanding and tie us with honds of sincerity and love. Make our relationships pleasant hy means of mutual cooperation and love". Say this prayer of the Holy Qur'an also:

Rabbanaghfirland wali ikhwaninalladhina sabaqünd biltmani wala taj'al ft qulübind ghillallilladhina dmand rabband innaka raüfurrahim.

"Our Lord! Forgive us and our hrethren who were before us in the faith, and place not in our hearts any rancour towards those who believe, Our Lord; Thou art full of nitv. Merciful." (59:10)

Etiquettes for The Host

 Express your joy and love on the arrival of e guest. Greet him with e cheerful heart. Welcome him with open arms and show him every mark of respect and honour. Do not display stinginess, indifference, cold ettitude or resentment.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Alleh be upon him) hes observed:

"The people who helieve in God and the Day of Judgement should show hospitality to their guesta".

(Bukhāri, Muslim)

Hospitality includes all those metters which are oseential for showing due respect and honour to the guest and to make provisions for his comfort, pesce, happiness and fulfilment of his needs. Showing respect to your guest means tresting your guest with politeness and in good cheer; to entertain him with pleasant conversation, to make provisions for his rest and relaxation; to introduce him to your other respectable friends; to look after his needs, to arrange provisione of food and drink for him with a liberal and generous mind and to give personal service and attention to all the requirements of your friend.

"Whenever respectable guests paid a visit to him, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) used to attend to their hospitality himself".

"Whenever the Holy Prophet (posce and hiersings of Allah be npon him) served meals to his guest he (posce and blessings of Allah be npon him) used to prompt the guest repeatedly to partake more of the food. When the guest had taken to his fill and expressed inability to eat more, it was then that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) ceased urging him to take more.

When a guest arrives, say Salam (peace be on you) to him and pray for him. Then enquire about his health.

The Holy Qur'an affirms :

Hal atāka hadithu daifi Ibrahima-l-mukramina idh dakhalū 'alaihi faqālū salāmā. Qāla salām.

"Hath the story of Ahraham's honoured guests reached thee (O Muhammad) when they came in onto him and said: "Salām" Ḥaḍret Ibrahim answered salām'. (51: 24-25)

3 Show generous hospitality to your guests and offer them the best that is readily available. On arrival of his guests, Hadrat Ihrahim (peace be on him) at once got husy in making arrangements for their dinner. He (peace be upon him) had a fat calf in his home, which he slaughtered and got it reasted for his guests.

The Holy Qur'an affirms:

والذاريات ٢٦-٢٧،

Farāgha ilā ahlihī fajā'abi-'ijlin samīnin faqarrabahü ilazhim. (51: 26-27)

Then he went apart unto his housefolk and brought a fatted calf roasted for the guests; and presented it before them".

Farāgha ilā ahliht also hsars the msaning فراغ الى اعله that Hadrat Ihrahim (psace be npon him) went inside his home to make arrangements for the feast without informing any one lest the guests should feel informal or forbid preparation of food for them for fear of causing inconvenience to the host. In that cass, it would not he possible for the host to entertain his guests.

Hadrat Ahu Sharih, in his report of the manner in which the Holy Prophet (peacs and hlessings of Allah he upon him) has urged the Muslims to show hospitality to their gussts, states as follows :

"I saw with my two eyes and heard with mine two ears when the Holy Prophet 'peace and blessings of Allah hs upon him) was delivering this counsel: "The people who helisvs in God and the Day of Judgment should show hospitality to their guests. The first night and first day of his stay is the prized day and night for you".

(Bukhari/Muslim) To attribute 'In'am' (reward) to the first night and first day of the guest's stay implies that as the munificent feels spiritual contentment on giving away (reward with deep sentiments of joy and love, a similar hehaviour should he displayed by the host towards the guest on the first night and first day of his stay with him. Likewise as the heneficiary receives the (reward) with joy and happiness deeming it as his rightful dus and appreciates the munificence of his hanefactor, a similar attitude should be adopted by the guest towards his host during the first night and first day of his stay with him. The guest should not stand on formality and ought to accept the offerings of the host with sentiments of joy and close fellowship considering the host's hospitality towards him as his rightful due.

4. As soon as the guest arrives, think first of his natural human needs. Make discreet suquiriss as to whether hs wishes to use the toilet or hathroom. Arrange a bath for him, if it is required. Even though it may he a late hour for meals, ask your guest if he wants to eat or drink in such a discreet manner that he should not decline as a matter of formality. Show your guest his bed room where he is to stay.

- 5. Do not pester your guest with your constant company. Similarly do not keep him awake late in the night talking or discussing matters. Allow him sufficient time to rest so that he may not feel inconvenient. When the guests paid a visit to him, Hadrat Ihrahim (peace be upon him) left them alone for a while and went inside his home to prepare a feast for the guests.
- 6. Do feel pleasura when the guests are dining with you. Do not show any signs of stinginess, annoyance or weariness. The guest is not a burden, but a source of hlessing, grace and Divine favour. Whomsoever God sends to you as a guest, He sends provisions for the guest also. The guest eats with you whatever was decreed for him; he does not eet your chare of the divine bonnty. The visit of a guest adds to your honour and dignity.
- 7. Protect the bononr and dignity of your guest and consider his honour and dignity as vital as your own. In case any one poses a threat to the honour of your guest, you should consider it a challenge to your own hononr and conscience.

The Holy Qur'an affirms that when the people of the habitation assulted the gneets of Hadrat Lüt (peace be upon him) with evil intentions, Hadrat Lüt (peace be upon him) rose up in their defence and declared; "These people are my guests. Do not disgrace me by treating them offennively. I hold their disgrace as an offence against my own person".

Qāla inna hāolāi daift fala tafdahūni wattaqullaha wa la tukhzūn.

"He said: Lo ! they are my guests. Affront me not! And fear Allab and shame me not". (22: 68-9)

8. Observe all the etiquettes of Mospitality with deep enthusiasm and engerness for three days. The guest has a right over you to entertain him for three days and a believer should always be extremely generous in disobarging their obligations. On the first day the gnest should he shown special bospitality. Hence make sumptuous arrangements for the entertainment of your guest. On the subsequent two days it does not matter if that level of empituous entertainment cannot be maintained. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon bim) has observed:

Wad-diyafatu thalāthata ayyāmin famē ba'da dhālika fa hu wa lahu sadaqatun. (Bukhari, Muslim).

"And bospitality is ordained for three daye. Later whatever entertainment the host offers to his guest is a charity on his part".

9. Consider rendering service to the guest as your moral duty. Do not consign your guest to the eare of your servants and children. Instead devote yourself personally to the service of your guest. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be npon him) used to look after the entertainment of the guesta personally. When Hadrat Imām Shāfi (God be mereiful to him), he was received with every mark of honour and reepect due to a guest and was lodged in his bed room to eleep for the night. At dawn Imam Shāfi (God be mereiful to him) beard a knock on the door and a voice said in affectionate tones: May God show you

His Mercy! Arise, the hnur nf prayer has come". Imam Shāf'i (Allah he merciful to him) at nnce got up and found Imām Mālik (Allah he merciful to him) standing on the door with a vessel full of water in his hand. At this, Imām Shāf'i (Allah he merciful to him) felt some emherrassment, noticing which Imām Mālik (Allah be merciful to him) remarked in deep affectinn "Never mind, hrother, it is obligatory to look after the guests".

10. Having lodged the guest, tell him the location of the toilet;

- or having longest use guest, test him the location in the toilet; provide him with a vessel if water; point out the direction of the Qihlah, and supply him with a prayer-mat. The servant of Imām Mālik (Allah he merciful to him), having lodged Imam Shaf'i (Allah he merciful to him) in a room suhmitted to him: "Ḥaḍrat! This is the direction of the Qihlah; the vessel if water is placed here and the toilet is located this way".

  1. At dinner time wash your hands first and reach the table.
- 11. At dinner time wash your hands first and reach the table before your guests wash their hands. When Imim Mälik (God be merciful to him) observed this etiquette, Imäm Shafi' (God be merciful to him) asked him the significance of this gesture. Thereupon Imām Mälik (God he merciful to him) observed, "Before starting the meal the host should wash his hands first and resch the dining place before his guests in order to great them at the meal. At the end of the meal, however, it is the guests whose hands should he washed first and the host should wash his hands last of all lest some more guests should drop in before the host gets up from the dining place."
- 12. The quantity of food and the number of plates should be somewhat in excess of the sotual number of guests. It is possible that someone might turn up during the meal. In that case, the host will have to get up and take the extra trouble of making further arrangements. If the provisions and plates are aiready there the new guest will he saved from emharrassment and will rather feel happy and honoured.

13. Show selflessness and sacrifice in the case of a guest. Provide comfort to him at the cost of your nwn convenience.
One day a person ceme to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and, submitted: "O Prophet of Allah (peece and blessings of Alleh he upon yon)! I am in a terrible agony of hunger". The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) sent word to one of his holy wives (Allah be pleased with them): "Send whatever foed is aveileble", The answer he (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) received was : "In the name of Alleh Who has sent you as His Apostle, there is nothing except weter available here". The Holy Prophet (pesce and blessings of Allah be upon him) thereupon sent the same message to a second wife and received the some reply. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) made enquiries from each of his wives, but answer was invariably the same. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allsh be upon him) then turned towards his companions and observed; "Who among you will accept this man as his guest for tonight". A companion from among the Ansar (Alleh be pleased with him) submitted: "O Prophet of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you), I accept this man as my guest". The Ansari (Allah be pleased with him) there-

The Ansari (Allah be pleased with him) thereupon took the guest to his hunse and told his wife:
"I have hrought a guest from the Holy Prophet (peace end blessings of Allah be upon him) with me. Show him some hospitelity". The wife answered: "I have just enough food for children and no more". The illustrions companion (God be pleased with him) said: "Put the children to sleep by diverting their attention to same thing else and when yon serve the meel before the guest, extinguish the lamp on some pretext and sit down beside the guest so that he mey feel we ere sharing the meal with him". In this manner, the guest ate to his fill, but the hosts passed the night on an empty stomach. Next morning when this illustrious Companion (Allah be pleased with him) reached the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and hiesings of Allah be npon him), the Prophet (peace and hiesings of Allah he npon him) on beholding him observed: The goodness both of you displayed towards your guest has won you the immense pleasure of God".

(Bukhāri, Muslim)

14. Even if your guest has treated you with had manners and given you a cold shoulder on some occasion in the past, beheve towards him with generosity, liberality and megnenimity.

Hadret Ahnl-Ahwee Jashmi (God be pleased with him, reletes ahout his father that once he submitted to the Holy Prophet (peece and blessings of Allah be upon him): "If I come across someone and he does not perform his duty of hospitality and entertainment towards me and leter if he heppens to meet me, is it obligatory upon me to show him hospitality if or should I set towards him in the same impolite and indifferent menner! The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) observed: "No, you should perform your obligation of hospitelity towards him in any cese". (Michket)

15. Make a request to your guest to offer e preyer invoking the favour end greec of God on you, sepecially when the guest is a man of piety, a devotee of religion and a person of excellent feith. Hadpet 'Abdullah b. Bust (Alleh be pleased with him) reports: "The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) once stayed as e guest with my fether. We presented to him e dish of 'Herisa'. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) at e some of it. Afterwards we offered some dates. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) ate the dates and teking the kernels between the two forefingers of his hend, cast them awey. Finally we presented a drink. He (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) took some draughts of it and passed it on to the next person sitting on his right. When the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) got up to leave, my father took hold of the bridle of his horse and submitted: "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you)! Pray for us". Thereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) prayed for him.

Allahumma bārik lahum fimā razaqtahum waghfir lahum warhamhum. (Tirmidhi).

"O God! Bless the provisions you have vouchsafed to them with Thy increased bounty, grant them salvation and show them Thy Mercy".

Etiquettes for Guest

- When yon pay a visit to someone as a guest, do take some gifts for the host or for his children according to your means. Keep in mind the taste and liking of yonr host while choosing gifts for him. Exchange of presents and gifts augments sentiments of love and promotes intimate relationship. The gift creates a soft corner in the heart of the receiver for the donor.
- Do not stay for more than three days as a guest with any one, save under special circumstances or when the host insists on your staying with him for a longer period. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirms:

"It is not permissible for a guest to stay so long with the host as to cause bim trouble". (Al.Adab.w.M.wfrad)
"Sahih Muslim' reports: "It is not permissible for a Muslim to stay so long with his brother as to make him a sinner". The people submitted: "O Propbet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you! How will a Muslim make his brother a sinner in this manner"! By staying so long with his brother that bis brother may be

- exhausted of all means of entertaining him".

  3. Do not always be a guest of others. Invite others also to he your guests and entertain them liberally.
- 4. When you go to stay as a guest with somebody, take necessary baggage and bedding etc. according to the season along with yon. In winter, especially, never forget to take the hedding with yon, otherwise the host will be put to extreme hardship. It is highly improper that the guest shall in any way become an unbearable hurden for the host,

- 5. Keep in mind the engagements and duties of your host. Take care that your bost's occupation, duties and engagements are not in sny way disturbed by your presence as a gnest with him.
- Do not make all sorts of demands on your host. Be content with whatever provisions be makes for your comfort and entertainment and thark him for this. De not put him in any extracidinary trouble.
  - 7. If your host's women are not your close or blood relation, avoid entering into conversation with them without reason. Do not eavesdrop on the mntual conversation of your host's women. Behave yourself in each a meaner that your conversation or conduct does not become a nuiseance for them. Do not violate the privacy and the limitations of Purdah in any case.
- If for some reason you do not wish to eat with your host, or you are observing a fast, excuse yourself politely and say a prayer invoking the Grace and Blessings of Allah upon your hoat.

When Hadrat Ibrahim (peace be upon bim) presented a sumptuous meal to his venerable guests and the guests would not partake of it, Hadrat Ibrahim (peace he upon him) said to them: "Gentlemen, why don't you eat!" In a bid to put Hadrat Ibrahim at ease the angels submitted: "Please do not take it ill. As a matter of fact, we cannot eat. We have come only to convey the glad tidings of the birth of a talented son to you".

tidings of the birth of a talented son to you."

9. When yon attend a feast, say a prayer at the end of the meal invoking Allab to bless the boat with extensive means, grace, favour, salvation and His Mercy. Ḥadrat Abu Athhim b. Tahan (Allab be pleased with him) once invited the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) and his illustrioua Companions (Allah be pleased with them) to a feast. When the meal was over, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Reward your brother". The illustrious Companions (God be pleased with them) submitted:

"How can we reward him, O Prophet of Allah (pesce and blessings of Allah be npon yon)!" The Holy Prophet (pesce and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "When a man pays a visit to his brother and cats and drinks there, he can reward his brother by praying for God's favour and hlessings npon his brother".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) once visited the bouse of Ḥaḍrat Sa'd b, 'Uhadah (Allah be pleased with him), Haḍret Se'd (God be pleased with him) presented to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) bread and olive oil. The Prophet of Allah (peace and hlessing of Allah be upon him) took the meal and then prayed for him:

آفطرَ عِنْدُكُمُ الصَّاثِيونَ وَ آكَلَ طَعَامَكُمُ الْآبِدَارُ وَ صَلَّتْ

عَلَيْكُمُ الْمُلاَثِكَةُ . وابوداؤده

Aftara 'indakum-us-sā' imūna wa akala ta'āmakum-ulabrāru wa sallat 'alaikum-ul-malā'ikah. (Abu Dawud)

"May the fasting people break their fasts with your provisions! May the pious pertake of your meals and may the angels pray for Alleh's Mercy and forgiveness for you".

Etiquettes of Sittings

- 1. Try to keep company with persons of good character.
- 2. Join in the conversation that is going on among those present in the company. To exclude yourself from the conversation and to ak in company with a frowing face betraya a haughty attitude. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon_bim) used to take an active part in the conversation among his illustrious companions (Allah be pleased with them). Do not adopt a gloomy attitude or a poature of depression while sitting in a company. Wear a smile on your face and alt in the company in a fresh and joyous model.
- 3. Try that the remembrance of Allah and the life in the Hereafter should form part of discussion in each of your meetings. When you feel that the interest of the participants is lagging in conversation on religious matters, change your topic to worldly issues. Later when a suitable opportunity arises make a discreet effort to bring the talk round to religious topics again.
- 4. When you go to a meeting take a seat wherever you find room. Do not make a bid to move shead by pushing through or jumping over the heads or shoulders of the people. Such conduct causes inconvenience to those who came early and took their seats first and the man who indulges in such impolite behaviour reflects a sense of self-importance and haughtiness.
- 5. In a meeting, do not try to dislodge a person from his seat in order to occupy it yourself. This is a very bad habit. Snoh conduct provokes hatred and ill-will in the hearts of attitude towards others.

6. In a meeting where people are sitting around in a circle, do not sit in the centre of the circle. Such a behaviour is not only ridiculous, but extremely improper. The Holy

- only ridiculous, but extremely improper. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has cursed such defaulters.

  7. Do not try to grab the seat of a person who leaves his seat for a while. Keep his seat reserved until he returns.
- However, if it is known that the person will not return, you are free to take the seat previously occupied by him.

  8. Do not separate two persons sitting together in some gathering without seeking their permission. They might be sitting together because of intimacy, love or for some other resson and separation may hurt their feelings.
- Avoid sitting at a place of distinction in a gathering. If you pay a vicit to somebody's house, don't try to take a seat of distinction, save in case the host himself insists on your taking such a seat. Always sit in the meeting in a respectful manner. Do not agreed your feet or stretch your legs.
   Do not make a hid to always sit near the person presiding
- 10. Do not make a hid to always sit near the person presiding the meeting. Sit wherever you find room, and leave space for those who arrive after you to find a place to sit conveniently. In case a greater number of people arrive to attend the meeting, you should try to adjust yourself in a smaller space and generously leave room for the new comers to find a seat.
- to hou a seat.

  11. Do not stand before or around someone, even to show respect as it is against Islamic etiquette.

  12. No two persons should talk to each other in confidence in a
- respect as it is against Islamic etiquette.

  12. No two porsons should talk to each other in confidence in a gathering or sitting. This annoys others and creates a feeling that they do not deserve to be taken into confidence. It may also create a misunderstanding among others that the two persons are perhaps engaged in back biting against others present over there.

- 13. Seek the permission of the chairman before you say anything in a meeting. While you speak or take part in question and answers, do not assume such role as if you are presiding over the meeting. It may be taken as an attempt to impose yourself upon others as well as an insult to the chairman of the meeting, 14. Only one man should speak at a time. Each one should be
- heard with full attention. Eagerness to express himself first in a meeting may create chaos and pandemonium. 15. The matters discussed in confidence in the meeting must not
- be spread everywhere. The participants are under obligation to guard the secrets of the meeting. 16. Do not broach another issue until the meeting concindes disenssion about the matter under consideration. Do not interrupt a speaker in order to start speaking yourself.
- In case, it is imperative for you to speak up at once, you should do so with the permission of the speaker. 17. In the course of the proceedings, the Chairman of the meeting should pay equal attention to all members. He should address the meeting turning towards right and left so that each side receives the benefit of attention. The
- Chairman should allow the participants a right to express their views. lg. Say this prayer before dispersing the meeting. The meeting
  - should not end without offering this prayer: اللَّهُمَّ اقْسُمْ لَـنَّا مِنْ خَشْيَنِكَ مَا تَحُولُ بَيْنَنَّا وَ بَيْنَ مَعْصِيَـتكَ وَ مَنْ طَاعَتكَ مَا تُسَلّغُمَا يه جَمْنتُكَ ، وَ مَنَ الْمِيقِينِ مَا تَهُونُ بِهِ عَلَيْنَا مَضَالُ الدُّنْيَا . اللَّهُمَّ مَنْعَنَا بِـأَسَمَاعِنَا وَ ٱبْصَارِنَا وَ فَـوْنَـنَا مَا ٱحْبَبِـنَـنَا وَاجْعَلْهُ الْوَارِثَ

"God, grant as Thy Feer and Mercy which may stand between us and disobedience to Thee. Vouchasfe to us that devotion which may entitle us to Thy Paradise. Give us such deep Faith which may render all wordly losses as worthless for us. God, grant us the favour of utilising our sense of hearing, sight and physical strength to our advantage and continue this favour even after we are no more. Take our revenge from him who oppresses us. Grant us victory over him who shows enmity towards us. Do not put us to trial concerning religion. Do not make worldly goods the chief objects of our lives. Do not make this world the limit of our knowledge and wisdom, nor entrust us under the charge of a person who shows no mercy to ns."

Etiquettes of Greetings

 Say 'Assalamo-'Alaikum' ou meeting a Muslim brother in order to express your feeling of attachment and felicity.

The Holy Qur'an affirms :

'Wa idha ja'akalladhina yu'minuna bidyātinā faqul salāmun 'alaikum. (6 : 54)

"And when those who believe in our revelations come unto thee say: Peace he unto you".

Thie verse which is addressed to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) indirectly teaches a moral etiquette to the entire Ummsh i.e. whenever two Muslims meet each other, they should exchange feelings of love and felicity with each other, and the best means of doing this is that they should pray for the salvation and wall-being of each other. One should say 'Assaiamo.'Alakum'; the other should respond with 'Wa' 'Alakumue salām'. Offering the salām is a means of maintaining and augmenting love and affection.

The Holy Prophst (peacs and hlessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed:

"Yeu cannot enter Paradise until you acquire piety and you cannot attain piety unless you learn to love each other. Let me tell you a device. If you use it, you will leern to love each other. Meke the practice of offering salam to each other common among you". (Minhkat) 2. Always say 'salām' after the Islemic fashion. In personal conversation or in correspondence, you must use these words of greeting which have been prescribed by the Holy Qur'an and Sunnah. Do not avoid the usage of this Islamic etiquette of greeting, nor use substitute words or expressions prescribed by modern society. This Islamic mode of greeting is not only very simple, meeningful, and impressive hut also a comprehensive prayer for salvation and nesce. The significance of your offering a salam to vour Muslim brother is very vast. 'Assalamo-'Alaikum' implies 'Mey Allah bless you with all kinds of peace and salvation'; 'May Allah protect your life and property'; 'May Allah protect your hearth and home ; May Ha keep your family and relations in safety'; 'May Allah safeguard your faith and belief'; May you live in peace in this world and in the world Hereafter'; 'May God vouchsafe to you graces of which I know and graces of which I have no knowledge'; I bear deep sentiments of good-will, love and sincerity, safety and peace for you. Hence do not have fear on my account. You will never come to harm from any deed of mine'. By adding 'Alif' and 'Lam' to the world 'salam' and saying 'Asselamo-'Alaikum', you offer all the good preyers for the addressee. Just imagine what hatter words than 'Assalemo-'Alaiknm' can be used for expressing heartfelt felicity, sincerity, lova, goodwill and devotion to the person whom you meet, provided these words are uttered with full awareness of their significance. When you greet your hrother with the words 'Assalamo-'Alaikum', you in fact invoke the hlessings of Allah to protect your brother; you invoke the blessings of Him Who is the Fountain of all good and Whose Being is synonymous with peace and salvetion. 'Assalam' is one of the attributes of Allah and a person can attain peace and salvetion only at the goodwill of the Almighty and whomsoever He denies salvation is deprived of it in both worlds.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hiersings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed ;

"Assalam is one of the attributes of Allah. It has been sent unto the world for the benefit of the people. Hence make the use of Assalam common among you".

(Al-Adab-ul-Mufrad) Hadrat Ahu Huraira (Allah he pleased with him) has reported that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "When Allah created Hadrat Adam (peace he npon him), He ordained that Adam (peace he upon him) should approach a group of angels and offer them 'salam'. Allah also connselled Adam (peace be upon hlm) to listen carefully the answer given hy the angels and to remember it, because the same prayer would be prescrihed for Adam (posce be upon him) and his progeny. Hence Hadrat Adam (peace he npon him) approached the angels and said : "Assalamo-'Alaikum'. The angels in reply eaid: 'Assalamo-'Alaikum Wa Rahmatullah''. In other words, the angels in their answer added the words 'Rahmatullah' to 'Assalamo 'Alaikum'. (Bukhārī, Muslim)

The Holy Qur'an affirms that when the angels come to extract the souls of the helievers they say 'Salamu-

'Alaik' on their arrival :

كَذَالِكَ يَجْزِى اللَّهُ الْمُنْفَيْنَ الَّذِينَ نَتَوَفَّهُمُ الْمَلَافِكَةُ

Kadhālika yajzillahul-muttaqinal-ladhina tatawaffahumul malā'ikatu tayyibina yaqūlūna salāmun 'alaikum udkhul-ul-jannata bimā kuntum t'amalūn. (16:31-32)

Thus Allah repayeth those who ward off (evil).

"Those whom the angels cause to die (when they are) good. They say: Peace be unto you! Enter the garden because of what ye used to do".

When these God-fearing people will arrive at the gates of Paradise, the sentinels of Paradise will accord them a magnificent welcome with the same words:

وَ سَيْنَ الَّذِينَ اتَّـقُوا رَبِهِم إِلَى الْجَنَّـةُ زُمُّوا حَنَّى اذَا جَاؤُهَا

وَ فُتِحَتْ آَبُوآبِهَا وَ قَالَ لَهُمْ خَزَنْتُهَا سَلامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ طَبِنْمُ فَادْخُلُومًا خَالدِينَ . والزمر ـ ٧٣

Wa sigalladhinattagau rabbahum ilal jannati zumard hattā idha jā'āha wa futihat abwābuhā wa gāla lahum khazanatuhā salāmun 'alaikum tiblum fadkhuluhā khālidin. (39:73)

"And those who keep their duty to their Lord are driven unto the gardene in troops till when they reach and the gates thereof are opened and the warders thereof asy unto them: Peace be unto you! You are good so enter you (the garden) to dwell therein forever".

And when they shall have entered Paradise, the angels will enter from all the Gates of Paradise and say 'Assalamo-'Alaikum' to them.

وَالْمَلَافَكُةُ بَدْخُلُونَ عَلِيْهِمْ مِنْ كُلِ بَابٍ . سَلَّامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ بِمَا صَبِرْتُمْ شَدْمُ عُشِي الدَّارِ .

Wal malā'ikatu yadkhulūna 'alaihim min kulli bābin salāmun 'alaikum bimā sabartum fani'ma 'uqbaddār.

"And the angels shall arrive to offer them welcome from each Gate of Paradise and say to them: سلام" عليكم "Salāmun. alaikum. This is the recompense for your patience and steadfast conduct. Hence how excellent is this eternal home".

The people of Paradise will also greet each other with the same words:

Da'wāhum fihā subhanaka allahumma wa tahiyyatuhum fihā salām.

"And therein their tongues shall pronounce. "O God I Thou art Pure and Supreme" and they shall pray for each other in these words: "Salam" be on yon".

Even God shall send them greetings of 'Salam' and 'Blessings'.

Inna as-hābal jannatil·yauma fi shughulin fākihūna hum vea azvājuhum fi zilālin 'alal arā'ti muttaki'üna lahum fihā fākiha-tun walahum ma yadda'tin. Salāmun qaulan min rabbirrahīm. (36:55.58)

"Lo! those who merit paradise this day are happily employed, they and their wives in pleasant shade on thrones reclining! Theirs the fruit and theirs that they ask; the word from a Merciful lord is peace!

In reality, there shall be greetings of 'Salām' for the believers from all sides in Paradise.

Lā yasmu 'ūna fiha laghwan wa lā to'thiman illa gilan salāman salāmā. "They shall not hear improper absurdities there, nor (talk) of sin. There shall only be greetings of 'Salām', 'Salām', on all sides''.

In view of these clear injunctions and evidence of the Holy Qur'an and Sunnah, it is not lawful for a believer to forsake the manner prescribed by Allah and His Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) under any circumstance and adopt other modes of expressing love and felicity.

Say Salam to every Muslim, whether you have a prior acquaintance or connexion with him or not. The condition—that he is your. Muslim brother suffices for establishing a relationship or making an acquaintance and a Muslim must cherish sentiments of love, sincerity, goodwill and loyalty for his brother Muslim. A person submitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him): "What is the most commendable deed in Islam"? The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "To feed the poor and to offer Salam to every Muslim, whether you have a prior acquaintance with him or not". (Bukhārt, Muslim)

4. On entering your house, say 'Salām' to members of your family. The Holv Qur'an affirma:

Fa idhā dakhaltum buyütan fasallimü 'alā anfusikum tahiyyatan min 'indillahi mubārakatan tayyibatan. (24 : 61).

"But when ye enter houses sainte one another with a greeting from Allah hiessed and aweet".

Hadrat Anas (God be pleased with him) reports that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon bim) had advised him: "Dear son! On entering your house, you should first say 'Salām' to members of your family. This is an act of goodness and hlessings for you and your family".

(Trimidhi).

Similarly, when you call at somebody's house, say 'Slām' before entering the house. Do not go into the house without saying 'Salām' first.

Yd ayyuhalladhina ümanü lü tadkhulü buyütan ghaira buyütikum hatta tasta 'nisü wa tusallimu' alä ahlihä (24:27).

"O ye who believe! Enter not houses other than your own without first summnneing your presence and invoking peace muon the folk thereof".

When the angels called on Hadrat Ibrahim (peace be upon bim) as his venerable guests, they offered 'Salam' and in response Hadrat Ihrahim (peace be upon him) also said 'Salam' to them.

5. Say 'Salām' to small children also. This is the best means of teaching the children the manner of offering 'Salām' ad well as an observance of the Sunnah of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). When Hadrat Anas (God be pleased with him) passed near the children, be said 'Salām' to them and observed that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) used to do the same'. (Bukhāri, Muslim)

Hadrat 'Abdullah b. 'Umar (God he pleased with him) used to write 'Slam' in his letters to children also. (Al. Adab. ul. Mufrad)

 Women can offer 'Salām' to men; likewise men can offer 'Salām' to women. Hadrat Asmā Anşāria (God be pleased with her) states: "I was sitting among my lady friends when the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) passed hy us. He (peace and blessings of Allah bu upon him) offered 'Salam' to us. (Al-Adob-ul-Mufrad Umm Hani (God he pleased with her) states: "I came to the presence of Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him). He (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) was taking a hath at that time. When I offered 'Salām' to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him), he (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) enquired ahont me. I submitted: Umm Hānī. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) said: "Most Welcome."

(Al-Adab-ul-Mufrad)

Accustom yourself to say 'Salam' as often as possible and never miss the opportunity of saying 'Salam'——Say 'Salam' to each other as often as possible. The act of offering 'Salam' promotes love and in recompense for this act, God grants protection from all pain or loss.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon hlm) has affirmed:

"Let me tell you a device, which will promote love and friendship among yon. Say Salām to each other as often as possible". (Muslim)

In addition, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he apon him) also observed: "Make the practice of offering 'Salam' common among you. God shall grant yon salvation in recompense".

Hadrat Anas (God be pleased with him) reports that the illustrious Companions of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) used to say 'Salam' to each other very often. So common and widespread was the practice that if at times a Companion went out of sight behind a tree and appeared in view again, he offered 'Salām' again. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him) has observed:

"Any person who meets a Muslim brother should say 'Salam' to him. Later if one of them goes out of sight behind a tree, wall or a stone and reappears, he should offer 'Salām' once again on seeing his hrother'."

(Riyād us-Sālihīn).

Hadrat Tufail (God be pleased with him) reports: "It was to call on Hadrat 'Abdullah b. 'Umar (Allah be pleased with him) often and also accompanied bim on his trips to the bazar. When both of us went to the bazar it was the common practice of Hadrat 'Abdullah ibn 'Umar (God be pleased with him) to say 'Salam' to every passer-by, may he be a junk-man, a shopkeeper or a poor or destitute person. In fact he invariably offered 'Salam' to every person whoever he may be".

One day when I called on him, he said: "Let us go to be bazar". I submitted: Hadrat (God be pleased with you what will you do in the bazar You never stop to make any purchases, neither enquire about any goods; nor strike a hargain; nor attend any company in the bazar. Come, sir, let us sit here and talk". Hadrat Tufaii (Allah be pleased with hlm) observed: "O Abu Baṭan (fat-bellied)! I go to the bazar merely to offer Salām". Whoever happens to meet me I say 'Salām' to bim". (Muscutta Imam Maith).

 Beware that each Muslim bas a right over you to offer him 'Salam'. Discharge this obligation towards a brother Muslim open-heartedly and never m'es an opportunity to any 'Salam' to another Muslim.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be noon him) has observed: "Each Muslim owes an obligation to another Muslim to offer him 'Salām' whenever they happen to meet". (Muslim)

Hadrat Abu Hurairs (God be pleased with him) states:
"The most niggardly person is be who lets go an opportunity to say 'Salām',"

'AlAdab-ul-Mufrad)

 Always be the first to say 'Salām'. If, God forbid, you are not on good terms with someone, even then you should take the initietive in offering 'Salam' and making up tha The Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah be upon him) observed ; "He who takes the initiative in offering 'Salam' is the neerest to God". (Abu Dāwūd)

Furthermore, the Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah he npon him) affirmed: "It is not lawful for any Muslim to severe all connexion with his hrother Muslim for a period of more than three days to such extent that if they happen to some across each other, oue should turn towards one side and the other should change his course towards the other side. Between these two, he is the superior who is the first to say 'Salam' to the other".

(Al-Adab-ul-Mufrad)

Someone submitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him): "When two persons happen to meet each other, who should say 'Salam' first!" The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "He who is hetter than the other in the eyes of God". (Tirmidht).

Hadrat 'Ahdullah b. 'Umar (God he pleased with him) was so much particular in being the first to offer 'Salam' that no one ever sneceeded in beating him in this respect.

Do offer the 'Salâm' hy word of mouth end say Assalāmo-'Alaikum in a distinct voice so that the addresses may hear it clearly. There is nothing wrong with making a sign with your haud or nedding your head if need be along with saying the 'Salām'. For example if the person to whom you wish to offer 'Salam' is out of the reach of your voice, or he is unable to hear you because of deafness, you must make a gesture of 'Salam' along with nttering Assalamo-'Alaikum.

Hadrat 'Abdullah h. 'Umar (God be pleased with him) has observed: "When you offer 'Salām' to someone, make cure that he bears it, for 'Salām' is the purest and the most blissful prayer wonchasfed by God to man".

(Al-Adab-ul-Mufrad).

Hadrat Asma' danghter, of Yazīd (God be pleased with help bas reported: "One day the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) passed near the mosque where a group of women were seated. While passing by the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) offered 'Salām' to the women with a gesture of his holy band".

It is evident that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) made a gesture of the hand along with uttering the words Assalamo-'Allahkum. The Tradition recorded in the Abn Dawud also confirms this point. Hadrat Asma (God be pleased with her) states that when the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) passed by us, he offered us 'Salam'." It is proper, therefore, to make a gesture of the hand or not the head if need he, but the words of 'Salam' must he nettered all the same.

11. Be particular in offering 'Salām' to your elders. If you are walking along and some people are sitting on the way, you should he the first to offer them 'Salām'. When you are part of a small group and your emall group comes across a larger numher of people, the smaller group must take the initiative in eaying the 'Salām'. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be npon him) has affirmed:

"The younger should be the first to say 'Salām' to the elder; the passer-by should be the first to offer 'Salām' to those wbo are sitting; likewise a smaller group of people abould take the initiative in saying 'Salām' to the larger group."

(Al-Adab-ul-Mufpad)

 If you are mounted, you must be the first to say 'Salam' to the predestrians and to those who are sitting on the way. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"The mounted should take the initiative in offering the 'Selām' to the pedestrians; the pedestriens should be the first to offer 'Salām' to those who ere sitting on the way; end e smeller group of people should sey 'Salām' to the larger group first'.

(Al-Adab-ul-Mufrad).

13. When you cell at somebody's house and enter his sitting room or pass hy a crowd or on arrival at e meeting, offer 'Salem'. Similarly, say 'Salam' et the time of teking leeve.

"The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Alleh he upon him) has observed:

"You should offer 'Salam' on arrival et a meeting and say 'Salam' again on leaving the meeting and remember that the recompense for the first 'Salem' is in no wey more . than the recompense for the second 'Salam'. (The implication is that you should not underrate the importance of offering 'Salam' on taking leave or consider saying of 'Salam' on arrival enough to cover the offering of 'Salam' (Tirmidhi) at the time of leaving.)" 14. On arrival at a meeting, offer 'Salam' to the meeting as e whole; do not offer 'Salem' to a particular person by name. One day Hadrat 'Abdullah (God he pleased with him) was seated in the mosque when a supplicant arrived and offered him 'Salam' addressing him hy name. Hadrat Abdullah observed: "God affirmed Truth and the Holy Prophat (peace and hieraings of Allah be upon him) fully discharged his duty of communicating the Divine Message". Afterwards Hadret 'Ahdulleh (God he pleased with him) went inside his home. The people waited, wondering what his words meant. At last, when he returned, Hedrst Teriq (God be pleased with him) enquired: "Sir we could not grain the sense end snhstance of your utterance". Hadrat 'Abdullah (God be pleased with him) answered: "Tha Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be noon him) affirmed that when the Doomsday will approach near, the people will adopt the custom of saying 'Salam' to particular persons hy name on arrival at meetings". (Al-Adab ul Mufrad).

15. If an opportunity arises to convey 'Salam' to an elder, a near relative or friend through somebody else or hy means of a letter written hy someone else, you must take this opportunity to communicate your 'Salam'.

Hadrat 'Aisha (Allah be pleased with her) states: "The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed to me, 'Aisha, Gahriel says 'Salam' to you', I answered :

دبخاری و مسلمه

Wa'alaikumusslamu wa rahmatullahi wa barakatuhu.

(Bukhari, Muslim)

16. If you arrive at some place where some people are asleep, say 'Salam' in such a low voice that the wakeful may hear it, yet those who are asleep may not be disturbed by your voice.

Hadrat Miqdad (Allah be pleased with him) reports: "We used to keep some milk for the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him). When the Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah be upon him) came home late at night, he need to say 'Salām' in such a manner that those who were asleep might not be disturbed by the sound and the wakeful might bear it. So the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) came and said (Muslim) 'Salām' as naual.

17. Make a cheerful and happy response to the 'Salam'. You owe this obligation to your Muslim brother who offers you a 'Salsm'. You should never miss an opportunity to respond to the offer of 'Salam'.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed:

"A Muslim has five rights over another Muslim :

- * To make a response to the Salam.
- * To visit him if he is lying iil.
- * To join in the funeral procession.
- To accept the invitation.
- * To respond to a sneeze".

. Furthermore the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) enjoined: "Avoid sitting on the road sides". The people submitted: "O Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you): It is an unavoidable necessity for ne to sit on the roadside." The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "If it is nnavoidable for you to ait on the roadside, then you must discharge certain obligations concerning the roadside i What are those obligations concerning the roadside i O Prophet of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you)"! The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "To keep your eyes cast down, not to cause inconvenience, to respond to the 'Salām', to preach piety and to forbid people to indalge in wicked deeds."

18. In response to 'Salām', do not just confine yourself to saying 'Wa 'Alaikumus salām', but utter the words ورصتهات وبركاته Wa rahmatullahi' Wa barakatuhu

The Holy Qur'an affirms :

Wa idhā huyyttum bitahiyyattin fahayyu bi-ahsana minha au rudduhā (4 : 88)

"And when ye are greeted with a prayer greet ye with a better prayer than it or repeat it."

The implication is that you should never miss the opportunity of responding to the 'Salam'. Say a better prayer in response hy adding more words to the 'Salam', or at least utter the same words. In any case a response to 'Salam' must be made. Hadrat 'Imran h. Haseen (Allah be pleased with him) relates: "The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) was seated when a man came and said الملام علك Assalamo-'Alaikum. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) responded to the 'Salam' and observed: 'Ten' (in other words the man had earned ten virtues). Then a second man Assalamo-Alaikum السلام عليكم ورمسته الله Assalamo السلام Wa Rehmatullah. The Holy Prophet (peace and hiersings of Allah he upon him) responded to the 'Salam' and observed: Twenty' (In other words the man had earned twenty virtues). Later a third man came to the presence and said: -Alaikum Wa Rehma السلام عليكم ورحمته الله وبركاته tullah Wa Barakatuhu The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Ailah he upon him) responded to him and observed 'Thirty' (in other words that man had earned thirty virtues). (Tirmidhi)

Hadrat 'Umar (Allah he pleased with him) has reported:
''Once I was riding behind Abn Bakr (Allah be pleased with him) and Ahn Bakr (God be pleased with him) and Ahn Bakr (God be pleased with him) said:

**Assalamo 'Allaikum to every one whom we passed by and every one responded with the words وتيكم المنافذ المنافذ excellence to a great extent. (Al-Adab-ul-Mufrad)

19. On meeting some one say 'Assalamo 'Alaikum' first. Do not start conversation straightaway. Start conversation only after offering the 'Salām'.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) has enjoined:

"Do not respond if somebody starts talking hefore saying the 'Salam'."

20. Avoid saying 'Salam' under the following conditions:

(1) When people are engaged in reading, listening to or teaching the Holy Qor'an and Hadith.

- (2) When some one is either delivering a sermon or is listening to it.
- (3) When some one is announcing 'Adhan' or 'Takbir',
- (4) When a religious topic is being discussed in a meeting
- or some one is telling what Allab has ordained to us.

  (5) When the teacher is engaged in giving a lesson.
- (6) When somebody is relieving himself of exerctions.

  Moreover, under the following conditions, you should
- not only avoid saying 'Salam' but also express your unconcern and spiritual agony in a discrest mauner:

  (1) When somehody is engaged in licentiousness and evil
- When somehody is engaged in licenticusness and evil acts or merry-making such as is forbidden by Shariah and is thus guilty of contempt of religion.
- (2) When someone is defaming religion by ottering aboses, mean and sameless talk, fabricated lies and nonsense or is indulging in obscene jokes.
  - is indulging in obscene jokes.

    (3) When someone is propagating views and philosophies which are repugnant to religion and is trying to proselytise people or inciting them to anti-religious activities and immoral and unethical manner.

- (4) When some one is descrating religious beliefs and manners and is indicating his inner wickedness and hypocrisy by making fun of the principles and injunctions of the Shariah.
- 21. Do not take the initiative in offering 'Salam' to the Jews or Christians. The Holy Qur'an affirms the fact that the Jews are the worst nation as regards their disbelief, denial of truth, tyranny and savagery, falsehood and deception. God showered countless bounties upon this nation, yet they always displayed ingratitude to Him and persisted in their foul practices. It is the same nation which assassinated the venerable Prophets (peace be upon them) sent by God. Hence the believer should eschew all such conduct which shows even the slightest trace of respect or esteem for the Jews. On the other hand, the believers should adopt such conduct towards the Jews that they should be repeatedly reminded of the fact that recompense for offering the most hideous opposition to Trnth is always diagrace and humiliation.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) has observed:

"Do not take the initiative in saying 'Salam' to the Jews and Christians. When you meet them on the way, force them to move over to the edge of the road."

(Al-Adab-ul-Mufrad)

The implication is that you should walk with such dignity and in a stately manner that the jews and christians should move over to the edge leaving the road open for you.

22. However, say Salam' on arrival at a mixed meeting of the Muslims and polytheists. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) once passed near a meeting in which Muslims and polytheists were all taking part. On that occasion the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) had said: 'Salam' to the whole meeting.''
(Al-Adab-ul-Mufrad)

23. In case an occasion arises to greet a non-Muslim with some words of respect, do not say Assalamo-'Alaikum. Use words like---'Adà Arz', 'Taslimāt' (respect or honour to you) etc. Do not make a gesture of your hand or nod your head or make any othar sign which is repugnant to the tenats and spirit of Islam.

The letter which the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) had addressed to Heracles contained the following words of greetings:

Salāmun'alā manittaba'a alhudā

"Salam he on him who follows Guidance (of tha Lord").

24. Do shake hands aftar saying the 'Salam' in order to express feelings of love, felicity and reverence. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be apon him) himself used to shake hands with people and his illustrious Companions (Allah he pleased with them) also used to shake hands whenever they met each other. In fact, the Holy Prophat (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) had enjoined upon his Companions (God he pleased with them) to adopt the custom of shaking hands with each other, and had explained tha merits and importance of this etiquette in many different ways.

Hadrat Qatāda (Allah be pleased with him) enquired from Hadrat Anas (Allah be pleased with him): "Was the custom of shaking hands current among the illustrious Companions (Allah be pleased with them)!" Hadrat Anas (Allah be pleased with him) roplied: "Yes, it was."

(Bukhari)
Hadrat Salama b. Dardan (Allah be merciful to him) states: "I saw that Hadrat Malik b. Anas (Allah be merciful to him) was shaking hands with people. He asked me

'Who are you?' I answered: "I am the slave of Bani Laith". Thereupon he passed his hand three times over my head and observed: "May Allah hless you with goodness and bounty."

On one occasion when some visitors from Yemen arrived, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed to his illustrious Companione (God be pleased with them): "The people of Yemen have come to you and they deserve handshakes more than other visitors," Hadrat Huzaifa h. Yaman (Allah be pleased with him; reports: "The Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah be upon him) observed: When two helievers meet each other and after exchanging 'Salam' shake hands with each other they are shorn of their sins as dry leaves fall off from the trees".

(Abu Dawud)

Hadrat 'Ahdullah h. Mas'ud relates: "The Holy Prophet (peace and hieseinge of Allah he npon him) affirmed : "To shake hande ie to complete your Salām."

25. When a friend, near relative or elder returns from a journey, embrace him in greeting. On reaching Medinah Hadrat Zaid h. Haritha (Allah he pleased with him) went to the Holy Prophet's (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him) house and knocked at the door. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) dragging his covering sheet behind him reached the door and embraced him and kissed his forehead." (Tirmidhi)

Hadrat Ance (Allah be pleased with him) states: "When the illustrious companions (Allah be pleased with them) happened to mest each other, they shook hands and when any of them returned from the journey he was greeted with an embrace."

Etiquettes of Visiting the Patient

1. You must enquire after the health of the patients. To visit a patient is not only a social require ment or a means of promoting mutual cooperation and sympathy, but it is also a right of a Muslim over another and an essential pre-requisite to devotion to Allah. He who is devoted to Allah cannot remain anconcerned with the creation of God. To evade the obligation of offering sympathy, consolation and assistance to the sick is tantamount to forsaking the remembrance of Allah.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed :

"On the Day of Judgment Allah shall ordain: 'O son of Adam! You did not visit me when I was ailing"? The man will submit : 'O Creator ! You are Lord of the whole universe. How could I dare enquire after your welfare"! Allah shall ordain: 'Such and such person from among My creatures fell ill and you did not enquire after his health. If you had gone to enquire after his welfare, you would have found Me there. (In other words you would have earned My Favour and Blessing)". (Muslim)

In addition, the Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah he upon him) ohserved :

"A Muslim has six rights over another Muslim". The people submitted: "O Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon you) I What are those rights" ? The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) affirmed :

- Say 'Salam' to your brother Muslim whenever you meet him.
- Accept the invitation of your brother Muslim whenever he invites yon.
- Offer proper advice with all sincerety to your hrother Muslim whenever he seeks your good advice.
- When your Muslim brother sneezes and says 'Al-Hamd-o-Lillah', respond with saying 'Yar hamokallah'.
- Visit your hrother Muslim whenever he falls ill and enquire about his health.
- When a Muslim hrother dies, join in his funeral procession". (Muslim)

Furthermore, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) affirmed:

"He who enquires after the health of an ailing Muslim hrother will find a dwelling place on the highest level of Paradise". (Al-Adab-ul-Mufrad)

Hadrat Abu Hureira (God be pleesed with him) has reported that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"When a person goes to enquire after the health of e Muslim brother or just pays a call on him, a caller from the Heaven pronounces, "yon have done well; your walking is propitious; you have earned a dwelling place in Paradise". (Tirmidhi)

2. Sit towards the head of the patient, pass your hand over his head or body and utter words of sympathy and concolation, so that the patient may start thinking about the reward and recompense awaiting him in the eternal world; and he may abstain from nttering any remarks showing impatience, or feelings of anguish and complaint.

Hadrat 'Aisha bint Sa'ad (Allah be pleased with them) reports that her father related: "Once while in Mecca I fell gravely ill. The Holy Prophet (peace and hleasings of Allah be upon him) came to enquire after my health. suhmitted: "O Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah be upon you)! I em leaving behind a great deal of wealth and I have only one daughter. Should I will away twothird of my wealth and leave one-third for my daughter "? The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Alleh be apon him) observed : "No". I submitted : "Should I then will ewey helf of my property and leeve half portion for my daughter" ? The Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Alleh he upon him) observed : 'No'. Thereupon I submitted ; "O Holy Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon you) ! Should I then will away one-third of my wealth" ? . The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "Yes, will away one third of your wealth and this is enough". Afterwards, the Holy Prophet of Allah (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) placed his hand on my forehead and passed it over my face and belly and then said the following prayer :

"O Alish, bloss Sa'ad with health and complete his Hijrat". Since then whenever I recall to mind that moment I feel the southing sensetion of the holy hand of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Alish he upon him) to the depth of my innerself".

(Al-Adab-ul-Mufrad)

Hadrat Zaid h. Arqem (Allah be pleased with hlm) relates: "Once my cycs heseme sore. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) visited me to enquire after my health and said: "Zaid, what do yon do when you are suffering from sore cycs". I submitted: "I endure this illness with patience". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: If you observe patience and endurance while you are efficied with sore eyes, God shall admit you into Paradise as a reward for this".

Hadrat Ibn 'Ahhas (Alleh be pleased with him) states: "Whenever the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) visited a patient to enquire after his health' the Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) used to sit at the head of the ailing person and repeated the following prayer seven times:

As'alullah-al-'azima rabb-al arsh-il'- azimi an yashfiyaka'

"I heseech Allah Almighty Who is the Lord of Exalted Heavens to grant you health" !

The Holy Prophet (peace end hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "The petient will certeinly be restored to health if this prayer is offered seven times, except in case the honr of his deeth has come". (Mishkut)

Hadrat Jahir (Allāh he pleased with him) reports that the Holy Prophet (peece and hlessings of Allah be upon him) pald a visit to an old lady Umm as-Saih (God be pleased with her) to enquire after her health. Umm as-Saib (Allah be pleased with her) was shivering with intense fever. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) enquired: "How are you feeling"? The lady submitted: "May God curse this fever which is oppressing me". On hearing shis, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "Don't curse the fever. It purges the pious of sins just as the furnece smelts the iron and purifies it of rust".

(Al-Adab-ul-Mufrad)

3. When you visit a patient, enquire about his condition and pray for his recovery. Whenever the Holy Prophet (pasce and hlessings of Allah be npon him) visited a patient he first, enquired about his health and then used to observe: المناه المناه over the region of pain and discomfort and say this prayer:

Allahumma adhhibil-ba'sa rabb-an-ndsi ishfihi wa antash-shAft la shifa'a illa shifa'uka shifa'an la yughddiru saqama. (Bukhari, Muslim).

"God! Remove this pain. O Lord of mankind, grant health to this person. You are the Healer. There is none from whom we expect recovery from illness sare You alone—Grant such recovery that this disease may be completely uprooted".

4. Do not sit beside the patient for long, nor make noise near him. However, if the eick person is your intimate friend or a near relation and himself inests on your sitting beside him for a longer time, you should comply with his wishes.

Hadrat 'Abdnlish b. 'Abbas (God be pleased with him) states: "It is part of the Sunnah not to sit for long heside a patient, nor to make noise near him".

5. Do ask the relations of the patient ahout his condition and exprese your sympathy. Offer them all possible assistance or co-operation. For example, fetch the doctor, or convey a message shout the condition of the patient, or fetch medicines etc. or if required, extend financial help also.

Hadrat Ibrahim b. Abi Hahla (God he merciful to him) relates: "Once my wife fell ill. In those days I used to pay frequent visits to Hadrat Umm al-Darda (God be pleased with her). Whenever I called on her, she naed to enquire: "Say, how is your wife?" I answered: "Ske is still indisposed." Thereafter, she used to send for food. I sat down and dined at her home and then came back. One day, when I called on her and she enquired about my wife's health, I replied: "By the grace and favor or God, she has nearly recovered from her illness. Hadrat Umm al.Darda (God be pleased with her) theroupon observed: "When you used to say that your wife was nuwell I used to arrange a meal for you. Now that she is gained her health, I need not arrange a meal for you".

6. Do visit a non-Muslim patient to enquire after his condition. Whenever you get an opportunity invite his attention towards Islam in a discreet manner as illness makes a man more inclined towards God and he gets more receiptive to the truth.

Hadrat Anas (God be pleased with him) reports: "A Jowish boy used to attend on the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon bim). Once he fell ill. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) visited him to enquire after his health. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) at at the head of the boy and conveyed to him the message of Islam. The boy looked to his father, whn was standing nearby, as if to seek his opinion. The father said to the boy: "My son, submit to what Abul-Qasim says". So the boy accepted Islam. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) came out of his house asying: "Thanks God Who saved the boy from Hell-Fire". (Bukhars)

7. When you visit the house of a patient to enquire after his health, avoid looking about in the house. Sit in a manner that the immates of the house, particularly the women are not within your sight.

Once Hadrat 'Abdullah b, Mas'ud (God be pleased with him) went to the house of an ailing person to enquire after his health. He was accompanied by some others also. One of his companions started gazing a lady of the house. When Hadrat 'Abdullah (God be pleased with him) perceived it, he observed to his companion: "It would have been better for you to gouge out your eyes".

 Do not go to enquire after the health of those who openly indulge in sinful acts and flout the Commands of God unashamedly and obstinately.

Hadrat 'Abdullab b. 'Amr (God be pleased with him) observes: "When the drunkards fall ill, do not go to enquire after their bealth".

When you go to enquire after the balth to the second of the seco

9. When you go to enquire after the health of a patient, request bim to pray for you also. It is recorded in 1bn Majah: "When you visit a patient to enquire after his health, request him to pray for you. The prayer of a patient is as much effective as the prayer offered by angels". (The implication is that the angels offer prayers only at the Command of God and hence their prayers are always granted).

Bismillah irrahmänirrahim.

In the name of Aliah the Beneficient, the Merciful If you wish to use an abbreviation, you may write,

باسمه تعالى

In the name of Allah, the Exalted

The Holy Prophet (posce and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed: "Any undertaking, which does not commence with utterance of the attribute of God 'Bismillah' remains incomplete and unblessed". Some people write the numerals 786 in place of the words. This practice should however be avoided, because it is the words that earry blessings not the number.

- Do write your own address in each letter. Never omit your address under the impression that the addressee already knows your address. Your address may not be necessarily preserved by the addressee nor can you be sure that the addressee remembers your address.
- 3. Write your address on the right hand side leaving a little space in between the margin and the lines of the address. Write your address clearly and take care that it is correct and the spellings of each word are also correct.

4. You must indicate the date below your address.

- 5. After indicating the date, write a brief 'salutation' to the addressee. Keep your 'salutation' brief and simple, such as may communicate feelings of aincerity and close relationship. Avoid words of salutation, which smack of artificialty and convey a formal sense. Alongwith the salutation or on the next line after it write 'Salam Masnoon' or Assalamo Alaikun' Do not write words like Adah or 'Teslimāt'.
- 6. If you are sending a letter to a non-Muslim, write words like 'Adah' or 'Taslimat' instead of 'Assalamo-'Alaikum' or 'Salam Masnoon'.
- 7. After the salutation, write down your message or purpose which you wish to convey to the addressee, Close your letter with a cuitable compliment which indicates your relationship to the addressee such as yours obediently, yours sincerely, yours truly etc.
- 8. Your letter must be legible, clear and simple, so that it mey be easily read and understood, and may impress the addresses.
  - g. Use fluent and polite language in your letter.
- 10. Be brief, but never miss necessary details to make your point clear. 11. Throughout the letter, from the salutation to the compli- mentary close, pay due regard to the status of the addressee.

- 15. Do not discuss secret matters in general correspondence.
- 16. Put a dot at the end of each sentence. 17. Do not read a letter addressed to someone else without his
  - permission. This is a grave violation of trust. However. the elders and guardians should, as a matter of duty, go through the letters written or received by their children so that they may correct and guide them. Islem doss not give free licence to the teenagers to indulge in activities that do not conform with the norms and ethics of Islamic society. Before marriage, hoys and girls, having no blood relations, are not allowed to mix freely or to write private letters to each other. Hence it is the responsibility of the perents to keep an eye on the letters written to or by their children till they are married.

- . 18. Keep up a regular correspondence with your relatives and friends conveying to them your welfare. 19. When someone falls ill, or, God forbid, is involved in an - accident or some other ealemity, do send e letter of concern and sympathy to him.
- On occasions of ceremony, festivity or any happy development, do send letters of congratulation and joy.
- 21. Always use blue or black ink for the purpose of writing letters. Do not use a peneil or red ink for correspondence. 22. When some ons gives you a letter for the purpose of posting it, never forget to post it without delay. Negligence and
- delay in such matters speaks of irresponsibility 23. Sand a return eard or stamp to those with whom you are not familiar.
- 24. If you wish to cancel a portion of what you have written - already, just out it with a faint line.
- 25. While writing a latter, keep in view the interest of the addressee as well, and do not concentrate on the matters of your own choice and interest. You should not only communicate news of the peace and welfare of your own family hut enquire about the peace and welfare of the family of the addresses and do not make too many demands even in letters. A man whe makes too many demands degrades himself.

Etiquettes of Business

1. Conduct your business diligently and with interest. Earn your living by the sweat of your own brow and do not live as a persaite on others. On one occasion, a men from the tribe of Ansar came to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) and begged for assistance. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) enquired: "Do you have anything at home?" The Companion (God he pleased with him) submitted: "O Holy Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon you! Wa have two things only—a canvas which wouse as bedding as well as a covering sheet and a bowl for driaking water". The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) commended: "Bring those two things to me".

The Companion (God he pleased with him) at once hrought hoth the things to him. The Holy Prophet (peace and hissings of Allah be upon him) auctioned them for two dirhams and handing over the money to the Companion, ohserved: "Go, buy some food for one dirham and leave it with your family, and buy an axe for the other dirham".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Alleh he upon him) fixed a handle to the axe with his own, anapticions hands and observed to the Companion (God be pleased with him): "Go to the jungle daily, cut some wood and sell it in the hazar. Come back after fifteen days and report your condition to me". At the end of a fortnight when the Companion (God he pleased with him) returned, he had accumulated a sum of ten dirhams. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) was overjoyed and observed: "This hardearned income is better for thee than begging from others which might leave a stigms of begging on thy face on the Day of Judgement".

- 2. Carry on your husiness in right earnest and earn as much as you can so that you may be free from dependence on others. Once the people submitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him): "O Holy Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah he upon you)! Which is the best form of earning?" The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Earning with your own bands and income from the business which is free from dishonesty and fraud". Hadrat Abu Qalaba (God be mereful to him) to observe: "Conduct your business in right earnest in the bazar. This is the way to romain attached to religion and free from all dependence upon others".
- 3. Promote your business by truthful means. Strictly avoid swearing falsely in the name of God. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed: "On the Day. of Judgement God shall neither address, nor look at, nor admit that man to Paradise after purging him of ains who endeavours to expand his business by swearing falsely in the name of God". (Muslim) Moreover, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) ohserved: "Avoid swearing falsely in order to sell your goods. Apparently it looks like promoting your business but in fact it lets your business down and damages the goodwill of your business." (Muslim)
  - 4. Be honest and truthworthy in business dealings. Do not turn your lawful earnings into unlawful income by supplying defective goods or by indulging in profiteering. The Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah te upon him) has affirmed: "A truthful and bonest trader will be a.

- compenion of the Prophets, the righteous and the martyrs on the Day of Judgement". (Tirmidhi) 5. Try to supply the best quality of goods to the customers. If
- a customer seeks your connect, give him the best possible advice.

  6. Take your customers into confidence so that they may trust you as their well-wisher who will never deceive them. The Holly Populat (neces and hessings of
- trust you as their well-wisher who will never deceive them. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Alleh he upon him) has observed: "He who lived on lawful earnings, observed my Sunnash and did not cause mischief to the people will be admitted to Paradise". The people submitted: "O Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon you)! There is a great number of such people at the present time". The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Such people will exist even after me". (Tirmidhi)
- 7. Be punctual. Arrive at your place of husiness in time and remain there steady. The Holy Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed: "Set out in search of livelihood and lawful earnings early in the morning, for work in the morning is auspicious and brings prosperity".
- g. Work hard and demand hard and sincere work from your employees. Discharge your obligations towards your employees with selfessness and generative and in a liberal and polite manner. Avoid secwing at them frequently or adopting an attitude of suspicion towards them in every matter. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "God never blesses a nation with piety where the weak do not get their right".
- Be polite and liberal to your oustomers. Never be harsh to those who sak for loan from you neither disappoint them, nor press them maduly hard for return of your loan. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed:

"May God hiese the person who observes politoness and courtesy in husiness dealiogs and in demanding his money hack." (Bukhāri)

Moreover, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him) observed :

"Any person who cravas for the protection of God against the affliction and oppression of the Day of Judgement should allow anough time to the hard-pressed debtor or relieve him of the hurden of deht altogether".

10. Avoid concealing the defect of the goods and making false representations to the customer. You should openly declare the defects or inferior quality of your goods to the customer. Once the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) passed by a heap of grain. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah ha upon him) put his hand into the heap and felt that his fingers had caught some dampness. The Prophst of God (peace and hiessings of Allah he upon him) enquired from the grain dealer, "What is this !" The dealer submitted : "O Holy Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah he npon you)! Some rain poured over this heap.". Thereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah he upon him) observed: "Why did you not put the wet grain on top of the heap so that people may readily notice it. The man who deceives people has nothing to do with me".

11. Do not hoard foodstuffs anticipating a rise in prices.
Strictly avoid causing distress to the people by such a vicious set. The Prophst (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) chserved: "The hoarder is a sinner". On another occasion, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon him) chserved: "How wicked is the hearder! When God makes goods cheap, the hoarder is afflicted with sorrow, and when the prices go up, he rejoices." (Hishkell)

- 12. Give the cuetomer full velue of his money. Be honest in weighte and messures. Stick to one etandard of give and take. Addreseing the dealers on weighte and messuree, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) warned:
  - "You have been charged with two duties while the people hefore you have periched only hecause they failed to fulfil these duties:

The Holy Qur'an affirms:

Waltullil mutaffitnal-ladhina idhaktala 'alan-nasi yaslaufana wa idha kalahum awazanahum yakhsirin' ala yazunnu a'laita annahum mab'ithana liyaumin azim. Yauma yagumunnalsu lirabbil'dhana

"We unto the defrauders; those when they take the measure from others they demand it full, hut if they measure unto them or weigh for them they give less. Do such (men) not consider that they will be reised again unto en eweful Day, the day when (all) menkind etand before the Lord of the worlde?"

(83 : I-6)

- 13. Do compensate for lapses of husiness ethice end give away in cash end kind ee much acyou cen in the name of God without fail. The Holy Prophet (peace end hlessings of Allah he upon him) engioned upon the traders:
  - "O traders and hueinessmen l There is every chence of exaggeration and he in selling your commodities.

Hence compensate (your faults) by spending as much as (Abu Dawus) you can (to help the poor and needy) 14. And never lose sight of that business which will seenre you from the fearful tortures in the life hereafter and pay you in terms of eternal prosperity, peace and pleasure. The Holy Qur'an affirms : يُمَايِّهَا اللَّذِينَ أَمَنُواْ هَمَلْ آدُلُكُمْ هَلَى تَجَارَةَ تُسْجِبُكُمْ مِنْ عُذَّابِ ٱلَّذِهِ تُـؤُمُنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَ رَسُولُ وَ تَجَاهِدُونَ ﴿

الْمُوالَكُمْ وَ أَنْفُسِكُمْ ذَلَكُمْ خَيْرٌ لِّكُمْ انْ

Yā ayyuhalladhina āmanū hal adullukum 'ala tijaratin tunjīkum min 'adhābin alīm. Tu'minūna billāhi wa rasulihi wa tujāhidūna fi sabililāhi bi amwālikum wa anfusikum dhalikum khairullakum in kuntum ta'lamun.

(61: 10-11)

"O ye who helieve ! shall I show you a Commerce that will save you from a painful doom; ye should helieve in Allah and His Messenger and should strive for the causs of Allah with your wealth and your lives. That is better for you, if ye did but know".

CHAPTER IV

CALL TO RELIGION

وَمَنْ آحَمَٰنُ مُولًا ، ثَمَن دَعَا الَّى اللهُ وَعَملَ صَالِحاً وَ قَالَ

Wa man Ahsanu qaulam mimman da'ā Ilallāhi wa amila Şālhan Wa qala Innani minal Muslimeen.

And who is better in speech than him who calleth towards God, and Doeth Right and sayeth. Lo I I am of those who surrender (unto Him).

Etiquettes of Communicating Islam

1. Develop full appreciation of the position conferred upon yon. You are the successor to the mission of the Holy Prophet (peace and heasings of Allah be upon him) and yon have to discharge the same duty of communicating the message of Allah, teatiying the truth thsough your practical life and propagating the teachings of Islam which the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) performed all through his holy life. Try to develop the same degree of zeal and fervour for the propagation of Islam which was the unique and distinctive characteristic of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him).

The Holy Qur'an affirms : هُوَاجْتَنِكُمْ وَمَا جَعَلَ طَلَيْكُمْ فِي اللَّذِينِ مِنْ حَرْجٍ مِلَّةَ الْبِيْكُمْ إِلْسَالِمِينَ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَ فَي هَٰلَا الْبِيْكُمْ إِلَيْسَالِمِينَ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَ فَي هَٰلَا لَيْكُونُ الرَّسُولُ شَهِيدًا طَلْبِكُمْ وَ تَكُونُوا شُهَلًاء عَلَى النَّاسِ .

Huwajtabākum wamā ja'ala 'alaikum fiddini min' harajin millata abikum Ibrahima huwa sommā kumul muslimin. Min gablu wa fi hadāl iyajakunar-saulu shahidan 'alaikum wa takunā shuhada'a alannās.

"He hath chosen you and hath not put you in any hardship in the matter of faith; follow the faith of your father Abraham. He hath given you the nomenclature of Muslim long ago and in this (Scripture) too, that the Prophet of Allah may teatify the truth before you and that you may stand witness to the whole of Mankind".

In other words, the Mnslims are the successors to the mission of the Holy Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and are required, therefore, to discharge the same duty which the Apostle of God (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) performed during his auspicious life. In the same manner as the final Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) struggled day and night hy his words and action and made the way of total suhmission to God clear to the people, the adherents to Islem have also to preach Islam, the religion of God, to all the people of the world and what is more, they have to practice it in their every day life and testify and prove it the religion of furth with the same high sense of duty and missionary zeal.

2. Always keep in view yonr res! position in this world and constantly endeavour to order your life accordingly. You are not like the other people of the world. God has conferred on you a distinction and a privilege. You have been vested with the honour of leading the affairs of the world. You don't helieve in extremes and are expected to keep yourself firm on the straight path of Allah with moderation.

The Holy Qur'an affirme:

وَكَذَالِكَ جَعْلُمْنُكُمْ أُمَّةً وَّ سَطَّالْتِكُونُوا شُهَدَاءَ عَلَى النَّاسِ

وَ يَكُونَ الرَّسُولُ عَلَيْكُمْ شَهِيدًا . والبقره ١٤٣

Wa kadhālika ja'alnākum ummatan vasatan-litakumu shuhadā' a 'alannāsi wa yakunar rasula 'alaikum shahīdā. (2:143)

"Thus we have appointed you a middle nation that ye may be witnesses against mankind and that the Messenger may be a witness against you".

3. Seek knowledge of the real purpose and aim of your life and try to achieve it with confidence and conviction. The real mission and task before the Muslims is to establish and enforce the religion as a whole which the Holy Prophet Muhammad peace and blessings of Alleh be upon him) communicated to the mankind-a religion which contains divine guidance and injunctions in each and every aspect of life such as beliefs and worship, morality, and social, economic and political spheres etc. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) during his anspicious days enforced Islam with all its details. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) taught beliefs, principles of morality and the modes of worship; he (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) established and organised a society on the principles of Islem and brought about countless favours and blessings to the people.

God has affirmed :

Shara'a lakum minaddīni mā wassa bihi Nuhan walladhi auhainā ilaika wa mā wassainā bihi Ibrahima wa Musa an aqimud-dina wa lā tatafarragu fih. (42: 13) "He bath ordained for you that religion which He commended unto Nosh, and that which Wa inspire in Thee (Muhammad), and that which We commended unto Abraham and Moses and Jesus saying: Establish the religion and be not divided therein".

4. Always remain determined to eliminate evil and establish good. This is an obligation you owe to your faith to justify your existence as upholders of the truth. Live to achieve this aim and die aerving this mission. God has named you as the best people on earth only because you live to uphold the truth and sacrifice even your life for this noble cause.

كُوْرُهُمْ نَحْيِرُ أُمَّةً أَخْرُجَتْ للنَّاسِ تَأْمُرُونَ بِالْمُعْرُوفِ كَشْتُمْ نَحْيِرُ أُمَّةً أَخْرُجَتْ للنَّاسِ تَأْمُرُونَ بِالْمُعْرُوفِ

bilma'arüft wa lanhauna 'anil munkari wa to'minüna billah. (3:110)

"Ye are the best Community that hath been raised up for mankind. Ye enjoin right conduct and forbid indecency and ye believe in Allah".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has affirmed;

"I swear by Him Who has power over my life, you must enforce virtue and eurh evil, otherwise God shall send very soon such calamity over you that you will ery and seek mercy from Allah but you will get no response.

(Tirmidhi)

5. Develop missionary zeal and exemplary fervour and enthusiam for the propagation of the message of God and to save the people of God from the fearful torment of Hell. The Holy Cur'an bas acknowledged the unique fervour and abounding zeal of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) in the following words:

Fala'allaka bākhi-unnafsaka 'alā āthā-rihim in·lam yo'minū bihādhal hadīthi asafā. (18:6)

"Yet it may be, if they believe not in this statement, that thou wilt torment thy soul with grief for them.

The Holy Prophet (peace and bleasings of Allah be upon him) has thimself described his feeling in these words:

"I am like a person who lit a fire and when the surrounding area became bright with light, the moths and insects began to drop in the fire. The person is now trying with all the force at his command to stop these moths and insects from dropping in the fire, but the moths and insects are rushing towards the fire repetering all his efforts ineffective. Likewise, I am trying my level best to draw you back and keep you away from the fire, yet you are bent upon falling in it".

One day Hadrat 'A'isha (God be pleased with her) submitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him): "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you! I Have you passed a harder day than the day of Uhud in your life?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Yes, 'A'isha! The day of 'Aqabah was the hardest in my life". This was the day when, dimmayed with the people of Mecca, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) had visited Ta'if to convey the message of God to the people Their chief 'Abd Yalil set ruffians after the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) who hurled stones at him in response to his message of blessing and salvation. The Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) sustained serious injuries. His whole body was stained with blood and he fainted. Deeply grieved and frustrated, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he noon him) returned to Mecca. When the Prophet (peace and blessingsof Allah be upon him) arrived at Qarn Aththaalih, he had over come his grief God sent the angel of calamity to the Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him). The angel of torture submitted: "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you) ! If you wish I shall collide Abu Qubais with Jahal Ahmar and crush all the wicked between the two mountains. The benefactor of the world (peace and hleseings of Allah he noon him) observed : "No, no, let ms warn my people of the torments of God. May God open their hearts to accept the truth and concede to the Divine Guldance or else their succeeding generation may suhmit to the truth." (Bukhāri, Muslim).

The Meccans were constantly husy conspiring against the holy Prophet (peace and blessing of Allah be upon him). Some said that the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) should be exiled from the city while others counselled that he chould be assassinated. In the mean time a famine struck Mecca. It was such terrible calamity that the Quraish were constrained to eat leaves and bark of the trees. The children suffered from the terrible agony of hunger and the elder felt restless hut helpless over the afficiency of their children.

The benefactor of the mankind (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was deeply moved by the heart rending distress of the people. His devoted companions (God he pleased with them) could not hear the grief and uncasines of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) conveyed his heartfelt sympathy to his deadly foes who had always been after him to harm and tease him and its unhappy memories were still fresh in his mind. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) sent a sum of five hundred dinars to Abu Sufyan and an equal amount to Safwan with the instruction that the money should he distributed among the famine-stricken people.

Truly speaking, to be sorry for the misguided, to feel disturbed over their wickedness and distress, to be anxious to save them from the wrath of God, to be distressed at their sfliction and to have an extra-ordinary craving for their right guidance—such are the attributes of a missionary of truth which create irresistible attraction in his life and an impression uncommon in history

- 6. Serve your people with selfless devotion and do not ask for any recompense for your devotion from anybody Do whatever good you can only to win the favour of God and expect reward and blessings from Him only. The desire to earn the favour of God and to demand reward and blessings from Him slone lends weight to a man's word and makes him dynamic. God has always been and will remain for ever. He neither eleops, nor dozes off. No more or activity of man is hidden from Him. He never lets the reward of any of His devotees go waste. He pays more than ones labour and never deprives any one of His blessings. The Prophets (peace and blessings of Allah he upon them) repeatedly observed to their people:
  - "I demand not any reward or recompense from you.

    My reward lies with the Lord of the worlds".
- 7. Do acquire a deep understanding of Islam and be sure that Islam is the only true religion in the eyes of God. No mode of worship, except the one enjoined by this true religion has any worth before God. God holds only that religion as true and valid which He has revealed in the Holy Qur'an and which the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) translated into practice during his auspicuous life. The Holy Qur'an enjoins upon the Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) to make it clear to the people that he had adopted his path with careful deliberation and full awareness.

Qul hādhihi sabili ad ū ilallahi 'ala bastratin ana wa manitlaba'ani wa sübhanallahi wa ma anā minal mushrikīn. (12:108).

"Say, this is my way. I call on Allah with sure knowledge, I and whosoever followeth me-Glory he to Allah! and I am not of the idelators".

God makes clear affirmation :

Wa man yabtaghi ghairal islāmi dinan falanyūqbala minhu wa huwa fil ākhirati minal khāsirin.

(3:85)

"And whose seeketh as religion other than the aurrender (to Allah) it will not be accepted from him and he will be a loser in the Hereafter".

In-nad-dina ind-Allah hil Islām.

"The only religion unto Allah is the surrender (unto Him)".
(3: 19).

8. Always keep in mind the loftiness and importance of your ideal and heware it is for the performance of this grand task that God had sent Prophets (peace be upon them) one after another—and be convinced in your own heart that this wealth of religion which the Almighty has vouchsafed to you is the key to attain excellence and bonour in the world and Hereafter. The worldly pomp and show which is transitory and short-lived can not be compared with the eternal and inestimable wealth of religion! The Holy Qur'an affirms:

"And We have bestowed upon you seven oft-repeated verses and a greet book, the Qur'an. Hence care not for this mundane weelth We have conferred on others". Addressing the believers of other Revealed Books before Quran, the Holy Qur'an says:

Ya ahlal kitabi lastum 'ala shai-in hatta tuqimuttaurata wal injila wa ma unzila ilaikum. (5 : 68)

"Say: O People of the acripture! Ye have naught (of guidance) till ye observe the Torah and the Gospel and that which was revealed unto you from your Lord".

9. Make constant efforts to grasp the real spirit of religion and the wisdom it contains. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed: "God endows, whomsoever He wishes to bless with goodness, with the real understanding and deep insight into religion".

(Bukhāri, Muslim)

As a matter of fact, it is the real knowledge of religion and insight into the spirit of religion which is the fountain-head

As matter or fact, it is the real attorned of the fountain-head of all goodness and the man who is deprived of this goodness is deprived of the blessings of this world as well as of the world Hereafter. Such a man can never achieve balance and consistency in life, nor can he truly represent religion in any walk of life.

10. Whatever you wish to proclaim to the world, address it to yourself first. Tell yourself first what you wish to tell others and perform in your own life what you preach to others. The distinction of a missionary of true religion Is that he tries to project in himself the true model of his preachings. His deeds and character stand testimony to his words. He himself yearns for the truths he propagates to other as a source of goodness. Whenever the Prophets (peace he upon them) rose to call the people to surrender themselves hefore God they proclaimed العالم المساورة المسلم المسلم

Testify hy spoken as well as written word that truth is what you represent. Make it evident through your individual life, family relations, social dealings and through your national and political activities that piety can only be developed by adopting the way of life as enunciated by Islam. This system guarantees stability of homes, emergence of a morally oriented society and a culture and civilization based on justice and equity. Those who ignore the duty of reforming and training their own character and ruminate over the reformation and training of others are completely devoid of commonsense. Their own house is on fire, yet they are carrying about buckets of water looking for a hlaze anywhere else to extinguish. Such people are losers not only in this world but in the Hereafter also. Their inaction in this world will reader all their preachings ineffective and weightless and in the next world they shall undergo the most deterrent punishment. It is most hateful in the sight of Allah that they do not practise what they preach and tell others to do what they themselves do not do. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has warned such missionsries of Islam who do not de what they preach, of the most fearful punishment. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"A msn shall be brought on the Day of Judgement and will he thrown into the Fire. His intestines will spill out due to the Fire. He will then carry sround his intestines as a donkey goes round the mill. On seeing him the denizens of hell will gather around him and enquire: "O man, what has become of you! Are you not the one who preached to us in the world to perform virtuous deeds! Are you not the one who dissuaded us from the performance of evil acts! How did you come into this place despite having performed such pious deeds!" The man will answer: "I did teach you piety, but never cared for it myself. I forbade you to do evil, but performed evil deeds myself". (Muslim, Bukhāri)

The portentous account of the night of ascenasion

The portentous account of the night of ascension which the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) related to the people contains a warning for the misguided to reform themselves. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"I beheld some people in the night of ascension whose lips were being clipped with seissors of fire. I enquired from Gabriel (God he pleased with him): Who are these people?" Gabriel (God be pleased with him) replied: They are the orators of your Ummeh. They preached piety and fear of God to people, but forgot to follow these teachings in their personal lives". (Mishkat)

The illustrious Companions (God be pleased with them) also used to issue stern warnings to such misgnided and hypocritical people who did not follow what they preached. On one occasion, a person said to Hadrat 'Abdullab b. 'Abbas (God be pleased with him): "Hadrat I desire to instruct people in piety and forbid them to commit evil deeds. I wish to propagate religion among the people". Hadret Abdullah enquired : "Have you acquired the proper quelifications for becoming a preacher ?" The person submitted: "Yes, I believe I am capable of performing the task of a missionary". Hadrat ibn 'Abbas (God be pleased with him) observed: "If you do not apprehend any condemnation in the light of three verses of the Holy Qur'an, do preach Islam". The person enquired : "Which three verses do you mean?" Hadrat ibn 'Abbas (God be pleased with him) answered :

The first verse is :

Ata'murunannāsa bilbirri wa tansauna anfusakum.

(2:44)

Enjoin ye rightecusness upon mankind while ye yourselves forget to practise it ?"

Ibn 'Abbes (God be pleased with him) then enquired: Do you follow this verse in your practical life fully ?" The man replied: "No". Ibn Abbas (God be pleesed with him) then recited the second verse;

Limā taqūlūna mā lā tafralūn (61:2)

"O ye who believe! Why say ye that which ye do not?

Hadrat ihn 'Abbas (God be pleased with him) then asked: "Are you sure you are following this verse". The man replied: "No". Hadrat ibn 'Abbas (God be pleased with him) observed: The third verse is:

مَا أُرِيدُ أَنْ أُخَالِفَكُمْ إِلَىٰ مَا أَنْهَاكُمْ عَنْهُ . وهود ٨٨٥

Mā uridu an ukh'ālifakum ila ma anhākum 'anhu.

(11:88)
"I desire not to do behind your backs that which I ask you got to do."

Tell me now, have you fully carried out the instruction contained in this verse. The man submitted: "No". Where upon Hadrat Abdullah observed: "Go then and instruct yourself in piety first and forbid your own self from vil".

 Perform your prayers with full devotion keeping in view its rules, regulations and conditions. In addition to them also offer supererogatory prayers.

No one can propagate religion without establishing a close communion with God. Prayer is the sure means—a means prescribed by God Himself—of establishing a deep connexion with God. God affirmed through a revelation to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him).

بأيمًا الْمُزْمُلُ فُمِ السِلَ الَّا قَلْمُلْ تُصْفَّهُ أَوَانْفُص مَنْهُ بَايْمًا الْمُزْمُلُ فُمِ السِلَ الَّا قَلْمُلَّ تَصْفَهُ أَوَانْفُص مَنْهُ قَلْمِلًا أَوْدُدُ عَلَيْهِ وَ رَتْلِ الْفُرْانَ تَرْتَيِلًا . انَّا سَنْلْفَى عَلَيْكً وَوْلًا ثَقْيِلًا .

Ya ayyuhal muzzammilu qumil-laila illā qalilan nisfahu awingus minhu qalilan auzid 'alaihi wa rattilil Qura'na tartila. Inna sanulgi 'alaika qaulan thagila.

"O thou wrapped up in thy rainent! Keep vigil the night long, save a little—a half thereof, or abate a little thereof, or add (a little) thereto and chant the Quran in measure, for We shall charge thee with a word of weight." (74; 1-5)

'Charge thee with a word of weight' implies 'Propagation of the Religion of Truth' and truly this responsibility is the most burdensome and heavy of all duties in the world. In order to be able to discharge this duty it is important for you to derive strength from prayer and establish a firm connexion with God.

12. Develop a fondness for and interest in the study of the Holy Qur'an and recite the Book regularly. Recite the Qur'an slowly and with deep concentration during the prayers as well as during the period other than prayers. When the Qur'an is reelted with a interest and concentration, it becomes easy to understand and reflect upon the meanings of the Holy Qur'an. As soon as one starts appreciating the charms of the word of Allsh, his interest and inquisitiveness increases and he goes deeper and deeper in the Book of Ailah. The Holy Qur'an is the only source of gnidance and warning. It has been revesled to make the people ponder over its contents and derive benefit from its guidance and warnings, so ponder over the meanings of the Holy Qur'an and learn wisdom from it. Recite the Qur'an with a firm determination to mould your own self as well as your society as a whole according to the injunctions of the Holy Qur'an. Only those can establish the rule of Allah who mould their own thought and action according to the teachings of Quran. He, who forsakes Qur'an, can no longer maintain his allegiance to the faith, nor can he centribute any way in the struggle to eatablish Islamic system of life

Readers of the Qur'an have been advised :

كُتُّ أَنْزَلْنُهُ الَّبِكَ مُبِرَكٌ لِيَدَّبَّرُواْ وَلِيَنَذَّكُّرَ اُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ . ١٠٠٠ من ٢٠٠

Kitābun anzalnāhu ilaika mubarakun liyaddabbaru wa liyatadhakkara ülul albāb.

"(This is) a Scripture that We have revealed unto thee, full of blessing—that they may pender its revelations and that men of understanding may reflect." (38:30)

Moreover, the readers have been instructed: "Read the Qur'an slowly with pauses." (73:4)

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) affirmed:

"These hearts get rusted as the iron rusts when water is poured over it." The people submitted: "O Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you.) Tell us then what cleanses the rust of the hearts?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "The rust of the hearts is cleansed when one remembers death frequently and secondly studies the Qur'an often". (Michkel)

13. Be grateful to Allah under all circumstances. Look towards those who are below you in terms of material presperity and social status. It will help you develop a sense of gratitude to Allah.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Aliah be upon him) observed:

"Look at those who are below you in in terms of material prosperity and social status. (You will then feel grateful to God). Do not look at those who surpass you in material riches, lest you depreciate the bounties and blessings that the Lord has conferred upon you (as it may foster ingratitude to God)."

 Abstain from pleasure-seeking and luxurious living. Be a watchdog of truth who is always on guard and never drops vigil.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"How can I live at ease or seek pleasure in life when I know that Israfili stands ready with the trumpet close to his mouth, to sound the call for Doomsday to descend as soon as he receives the Command of God". Addressing the Believers. God affirms in the Holy Qur'an:

Wa a'iddu lahum mastat'atum min quwwatin wa min rībātil khaili turhibūna bihš 'aduwwallahi wa 'aduw wakum wa akharīna min dūnihim la 'lalaminahum. Allahu ya'a lamuhum wa mā tunfiqā min shai in fi sabilil lahi yuwaffa ilaikum wa antum la tuzlamān. (8:60)

"Make ready for them all thou canst of (armed) force and of horses tethered that thereby ye may dismay the enemy of Allah and your enemy, and others beside them whom ye know not. Allah knoweth them whatsever ye spend in the way of Allah. It will be repaid to you in full and ye will not be wronged."

An angel of Allah vested with the duty of rounding the signal for Deomaday,

15. Be prepared to sacrifice averything for the sake of religion and if needed, be prepared even to migrate from your homeland. Cheek up yourself off and on as to what extent you have developed this devotion. Giving an account of the emigration of Hadrat Ihrahim (peace be upon him), the Holy Qur'an has nrged believers to he prepared to emigrate and offer sacrifices in the following verses:

وَاذْكُرْ فِي الْكُتْبِ ابْرَاهِيْمَ اتَّهُ كَانَ صِدْبِقًا تَّبِيًّا اذْ قَالَ لَابِيهِ يُعابَت لَمَ تَعْبِدُ مَا لَا يَسْمَعُ وَلَا يُبْعِيرُ وَلَا يُغنى عَنْكَ شَبِئًا . يَابَت انَّى قَدْ جَاءَ نَى مِنَ الْعِلْمِ مَا . لَمْ يِنْانِكَ فَاتَّبِعْنِي آهَدْكَ صَرَاطًا سَوِيًّا . يُابَت لَا تَعُبُد الشَّيْطُنَ . انَّ الشَّيْطُنَ كَانَ للرَّحْمٰن مَصيًّا . يُأْبَت انْيُ آخَافُ آنْ يُسَلِّكُ عَذَابٌ مِنَ السِّحْمٰنِ فَمَكُونَ للسُّبِطَانَ وَلَيًّا . قَمَالَ آرَاغَبُّ آنَتَ عَنْ الْهَنِّي يَا ابْسَرَاهِيمُ . لَنْنَ لَّمْ تَنْفَه لَآرْجُمَنَّكَ وَاهْجُرْثَى مُلْبِّا . قَالَ سَلاًّم عَلَيْكَ سَاسَتَغَفُرُ لَكَ رَبِّي انَّهُ كَانَ بِي حَضَيًّا . وَ آعَـتَـزَلُكُمْ وَمَا تَـدْعُونَ مَنْ دُونِ اللهَ وَ أَدْعُوا رَبِّي صَلَّى أَنْ لا آكُونَ بدُعَاء رَبِي شَقيًا . ومريم ٤١ـ٤٨ه

"And make mention (O Muhammad) in the scripture of Ahraham. Lo ! he was a saint, a prophet. When he said unto his father : O my father ! Why worshippest thou that which heareth not nor seeth, nor can in aught avail thee ! O my father ! Lo ! there hath come unto me of knowledge that which came not unto thee. So follow me, and I will lead thee on a right path. O my father ! Serve not the devil. Lo, the devil is a rehel unto the Beneficent. O my father | Lo ! I fear lest a punishment from the Beneficent overtake thee so that thou become a comrade of the devil. He said: Rejectest thou my gods, O Ahraham ! if thou cease not I shall surely stone thee. Depart from me a long while! He said : Peace he unto thee! I shall ask forgiveness of my Lord for thee. Lo ! He was ever gracious unto me, I shall withdraw from you and that unto which ye pray beside Allah and I shall pray unto my Lord. It may be that, in prayer unto my Lord, I shall not he unblest."

16. Develop a hurning zeal for atriving in the way of God, a spirit of fighting with all your means and soul and a pious desire to attain martyrdom in the cause of God. Truly speaking, 'Jihad' is the test of faith and the heart which is devoid of the spirit of Jihad is devoid of faith and right guidance and may be compared to a desolate ruin in the wilderness. It is really a great privilege to bo able to reach the field of Jihad and to gain an opportunity of sacrificing one's life and property in the way of God. In case, the circumstances prevent you from availing of the opportunity to participate in the Jihad ; if you lack means or wherewithel to prove your conviction in the field of Jihad. even then you may be counted among those soldiers in the eves of God, who either attained martyrdom while fighting for His cause or returned from the field as the winners provided your heart is filled with the zeal of setting out in the way of God, you are ready to sacrifice anything for the cause of Islam and have a burning desire to attain martyrdom. God always takes into account the feelings and sentiments which stir a man to perform beroic deeds in the way of God. On his return from the battle of Tabuk, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings nf Allah be upon him) addressed his illustrious Companinas (God be pleased with them) on the way and observed :

"There are some people left behind in Medinah whn dist out with you and traversed the valley and remained with you throughout the battle." The Companions (God be pleased with them) were astonished and submitted: "Did they do all this while etaying behind in Medinah all the time!" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Yes, they did all this even while staying behind in Medinah all the time, for circumstances forced them to etay back, otherwise they would not have held themselves back of their own scoord."

In the Holy Qur'an, God has also praised those people who could not take part in Jihad, despite their burning zeal and were ever afterwards smitten with sorrow over this deprivation.

وَلاَ عَلَى الَّذِينَ إِذَا مَا آتَوْكَ لِتَعْمِلُّهُمْ قُلْتَ لاَ آجِدُ مَا

أَحْمِلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ تَوَلَّوا وَ آعِيْنَهُمْ تَنْفِضُ مِنَ النَّهُمِ حَزَّنَّا

إَلَّا يَجِدُوا مَّا يُسْفَقُونَ . والتوبه ٩٢ع

Wa lā alalladhina idhā mā atauka litahmilahum qulla lā ajidu mā ahmilukum 'alaihi tawallau wa kyunuhum tafidu minaddam' i hazanan allā yajidu mā yunfigān. (9:92)

"Nor unto those whom, when they came to thee (saking that thou chouldest mount them thou didst tell: I cannot find whereapon to mount you. They turued hack with eyes flowing with tears, for sorrow that they could not find means to spend."

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) observed: "The man who died without waging a struggle in the way of God or had no yearuing in his heart to wage euch a struggle, has died in a state of hypocriey".

In fact anybody whose heart is devoid of the spirit of fighting in the way of God and of sacrificing his life and resources for the cause of the Almighty is not a true hallower.

Etiquettes of Preaching

 Observe perfect decorum and propriety while preaching and propagating lalam. Adopt such an appropriate, dignified, and calculated technique to communicate your message as to generate fervour and zeal in the listener.

The Holy Qur'an affirms:

Ud'o itā sabiļi rabbika bilhikmati walmad-i-zatihasanati wa jādilhum billati hiya ahsan. (16: 125)

"Call unto the way of thy Lord with wisdom and fair exhortation and reason with them in the better way".

This comprehensive record the VV is a comprehensive record the VV is a comprehensive record to the VV is

This comprehensive verse of the Holy Qur'an contains instructions regarding three principles:

- (1) The call must be made in the most appropriate manner.
- (2) The instruction and guidance must be provided in the best possible way.
- (3) Discussion and reasoning should be fair aud sourteous,

Calling in a wise manner means to communicate your message according to the situation and circumstances aptitude of the people, their intellect and understanding and their social environments and etatus. Do not waste this precious treasure of knowledge and wisdom in a haphazard way. Address each class, group nr individual according to their shility, capacity, and their mental level. Always start your discussion from such universal truths as are mutually conceded to and pave the way far mutual understanding and agreement.

Arouse one's hest sentiments with sincerity and devotion, Create and develop in him an urge and desire to know the truth. Thus he will not only achieve peace of mind but adopt and accept the faith as his own innurge. It will serve as a source of nourishment for his soul and a tranquilizer for his passions and sentiments.

* To be courteous in criticism and discussion means that you should offer constructive criticism. Your criticism should reflect your earnestness and sincerity. Your style should be so convincing and simple that the intransigence, hate, obstinacy, projudice or pride may get no inlet Your approach should be so rational and impressive and your discussion so charming and thought provoking as to make the listener think over your arguments and to feel an irresistible sattraction towards the truth. Whenever you feel intransigence in attitude and reasoning, stop discussion and take leave.

 Propagate religion as a whole and do not add to or expunge anything from its teachings or principles of your own accord. The preacher of Islam has no discretion to project what he thinks fit and to withhold what he does not think fit to project.

God affirms :

أَنْ أُبِدْلَهُ مِنْ تَلْقَاى، نَفْسي . انْ أَتْبِعُ الْا مَا يُوحى الَّيِّ انِّي آخَافُ انْ عَصَيْتُ رَبِّي عَـٰذَابَ يَوْم عَظيم . تُملُّ لَرُّ شَأْءَ اللَّهُ مَا تَـلَوْتُهُ عَلَىٰكُمْ وَلَا أَدْرُكُمْ بِهِ فَـقَدْ لَبِثُتُ فيكُم عُمرًا أَهُلَ قَبْله . آفَلا تَعْقُلُونَ . فَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مُمْن الْمُتَرَى عَلَى اللهُ كَذَّبًا أَوْ كُذَّبُ بِأَيَاتِه . انْهُ لَا يَفْلَح المجرمون . دبونس ١٥-١٧٠

"And when Our clear revelations are recited unto them they who look not for the meeting with us say : Bring a lecture other than this, or change it. Say (O Muhammad): It is not for me to change it of my own accord. I only follow that which is inspired in me: Lo! if I disobey my Lord I fear the retribution of an aweful day. Say: If Allah had so willed I should not have recited it to you nor would He have made it known to you. I dwelt among you a whole lifetime before it (came to me). Have ye then no sense? Who doeth greater wrong than he who inventeth a lie concerning Allah and deniath His revelations? Lo! the guilty never are successful.

However unfavourable the circumstances may be, the preacher must propagate raligion in its true and whole form. It is a hideous crime to introduce innovations into or to make alterations in the principles and teachings ordained by Aliah to suit the prevailing trends. The people who are guilty of such alterations are the losers in this world as well as in the world Horeafter. Islam is a religion ordained by God who is All Knowing and Omniptent. His knowledge is eternal and there is nothing beyond His knowledge. He errs not, and has complete knowledge of whole of this universa right from heginning to the end, Whatevar be the human conquests in the field of science and technology, discoveries and explanations, all are subject to the Supreme Will of Allah. Nobody has got any right to make any addition or alteration in the Code of life ordained by Him. So much so that the Holy Prophet (p. b. u. h.), through whom this code of life has been convayed to us, has been introduced to us as the most idas! servent of Allah who follows what is ordained to him in letter and spirit and daras not overrula His mandate.

daras not overrula His mandate.

3. Convey the message of Islam in a natural way, so that it may not be taken as an unnatural burden. The people may take it as a remedy for all their ills and sufferings instead of feeling seared and developing hatred against it. You should be so polito and rational in conveying the message of Islam to the people that they may feel an iresistible attraction towards Islam. Hadrat Mu'awiya ihn Hakam (God be pleased with him) states: "Once I was saying prayers behind the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah beupon him) when a man smeezed. I responded to the sneeze by saying all care in the course of the prayer. The people began to stare at me. I said: "May God bless you! Why are you staring at me? The people indicated to me by gestures to keep quiet. I kept quiet. When the prayer was over, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and may my father and mother be sacrificed for him, never did I see a better guido and teacher before or after him) neither reproached me, nor beat me, nor blamed me. Ho only said to me "Look. This is prayer and it is not admissible to talk during the prayer. Prayer is meant to acknowledge the purity, supremacy and exaltedness of God and to receit the Holy Qur'an".

4. Be moderate in your writing, speech and conversation while conveying the message and call of Islam so that the listeners may feel hopeful as well as seized with awe. Notither overstress the terrifying aspects of the punishment for sins, lest the people should lose all hopes of mercy from Allah and consider salvation not only difficult but impossible; nor should you present such a roay and one-sided picture of the kindness and forgiveness of God that people become fearless and irresponsible in their actions and feel free to transgress the divine commands trusting upon the Munificence and Forgiving Nature of the Lord.

Hadrat 'Ali (God be pleased with him) observed :

"The best scholar is he who invites the people to obey and submit before Allah in such a manner that people do not lose hope in God; he neither gives them allowances to commit transgressions against the Law of God nor makes them fearless of Divine punishment."

5. Observe perseverance and constancy in missionary activities. Continue implementing your programme with fortitude and a high sense of responsibility. Avoid the habit of abandoning your programmes half-way and chalking out new schemes. Do little, but do it steadily.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed :

"The best deed is the one which, however little it may be, is done constantly and regularly".

 Meet all hardships and trials that confront you while preaching and propagating Islam cheerfully and with patience and fortitude

The Holy Qur'an affirms :

وَامْ بِالْمَعْرُوفَ وَازْهَ عَنِ السُّكُرِ وَاصْبُرْ عَلَى مَا أَصَّابَكَ .

ولقمن ١٤٠٠

Wa'mur bilma'rufi wanha'anil munkari wasbir 'alā mā asābaka. (31: 17)

"And enjoin kindness and forbid iniquity and persevere whatever may befall thee".

Hardships and difficulties do come in the way of truth and submission to Allah, These trials and hardships strengthen faith in Allah and session one's character and morals. This is why Allah puts those to trial who claim to be His servants and the trial gets harder and harder for those who are better researed in fifth and deviction.

for those who are better seasoned in faith and devotion, God affirms:

وَلَنَبْلُوَنَّكُمْ بِشَيْءَ مَنَ الْخَرْفِ وَالْجُوعِ وَ نَفْصِ مَنَ الْخَرْفِ وَالْجُوعِ وَ نَفْصِ مَنَ الْأَمْوِلُ وَالْمُنْفُسِ وَالْمُنْفُسِ وَالْمُنْفَسِ وَالْمُنْفِقِةَ فَالُوا النَّا للهُ وَانَّا النَّبِهُ وَاجْعُونَ .

الْأَمُولُ عَلَيْهِمْ مَسْفِيقَةً قَالُوا انَّا للهُ وَانَّا النَّبِهُ وَاجْعُونَ .

Walanablu wannakum bishai im minal khaufi walju'i wa nagsim minalamwali wal anfusi wasasamarik wa bash shirisebbi-nalladhina idha asabathum musibatun gili innaliilahi wa inna ilaihi raji'un. Ulzi'ka 'alaihim salawatsum min rabbihim wa rahmatun wa sila'ika humul 12. 151

"And most certainly shall We try yon by means of some fear, and hunger and loss of worldly goods, lives and fruits. and glad tidings to the patient who, when adversity overtakes them, say: Smely Allah's we are, and unto Him we are to return. It is they, upon whom there are blessings of their Lord and (Hie) mercy and it is they alona who are guided aright."

'Hadrat Sa'd (God be pleased with him) submitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him): "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you) I Which person is put to the severest trial ?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed : "The persons who are put to the severest trisle are firstly the Prophete of God (peace be upon them), then those who are nearest to the prophete in conviction and devotion, and then those who are next to them in their faith and submission. In fact one is tried scoording to his conviction and devotion. Whoever is firm in his conviction and devotion is put to a hard test and whoever is weak in faith and submission is confronted with a mild trial and these trials continue till a man is purged of all traces of sin." ( Mishkāt)

Recounting his own experience, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Never was a man more persecuted in the way of Allah than I was and nover was a man more threatened in the way of Allah as I was. We spent thirty days and thirty nights in such state that Bilal (God be pleased with him) and I had nothing that a living being could sat, save soms little provisions in the small pack which Bilal (God he pleased with him) kept under his arm." (Pirmidhi)

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) also affirmed:

"Any person who will make an effort to be patient shall he granted patience by Allah. And there is no blessing which sncompasses more good than patience."

(Bukhari, Muslim)

In fact, trials are essential for strengthening and carrying forward the movement. No movement can achieve success without sassing through periods of trial, especially a movement which calls for a universal revolution in human society and plaus to raise the social structure of human life on entirely new foundations.

Reminiscing about the days when the stons-hearted Meccan were perpetrating endless tortures on the Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah be upon him) and his illustrious Companions (God he pleased with them), Hadrat Khahhah ihn al-Arat (God he pleased with him) related:

"The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) was resting with a sheet placed under his sacred head in the shade of Bait-Allah (Houss of God) when we reached his presence with the complaint: "O Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah be npon you)! Don't you seek aid for us from God! Don't you pray for an end to this oppression! (How long will this period of trial continus and when will it come to an and!). The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) heard our complaint and observed: There had heen people hefore you who faced unprecedented trials and oppressions. Often one of them was made to stand in a pit, half huried in the ground, and his body was aliced into two parts with a saw like a log of wood, yet the man refused to renounce his faith Their flosh was pierced through with steel combstill the iron nails reached the hones and the fibres, yet the devotees of God did not resile from truth. By God, Islam shall prevail and you will see (such a state of peace and security) that a man riding from San'as (the Capital of Yemen) to Hadramut will have nothing to fear on the way except Allah. The shephords will only fear the wolves lest they should carry off their goats. But, alsa, you show impatience."

(Bukhari)

Hadrat Mua'wiya (God be pleased with him) relates:
"I have heard the Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah be upon him) observing, "There shall always remain a group among my Ummah who will defend Islam and their faith. Those who do not support them or oppose them chall never be able to destroy or eliminate them till the final word from Allah. These defenders of Faith shall remain firm in their conviction.

(Bukhari, Muslim)

 Do not show undue toleration, or shower undeserved praise on any one, nor sacrifice principles under any circumstances. In affirmation of a virtue of the believers, the Holy Qur'an says:

أَشْدًاءُ عَلَى الْكُفَّارِ .

Ashiddāu 'alal kuffār.

"They deal strictly with the non-helievers."

In other words, the bolievers are extremely strict about matters of religion and principle and under no circumstances do 'they compromise their principles or tolerate wrong-doing. They can bear anything, hut cannot sacrifice their religion or principles. God has transmitted through the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) the following to the Muellims:

Palidhalika fad'u wastaqim kama umirta wala tattab'i ahwaahum.

"Unto this then summon (O Muhammad). And be thou upright as thou art commanded, and follow not their lusts."

Accommodation for wrong doing, undue toleration and compromise with falsehood are the weaknesses that destroy one's faith and religion,

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed;

"When the tribe of Israel hegan to transgress the commands of God, their learned men checked them, but they did not refrain from their wicked deeds. Their learned men inetead of boycotting their society, continued to attend their company and ate and drank with them, Consequently God equated these pions Ulemas with the transgreesors and cursed them through His Prophets, Hadrat Dawud and Hadrat 'Isa (peace and blessings of Allab be upon them). God cursed the Israelites because they followed the path of disobedience to God and went too far on this way." The reporter of this Tradition 'Abdullah h. Mas'ud (God be pleased with bim) relates : "The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) changed his reclining posture and sat erect and observed : No, I swear by Him Who bath power over my life, you will certainly continue to enforce virtue and ourb evil and you will bold the hand of the oppressor and bend the tyrant before truth. If you do not act as you must, you too shall assimilate with them and God eball withhold all His blessings and guidance from you and forsake you completely, just as He deprived the Israelites of His clemency.

8. To train and reform your children and to prepare them for the duty of establishing religion is not only your foremost obligation, but a logical aphere of your activity. On the other hand, it is movine and unnatural to ignore your children and get yourself hasy in missionary activities outside. It is a gross negligence and an escape from duty. It is as if you leave your own family writhing in agony of hunger and thirst during famine and go out in search of the needy to distribute grain among them to display your munificence. It shows that you are quite incapable of perceiving the suffering of hunger and thirst and are devoid of the sense of kinship and love; nor can you appreciate the wisdom that lies behind the act of distributing grain. The Holy Qur'an enjoins upon the believers:

Yā-ayyuhalladhina āmanū gū anfusakum wa ahlikum nārā.

"O Believers ! Save yourselves and your families from the fire of Hell".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) has elucidated the same verse as follows;

"Fa h one of you is a guardian and is charged with a responsibility, and each one of you shall be held accountable for those who have been placed under your care. The ruler is a guardian and he aball be held to account for the affairs of his subjects. The husband is the guardian of his family; the woman is the guardian of her hashand's home and children. So each one of you is a guardian and charged with a responsibility and each one of you shall he called to account for the affairs of those who have been placed nader your care".

(Bukhāri, Muslim)

 Expend some care upon reforming and cultivating your neighbours and the people living around you and consider this task as a part of your duty.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) delivered a sermon one day and in the course of his sermon praised some Muslims and then observed: "Why is it so that some people do not impart religions knowledge to their neighbours and do not season them . in religion, neither do they warn them of the fearful consequences of their ignorance of religion, nor restrain them from committing evil deeds? And why is it so that some of you do not care to learn religion from their neighbours and do not acquire an understanding of its purpose and spirit, nor do they try to ascertain the fearful consequences of remaining ignorant of religion. By God! The people must teach religion to their neighbours and inculcate an understanding of religion among them. The people should guide their neighbours, give them good counsel and restrain them from wrong and evil. Besides, it is the duty of people to learn religion from their neighbours, acquire an understanding of religion and accept their counsels or else I shall punish them soon". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) then descended from the pulpit concluding his sermon.

Those who were present there enquired from each other: Against whom the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) delivered this warning ?" The others said, "The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) was siluding in his speech to the people of the tribe of Ash'ar. These people are well-versed in religion, but their neighbours, who live in the Oasis, are ignorant yokels". When the people of the tribe of Ash'ar came to know of the sermon delivered by the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) they presented themselves before the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) and submitted: "O Prophet of God (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon you)! You were pleased to shower praise on some people and expressed your displeasure towards us. Kindly let us know what is wrong with us?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "It is the duty of the people to teach religion to their neighbours; they ought to preach to them, educate them and restrain them from wrong and evil. Likewise it is the duty of the people to learn religion from their neighbours and to accept their counsels. They should also cultivate an understanding of religion. otherwise I shall punish them soon in this world". The people of the tribe of Ash'ar again submitted : "O Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon yon; 1 Should we inculcate the epirit of religion among others !" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon hlm) observed: "Yes, indeed, it is your duty". Thereupon the people submitted: "O Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you) l Allow us a grace period of one year". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) granted them a grace period of one year within which they were to teach religion to their neighbours and inculcate an understanding of religion among them. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) then recited the following verses:

Lu-inalladhina kafaru. min bani Israila alā lisāni. Dauda va laubni Maryama dhalika bimā 'asaw wa kānā ya' tadūn. Kānā lā yatanā hauna 'an mukarin faalūhu labi'sa ma kānā yaf-alān. (15: 78:79)

"Those of the children of Israel who went astray were cursed by the tongue of David, and of Jesus son of Mary. That was because they rebelled and used to transgress, They restrained not one another from the wickedness they did. Verily evil was they used to do". 10. Respect and give due regard to the religious beliefs and sentiments of the people among whom you are performing your pleasant duty of preaching and propagating religion. Do not desecrate the names of their forbears or leaders ; neither attack their beliefs, nor denounce their religious doctrines. You should preach your religion in a positive manner with sense and wisdom. Your criticism, instead of provoking the listeners, shall he earnestly aimed at driving home your preachings to them. Impassioned criticism and disparaging epooch never succeeds in bringing about the desired change in the addressee. On the other hand, there is an ever present danger in this case that feelings of pride in ignorance and prejudice may be ignited in the listener and under their influence he may pass impudent remarks upon God and religion and instead of drawing near to religion may go farther astray. The Holy Qur'an affirms ;

Wa lā tasubbulladhīna yad ūna min dūnillahi fayasubbullaha 'adwan bighairi 'ilm.

"(O Believers !) Do not revile those whom they call besides Allah lest they should unknowingly take to revil-ing Allah out of enmity".

11. When you become a missionary for spreading the message of God, you should confine your activities to calling people towards God and nothing else. Do not call the people of God towards anything other than God; do not issue your call in the name of a country, people, race, or language; nor call them on behalf of a party. The objective of the believer is to obey the Will of God. Call people towards total submission to God and cultivate an assurance among them, that the slave's duty is to worship his Creator and Master, be it in the sphere of his individual or family life, or in social and political affairs. The slave should obey in all spheres of his life the order of his Lord and Creator and submit to His Law with sincerety and devotion. A Muslim can have no objective before him other than this. He should, therefore call others also to achieve this objective. Whenever the believer should dare turn his back upon the Commands of God and set up anything else than obedience to the Will of Allab as his objective, he shall be condemned and rejected in both the worlds.

Wa man ahsanu qaulan mimman da'ā ilallahi wa 'amila sālihan wa qāla innanī minal muslimīn.

"Who is better in epecch than he who calls people towards God, acts righteously and says 'l am surely of those who submit'".

Etiquettes of Discipline and Organization

 Form a strong organization for propagating religion and make a concentrated and collective struggle to establish Islamic Order.

wal takun minkum ummatun yad'üna ilalkhairi wa ya'murüno bil ma'rüfi wa yanhauna 'anil munkar.

"And there must exist at least a group among you which should call people towards goodness enjoining good and prohibiting wrong and evil.

"Al-Khair" denotes all that is naturally good and which has always been regarded as good by human nature and which has heen attested as good by the revealed Books. A comprehensive and systematic form of all that is good and virtuous is the religion of God which the Apostles (poace be upon them) have been transmitting to the world in every successive epoch and whose final, complete, authentic and fully preserved form is the Quran and Sunnah which the Holy Prophet Muhammad (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) bequeathed to the Ummah. To call people towards this good and to enrich the world with virtue it is imperative that Muslims should form a party and perform this duty in an organized manner. They should forge strong and well-kint front and launch a well-organized and concentrated struggle to eliminate the wrong and evil from every sphere of life. Alphreciation and praise and lands their collective and concentrated struggle.

Innallaha yuhibbulladhina yuqdiilüna fi sabilihi saffan kaannahum bunyanum marsüs,

Verily God loves those who fight in His cause arrayed in ranks as though they were a atructure comented with molten lead,

Stressing the importance of collective struggle and advising Muslims to live as an organized body, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) observed:

"Three men who live in a jungle are forbidden to live together save they choose one from among themselves as their Amir (chief)". (Muntaga)

Firther the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) observed:

"The person who wishes to eccure a dwelling place in the centre of Paradise ought to remain firmly attached to the "Al-Jama'at" for the devil haunts a single person, but if two persons join together, the devil runs away as far as possible.

"Al-Jama'at" implies a well-organized society of Muslims which is governed by the rule of Shariah under a Muslim Caliph and the Muslims as a whole agree and consects to his authority mail justices. In such a situation there is no justification, whatksource, for any Muslim to keep himself away and aloof from such a society. In case such a society and such an organization does not exist make an all out concentrated and collective efforts to bring about such a society which is called Al-Jama'at in Islamic terminology.

2. Make Islam the foundation of your unity and organization as the distinguishing feature of an Islamic organization is nothing but total submission to Allah. Any organisation, unity or alliance based on any thing other than total cubmission to Allah shall not be termed as Islamic, as it is not based on the foundation of Islam. The real base of brotherhood and bond of unity is Islam and Islam only. Anything other than Islam cannot comment relations of brotherhood and unison. It will rather disperse and disintegrate the people and instead of forming a powerful and well-knit unit and organization with singularty of purpose and procedure, they will be divided into several secte and factions.

If you form a party, the only objective before you chould be to establish the rule of God and all your stringgle and efforts should be devoted to achieve this goal only.

وَاعْتَصِمُواْ بِحَبْلِ اللهِ جَمِيمًا وَّلاَ تَفَوَّقُواْ وَاذْكُرُواْ نِمْمَةَ اللهِ الله عَلَيكُمْ إِذْ كَنْتُمْ آعَدَاهُ فَالَّكَّ بَيْنَ قُلُوبِكُمْ فَاصَبِحْتُمْ بِنْعَمْنَهُ إِخْوَانًا . وآل عمران ١٠٣

Wa'atasimi bihablillahi jamt'ane walā tafarraqū naahkurā n'imatallahi 'alaikum idh kuntum a'adā'an fa-allafa baina qulābikum fa-asbahtum bin'imatihi ikhwānā. (3: 103)

The Holy Qur'an affirme:

"And hold fast all of you together to this rope of Allah and do not separate. And remember Allah's favour unto you how ve were enemies and He made friendship between your hearts so that yo became as brothers by His grace

'The rope of God, means Islam, the 'Religion of God'. According to the Holy Qur'an, it is Islam which forms the basis of the unity and organisation for Muslims. Anything else will only divide them into a number of factions instead of uniting and unifying them.

3. Love those working for the cause of Islam from the core of your heart and consider this connexion as the most important and the most inestimable of all conneyions.

Describing the characteristics of the believers, the Holy Onr'an affirms:

Lā tajidu qauman yuminūna billahi walyaumil ākhiri yuwāddūna man hād-dallāha wa rasūlahu wa lau kanīl abā'ahum au abnā'ahum au ikhwānahum au ashiratahum, (58:22).

"Then will not find folk who believe in Allah and the Last Day loving those who oppose Allah and His Messenger even though they be their fathers or their sons or their brothers or their clan.

4. Extend support and good connsel to your colleagues in the party and keep alive the spirit of mutual guidance and advice in your party life, for this is the real key to success.

Wal'asri innal insāna lafī khusrin illalladhīn āmanū wa 'amilussālihāti wata wāsau bil haggi wa tawāsaubissabr.

By the time, surely man is ever in a state of loss except those who believe and do righteous deeds and exhort one another to preach Truth and exhort one another to be steadfast.

 Observe party discipline with full care, and do not consider it only a means of strengthening your party, but deem it as a religious duty.

God affirms:

انَّمَا الْمُسُوْمُسُونَ الَّذِينَ امْنُوا باللهِ وَ رَسُولُـه وَ اذَا كَانُوا مَمْ عَلَى الْمُنُوا باللهِ وَ رَسُولُـه وَ اذَا كَانُوا مَمْ عَلَى اللهِ اللهِ عَلَى اللهِ المُلْمُ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ المُلْمُ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِل

«النور ۲۲»

Innamal mo'minunat-ladhīna āmannī billahi wa rasslithi wa idhā kanu ma'ahu 'alā assrin jami-'in lam yadh-habu hatla yasta'-dhinihu. Innalladhīna yasta'dhinā-naka ulātkalladhīna yo'minūna billahi wa rasūlihi. (24:62)

"They only are true believers who believe in Allah and His Messenger and when they are with him on some common errand go not away until they bave asked leave of him. Lo! those who ask leave of thee, those are they who believe in Allah and His Messenger". Party discipline and loyalty and devotion to the leader is not only a legal point, but an important issue of Shariah. The Holy Qur'an has affirmed the true faith of those who are loyal to party discipline and in no case abandon their party duty without leave of their leader.

6. Extend sincere co-operation in all the good works that are being carried out by the party and exert yourself to the maximum in this effort. Do not stain the purity of your moral character by entertaining any evil sentiments such as solfishness, or personal motives and self-glorification.

The Holy Qur'an enjoins upon the believers:

Wata'āwanū 'alalbirri wattagwā.

"And co-operate with each other in good works of piety and God-fearing".

Maintain cordial relations with your colleagues. If at times a difference of opinion arises, resolve the dispute at once and keep your heart clear of any feelings of gradge.

Fattaqullāha wa-aslihu dhāta bainikum.

"So fear God and maintain cordial relations among yourselves".

8. Obey the Amir of the Islamic Party with all sincerety and in good spirit and remain loyal and devoted to him.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed:

"It is the duty of the Muslims to listen to and obey the order of their leader, regardless of the consideration whether such an order is agreeable or disagreeable to them, provided such an order does not constitute a transgression of God's law. In case such an order is issued as is repugnant to God's law, it should not be listened to, nor obeyed.

(Bukhari Muslim)

Hadrat Tamim Dari reports that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"Religion means devotion and loyalty". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) repeated this observation three times. Theroupon we submitted: "Devotion and loyalty to whom?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessingsof Allah be upon him) observed: "Devotion and loyalty to God, His Messenger, His Book, the leaders of Muslims and the mass of Muslims."

(Muslim)

9. Avoid party chauvinism, bigotry and factionalism. Cooperate with everyone with an open heart and in good cheer. Esteem those who are working for the cause of religion. Deal with them in good faith and sincerity and consider them as your colleagues and comrades. All those who work for the cause of religion are in reality supporters and helpers of one another. The goal of everyone of them is the glory of religion and all of them wish to serve religion according to their lights. It is auspicious and fruitful to point out each other's faults in a spirit of friendship and understanding and to focus attention on correct mode of thought and action. On the other hand, it is below the dignity and office of the preachers of religion to indulge in such despicable conduct as hatred, friction, envy, grudge, confrontation and hostile propaganda against each other. The character of the preachers must be clear of all these blemishes who sincerely and truly wish to expend their energies and talents in the way of God and to render some service to the cause of Islam during their lifetime.

Etiquettes of Leadership

 To lead and guido the Islamic party choose a person who excels others in piety and fear of God. Heritage nor wealth is the basis of leadership or eminence in Islam. The best person in Islam is he who foars God most.

The Holy Qur'an affirms :

، و و . دالحجرّات _ ۱۳.

Ya-ayyuhanndsu innd khalaqndkum min dhakarin wa unthd wa ja'alndkum shuüban wa qabdi'la ilita'drafu inna akramakum 'indallahi atqdkum. (49:13)

"O mankind! Lo! we have created you make and female, and have made you nations and tribes so that yo may know one another. Lo! the noblest of you in the sight of Allah, is the best in conduct."

Regard the election of a leader as a secred duty and use your vote as a trust from God only in favour of person who in your view is best qualified to discharge the onerous responsibility of leadership.

God affirms:

انَّ الله يَامُرُكُمْ أَنْ تُـوَّدُوالْآمَنِيِّ الْي أَهْلَهَا . «النساء ٥٥٨

Înnallaha ya'murukum an tuaddul amānāti ilā ahlihā.
(4:58).

"Lo! Allah Commandeth you that you restore deposits to their owners."

This is a precise principle which encompasses all kinds of trusts. In the context of this Chapter 'trusts denote the responsibilities of an Islamic Party i.e. the duty of leadership abould be vested by open choice in such a person who is the best qualified among you to discharge the onerous responsibility of leadership. To east your vote in this case in a partisan spirit or to show undue favour or to act under the influence of other extraneous factors is a breach of trust. The character of a believer must be free from the taint of breach of trust.

3. If you are to lead an Islamic Party, you should be fully conscious of your responsibilities and should discharge your duty with complete honesty, diligence, sense of responsibility and energy.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"God shall ban the entry of that person into Paradise who is entrusted the duty of administering the disc who is entrusted the duty of administering the affairs of Muslim society and he betrays their trust".

(Bukhāri, Muslim)
The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) also observed:

"The person who accepts the charge of administering the affairs of Muslime and then does not serve their interests and does not tire himself out in their service to the same extent that he tires himself out to fulfil his own personal needs, God shall throw such a man headlong into the fire of Hell". (Tabrani) into the fire of Hell". (Tabrāni)

4. Treat your subordinates with tenderness, affection, fairness and large-heartedness so that they may co-operate with you willinely and God may grant your Party the favour of rendering some service to Islam. Describing the virtues of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him), the Holy Qnr'an says:

Fabima rahmatim minallāhi linta lahum wa lau kunta fazzan ghalizal qalbi lanfaddu min haulik. (3:159).

"It was by the mercy of Allah that thou wast lenient with them (O, Mnhammad), for if thou hadst been stern and fierce of heart they would have dispersed from round about thee,"

"Moreover, God has nrged the Holy Prophet (peace and bleasings of Allah be upon him):

والشمراء ٥٢١٥

Wakhfid janāhaka limanittab'aka minal mo'minin.

(26 : 215).

"And lower thy wing (in tenderness) unto those believers who follow thee."

In the course of a speech, Hadrat 'Umar h. Khattab (God he pleased with him) remarked:

"O people! You owe us a duty to support us sincerely in our absence and assist us in performing deeds of piety." Furthermore he observed:

"Officers of the Government! No tenderness is greater hefore God and more profitable than the tenderness and leniency shown by the head of the executive. Similarly, no lack of wisdom and ineptness is more damaging, dangerous and despicable than the indiscretion, whinsical nature and haphazard actions of the executive head.

5. Realize the importance of your colleagues. Respect their sentiments and pay due regard to their needs. Treat them in such e fraternal way that they should look upon you as their greatest well-wieher.

Hadrat Malik ibu Huwarith reletes: "Ouce some of us young men who were of the same age group went to stay with the Holy Prophet (peace and blessinge of Allah be upon him) and lived in his auspicious company for twenty days. The Holy Apostle of God (peace and hlessings of Allah he upou him) was no doubt extremely kind and tender-hearted. When the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) felt that we were homesick. he (nesce and hiesaiuge of Allah he unou him) enquired from us: "What relatious have you left hehind at home?" We submitted details, whereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) advised us: "You should now return home and live with them and teach them what you have learnt and propagate good deeds among them. Tell them the exact hours of prayers and when the time of prayer approaches, one of you should announce the call and he who excels all others in learning and character among you should lead the prayers."

6. Appreciate the worth and importance of your colleagues and considering them your real assest, take pains to train them in right earnest. Do not underrate them as poor and destitute nor covet those upon whom God has hestowed worldly pomp, grandeur and wealth.

وَاصْبِرُ نَفْسَكَ مَعَ اللَّذِينَ يَدُعُونَ رَبُّهُم بِالْغَدُوةِ وَالْعَشَى يُودُونَ رَبُّهُم بِالْغَدُوةِ وَالْعَشَى يُرِيدُونَ وَجَهَةً وَلا تَعَدُّ عَيْنَكَ عَنْهُم تُرِيدُ وَيِسَدَّةً الْحَيْوةَ لِيرِيدُ وَيسَدَّةً الْحَيْوةَ اللَّذِيدَ ] . والكهن ٢٩

bilghadāti wal-'ashiyyi yuriduna wajhahü wala t'adu 'aināka 'anhum turidu zinatal-hayātiddunyā. (18:29).

"Restrain thyself along with those who cry unto their Lord at morn and evening, eeeking His countenance and let not thine eyes overlook them desiring the pomp of tha life of the world."

In fact the people who have devoted their lives and resonress to the propagation and preaching of religions are the veritable asset of a religious perty. The duty of the party leader is to realise the velue of these people and concentrate all his attention on their education and training.

7. Settle and execute all party matters in consultation with your collesgues. Try to develop their interest in the party and consolidate their support for the activities of the party. God, in praise of the believers, also affirms that they settle their affairs by mutual consultation.

Wa amruhum shūrā bainahum.

"And their affairs are (settled) by mutual consultation."

God has urged the Holy Prophet (peece and hlessings of Allah be upon him) to consult his companions in matters of special importance.

Wa shawirhum fil-amr.

"And consult them in (important) matters."

 Display generocity and selfessness in party matters. Do not seek to advance your own or your family's interest in any party matter. On the other hand, show a liberal and nuselfish conduct so that your colleagues may always be prepared to make all sacrifices with a willing heart and may not feel distillusioned with the party or sever their connection with it or may not be moved to act with selfah and interested motives. Hadrat Abu Bakr (God be pleased with him) once observed to Hadrat 'Umar (God be pleased with him);

"O son of Khattab I I have chosen you and appointed you over Muslims so that you may deal with them with kindness. You have been a Companion of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him). You know how the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him) used to prefer our interest to his own interest and that of our family to his family, so much so that we often returned as a gift to the Prophet's family whatever we received from him in excess of our needs and requirements.

(Kitab al-Kharāj)

9. Always avoid pertiality and nepotism and never show number regard and toleration. Hadrat Yazid h. Sufyan (God be pleased with him) relates: "When Hadrat Abu Bakr (God be pleased with him) appointed me chief of the army and sent me towards Syria, he gave me the following instructions:

'O Yazid I Yon have some kinsmen and relations. It is possible that you may feel tempted to prefer them to others for appointment to offices of trust. This is what I fear most about yon.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "God will accept no compensation or consideration from a person who is responsible for the affairs of the Muslims and appoints a man to an office of authority over Muslims merely on the basis of kinship or friendship, so much so that God shall consign the guilty person to Hell". (Kitab al-Khergi)

 Maintain strict party discipline as far as is possible and do not show weakness or leniency in matters of discipline.

God affirms:

فَاذَا اسْتَأْذَنُوكَ لِبِعِضِ شَائِهِمْ فَاذَنَ لَمَنْ شِنْتُ مِنْهُمْ

وَاسْتَشْغَفْر لَهُمُ اللهُ. والنور ٢٦٧

shi ta minhum wastaghfir lahumullah. (24:62)

"So, if they ask thy leave for some affair of theirs,

"So, if they sak thy leave for some affair of theirs, give leave to whom thou wilt of them, and ask for them forgiveness of Allah."

In other words, when the members of the party assemble to attend to some party business and later some members begin to seek permission to leave on account of their personal needs or disabilities, it behoves the leader of the party to accept the requests of those people only whose personal needs are really more pressing than the matters confronting them in the meeting or of those whose disabilities justify their leave by canonical law and, there fore, must be coinsidered and conceded:

CHAPTER V

SENSE OF DEVOTION

The Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Aliah be upon him) observed that God has affirmed as follow:

"My creatures! Each one of you is misguided, save the one whom I guide. So seek guidance only from Me so that I may instruct you. My people! Each one of you is famished, save the one whom I feed. So apply to Me only for subsistence, so that I may grant you livelihood. My slaves! Fach one of you is naked, save the one whom I dress with an apparei, so besceh ciothing from Me so that I may dress you with garments. My bondmen! You commit sins day and night and I can forgive all sins. So seek forgiveness from Me so that I may forgive you your sins.

(Sahih Muslim)

Etiquettes of Repentance

1. Never lose bope of acceptance by God of your repentance and petition for forgiveness. Whatever the magnitude of your sins, purify your soul by offering repentance and be hopeful of God's mercy. Despair is the characteristic of unbelievers. It is the distinctive trait of the believers that they repent the most and under no circumstances do they lose hope of God'e clemency. It is dieastrous to euccumb to dismay and lose hope of Allah's Mercy and clemency considering the magnitude of sine. The most outstanding quality of the favourites of Allah is that they do not stick to the wrong and guilt but admit their fault clearly and unconditionally. They are never supposed to be above faulte and omissions, but when they commit any fault and realise the wrong done, they do all within their means to beg forgiveness from Allah and to purify themselves of that fault and misdeed.

Walladhina idhā fa'alū fāhishatan au zalamū anfusahum āhakarullāha fastaghfarā lidhunū bihim wa man yaghfrudhdunūba illallāhu wa lam yusirru 'alā mā fa'alī wahum y'alamān. (3:135) "And those who when they do an evil thing or wrong themselves remember Allah and implore forgiveness for their sins—who forgiveth sins save Allah only I—and will not knowingly repeat (the wrong) they did"

And God affirms in another verse :

Innalladktna-t-tagau idkā massahum tāifum minaskshaitāni tazakkarū fa-idka-kum mubsirūn. (7:201)

"Lo I those who ward off (evil) when a glamour from the evil troubleth them they do but remember (Allah's guidance) and behold them seers".

And the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) cherved:

"All human beings without exception are sinful, hat the best sinners are those who repent the most".

(Tirmidh)

In the Holy Qnr'an, God has mentioned it as a distinct virtue of the believers that they offer penances before God at dawn and repent and seek His Forgiveness and God has urged the helievers that they should rest assured that God shall cover their sins with His Forgiveness and Clemency, for He is All-Forgiving and the Most Affectionate towards His creatures.

eq a ses

Wastaghfird rabbakum thumma tübü ilaihi inna rabbi rahimun wadud. (11:90).

"Ask pardon of your Lord and then turn unto Him (repentant). Lo ! my Lord is Merciful, Loving.

2. Always be hopeful of God's Blessings and rest assured that however great your sins may be, God's Munificence is wider and all-encompassing. When a person who has committed a greater volume of sins than the surf of the ses feels ashamed and offers sincere penance before God, Helistens to his entreaties and grants him refige under His Mercy.

يُبِادِيَ اللَّذِينَ اَسْرَفُوا عَلَى اَنْفُسِهِم لَا تَفْتَطُوا مِنْ رَحْمَة اللهُ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَشْفَرُ اللَّذُوبَ جَمْيِمًا أَنَّهُ هُوَ الْفَفُورُ الرَّحِيْمُ وَ النَّيْبُوا الٰى رَبّكُمْ وَ السُلُمُوا لَـهُ مِنْ فَمْبِلِ اَنْ يَالْتَبِكُمُ الْعَذَابُ ثُمَّ لَا تُسْصَرُونَ . والزمر ٥٣ - ١٥٤

Ya ibadi-yaliadhina asrafi 'ala anfusihim la taqnatü min rahmatillah. Innallaha yaqhfirudhdhuniba jamiya. Innahu huwad phafirnahim. Wa anibii ila rabbikum wa adimii lahu min qabli an ya'tiyakum-ui'adhabu thumma ldtunsarin. (39: 53, 54).

O My slaves who have been prodigal to their own heart! Despair not of the Mercy of Allah who forgiveth all sins. Lo I He is the Forgiving the Merciful. Turn unto Him repentant; and surrender unto Him before there come unto you the doom, when ye cannot be helped".

3. Whenever yon feel shame and remorse and whatever stage of your life, consider this feeling and realisation aspecial favour of God and be sure that the doors are always open for repentance. God accepts repentance of His slaves as long as they are alive. However, when they are at the threshold of death and are about to pass over to the next world, the time for offering repentance expires. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"God accepts the repentance of His slave, but only before the slave has breathed his last". (Tirmidhi)

The brothers of Hadrat Yusuf (peace be upon him) pushed him into a dark well and felt sure that he was dead. In other words, they stood guilty of the murder of a Prophet. They sosked Yusuf's shirt in blood and presented it as a positive evidence of Yusuf's death to their father Hadrat Ye'quh (peace he upon him). They assured him that a wolf had devoured Hadrat Yusuf (peace be npon him) --- Many years after the commission of this grave offence when the sense of guilt prevailed upon them, they went to their father remorsefully and requested him: "Dear father, pray to God on our behalf and intercede with Him to grant us forgiveness". The Messenger of God Hadrat Ya'qub (peace be upon him) did not disappoint his sons by confronting them with the question; "Your offence is grave. Many years have elapsed since you committed this heinons erime, why ask for forgiveness now"? Instead he undertook to offer a prayer to God that He should grant them salvation and assured them that God would certainly forgive them, for God is the Most-Forhearing and Most Compassionate.

Qālā yā abānastaghfirlanā dhunūbanā innā kunnā khāti-in. (12:97).

"They said. O our father! Ask forgiveness of our sine for na, for Lo I we are sinful."

ديوسف ٩٨»

Qāla saufa astaghfiru lakum rabbi innahu hu walghafūrurrahim. (12 : 98)

"He said: I shall ask forgiveness for you of my Lord. Lo! He is the Forgiving, the Merciful."

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) told a strange tale to his Companions (God he pleased with them) with a view to save them from falling a prey to diamay. The tale contains the moral that whenever at any stage of his life a believer feels ashemed of his misdeeds and he sincerely entreats God to forgive him. God shall bestow upon him salvation end He shall never refuse him His favour.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him) observed: "There was a man in ancient days who had committed ninety-nine murders. He enquired from people: "Who is the greatest scholer of the time t" The people gave him the name of a God-feering monk. The man approached the monk and seid. "Respected Sir, I am guilty of ninety-nine murders. Can my repentance and petition for forgiveness he accepted i" The monk replied: "No, you stand no chances for forgiveness." In utter dismay the men killed the monk too. Now he had completed a century of murders. He again went round asking the people as to who was the greatest religious scholar on the earth. The people gave him the name of another monk. The man approached the monk to offer repentance. He related his problem in detail and enquired from him : Sir, I have committed a hundred murders. Tell me. can my repentance he accepted? Is there any scope for my salvation ?" The monk replied : "Why not ? Nothing stands in the way of acceptance of your repentance. Go to such and such country. You will find a few venerable slaves of God engaged in prayers and devotions to Him. Join them and devote yourself to the worship of God and hever return to your homeland, as this place is no more virtually suitable for you (In other words, it is impossible for you to remain firm upon your vow of repentance end to strive to reform yourself while living in this place.)" The man set out according to the directions of the monk. He had hardly covered half the distance when death overtook him. Now the angels of grace and the angels of torment fell into a dispute. The angels of grace argued, "This man repented of his sins and went a long way to offer submission to God." The angels of torment countered: "No, he has not yet performed a single act of virtue---thus the argumentation between the angels went on. In the meantime an angel appeared in the shape of a human heing. The angels requested him to settle their dispute. He gave his verdict : "Measure the distance on hoth sides and determine which side is nearer; the place from where he set out or the place where was he going". When the angels measured the distance on both the sides, it came out that the destination was nearer as compared to the distance he had so far covered. Thus Allah had in fact forgiven him. (Bukhari, Muslim)

Confess your sins only hefore God; heseech Him only for forgiveness; express your sense of humility, helplessness and guilt only hefore Him. Hnmility and prostration is a tribute which man should pay only to God. The unfortunate one, who pays this tribute of humility and prostration to other human beings who are as helpless and humhle before God as he himself, becomes insolvent and is left with nothing to pay as tribute to God. Such a man is condemned to disgrace and ignominy. He goes to everybody in search of honour and respect hut he gots none.

God affirms :

و ربك الغفور دُوالرحمة لو يُواخِدُهم بِمَا كَسُوا

لَـعَجُلَ لَهُمُ الْعَدَابَ بَلْ لَهُمْ مُوعِدٌ لَنْ يَجِدُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ

مَوْثِلًا. والكهف ١٥٨

Wa rabbukal ghafüru dhurrahmah lau yudkhidhu-hum bimd kasabu la'ajjala lahumul adhüba bal-lahum mau'idun lan yajidu min dunihi mau'ila. (18:58)

"Thy Lord is the Forgiver, Full of Mercy. If He took them to task now for what they earn, He would hasten on the doom for them; but there is an appointed term from which they will find no escape."

The Quran' affirms:

وَهُوَ الَّذِي يَغْبُلُ النَّوْبَةَ مَنْ عَبَّادِهُ وَ يَعْفُواْ مَنِ السِّيثَاتِ

وَ يَعْلَمُ مَا تَنْفَعْلُونَ . «الشورى ٢٥»

Wa-huwalladhi yaqbaluttabata 'an ibadihi waya'fü anissayyi-äti wa ya'alamu ma taf'alün. (42:25)

"And He it is Who accepts the repentance from His bondmen, and pardoneth the evil deeds and knoweth what ye do."

In fact, one must himself be convinced that there is only one way to salvation and whoever is denied that approach, is condemned to ignominy and destitution for ever. The hefitting attitude of mind in a heliever is that whatever the degree of his offence he should only offer penitence to God and shed tears of shame only hefore Him. There is none except Allah Who only has the authority to grant pardon. So much so even if someone tries to propitiate the Prophet excluding Allah. he will he deprived of favour hefore Allah, and will he discarded outright. The Prophet of Allah is also a slave of God soliciting His favoure and mercy. The Prophet has been appointd to the exalted office by virtue of his eurpassing humility among the creatures of God and he makes greater penances to God in comparison with others.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed :

"O people! Seek forgiveness of God for your ains and return to Him. Look at me. I offer prayers to God for salvation hundreds of times in a day."

(Muslim)

Concerning the hypocrites, God affirms :

Yahlifuna lakum litardau 'anhum fa in tardau 'anhum fainnallaha lā yardā 'anil qaumil fāsiqin. (9:96)

"They swear unto yon, that ye may accept them, Though ye accept them. Allah verily accepteth not wrongdoing folk." The terrible episode of Hadrat Ka'ab b. Malik (God be pleased with him) as related in the Holy Qur'an gives us a lesson that man should auffer hardships and endure all trials, hut he should never think of abandoning submission to God. The trials that come in the way of lasm and the maximum pain and suffering he has to bear in the way of Allah are means to purify and illumine the life of man and to elevate his rank. This humiliation is the sure means of securing eternal prestige and he who shandons snhmission to Allab and seeks dignity elsewhere shall find it nowhere. Such a man will meet with disgrace everywhere and no eye on earth or in the sky shall regard him with respect.

Wa 'alathhalāthatil-ladhina khullifü hatta idhā dāgat 'alathimul ardu bimā rahubat wa dāgat 'alathim anfusuhum wa zannu an la malja' minallahi illa ilath. Thumma tāba'alathim liyutübu Innallaha huwattawwaburrahim. (9:118)

"And to the three also (did he turn in mercy) who were left hehind, when the earth, vast as it is was straitened for them and their own souls were straitened for them till they bethought them that there is no refuge from Allah save towards Him. Then turned He unto them in mercy that they (too) might turn (repentant unto Him). Lo | Allah ! He is the Relenting, the Marcifal".

The three referred to shove are Hadrat Ka'ab b. Malik, Hadrat Murarah ibn Rahi' and Hadrat Hilal h. Umayya (God be pleased with them). The example of their penitence serves as a beacon light for the helievers as long as the world exists. Hedrat Ka'ab b. Malik (God be pleased with him) who had lost his eyesight in old age and need to walk with the help of his son, had himself related the instructive episode of his remplay penitence to his son which has been preserved in the Books of Tradition.

When the preparations were heing made for the battle of Tahnk and the Holy Prophet (peace and hieseings of Allah be upon him) used to call upon the people to join the war I regularly attended all his meetings. Whenever I heard him speak, I made a resolve that I would join the war. However, on returning home I relapsed into laxiness. I thought there was plenty of time yet and I had all the provisions of the journey. Moreover, I was in good bealth and could afford the best mount. There was nothing that could delay me in joining the battle. In this mood, I continued to postpone my departure until all holy warriors had reached the field of battle and I lingered on in Medinah entrapped in indecision and lethargy.

Soon the reports began to pour in that the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) was returning and one day I heard that he had arrived in Medinah and was staying as usual in the mosque. So I went to the mosque. On arrival I found that the hypocrites were trying to convince the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) of the genuineness of their excuses on oaths. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) heard their insincere specches and indicated his acceptance of their lame excuses by observing 'Moy God forgive you'.

When my turn came, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) enquired: 'Say, what prevented you from coming ?' I saw that his smile had a trace of annoyance, so I spoke the truth. "O Messenger of God (peace and blessings of Allah he upon you)! As it happened I had no excuse. I was healthy and prosperous and possessed the mount. It was my lethergy and negligence which deprived me of this privilege".

On hearing me speak the truth, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him) observed: "Well, then, go and wait the verdiot from Allah". I got up and went among the people of my tribe. The people of my tribe railed at me and said: "Why did you not offer some plausihle excuse. You have always heen in the forefront in the service of Islam". However, when I found that two other friends of mine had also told the truth, I felt at ease and determined to hold firmly to the truth.

Afterwards, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) issued a general proclamation that no oneshould speak to us. As soon as this proclamation was issued forth, the attitudes in Medinah auddenly changed for me. I became a helpless stranger among my own kith and kin. No one in the society exchanged greetings or entered into a conversation with me. One day, I feit extremely depressed and went to a childhood friend and cousin Ahu Qatada (God be pleased with him). I offered him salam, but he did not reciprocate. I, then, said: "Abu Qatada! I ask you in the name of God, tell me, am I wanting in love for God and His Messenger (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him)" Qatada (God he pleased with him) remained silent. I repeated my question, but he made no answer. When I asked him in the name of God for the third time. he said : "God and His Messenger (peace and hlessings of Allah be noon him) know hetter". My heart overflowed with a surge of emotion and I harst into tears and returned-home with the burden of my grief enhanced. It was during those days thet a Syrian treder in the hazar delivered to me a letter from the monarch of Ghassan.' The Christien monarch had written: "It has come to our knowledge that your chief is subjecting you to extreme repression. You are not e lowly person. We know the worth of a man like yon. Come to ns. We shall treat you as hefits your status and renk". As soon as I read the letter, my tongue nttered: "Here, is another calamity that has hefallen me". And I threw the letter into the hearth.

Forty days had passed in this state when a courier of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) delivered his command that I should separate from my wife also. I enquired: "Shall I divorce her"! The answer came: "No, just live separately from her". I despatched my wife to the home of her parents and told her: "Now, wait for the verdict from God".

On the fiftieth day after dawn prayers, I was sitting on the roof of my honse highly dejected, stricken with extreme grief and considering life as no longer bearable. when suddenly someone shonted to me: 'Ka'ah | Congratulations'. On hearing this, I understood that the honr of my deliverance had come and fell in prostration to my God. Later people rushed towards me. They came in crowds end congratulated me. I rose and went straight to the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Alleh he upon him). I saw his august face glowing with heppiness. When I moved forward and greeted him, the Prophet (peace and blessings of Alleh be upon him) ohserved : 'K'a'ah ! Congratulations ! This is the happiest dey of your life". I submitted : "Prophet of God (peace and blessings of Allah he npon you), is this clemency a favour from you or from God ?" The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "This is a favour from God" and then recited the verses of Surah Taubah (9).

5. Do not delay in offering repentance. Nobody knows when his life will end, and the next moment will hring death to him or his life shall continue. Always remember your fast approaching end and continue to cleanse the impurity of sins from your heart and sonl and mind and speech.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"God extende His mercy during the night so that the person who committed a sin during the day should return to Him in the night. God extends His mercy during the day so that the person who has committed a sin during the night may return to his Lord in the day time and seek. His forgiveness until the sun rises from the cast". (Muslim)

The expression 'God extends His mercy, means that God beckons His sinful elaves towards Himself and desires to over their sins with His blessings. If the person has committed a ein under the pressure of a temporary impulse, he should immediately turn towards his Kind and All-Forgiving God sud should lose no time, for sin begets sin. The Satan conetantly lies in ambush for the human being and never misses an opportunity to lead man estray.

 Offer repentance with such true and deep sincerity of heart that the entire course of your life is altered and after repentance you may appear an entirely different man,

God decrees :

På ayyuhalladhina ämanü tübü ilallahi taubatan nasihä asä rabbubum an yukaffra 'ankum sayyiditkum wayudkhilakum jannätin lajri min tahihal anhäru yauma lä yukhzillähun nabiyya walladhin ämanü ma' ahü. (66:3)

"O ye who helieve! Turn unto Allah in sincere repentance! It may be that your Lord will remit from you your ovil deeds and hring you into Gardone underneath which rivers flow on the day when Allah will not ahase the Prophet and those who believe with him."

In other words, offer such sincere and true repentance that not a trace of any temptation to return to the sin remains in your heart or mind. Such a repentance has three or four ingredients. If the sin relates to a transgression of God's right, recentance should have three elements:

- (1) Man should be sincerely ashamed of his sins.
- (2) Man should firmly resolve to avoid sin in future.
  - (3) And man should put his heart and soul in the task of reforming and embelishing his life.
- If a man has committed a sin which involves the violation of a human right, repentance should consist of a fourth element also:
  - (4) Man should restore the right of another human heing or seek forgiveness of the person whose right he has violated.

This is the repentance which really cleanaes the man of all his sins. His soul is cleared of sins and adorned with plons deeds, is presented before Allah and is awarded a dwelling place in His Paradise. upon him) observed:

The Holy Prophet (neace and blessings of Allah be "When man commits a sin, his heart is stained with a dark spot. Now if he—

- * renounces the sin ;
  - * is ashamed of his ain and seeks salvation;
  - * and turns to God with a firm determination to avoid sin in future;

God illumines his heart. But if he again commits sin, the dark spot is enlarged until it covers the whole of his heart. This is the rust about which God affirms in His Book:

Kalla bal rana 'ala qulubihim ma kanu yaksibun.

"Nay, but that which they have earned is rust upon their hearts." (83:14)

7. Take a firm resolve to remain true to your repentance and be vigilant day and night that the commitments you have made before God are duly fulfilled. Test the firmness of your resolve by constant efforts to purify and reform yourself. If, despite all your efforts to guard against evil, you alip and commit an offence, do not lose hope even then. On the contrary seek refuge in the Mercy of God and offer fervent prayers to him: 'O Creator! I am weak and infirm. Do not hanish me in disgrace from Your threshold. For, I can seek asylum nowhere except in Your Mercy".

Repentance of a wrong-doer invites the pleasure of God. Tanbah (Repentance) literally means 'return, to turn to'. When thoughts and emotions go astray and one gets entrapped in the quicksand of sin, his connexion with God is severed and he is so far removed from God as if he is lost to God. And when such a man returns and turns to God in utter chame for his sins, it is ac if a lost slave has come back to his master. This situation has been graphically described by the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) in the following eloquent allegory:

"If one of you loses his camel in a waterless desert with all his provisione of food and water laden on the lost camel—and having vainly searched for the camel in all directions of the desert he despairs of hie life and lies down under a tree awaiting death and in this state he suddenly beholds his camel laden with all the provisione etanding by his eide, imagine then his happiness [— the happiness of your Lord and Creator fer surpassee the happiness of this men when His lost slave returns and having gone actray resumes allegiance to Him". (Tirmidhi)

On another occasion, the Holy Prophet (peace and

On another occasion, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him) elnoidated the same fact by means of another impressive allegory:

Some prisoners of war were hrought before the Holy Prophet. The group included a woman who had lost her infant. The maternal instinct so overpowered the woman that she found no peace or rest nnless she picked up and breastfed any haby she found near her. On seeing the woman in such state the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allsh he upon him) enquired from the Companions (shad be pleased with them): Can you imagine that shift woman will fling her baby into fire with her own hands!" The Companione snhmitted: "O Messenger of God (peace and blessings of Allah be npon you)! Leaving spart the matter of throwing the child herself, she would stake her life to eave the child if it were falling by itself". The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) thereupon otherwed:

- "God is hy far even more Compassionate and Kind to His slaves than this woman is considerate towards her child".
- 8. Offer repentances to and seek forgiveness of the Lord continuously. There are countless offences which a man commits from morning till evening; sometimes man is not even conscious of these transgressions. Do not imagine that repentance is called for only when a capital sin has been committed; man needs to repent and pray for his salvation at all times, because he is liable to make a slip at every step. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) himself used to repent and pray for his salvation seventy or even hundred times in a day. (Bukhāri, Muslim)
- 9. Do not look down upon a sinner who repents and reforms his life. Hadrat 'Imran h. al-Haseen (God ha pleased with him) has reported an incident of the time of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him): "A woman of the tribe of Juhainsh presented herself hefors the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him). She had become prognant as a result of an unlawful relation. She submitted: "O Messenger of God (peace and blessings of Allah he upon you) I I deserve punishment for adultery. Enforce the Shariah in my case and punish me". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) sent for the guardian of this woman and observed to him: "Treat this woman well and when she has delivered the child, hring her to me". When the woman returned after the delivery of her child, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) commanded that her garments should he tied fast around her hody (so that the garments may not slip off during stoning and her physical well may not be torn off) and when this had been done, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) urdered that she should be stoned to death. The order was carried ont. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) later offered funeral prayers for her. Hadrat 'Umar (God be pleased with him) submitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be apon bim): "O Messenger of Allah (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon you)! This woman committed the offence of adultery and yon are saying funeral prayers for her". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) thereupon observed: "She repeated and offered repentance of sneb magnitude that if it were portioned among seventy men of Medinah; it would secure their salvation. Did yon see any one better than the one who presented the gift of life to God" ?

10. Say the 'finest prayer' to God. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed to Hadrat Shaddad ibn Aus (God be (pleased with him) 'This is the

اللَّهُمْ اَنْتَ رَبِيْ لاَ اللهَ الاَّ اَنْتَ خَلَفْتَنِيْ وَ اَنَّا عَبْدُكَ وَ اَنَّا عَبْدُكَ وَ اَنَّا عَبْدُكَ وَ اَنَّا عَلْمُ مِنْ وَ اَنَّا عَلْمُ عَلَى اللهِ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ اللهُ

Etiquettes of Prayer

 Pray to God only. Do not call upon any one else except God to fulfil your needs. Prayer is the essence of worship and worship should be rendered to God alone.

The Holy Qur'an affirms :

Lahu da'awatul haqqi walladhtna yad'ina min dünihi lä yastojibuna lahum bishai-in illä kabü'ätii kaffaihi ialmäi liyablugha fa'hu wamähuwa bibäliphiht wa mä du' äul käfirina illa fi daläl. (13:14)

"Unto Him is the real prayer. Those unto whom they pray beside Allah respond to them not at all, save as (is the response to) one who stretches forth his hand, towards water (asking) that it may come to his mouth and it will never reach it. The prayer of disbeliever goeth (far) astray."

In other words all powers to fulfil prayers and to dispose of things lie in the hands of God. All powers vest in Him and no power lies with any one else. All are dependent upon Him. There is none except Him Who hears the petitions of human beings and fulfils their prayers.

Yā ayyuhannās antumulfuqarāu ilallāhi wallāhu huwal ghaniyyul kamtd. (35:15)

"O mankind! Ye are the poor in your relation to Allah, And Allah! He is the Absolute, the Owner of Praise".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed;

"God affirms, 'My creatures! I have declared tyramy unlawful for Me. So you should also consider acts of oppression and excess on each other as forbidden. My slaves! Each of you is misguided, except the one whom I guide on the right path. So seek guidance from Ms alone, so that I may guide you aright. My people! Each of you is hungry, except the one whom I feed. Hence call upon Me for sustenance, so that I may provide for your livelihood. My servants! Each of you is naked, except the one whom I have blessed with garments. So entreat Me to confer dress on you and I shall provide you clothing. My worshippers! You commit sins in the night as well as in the day and I shall forgive all sins."! (Schild Muslim)

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) also observed: "Man should call upon God alone to provide for all his needs, so much so that even if a shoe-lace is broken, man should pray to God to provide a shoe-lace, and if he needs salt, he should beseech God to send it to him".

(Tirmidhi)

The implication is that man ought to turn to God for the fulfilment of his most insignificant and ordinary needs. None except God can hear the prayers and none except Him can fulfil wants;

2. Ask God for only that which is lawful and good. To beseech God's help for the execution of unlawful purposes and sinful acts is the height of impertinence, immodesty and irreverence. To pray to God for the fulfilment of unlawful and forhidden desires and to make vows for such desires is to perpetrate the basest joke on religion. Similarly, do not offer prayers to God to change those realities which He has determined once for all and which are now unalterable. For example, a short man should not pray to God to make him tall, nor should a tall man pray to God to make him short: nor indeed should a man pray to God for eternal youth so that he may never experience old age etc. etc.

The Holy Qur'an affirms :

Wa aqimu wujuhakum 'inda kulli masjidin wad'ühu mukhlistna lahuddin. (7:29)

"And set your faces upright (towards Him) at every place of worship, and call upon Him, making religion pure for Him (only)".

He, who would present his needs before God, should not take to the path of infidelity and pray for the fulfilment of unlawful desires, but should display good character and virtuous passions and beseech God for the fulfilment of lawful wants.

Say prayer with profound aincerity and a righteous disposition and with the conviction that God Whom you beseech is perfectly aware of your condition and is Most Considerate towards you; it is He alone Who hears the petitions of His servants and fulfils their prayers. Always offer a pure prayer namixed with all taint of exhibition, display, deception or polytheism.

The Holy Qur'an affirms:

Fad'ullāha mukhlisina lahuddīn. (40 : 14)

"Call ye, then Allah devoting your obedience wholly to Him".

And Surah Baqarah bears the command :

دالبقره ١٨٦،

Wa idhā saa'laka 'ibādi 'anni fainni qaribun ujibu da'awataddā'i idhā da'āni falyastajlbūli walyo'minūbi la'allahum yarshudūn. (2 : 186).

"And when My servants question thee concerning Me, then surely I am nigh. I answer the prayer of the suppliant when he crieth unto Me. So let them hear My call and let them trust in Me, in order that they may be led aright".

1. Offer prayer with perfect concentration and devotion of mind and heart and with a positive conviction of God's favour. Instead of gazing at the snormity of your sins, look towards the unlimited mercy, kindness and the countless bounties and blessings of God. The prayer of an inattentive man whose thoughts are not concentrated on God and who is only mumbling a few words half-heartedly at a whim without anticipating the favour of God is vain.

The Tradition relates:

"Offer payer with the firm conviction of God's favour. God does not accept a prayer sent forth by an inattentive heart". (Tirmidhi)

5. Say prayer in utmost humility with a we and fear of God. Your heart should be astir with the awasome majesty, grandeur and power of God and fear of God should be obvious from your physical poature. Your head should he bent and eyes downcast. Your voice should be muffled, limbs limp, eyes damp with tears and the whole dameanour should present a picture of helpless misery before God. The Holy Prophet (peace and hleasings of Allah he upon him) on heholding a man stroking his beard during worship, observed: "Had he the fear of God in his heart, his body too would have been overcome hy it".

In point of fact while preying a man should tramble with the realisation of his destitution and helpless misary and with the fear that if he were repulsed from the threshold of God, he would not find refuge anywhere. He should have deep awareness of the fact that he possesses nothing of his own; everything he has is a bounty from God; if God withholds, no other power in the world can hestow anything on him. God is the Master of everything; He alone holds the treasure of everything; man is only a miserable beggar.

The Holy Qur'an commands:

ره ره ره د ره . ادعوا ربکم تضرعا .

Ud'ü rabbakum tadarru'an.

"Cell your Lord with humility".

The dignity of worship consists in the servant calling upon his Creator in desperate humility and in a lowly manner so that his heart and intellect, emotions and feelings and all parts of his body should be bent in homage to Him and the servant's sonl and body should bear evidence to his destitution and plea for help.

 Say prayer in a muted, faint voice. Do present your petition hefore God in a desperate manner, but never display your desperation and misery openly. Man should display his himility, lowliness and the ples of misery only before God.

There is no doubt that sometimes you may say prayers in a loud voice, hut only in privacy, or amid a congregation so that the others may say 'Amin'. Generally, however, you should say prayer quietly in muffled tones and take full care that your expression of misery and destitution and your supplication is not just a show intended for other people.

Wadhkur rabbaka fi nafsika tadarru'an wakhtfatan wa dunal jahri minal qauli bilghuduwwi walāsāli wa la takun ma'al ghafilin. (7:205)

"And do thou (O Muhammad) remember thy Lord within thyself humbly and with awe below thy breath at morn and evening. And be thou not of the neglectful".

The Holy Qur'an praises the beauty of the worship offered by Hadrat Zakaria (poace be npon him) in these words:

ldh nāda rabbahu nidaan khafiyya. (19:3)

"When he cried unto his Lord a cry in secret".

7. You should execute some pious deed before saying a prayer. For instance, make some sacrifice, give alms, feed the hungry one or offer supererogatory worship or observe a fast. In case, God forbid, you land in some trouble, offer prayer to God reminding Him of all these pions deeds which you have performed with true sincerity of heart for His sake only.

The Holy Qur'an says:

الَّيهِ يَصْعَدُ ۚ الْكُلُّمُ الطَّيِّبُ وَالْعَمَلُ الصَّالِيحُ بَـرْفَعَـُهُ رالفاطر: ١٠)

Ilaihi yas'adul kalimuttayyibu wal 'amalussälihu (35 : 10) yarfau'hu

"Pure utterances ascend towards Him only and pious deeds propel them to higher altitudes".

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) once related the incident of three men who were entrapped in a cave during a very dark night. They prayed to God reminding Him of their truly sincere deeds and God rescued them from the calamity.

It so happened that during a dark night a group of three men took refuge in a cave. As God Willed, a rock slided down the hill and falling over the mouth of the cave closed the passage completely. It was a massive rock and was too heavy for them to push saide and clear the passage. On consultation among themselves, they resolved to pray to God reminding Him of their truly sincere deeds in anticipation of His Favour to rescue them from this calamity. In accordance with this resolution, one of them related his pious deed as follows:

I used to take goats for grazing in the forest and earned my living by means of this occupation. On re-urning from the forest I used to offer milk first to my old parents and, then to my children. One day, I arrived late. My old parents had gone to sleep. The children were awake and hungry. But I could not bear to feed the children before my parents had taken the milk, nor did I wish to put them to inconvenience hy waking them up. So I stood all night at the head of their heds holding the cup of milk in my hand. The children clung to my feet and aried for milk all the night, but I remained unmoved and stood there until night gave way to morning.

"O God! I performed this deed for Your sake only. Remove this rook from the mouth of the cave in recompense for my deed". And God caused the rook to move aside just so much as to let in a view of the sky.

The second man spoke thus: I put some lahourers to work and paid wages to all of them except one man who went away without receiving payment for his labour. A short while later when the man returned to claim his wage I said to him: "All these cows, goats and servants are yours. Take them where you will". He said: "For God's sake, don't cut joke with me". I answered: "This is not a joke. All this is yours. I invested the money which you had left behind in business. By the Grace of God, the business thrived. All this which you see is the profit derived from that business. Take it with an easy mind. All this belongs to you. And that man went away taking everything with him. Oh God ! I soted in this way to earn Your Goodwill slone. Oh God l Remove this rock in recompense of my deed". By the gracious will of God the rock moved further away from the mouth of the cave.

The third one narrated the following account of his pious deed: I had a cousin sister for whom I conceived an extraordinary liking. She asked for some money which I supplied. But when I sat close to her to satisfy my need, she said: "Fear God and refrain from this act". I rose at once and I pronounced that sum as a gift to her. Oh God I You know perfectly well that I did his to win your favour only. Oh God! Open the month of the cave as a reward for this pious deed". God removed the rock from the passage of the cave and liberated the three men from this calamity.

8. Alongwith offering prayers for the fulfilment nf pious purposes, try to reform and adorn your life in conformity with the Ordinances of God. Avoid all sins and forhidden things. Respect and observe the Commands of God in all matters and lead a pious life. It is the height of folly and insolence to eat and drink forhidden things, clothe yourself out of unlawful gains and fatten your hody on illioit earnings and then anticipate scoptance of, your prayer. If you wish your prayer may he accepted, ynur words and action both should conform to the tenets of religion.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) observed :

"God is Pure and He accepts only pure goods. God has enjoined upon the pious the same deeds as He had upon the Messengers. God affirms:

Ya ayyuharrusulu kulü minattayyibati wa'malü saliha.

"O Messengers ! Partake of lawful provisions and perform good acts".

Addressing the pious, God enjoins :

Yā ayyuhalladhina āmanü kulü min tayyibāti ma razaqnākum.

"O ye who helievel Partake of those lewful and pure things which We have hestowed on you".

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) then referred to the case of a man who travels a long distence and arrives at a secred spot to pey homage; he is covered all over with dust; he raises hoth hends towards the aky and says: 'My Lord', 'O My Lord', yet because he partakes of unlawful food and drinks end dresses out of forhidden gains and fattens his body on illicit earnings, how can the prayer of anch a contumecious and disobedient person be accepted? (Sabih Muslim)

9. Offer prayers regularly. The expression of one's hamility, destitution and sense of loyalty to God is in itself a worship. God Himself has commanded His servants to offer prayer to Him. God has said: "Whenever the servant calls Me I listen to him". Do not get tired of offering prayer. Do not he tied down by the donht whether prayer would change your destiny or not. The obstinacy or flexibility of fate or the acceptance or rejection of prayer depends on the Will of God Who is All-Knowing and All-Wise. All the same, it is the duty_of the slave to offer preyer to Him like a beggar and destitute person and not to consider himself independent of Him for a single moment.

The Holy Prophet (pesce and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed :

"The humhlest person is the one who is humhle in prayer". (Tabrani)

In addition to that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) affirmed : "God considers nothing as nohler and as more honourable than prayer".

(Tirmidhi)

The most luminous trait of the believer is that in distress or eese, pain or pleasure, poverty or prosperity, adversity or luxury-under all corts of condition he turns to God only and presents his needs to Him alone and prays to Him regularly for grace.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed :

"The person who does not pray to God invokes wrath of God". (Tirmidhi)

10. Put complete feith in God as to the ecceptance of your prayer. Never commit the blunder of renouncing prayer in desperation if quick results of the acceptance of your prayer are not forthcoming. Concentrate on offering prayer instead of feeling anxious about the acceptance of your prayer.

Hadrat 'Umer (God be pleased with him) observed :

"I am not concerned about the acceptance of my prayer. I am only anxious to pray. When the fevour of offering e prayer has been granted to me, the acceptance will also be granted".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed :

"When a Muslim turns towards God to ask for some favour, God inevitably supplies his want. Either his wish is grented or God adds the thing desired to the balence of reward which the Muslim will receive in the eternal world. On the Day of Judgement, God shall summon a pious men to His Presence and enquire from him face to face : "O My slave ! I commended you to prey and promised that I shall grant your prayer. Did you then offer prayer ?" The man will submit : "Yes. I offered prayer". God will then observe: "I granted whatever prayer you offered. Did you not pray to Mo on that day for the alleviation of sorrow and pain which had seized you and I had sneconred you". The slave will submit: "True, O Creator". God then will observe: "I granted that prayer and fulfilled that desire of yours in the mortal world. But on that other day you were struck by another calamity and you prayed to Me for succour, but you found none and, therefore, continued to labour under pain and sorrow". The slave will submit: "Yes, it is true beyond doubt, My Creator". Thereupon God will observe: "In Paradise many bounties have I reserved for you in reward for that prayar,"——and in the same manner God shall ascertain other needs and make a similar observation in regard to all of them".

Afterwards, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"There shall not be a single prayer offered by a plous person concerning which God will not state. "I granted this prayer of yours in the world and I added that desire of yours to the balance of your reward in eternity". The plous person will ponder then: "Would that none of my prayers bad been granted in the mortal world! Hence the servant should continue to pray under all conditions".

(Hakim)

 Observe all external etiquettes, purity and cleanliness at the time of prayer. Keep your beart clear of all evil nazions, illicit designe and absurd beliefs.

The Holy Qur'an affirms :

Innallāha yuhibbuttawwābina wa yuhibbul mutatahhirin.

"Truly, they are the favourites of God who repent most and those others who keep themselves pure and clean".

In Sursh Muddaththir, God enjoins :-

Wa rabbaka fakabbir wa thiyabaka fatahhir.

"Thy Lord magnify and thy raiment purify".

12. Offer prayer for others also, but begin with yourself. Seek favour for yourself first and then for others too. The Holy Qur'an reproduces two prayers offered by Hadrat Ibrahim and Hadrat Noah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon them) which bear the above moral:

Rabb-ij'alni muqim-as-salāti wa min dhu-r-riyyati rabbana wa taqabbal du'a Rabbanaghfir li-wali wālidayya wa lilmo'minina yauma yaqūm-ul-hisāb (14 : 40-41)

"My Lord 1 Make me to establish proper worship and some of my posterily (also) our Lordi and accept the prayer. Our Lord! Forgive me and my parents and believers on the day when the account is cast".

Rabbighfir li wali-walidayya wa liman dakhala baitiya mo'minan wa lilmo'minina wal-mo'minat,

(71:28)

"My Lord! Forgive me and my parents and him who entereth my house believing, and helieving men and helieving women and increase not the wrong doers in angth save rain".

Hadrat Uhayi h. Ka'h (God be pleased with him) reports: "Whenever the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) happened to mention some person, he (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) used to offer a prayer for that person and commenced the prayer hy saking God's favour for himself first".

(Tirmidhi)

- 3. If you are acting as leader in the prayer, you should always offer prayer on behalf of the whole congregation using plural parts of speech. The prayers which have been reproduced in the Holy Qur'an generally contain plural parts of speech. The leader in fact is the spokesman for the whole congregation. When he utters a prayer using plurals, the congregation should utter 'Amin' at the end of each prayer offered by them.
- Avoid prejudice and selfishness in prayer. Do not fall into the error of considering the vast and common hlessing of God as limited and thus praying for the grant of His Grace and Bonnty to you especially.

Hadrat Ahu Hursira (God he pleased with him) relates: "A heduin entered the meaque of the Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him) and said his prayers and then said: "O God: Grant your favour to me and to Muhammad (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him), and to none else hesides us." On hearing this, the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed:

لَـقَـدُ تَحُجُّرُتَ وَاسعًا

Laqad tahajjarta wāsi'an

"Yon have narrowed the wast limits of God's blessings." (Bukhari)

15. Avoid formal and conscions rhyming in prayer. Utter your prayer in a simple manner with profound sincerity. Abstain from singing or rhyming. However, it does not matter if hy chance your tongue does ntter a rhymed speech or an alliteration. A few such prayers as have an informal rhyme and perfect halance in stress are rsported to have heen nttered by the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). For instance, Hadrat Zaid b. Arqam has reported a very comprehensive prayer offered by the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him):

Allahumma innt a'udhū' bika min qalbin la-yakheha'u wa nafsin lätashba'u wa 'ilmin lä-yanfa'u wa da'watin lä-vuutajabu lahä. (Tirmidhi)

"God I seek thy refinge from the heart which is devoid of thy fear, from the heing that lacks contentment, from the knowledge that is unprofitable and from the prayer which is unacceptable."

16. Offer praise and thanksgiving to the Lord hefore putting your needs and requirements before Him. Afterwards, say two Rakahs of supplementary prayer and say 'peace and blessings be on the Holy Prophst' at the beginning and end of your prayer.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed :

"At times when a person seeks the favour of God or the assistance of man in connection with some need or requirement, the needy person should perform ablation, my two Rakahe of prayer, offer praise and thanksgiving to the Lord and say 'peace and blessings of Allah be on the Holy Prophet'. (Afterwards, he should put his need hefore God)". (Tirmidhi) The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) affirmed the fact that the prayer of a man which is accompanied by praise and thanksgiving to the Lord and by the invocation of God's peace and blessings on the person of the Holy Prophet ie granted the honour of fulfilment, Hadrat Fadala (God be pleased with him) narrates: "The Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah he upon him) was scated in the mosque when a man entered. performed the worship and at the end uttered. اللهم اغتراني Allahummaghfirls (God grent me pardon). On hearing this, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said to the man : "You were rather quick in offering the prayer. When the worship is over, you should first of all render praise and thanksgiving to the Lord, invoke peace and hiesings upon the Prophet and finally say your prayer. As the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) was speaking to the person, another man came in offered worship and at the end, rendered praise to God and invoked His peace and blessings upon the Holy Prophet. The Holy Prophet, thereupon, observed to him : "Now say your prayer", it shall be granted."

(Tirmidhi)

17. Offer prayer to God at all times and at every step, for He is never tired of bearing the prayers of His slaves. However, traditions reveal to ue that there are certain special times and circumstances in which prayers are accepted very soon

Hence, do not miss the opportunity of offering prayer at these hours and circumstances:

(1) In the stillness of the latter part of night when most people are enjoying sweet slamber, the man whogets up and engages in communion with God and places his needs before the Lord in sincere hamility shall be hiessed with special favour of God.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be noon him) has observed:

"God holds court on the sky of the world every night. When the latter part of the night remsins God observes, "Who calls Me ! I will accept his prayer. Who begs ! I will finfil his need. Who asks for salvation ! I will grant him salvation." (Tiemidhi)

(2) Offer the maximum number of prayers in the night of Shab Qadr, for in auspicionsness this night is hetter than a thousand months. Say the following prayer especially:

Allahumma innaka 'afuwwun tuhibb-ul-'afwa fa'fu

"God: Thon art All-Forgiving. Thon likest showing Mercy the best. Hence Forgive me".

- (3) In the field of 'Arafat when the 'guests of God' assemble there on the 6th Dhii-Hajj. (Tirmidhi)
- (4) At a particular moment on Friday which falls between the commencement of the sermon and end of the worship or from the time when the 'Asr prayer is over till the hour of the Maghrih worship.

(5) At the honr of the announcement of the Prayer-Call and at the time when the Holy warriors are being lined up for hattle in the field.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) has observed:

"Two things are never repulsed from the Conrt of God. One, the prayer offered at the hour of the announcement of Prayer-Call. Second, the prayer nttered at the time of lining np for hatte in the field".

(Abu Dāwād)

(6) In the interval between the announcement of the Prayer-Call and the Takhir.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be non him) cheeved:

"The prayer offered in the interval between the Adhan (Prayer-Call) and the Aqāmah is never rejected". The illustrious companions (God be pleased with them) shmitted: O, Prophet of Allah, what should we pray during this period. The Holy Prophet observed: Say this prayer.

Allahumma inni as'alukal'afwa wal-'afiyata fid dunya wal.Akhirah.

"God! I implore of Thee forgiveness, kindness and protection in this world and in eternity".

- (7) During the auspicions days of Ramadan and specially at the time of hreaking fast. (Bazaz)
- (8) After the performance of obligatory prayers whether you offer prayer individually or in a congregation.
- (9) In the state of prostration.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) has observed :

"In the state of prostration, the slave gains the nearest proximity to his Lord. Hence offer the optimum prayer while you are lying in prostration before God". (10) When you are reized by a serious calamity or the

- (Hakam) deepest sorrow and pain.
- (11) When a religious assemblage takes place for the purpose of remembrance and worship of God. (Bukhāri, Muslim)
- (12) When a reading of the Holy Qur'an is completed. (Tabrani)
- 18. Offer prayers at the following places, especially. On the eve of his departure from Mecca to Basra, Hadrat Hasan Basri (God be merciful to him) wrote a letter to the recidents of Mesca stating the importance of putting up in Mexca and the favours thereof and also clearly mentioned that prayers offered at the following fifteen places in Mecca are especially accepted by God :
  - (1) Near the Multazam
- (2) Below the Mizab
  - (4) Near the fount of Zam (3) Inside the Ka'bah Zam
  - (6) Near Safa and Marwa (5) At Safa and Marwa at the place where 'Sa'i' is performed
    - (7) At the rear of the 'Place
- (8) In 'Arafat
  - of Ibrahim'
    - (10) In Mina
  - (9) In Muzdalifa (Hisne Hassin) (11) Near the three Jamarat
  - 19. Make constant efforts to memorize the same words of prayer to God as are contained in the Holy Qur'an and the Traditions of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him). It is clear that no better words of prayer and no better manner of offering prayer can be found than that which God taught to His Prophets (peace and blessings of Allah be upon them) and to His pious slaves (may God be pleased with them). Besides there is no speech which can possibly snrpass the word taught by God and adopted by His Messengers in effect, sweetness. comprehensiveness, grace and acceptability! repetition of the prayers taught by the Holy Qur'an and the Traditions and a thoughtful consideration of their meanings trains and educates one'e mind as to what wishes and prayers should a pious person entertain. What deeds are worthy of his striving and what goals should he set for There is no doubt that prayer transcends all himself". narriers of language, etyle or diction. Man is free to beg anything from God in any language or style. It is, however, a supplementary Blessing of God that He has revealed to us what to ask for and in what manner ? By prescribing words of prayer. Moreover, God taught the pious what attitude to adopt for achieving grace ln religion and in secular matters and what wishes and aspirations should a pious man entertain in his heart. There is no religious or secular need as well as there is no aspect of grace, for which a prayer has not been prescribed. It is more propitious, therefore, that you should pray to Gold in those words which are contained in the Holy Qur'an and the Traditions and you should repeat only those prayers which are incorporated in the Qur'an or those which were uttered at various times by the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) himself.

However, nntil such time as you commit to memory the words of the prayers contained in the Holy Qur'an and the Traditions, you ought at least to reproduce their sense in your prayers.

We reproduce in the following pages some comprehensive prayers from the Holy Qur'an as well as from the Traditions of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him). You should learn these prayers by heart gradually and then repeat only these prayers afterwards.

our evil deeds and make us die the death of the righteous.
Our Lord! And give us that which Thou hast promised to us by Thy messengers. Confound us not upon the Day of Resurrection. Lo! Thou breakest not the trust.

Some Prayers of the Holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.)

The Muhaddithin (Reporters of Traditions) have worked hard and devoted whole of their lives in collecting and compiling the books of Traditions, the prayers which the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to offer during journeys and in camp. Alongwith the prayere incorporated in the Holy Qur'an, you should also utter these prayers of the Holy Prophet (peace and hieseings of Allah be upon him). These prayers are not only comprehensive, impreesive and propitious, but also teach the correct thinking to the heliever as well as the desires and amhltlons he should cherish. In fact, a man'e real nature is reflected in his desires, especially moments when he is satisfied that no other human being is present and that his murmur can only be heard by his Creator. Each word of the prayers offered by the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) in the darkness of the night, in privacy, in the midst and ontside the company of the people, is characterised by profound sincerity, devotion and eagernees and one feels that the ntterer of such prayers is the most exalted person who is parfectly aware of hie etatne as the servant of God and he constantly hege from hie Lord as a needy person. Moreover, his eagernese and devotion ie constantly increasing in depth and intensity as he continues to offer prayers to God. The essence of all his prayere is se follows: "God! Draw me closer! Spare me from Thy wrath! Bestow upon me Thy favour I Give me success and grace in Eternity.

Prayers to be offered in the Morning and Evening :

Hadrat 'Uthman b. 'Affan (God he pleased with him) narrates: 'The Holy Prophet (peace and bleasings of Allah he upron him) observed: No harm can come to a man from anything who utters the following prayer morning and ovening':

Bismilla kil ladki lä yadurru ma'asmiki shas'un filardi wa lä fis-samëi wa huwas-sami'ul 'alim.

(Musnad Ahmad).

In the name of God hy virtue of Whose name naught in the heaven nor earth doth hurt and He is the Hearer the Knower.

Hadrat 'Abdullah b. 'Umar (God be pleased with him) reports: "The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) used to offer the following prayer in the morning and evening regularly without respite":

Allahumma innī as'alukal-'āfiyata fid-dunyā wal-āakh- ...

irata, Allahumma inni as'alukal-'afwa wal-'afyata ft dini wa dunydyi wa ahti wa mžii. Allahummastur 'aurdii wa Zamin rau'dii. Allahummahfazni min badii yadayya wa min khalfi wa 'an yamini wa 'an shimali wa min fauqi wa 'addhu bi 'azmatika an ughtila min tahti. (Tirmidhi)

O God! Behold, I beg of Thee peace in this world and the hereafter. O God! Behold, I beg of Thee forgiveness and asfety in my faith, in my world, in mine household and in my wealth. O God! cover my defects, and give me peace from mine apprehension. O God! protect me from my front and from my rear, from my right and from my left also from above me; and I seek refuge in Thee leat I be surprised from beneath me!

Prayer against Lethergy and Cowardice :

Hadrat Anas b. Malik (God be pleased with him) states:
"I used to remain in attendance on the Holy Prophet (pasce and blessings of Allah be upon him) and I used to hear him offer this prayer very often":

Allahumma innt 'aüdhu bika min al-hammi wa-l-huzni wal-'ajzi wal-kasali wal-bukhli wal-jubni wa dala'iddaini wa ghalabatir-rijali. (Bukhāri, Muslim)

O God I Behold, I seek rofuge in Thee from anxiety and grief, from inability and sloth, from faint heartedness, and nigardliness, from the burden of indehtedness and the domination of men. Prayer for the Attainment of Piety and Purity :

Allahumma innī as'alukal-hudā wat-tuga wal-'afāfa wal-ghinā.

O God! Behold I beg of Thee, guidance, piety, purity and contentment.

This is the most comprehensive prayer. In these four words the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Afiah be upon him) has asked for everything that a believer needs.

Prayer for Protection against degradation in this world

Allahumma ahsin 'aqibatanā fil-umuri kulliha wa ajirnā min khizyid-dunyā wa 'adhāb-il-aakhirah. (Tabrani)

"God! End all our activities in grace and protect us from the torment of degradation in this world and in the Hereafter"

Prayer to be offered after Worship :

Hadrat Mu'adh (God be pleased with him) states that one day the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) took my hand and observed: "O Mu'adh! I love thee', and then proceeded to affirm: "O Mu'adh!! I advise you that you should never miss uttering the following words after each prayer:

Allahumma a'inni 'ala dhikrika wa shukrika wa husni ibadatika.

O Lord help me in remembering Thee, in expressing grati

O Lord help me in remembering Thee, in expressing gratitude to Thee and in worshipping Thee in the best manner. Will of the Holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.):

Hadrat Shaddad b. Ans (God be pleased with him) states:
"The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) advised me: Shaddad! when you see the worldly people busy n amassing gold and silver, you should gather the blissful treasure by uttering the following words off and on":

اللهُمَّ أَنِي أَسْنَالُكَ النَّبَاتَ فِي الْآمِرْ وَالْمَوْمِيْتَ عَلَى الرَّشْدِ ، وَاسْنَالُكَ شُكْر نِمْطَكَ وَحُشْنَ هَادَتُكَ وَاسْنَالُكَ وَاسْنَالُكَ وَاسْنَالُكَ مَنْ صَوْمًا تَعْلُمُ وَأَسْفَالُكَ مِنْ صَوْمًا تَعْلُمُ وَأَسْفَعْفُرُكَ مِنْ صَوْمًا تَعْلُمُ وَأَسْفَعْفُرُكَ لَمَا تَعْلُمُ النَّهُ اللهُ وَالْمَالُونُ فَيْ صَوْمًا تَعْلُمُ النَّهُ فَاللهُ وَالنَّهُ فَلْكَ لَلهُ المَعْلِي اللهُ ال

(Musnad Ahmad)

O God! Behold, I beg of Thee steadfastness in keeping (Thy) command and firmness of resolution in (pursuing) the right course. I beg of Thee (the feeling of) thankfulness for Thy grace and (ability for) adoring Thee best. I beg of Thee a sound heart and a truthful tongue. I heg of Thee the good of that which Thee Knowest, and I seek refuge in Thee from the evil which Thee Knowest I seek Thy forgiveness for all of my wrongs thou knowest. No doubt Thou knowest all that is unknown to us.

Prayer for Forgiveness and the Favour of Allah

Hadrat Abu Huraira (God be pleased with him) states that the Holy Prophet (pease and hlessings of Allah be upon him) while hequeathing a will to Hadrat Salman Farsi (God be pleased with him), had observed: "I wish to bequeath a few words to you. Beseech the Most Kind in these words. Rush towards the Most Kind and offer prayer to Him in these words day and night:

Allahumma inni as'aluka sihhatan fi imanin wa imanan fi husni khulqin wa najahan yatba,uhü falahun wa rahmatan minka wa 'afiyatan wa maghiratan minka wa ridwāna. (Tabrani, Hakam)

O God! Behold! I beg of Thee vigour and health in my faith, and effect of faith in my dealings and hehaviour and success leading to peace and mercy from Thee; and also security, forgiveness and Thy pleasure.

Prayer for Purification from Sins :

Hadrat Umm Salama (God be pleased with her) narrates: "The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to offer the following prayer:

اللهُمْ أَنَّ قَلْي مِنَ الْخَطَابِ كَمَانَقُيتَ الشُّوبَ

الْأُسِيْضَ مِنَ الدُّنسِ ٱللَّهِمَ بَعْدُ بَيْنِي وَبَسِنَ خَطِيْعَيْ كَمَا

بَعَدْتَ بَيْنَ الْمُشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ . (معجم كبير)

Allahumma naqqi qalbi mina-l-khatāyā kama naqqaitaththaubal-abyada min-ad danas. Allahumma ba'id baini wa baina khati'ati kamā ba'adta bain-al-nashriqi wal-maghrib. (Moajam Kabir).

G God! clean my heart from sins, just as you clean white cloth of dirt. O God! cause as great a distance between me and my faults, as there is between East and West.

Prayer for the Attainment of Respect among the People :

Allahummaj'alni sabüran waj'alni shaküran waj'alni fi 'aini saghiran wa fi a'yuninndsi kabira,

G Allah! make me patient and thankful to Thee, and make me small in my own eyes, but great in other peoples eyes.

A comprehensive Prayer :

Hadrat 'Āisha (God be pleased with her) states: ''It so happened once that when the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) came to see me I was engaged in offering worship. The Holy Prophet (peace and hiessings of Allah he upon him) needed me immediately hnt I was delayed, wherewoon the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: 'Aisha, you should utter brief and comprehensive prayers. When I came to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) I submitted: "O Messenger of Allah! (peace and blessings of Allab be npon you)! Teach me a brief and comprehensive prayer". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allab be upon him) observed: "You should utter the following prayer:

اللهُمَّ أَنَّى اسْسَالُكَ مِنَ الْخَيْرِ كُلِّهِ عَاجِلَهِ وَاجِلَهِ مَا عَلَمْتُ مَنْهُ وَمَا الْمُ اعْلَمُ وَاعْدُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الشَّرِ كُلَهُ عَاجِلَهِ وَاجِلَهِ مَا عَلَمْتُ مُنَّهُ وَمَالُمُ اقْعَمْ وَاسْأَلُكَ الْجَنَّةُ وَمَالُمُ اقْامُ وَاسْأَلُكُ مَنَّ النَّارِ وَمَا قَرَبُ النَّالِ الْجَنَّةُ وَمَا قَرَبُ النَّالِ الْجَنَّةُ وَمَا وَاعْدُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ النَّالِ بَهُ وَمَا قَرَبُ النَّهِ مَا تَمَوَّذُ مَنْهُ مَحَمَّدٌ وَمَا قَضَيتَ لَى مَنْ قَوْلُ وَعَمَلُ وَاسْالُكَ بَهُ مُحَمَّدٌ وَاعْدُوذُ بِكَ مَنَا تَمَوَّذُ مَنْهُ مُحَمَّدٌ وَمَا قَضَيتَ لَى مَنْ قَضَاءً فَاجْعَلُ عَاقَبَتَهُ وَشَدًا . (حاكم) ((Hakam).

O Allahi I sak of Thee all the good which is in the present or in the future, and I sak of Thee paradice, and the works and deeds, which would take me nearer to the same, and I seek refuge in Thee from Fire and the works and deeds which would take me nearer to the same. And I sak of Thee that which was sought by Muhammad, and I seek refuge in Thee from that regarding which Muhammad sought Thy Protection, and that the end of all Thy decrees above me should be good.

Prayer for Holding Firm to Islam :

Allahummahfazni bil-islämi qä'iman wahfazni bilislämi qä'idan wahfazni bil-islämi räqidan wa lä tushmit bi'ndusman häsidä

O Allahi maintain my faith in Islam, while I am standing or while I am sitting or while I am lying and let not the enemy, the envious pass sarcastic remarks ahout me.

Prayer of a New Convert to Islam :

Hadrat Abu Malik Ashja'i (God he pleased with him) reports: "My father narrated that whenever a person embraced the religion of Islam, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah ba upon him) used to teach him Salāt and also the following prayer":

اللهُ مَ اغْفِرْ لَيْ ، وَادْحَمْدِيْ وَاهْدِ لِيْ ، وَعَسَافِينِيْ وَاهْدِ لِيْ ، وَعَسَافِينِيْ وَاهْدِ لِيْ

Allahummaghfir li warhamni, wahdini, wa 'afini warzuqni.

O Allah! forgive me, have mercy on me, guide me, grant me peace and give me sustenance.

Prayer for the Avoidance of Dissension and Immorality :

اَلْهُمْ اِنْيَ آَمُسُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ مُنْكَرَاتِ الْآَصُلَاقِ وَالْآَمَسَالِ وَالْآَمَسَالِ وَالْآَمَرَا وَالْآَمْوَاءِ اَللَّهُمْ اِنْيَ آَمُودُ بِكَ مِنَ الشَّقَـاقِ وَالنِّفَـاقِ وَسُوءً الْآَصُلَاقِ .

Allahumma innt a'üdhu bika min munkarāt: il-akhlāgi wal-a'amali wal-ahwa'i. Allahumma innt a'üdhu bika min-ash-shiqāgi wan-nifāgi wan sü-il-akhlāq.

O Allah! I seek refuge in Thee from evil morals, deeds and desires. O Allah! Behold, I seek refuge in Thee from schism, hypocricy and evil merals.

Darūd and Salām

Invecation of Peace and Blessings on the Holy Prophet (p. b. n. h.)

Invoke peace and blessings of Allah upon your venerable benefactor Hadrat Muhammad (peace and hiessings of Allah he upon him). Trnly, we can make no recompense for his countless favours and limitless love and affection. What we can do, however, is to invoke the peace and hlessings of Allah on him with the deepest sense of reverence, love, devotion and loyalty to his person We should pray to God, "Creator! Your Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) had to suffer terrible torments in his task of communicating your message to us. He (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) took great pains to guide us on the path of rightconsness. Creator ! We can make no return for this favour. We implore You, O Creator I to shower Your boundless benefactions upon the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), to exalt him in Your favour; to protect his religion from the onslaught of falsehood; to extend his religion and to bestow upon him a higher rank than all other favourite companions of Yours in the eternal world." The Holy Qur'an enjoins upon the Muslims :

Innallaha wamalāikatahu yussalluna alannabiyyi yā ayyu

halladhina āmanū sallū 'alaihi wa sallimū taslīma. (33 : 56)

Lo! Allah and his angels, shower blessings on the Prophet O ye who believa! Ask blessings on him and salute him with a worthy salutation."

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he npon him observed to Hardat Ubayi b. Ka'b (God be pleased with him):

"Ohayi! If you devnte all your time to invoking peace ablessings of Allah upon the Prophet, God shall take it upon Himself to provide for your sustenance in this world and in aternity." (Musnad Ahmad)

Hadrat Anas h. Malik (Gnd be pleased with him) narrates that the Holy Prophet (peace and bleasings of Allah be apon hlm) observed:

"A person who invokes peace and blessings of Allah on me is recompensed by Allah in the following manner:

"Allah showers blessings on him ten times. Allah adds ten virtues and erases ten vices from his record of deeds. And Allah elevates his rank by ten grades." (Nasa'i)

In additing to this, the Huly Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah ha npon him) affirmed;

"The angels continue to invoke the blessings of God upon a man as long as he devotes himself to invoking peace and blessing of Allah upon me."

(Ahmad and Ibn Majah)

The Holy Prophet (peacs and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed;

"The man who hears my name mentioned yet fails to invoke the peace and blessings of Allah on me is a miser."

(Tirmidh) The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) declared the person most deserving of the honour of his companionship and attendance in the life hereafter who invokes the peace and blessings of Allah on him the most.

The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) observed:

"The person who invokes peace and hlessings of Allah on me the most, will be the best deserving my companionship and attendance on the Day of Judgement". (Tirmidhi)

There is a slight variation in the wordings of the texts of the invocation of peace and hlessings of Allah which the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) taught to the illustrious companions (God be pleased with them) on various occasions. You may nse any of these texts. The text which is generally recited in worship and which has been declared as the most propitious one by Hadrat 'Abdullab b. 'Abbas (God be pleased with bim) is as follows:

(صحاح سته، مسند احمد)

Allahumma salli 'alä Muhammadin wa'all aali Muhammadin kamä sallaita 'all Ibrahima va 'alä aali Ibrahima innaka Hamidam Majid. Allahumma barik 'ala Muhammadin wa'all aali Muhammadin kama bärakta 'alä Ibrahima wa 'alä äli Ibrahima innaka Hamidun Majid. (Sihäh Sitta, Muanad Ahmad). O Allahi Shower Thy mercy upon Muhammad and the followers of Muhammad, as thou didst shower Thy mercy upon Abraham and the followers of Abraham! Behold Thou art Praiseworthy, Glorional O Allahi shower Thy hiessing upon Muhammad and the followers of Muhammad, as Thou didst shower Thy blessings upon Abraham & the followers of Abraham Behold, Thou art Praiseworthy, Glorious.

Hadrat 'Abdullah h. Mas'ud (God be pleased with him) observed to the people: "You should invoke peace and hleeeings of Allah on the Holy Prophet in a proper manner. Who knows this invocation may be presented before the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him)?" The people requested him to teach the proper invocation to them.
Thereupon he observed: "You should recite the invocation thus.

اَلَهُمَّ اجْعَلْ صَلُّونَكَ وَرْحَمَنَكَ وَبَسَرَكَانَكَ عَسليٰ سَيْدُ الْسُرْسُلُمِنَ وَاصَامِ الْمُتَعْمِينَ وَ خَمَاتُمُ النَّبْيِينَ مُحَمَّدُ عَبْدِكَ وَرَسُولُكَ اسَامِ الْخَيْرِ وَقَالِدِ الْخَيْرِ وَرَسُول الرَّحْمَةُ ، ٱللَّهُمُّ ابْعَثُهُ مَقَامًا يَغْبِطُهُ بِهِ ٱلْأَوْلُونَ ۞ ٱللَّهِمْ صَلُّ عَلَى عَمْدُ وَعَلَى ال مُعَمَّد كَمَّا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى آسِرَاهِمِيمَ وَعَلَىٰ ال ابْسَرَاهُمْ اللَّهُ حَدِيدٌ عَبِيدُ ٥ ٱللَّهُمْ بَارِكُ عَلَىٰ مُحَمَّدُ وَعَلَىٰ الْ تَحَمَّدُ كَمَّا بَاوَكُتَ عَلَى ابْرَاهُمْ وَعَلَىٰ أَلُ ابْرَاهِيمَ اللَّهَ حَمَيْدٌ عَبِيدٌ . Allahumma salli 'ala Muhammadin va 'alā aati Muhammadin kamā sallaita 'ala Ibrahima va 'alā aati Ibrahima innaka Hamidun Majid. Allahumma bārik 'alā Muhammadin kamā barakta 'alā Ibrahima wa 'alā aati Muhammadin kamā barakta 'alā Ibrahima wa 'alā aati Ibrahima innaka Hamidun Majid. (Ibn-e-Majah).

God! Shower Your favour, blessing and benefactions upon the lord of Prophets, leader of the pious and the ecal of Prophets, Muhammad who is Your servant, Your Messenger, a model of Good, a guide to peace and a Messenger, of Blessings. God! slevate him to an exalted position which may be the envy of bis predecessors. God! Show Your blessings to Muhammad and the progeny of Muhammad as You blessed Abraham and the progeny of Abraham. Truly, You possess the purest attributes and are Great. God! Show Your favour to Muhammad and the progeny of Muhammad as Yon showered favour on Abraham and the progeny of Abraham. Truly, you possess the purest attributes and are Great." (Ihn Majah)

Hadrat Ahu Mas'üd Ansāri (God he pleased with him) narrates: "Once Bashir b. Sa'd (God he pleased with him) suhmitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him): In what manner should we invoke peace and blessings of Allah on yon? The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) remained silent for a while and then observed: Say these words:

اللهم صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّد وَعَلَى اللهُمَّ مَسَلَّ عَلَيْ

صلىٰ ال أبرَاهِ عَلَى اللهِ عَلَى اللهُ تَعَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى

O Allahl shower Thy mercy upon Muhammad and the followers of Muhammad as Thou didts shower Thy mercy upon the followers of Abrahaml Behold! Thou art Praiseworthy, Glorious. O Allahl shower Thy blessings upon Muhammad and the followers of Muhammad, as Thou didts shower Thy blessings upon Abraham in the worlds. Behold Thou art Praiseworthy, Glorious.

The Supplication of Sacrifice

Lsy down the snimal parallel with the direction of the Qihla and utter the following prayer first:

اَنَى وَجَهُتَ وَجَهِيَ للَّذَى فَطَر السَّمُونَ وَالْاَرْضَ حَنَيْفًا وَمَا اَنَا مَنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ، انَّ صَلَوْنَى وَنُسُكَى وَعَنْبَاىَ وَمَمَانَى للهُ رَبِ الْمُلْمَسِيْنَ لا شَسَرُيكَ كَ وَبَدًا لكَ أَمْرُتُ وَاَنَّا مِنْ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ اللَّهُمُ لَلكَ وَمَلْكَ.

Inni wajjahtu wajhiya lil·ladhi fatar-as-samawati walarda hanifan wa ma ana min-al-muhrikim. Inna salati wa nusuki wa mahyaya wa mamati lillahi rabbili-alamin. La sharika lahu wa bidhalika omirtu wa ana min-al-muslimin. Allahumma laka wa minka.

Behold I have turned my face earnestly towards Him Who originated the heavens and the earth and I am not of polytheists. Behold, my salat, mine offering, my living and mine dying are all for God, Lord of the worlds. No partners hath He, concerning this I have heen bidden and I am of the Muslims O God! (I offer this) to you and You gave it to me.

بسم الله الله أكبر After reciting this prayer, Say

'Bismillahi Allahu akbar'. (In the Name of Allah Who is Great) and out the throat of the animal with a sharp-edged knife. Having performed the slaughter, read this prayer: اللَّهُمْ تَفَيَّلُهُ مِنِي كَما تَقَبَلْتَ مِنْ خَلْلِكَ الْبراهِمْ وَحْبِيْكَ كُبَّ عَلَيْهِما الصَّلَوةُ والسَّلام .

Allahumma taqabbalhu minni kamā taqabballa min khalllika Ibrahīma wa habībika Muhammadin 'alaihimassalātu was-salām.

"God! Accept this sacrifice offered by me as Thou accepted the sacrifice offered by Thy friend Abraham and that offered by Thy loved one Mubammad. May peace and blessings descend upon both".

Although it is permissible to let someone else perform the slaughter of your sacrificial animal, yet is is better if you perform this act with your own hands. While you perform the slaughter, try to think and feel in the same way as you express through the words you utter at the time of sacrificing the animal i. all that we have got belongs to Allah and it is all to be spent in His. way only. The act of sacrificing the animal in His name is in submission to His will and if ever required we shall readily sacrifice even our own life in the way of Allah and shall be grateful to Him that He oonferred upon us the honour of martyrdom by affording us an opportunity to shed our blood in His name.

I. If the animal is jointly shared by several partners, say

Aqiqa Prayer

'Aqiqa' refers to the goat or ram which is sacrificed on behalf of a new-born child on the seventh day after his birth.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him) observed:

"On the seventh day a name should be prescribed for the child. Its hair and all fifth should be removed and sacrifice should be performed on his behaif".

اللهُمَّ لهٰ اللهُ عَلَيْهُ ..... تَقَبَّلُهُ كَمَا تَقَبَّلُهُ مِن حَبِيْلِكَ تُحَدَّ وَخَلِلْكَ ابْراهِمْ طَنْهِماَ الصَّلُوةُ وَالسَّلَامُ دَمُهَا بِنَدْمِهُ لَحْمُهَا يِلْحَيِه شَعْرُهَا بِشَعْرِه عَظْمُهَا بِعَظْمِهِ .

 The people who possess means must offer sacrifice on behalf of their children. 'Aqiqah is a desirable sacrifice. Two lambs or goats on hehalf of the male child and a single goat or lamh on behalf of the female. It is permissible also to sacrifice a single goat on behalf af a boy. However, for those who lack means, it is certainly improper to perform the sacrifice by begging lame.

Noncooked 'Aqiqah meat may be distributed. It is preferable, however, to send cooked meat to the beggars, the poor and your neighbours. On the eve of the 'Aqiqah of Hadrat Hasan (God be pleased with him), the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) instructed: "Send one chopped leg of the animal to the mid wife and eat the rest yourself and feed others". (Ahd Dāwid)

Insert the name of the child whose Aqiqah is being performed after the words.

The Taravih Prayer

The word 'Taravih' is the plural form of 'Tarviha'.

The word 'Taravih' is the period of rest and relaxation at the end of every four Rakaha fi prayer. It is in this context that this supplementary prayer of the month of Ramadan is called 'Taravih'. Tarviha, i. e. to pause and relax at the end of every four Rakaha of prayer, is a Sannah.

The following prayer should be recited during 'Tarviha':

سَبْحَانَ ذى الْمُلْكِ وَالْمَلْكُوْتِ. سُبْحَانَ ذى الْمَزَّةِ وَالْعَلَمُوتِ. سُبْحَانَ ذى الْمَزَّةِ وَالْعَظَمَةِ وَالْهَبَرُوتِ. وَالْجَبَرُوتِ. سُبْعَانَ الْمَلْكِ الْمَعَيْ اللَّذَىٰ لاَ يَنَامُ وَلاَ يَسُوثُ. سُبْعَ مُدُوسٌ، وَبُنَا وَرَبُ الْمُلَاكَمَة وَالرُّوحِ. سُبُوحُ مُدُوسٌ، وَبُنَا وَرَبُ الْمُلَاكَمَة وَالرُّوحِ. الْمُلَاكَمة وَالرُّوحِ. الْمُلَاكَمة وَالرُّوحِ. الْمُلَاكَمة وَالرُّوحِ. الْمُلَاكَمة وَالرُّوحِ. الْمُلَاكِمة وَالرُّوحِ. الْمُلَاكِمة وَالرُّوحِ.

Subhana dhil-mulki wal-malakit. Subhana dhilizzati wal-'azmati wal-haibati wal-qudrati wal-kibriya'i wal-jabarit. Subhan-al-malik-l-hayyi-ladhi la yanàmu wa la yamitu, subbuhun quddusun rabbuna wa rabb-ul-mala'ikati war-rish. Allahumma ajirna minan-ari va mufiru ya mujiru ya mujiru ya mujir

"Pure is the Ruler and the Sovereign. Pure is the Exalted and the Supreme, the Awesome and the Powerful and the Great Wielder of Antharity. Pure is the Immortal Sovereign Who neither sleeps, nor will ever die. Purest i and free from all hlemishes is our Sustainer Who is the Provider of angels and of Gabriel.

God! Grant us asylum from the Fire of Hell. O Protector, O Protector'.

Offer the 'Taravih' prayer in congregation and if possible listen to the recitation of the full text of the Holy Qur'an during 'Namaz'. Offer 'Taravih' hehind a 'Hafiz' (the one who has memorised the full text of the Holy Quran) who recites the Qur'an with full reverence, devotion and eagerness in moderate pace and with proper pauses and correct accents so that the listeners do not get tired and the Qur'an may he recited so clearly as to make every word of it audible and distinct. It is a great injustice with the Holy Qur'an to read it rapidly without understanding as if you are trying to get rid of a burden. The Book of Allah deserves to he read with a will, devotion and concentration pondering over its meaning and implications and trying to grasp its real sense and spirit.

Similarly the 'Taravih' prayer must he offered with case and concentration showing no haste and hurry. To perform Rukū and Prostration in rapid succession without knowing what is being uttered amounts to sheer disregard of the objectives of prayer and missing the relish of real taste and enjoyment of worship.

Qunut-i-Nazila

Whenever, God forbid, the Muslims are faced with a critical situation and the menace and terror of the enemy has overcome them, they should recite Quunti-Nazila during prayers, especially in the course of the dawn prayer. After the second Rakah of the morning prayers, recite the following prayers in the standing posture hefore performing the prostration. Traditions reveal that this prayer was recited during worship by the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and his illustrious companions (God be pleased with them) at critical times, they offered this prayer especially during morning worship:

اللَّهُمَ اهْدِنَا فَيْمَنُّ هَـدَيْتَ وَعَافَنَا فَيْمَنُّ صَافَيْتَ وَتُولِّنَا فِيمَرُ تُسَوِّلُتُ وَبَارِكُ لَنَا فَيْمَا آعْظَيْتَ وَقَنَا شَرَّ مَا تَضَيْتَ فَانَّكَ تَغْضَى وَلَا يُعْضَى حَلْيكَ . أَنَّهُ لَا يِللُّ مَنْ وَالَّيْتَ وَلا يَعْزُ مَنْ عَادَيْتَ لَبَارَكُنَّ رَبُّنَا وَتَعَالَمْتَ نَسَتْغَفُرُكَ وَنَتُوبُ الَّيْكَ ٥ اللَّهُمُّ عَذَب الْكَفَرَةَ الَّذِينَ أَوْلَيَاءكَ . وَاللَّهُمُّ اغْفُر للمُؤْمِنينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتَ وَالْمُسْلَمِينَ

Prayer for the Fulfilment of a need

Whenever any need, big or small, arises, you should stand before God and offer two Rakahs of superoragatory prayer, (Salta 1-Hājat). Afterwards, offer thanksgiving and praise to God and invoke peace and blessings upon the Holy Prophet. Then utter the following prayer. There is every hope that God will not reject your prayer. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"When someone seeks fulfilment of a need from God or man, he should first carefully perform ablution, say two Rakabs of superoragatory prayer and then offer thanksgiving and praise to the Lord; afterwards, he should invoke peace and blessings of God on the Holy Prophet; and finally utter this prayer to God:

لَا الْهَ اللهُ اللهُ الْسَحَدِيمُ السَّحَدِيمُ سُبْحَسَانَ اللهُ رَبَّ الْمَالَمِينَ اللهَ رَبَّ الْمَالَمِينَ السَّالَكَ السَّالَكَ اللهَ مَنْ مَنْ مَنْ الْمَالَمِينَ السَّالَكَ مُوْجِبَاتُ وَحَمَّتَكَ وَعَزَائِم مَنْ مَنْ مَنْ رَبِّ الْمَالَمِينَ السَّالَكَ كُلُ بِرَ وَالسَّلَامَةَ مِنْ كُلِ اللهُ لَا تَدَعَ لَى ذَنْهَا اللَّ فَقَرْتَهُ وَلَا حَاجَةً هِي لَكَ رَضًا اللَّ فَقَيْبَهَا وَلَا حَاجَةً هِي لَكَ رَضًا اللَّ فَقَيْبَهَا بَا الرَّحَمُ الرَّامِهِينَ اللهِ اللهُ الل

There is no deity save God the Clement the Bountiful. Glory be to God, Lord of the Magnificent Throne! Praise be to God, Lord of the Worlds! I beg of Thee the means of (obtaining) Thy mercy and seouring Thy pardon; participation in every righteousness and protection from every sin. Leave no sin of mine unforgiven no anxiety unrelieved and let no need of mine unfulfilled wherewith Thou art pleased O Thou the Most Mercful of Those who show mercy !

Prayer for Memorizing Qur'an

To learn the Holy Qur'an hy heart end to memorize its text for ever you should offer the prayer which wes taught to Hadrat 'Ali (God be pleased with him) by the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be npon him).

Hadrat 'Ahdullah h. 'Abbas (God he pleased with him) reports: "Once we were sitting in the company of the Holy Prophet (peece and blessings of Alleb he upon him) when 'Ali (God be pleased with him) arrived and complained about bis memory: O Messenger of God (peace and blessings of Allah he upon you!) My mind does not retein the verses of the Qu'ran. I cannot remember what I have learnt previously". The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"O Abul Hassan! Let me teach you a preyer which will be of benefit to you and to those whom you will teach this prayer and having learnt this prayer whatever you commit to memory shall be reteined end you shall always remember it". Hedrat 'Ali (God be pleased with him) submitted: "O Messenger of God (peace and blessings of Allsh be upon you)! Do teach me this prayer". Whereupon the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allsh he upon him) observed concerning this prayer: "Say this prayer on Friday night and offer it on three, five nr seven Thursdey nights in succession. By the Will of God, this prayer will prove efficience. I swear hy His Name Who has entrusted me with the Religion of Truth, this prayer hy the believers never goes unanswered".

Continuing his narretinn, Hadrat 'Ahdullah h. 'Ahbas

(God he pleased with him) says: "Five or seven Thursday nights had passed when Hadrat' Ah (God be pleased with him) came to the company of the Holy Prophet (peace and hleasings of Allah be upon him) and suhmitted: "O Messenger of God (peace and blessings of Allah be upon you)! Before this whenever I memorised four verses, my memory failed me when I tried to reproduce them. Now, however, the position is that I memorise forty verses and when I wish to reproduce them, it appears as if the Book of God is lying open before me. Similarly, I used to hear a tradition and later failed to reproduce is hut now I hear acceral traditions and retain them so well that I hardly miss a single word while reproducing those traditions".

On hearing this, the Holy Prophet Muhammad (peace and bleeeinge of Allah be upon him) observed: "I swear by the Lord of Ka'bah that Abul Hassan is a true believer", Giving detailed instructions about this prayer, the Holy Prophet (peace and bleasings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Say this prayer on Friday night. When the sons of my brother Ya'quh requested him to pray for their redemption, Ya'qub replied ; "Yee, I shall offer a prayer for your redemption shortly". Ya'qub meant that he would pray for their redemption on the next Friday night. So 'Ali! Rise at the honr of 'Tahajjud' on Friday night, for this is the most propitious time for the fulfilment of prayer; one's soul is eager at this time and the heart is fully devoted to God. If perchance you are unable to rise in the later part of the night, get up at midnight. If you can't wake up at midnight, then offer four Rakabs of supererogatory prayer in the first watch of the night in the following order: In the First Rakah, recite Surah Fatiha and after this Surah Yaseen; in the second Rakah. recite Surah Fatiha and Surah Ad-Dukhan,2 in the third Rakah, read Surah Fatiha with Surah Alif Lam Mim Sajdah;3 and in the fourth Raksh, recite Surah Mulk4 after Surah

Fatiha. Afterwards, having recited 'Attahiyyāt' and offered Salam on both sides, offer thanks to God and prair, tim. Invoke God's peace and blessings upon the Holy Prophet and all other Messengers in a proper manner. Implore Him to grant redemption to all the believing men and believing women and offer prayer for the salvation of those brethren who preceded you in faith. And finally say this prayer:

اللهم ارْحَمْنِي بِتَرْكِ الْمَعَامِي ٱبْسِدُ امَّا ابْقَيْتَنِي وَارْحَمْنِي أَنْ ٱتَكَلَّفَ مَا لَا يَعْنِنِي وَارْزُفْنِي حُسَّ الْـنْظَر فِيْمَا يُرْضِيْكَ عَنَى . ٱللَّهُمَّ بَدِيعُ السَّدُوتُ وَٱلْأَرْضِ ذًا الْمُجَالَال وَالْاكْمَرَام وَالْمُعَزَّةِ الَّـنِّي لاَ نُسُرامُ ٱسْأَلُكَ بَا اللهُ بَا رَحْمُنُ بَجَلاً لكَ وَنُورٍ وَجْهِكَ آنَ تُلْمِزُمَ قَلْنُ حَفْظَ كُتَابِكَ كَمَا عَلَّمْتَنَىٰ وَارْ زُفْنَي أَنْ أَتَلُوهُ عَلَى النَّحُو الَّـٰذَى بُرْضِيكَ عَنى . أَلُلُّهُمْ بديعٌ السَّمُوت وَالْأَرْضَ ذَا الْـجَـالَال وَالْا كُـرَام وَالْعَـزُّمِ الَّــَىٰ لَا تُـرُامُ اَسْأَلُكَ بَا اللهُ بَا رَحْمُنُ بِجَلَالُكَ وَنُـوْرُ وَجَهِكَ آنِ نُسُورَ بِكَتَابِكَ بَصَرِى وَآنَ تُطَلَق بِهِ لَمَانَى وَآنَ تُضَرَّج به عَنْ قَلْبِی وَآنَ تَشْرَحَ به صَدْدِی وَآنَ تُشْلَ به بَدَیْ فَانَهُ لاَ یُمْیِنُی عَلَی الْحَقِّ غَیْرُكَ وَلا بُنُونِیهُ الْا اَنْتَ وَلاَحُولَ وَلاَ قُوَّةً الاِّ بِاللهِ الْعَلِيِّ الْعَظْمِ (التَّرَمَدَى)

O God! Originator of the heavens and the earth Lord of Majesty and glory and of Might is comprehensible! I beseach Thee O god, O beneficent Lord in the name of Thy Majesty and of the Light of Thy countenance to cause mine heart to retain Thy explaint as Thou hast taught to me. And grant that I may recite it in such manner as will cause Thee to be well pleased with me. O God. Originator of the heavens and the earth, Lord of Majesty and Bonnty and of Might Who is unchallengable, I heseech Thee O God. O Beneficent Lord! in the name of Thy Majesty and of the Light of Thy countenance, to illuminate my sight with Thy scripture, make my tongue fluent with its words to comfort mine heart therewith, to make me fully receptive to it and to wash my body clean with its hlessings. For indeed, None sideth me in (ettaining) the truth besides Thee and now giveth it nato me besides Thee. There is no strength nor power save in God, the Exalted, the Magnificent,

Prayer of gaining understanding of the Qur'an

The favourite worship of the pious is to recite the Holy Qur'an and to meditate and reflect upon its meaning. Love of Qur'an is proof of attachment to God as it is also a means to establish communion with God. The believer obtains spiritual bliss by contemplating and meditating on the meanings of the Qur'an and it is through this process only that he secures access to the founts of wisdom contained in the Qur'an.

The Holy Qur'an is ondoubtedly an easily comprehensible Book. As regards obtaining guidance from it and carrying out its injunctions, the teachings of the Holy Qur'an are very simple, clear and free of all ambignity or complexity of meaning. However, to grasp its inner meanings and significance and to derive wisdom from it, it is imperative that you should study the Qur'an after having fulfilled all the conditions and obligations for gaining comprehension if it; reflect upon its contents with sincere application and never adopt a careless and insteas attitude towards the Book, but stody it constantly for the rest of your life.

It is quite natural that at certain points during study, yen will come across a text upon which you will deliberate long and hard without arriving at any one interpretation which your mind will accept. You will then feel at a loss. But if you are a devoted student of the Qur'an, don't ever feel dejected or lose heart, nor should you entertain any impadent notion of levelling criticism men the Holy Book. And feeling hopeless, don't abandon the practice of deliberating and meditating upon the meanings of the Qur'an. On the contrary, you should turn towards God with full concentration and reposing complete trust in Him yon should seek His aid in the unravelling of this prohlem. Do not make an impudent bid to make a whimsical exposition of the Qur'an or to give it an interpretation which conforms to your ideas. Like a true seeker of Truth, stick to the meaning which the text of the Qur'an makes plain and pray to God in extreme hamility and with a sense of helplessness: 'O God! Eliminate my confusion; make the true meaning manifest to me and let my heart be content with that interpretation and meaning which is really true.' For this purpose, recite the Holy Qur'an rather loudly but distinctly with pauses in the course of supererogatory prayers at night. Offer the prayer reproduced holow. It is hoped from God that the prayer eproduced holow.

The Holy Prophet (Peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) observed: "Any person who offers this prayer while in a state of sorrow and distress, God shall allevists his suffering and hestow upon him felicity and rejoicings."

(Musnad Ahmed, Ibn-Hiban)

"God! I am Thy slave. I am the son of Thy hondman and the son of Thy bondmaid. My brow is in Thy grig I am under Thy command. Thy judgement in regard to me is just and fair. In the Name of all Attributes applicable to Thee and all Attributes which Thou hast reserved for Thyself, or those which Thou hast revealed in Thy Book, or have transmitted to one of Thy creatures or have kept them hidden in the tressury of the unseen with Thee in the Name of all these Attributes I Implore Thee to make the Holy Qur'an the joy of my heart, the light of my bosom, a paneces for my distress and a cure of my sorrows and perplexity".

The narrator of this Tradition Hadrat 'Abdullah ibn Mas'ud (God be pleased with him) states that the people anbmitted to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him): "Shall we learn this prayer"! Wherenpon the Holy Prophet (peace and hissings of Allah be npon him) observed: "Any one who hears this prayer, must learn it and memorise it".

The Friday Sermon

The Friday sermon is an extremely effective and disciplined means of avousing Islamic sentiments, keeping the Faith alive and carrying out the duty of remembering God constently and in an orderly manner. It is a ninque religious institution designed to remind the Muslims of their obligations each week in a perfectly natural way and to inculcate in them a sense of the requirements of religion and an impassioned spirit to serve Islam. But you can make an effective use of this institution only when you address the congregation in their vernequilar.

As regards the second sermon, it must be delivered in Arabic; however, the first sermon ought to be delivered in a speech which the audience can understand. It is proper for you to prepare a brief but comprehensive address on the requirements of religion in the context of current offsirs and try to develop the mind of the people and rouse them to action each week regularly and in a disciplined manner. If for some reason it is not possible for you to prepare an address yourself. you should at least read the Arabie text and deliver its meaning. ful translation in the vernscular of vonr audience. Among the Arabic texts, your hest choice is a sermon delivered by the Holy Prophet (peace and bleesings of Allah be upon him) or the illustrious compenions (God be pleased with them). Below are reproduced quotations from the anthentic speech of the Holv Prophet (peace and bleesinge of Allah he upon him). One of these is the historic sermon which he (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) delivered on the first Friday after his to Medina. The second address contains en eloquent call to the Muslims to acquire a deep sense of the Holv Qur'an and to deliberate and ponder over its meanings constantly for it is impossible to hold on to religiou without a firm attachment to the Holy Qur'an.

"Thanksgiving and Praise be to Allah. I pay Him gratitude. I invoke His aid. I beseech His Forgiveness and seek Guidance from Him; and I put my faith in Him; and I disbelieve Him nor and I consider him as my anemy who dishelieva Him. And I bear witness that there is no deity except Allah; He is Alone and has no partner; and I bear testimony that Muhammad is the servant of Allah and Hie Apostle, Allah sent him with guidance, light and exhortation and instituted him as His Messenger at a tima when the office of Prophethood had long remained dorment; the light of true knowledge had faded; avil was dominant; society was in a state of upheaval; doom was hanging overhead; and death was hovering over the head of each man. Henca he who believed in the Messenger and obeyed Allah and His Messenger was righteous. And he who defied the both went astray, trangressed limits and fell into shortsightedness and having lost the path of righteousness advanced far into wrong. -

I instruct you to fear God. The hest counsel that a Muslim can offer to another Muslim is that a Muslim should persuade the other to make provision for the life hereafter and urge him to fear God. Fear God a hath He ordained you to fear Him. Hence no exhortation is better than this, nor can there he a better reminder. The fact is that awe and fear of God is the real aid to secure a propitious destiny in tha eternal world for the man who passes his life in constant fear Mighty and the Ezalted afirms: "My word suffers no change and I never do the least injustice to any of My people". Hence fear God in all the pahlic and private affairs relating to this world or the life Hereafter. Verily Allah redeems the sins of a person who fears His wrath and He enhances the reward of such a person to the maximum degree. And he who constantly fears Him achieves the highest anceces; and behold, the fear of God saves man from His punishment, protects him from His wrath and behold the fear of God makes your faces radiant and lively jit pleases the Lord and elevates the man before God Almighty.

So, gather virtnes of your share and never fail, or lack in suhmission to His Commands, especially when He has tanght you what is right and what is swrong through His Book and has guided you to the right path. This is to differentiate the truthful from those who are liars. Behave well with the people, as Allah has treated you with kindness. Consider His enemies as your own, and strive hard in the way of Allah. He has chosen you and has designated you 'Muslim', so that one who is to perish should meet his doom with manifest reason and logic and one who is to live, should live with manifest reason and all power and anthority rests in Allah and Allah alone.

So, ever remember end mention Allah and mind your deeds and actions keeping in view the day to ogme; for the man who sets the matters botween him and the Almighty, Allah suffices him in all the matters between Him and the gankind hecause Allah desides the fate of the mankind and the mankind welds no authority over Him. God is the Master of every thing that men possess; men exercise no power on anything divine; He is Paramonnt and there rests no power hut with Allah?

"Verily, thanksgiving and praise are due to Allah alone. I offer Him gratitude and praise and heg His aid; and we seek asylum with Him against our missededs and wrongs committed by ns. Whomsoever He guideth (and He guideth only those who really look for His guidance) no one can lead him astray. Whomsoever He deflects from the right path (and He deflects only those who yearn not the guidance) no one can guide him aright.

I hear witness that there is no deity save Allah. He is Alone. He has no partner, Verily, the best word is the Book of God. Indeed, successful is he who adorne hie heart with the word of Allah and whom Allah has favoured with Islam and turned him away from pagamain and who preferred the word of Allah over all the human thinking and theories. Verily the word of Allah is the truth, most impressive and most effective. Love him who loves the word of Allah Develop real love and attachment with Allah with your heart and soul. Let not the recitation of the word of Allah and remembering Him bore you and let not your hearts be indifferent and adamant to the word of Allah. Worship Allah, alone; and attribute none as His partner or associate, fear Him ever to the extent He should be feared. Confirm your pious deeds by your words also i. e. ssy what is proper and becoming of you; and love each other for the cause of Allah and in total submission to Him. May Peace and Mercy of Allah he upon you !

The praise is due to Alish, the abundant praise, and benediction and peace be upon His Messenger whom Alish has eant as a witness, a warner and an inviter towards Alish with His mandate and as a radiant light and may peace and shundant peace be on his progeny, followers and Companions.

Theresfter, O mankind, I exhort you to fear God, for verily fear of Allah is supermost virtue and incumbent upon yon is the obedience. And verily he, who obeys Allah and His Messenger, schieves great success, Allah, the exalted, has declared in His Dignified Book (the Quran): Verily, Allah and His angels invoke benediction on the Apostle. so, O ye who helieve, invoke blessings on him and seek abundant peace for him.

Allahl Bestow on our Master and our Lord Muhammad and on his progeny, followers and his companions who obeyed him in adversity. Allah! Shower Thy perfect pleasure on those who excelled (to affirm faith) amongst the emigrants and the helpers, particularly on the unanimously edmitted the most excellent of mankind, next to the Prophets, the Amir of the believers, our master, Ahu Bakr the moet truthful (may Alleh he pleased with him) end on the Amir of the helievers, our master Umar Al-Farcoq (may Allah he pleased with him) and on the Amir of the helievers, our master, Usman h. Affan (may Alleh he pleased with him) and on the Amir of the helievers, our master, All (may Alleh glorify his face) and on his two noble sons, the masters of the youth of the inmetes of Paredise Hasen and Husain (may Allah be pleased with hoth of them) and on their mother, the leader of of the laddes of the peradise, Fatimatez-Zehra (may Allah he pleased with her) and on all the companions of the Holy Prophet and their successore (may Allah be pleased with all of them).

Allah I Grant success to those who nphold the way of life taught by the Deen of Muhammad (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) and make us amongst them; and humiliete those who humiliate the teachings of Muhammad (peace and hlessings of Allah he npon him) and make us not amongst them. O servants of Allah May Allah show mercy on you. Verily Allah, enjoins justice and kindness, and giving to kinafolk, and forhids indeeney, abomination and strangression. He exhorts you so that you always remember. Remember Alleh, He will remember you (in adversity) Pray unto Him, He will respond to you. Indeed, the remembrance of Allah is the most high, most excellent, most dignified most superior, most grand and the greatest.

The Nuptial Sermon

It is propitious to read a sermon at a wedding ceremony in order to explain the significence of 'Nikah' (narriage contract) in divine lew, and to hring home to the parties the requirements and heavy responsibilities imposed by this contract. With a view to derive the maximum benefit from the sermon, it is advisable for the preacher to translate the sermon and offer a hrief exegesis of the text in the vernacular so that the essembly may fully appreciate the sermon. To this end, we reproduce helow the text of the Nuptial Sermon along with its translation.

ان الحَمَدُ للهُ تَسْتَعِيْنَهُ وَتَسَنَّفُهُمْ وَتَصُودُ بِاللهُ مَنْ شُرُولِ الْفُسْنَا مَنَ بَطِيْهُ اللهُ لَلا مُضَلِّ لَـهُ وَمَنْ يُضْلِلُهُ فَلاَ هَادَى لَـهُ . وَآشَهُدُ أَنَّ لاَّ اللهِ الاِّ اللهُ وَآشَهَدُ اللهُ مُحَمَّدًا عَبِلُـهُ وَرَسُولُهُ . فَاللهِ اللّهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ وَاللهِ اللهِ اللهِ وَاللهِ مُسْلُمُونَ أَنَّ اللهِ وَاللهِ مُسْلُمُونَ أَنْ اللهِ وَاللهِ مُسْلُمُونَ أَنْ اللهِ اللهِ وَاللهِ فَيْ اللهِ اللهِ وَاللهِ فَيْ اللهِ اللهُ اللهُ عَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ لَفُسِ وَاحِدَةً مِنْ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ وُخَلِقَ مِنْهَا زَوْجَهَا وَبَتَّ مِنْهُمَا وَجَلاَ كَثِيراً وْسَمَاءً ﴿ وَأَتْقُوا

"Thanksgiving and praise are due to Allah alone, we seek aid from Him alone; and we beseech forgiveness of our sins from Him only; and we consign ourselves to the protection of Allah against the evils of our souls and against all offences. Truly, whomsoever Allah guides on the straight path (and He puts him only on the straight path who since-rely desires to walk along that way), no one cen lead him astray. And whomsoever God deflocts (and He deflocts only him who yearns to be deflected), no one can put him on the streight path. And I bear witness that there is no deity except Allah end I testify that Muhemmad is the bondman of Alleh and His Messenger.

O Believers! Fear Allah, as He should be duly feared; and die not save you be Muslims.

O mankind! Fear the wrath of your Lord Who created you from a single soul and from it created his spouse; and from them twain hath spread (all over the world) a multitude of men and women. Fear Allah, in Whom you claim your rights from one enother and (be careful in observing your duty to) the wombs (that bore you). /So! Allah is Watchful over you.

O Believers ! Fear God constantly ; and utter what is fair and sound God, then, will rectify your deeds and cover up your sins with forgiveness; and whosoever obeys Allah and His Messenger, he indeed shall secure a glorious success".

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah he upon him) says, "By God! I fear Allah more than all of you; I save myself from the wrath of Allah more than do all of you; but I observe fast and sometimes I do not keep fast. I say prayers at night and I sleep also; and I also take women in marriage.

Hence whoseever turns away from my way, he hears no relation with me".

Istikhara

Do have 'Istikhara' on the eve of such important events of life as journey, Nikah (marriage contract), employment and in commercial matters. 'Istikhara' means 'to beseed goodness and welfare'. When your mind is in doubt as to which aspect of an important and lawful problem is propitious for you, you must perform an 'Istikhara' and, then, adopt the course suggested hy your heart, taking it as the will of God. Whenever you are confronted with an issue of extraordinary importance, and find it difficult to reach the correct decision and adopt the right course, perform two Rak'sahs of supererogatory prayer at any hour ontside the unpropitious and forbidden timings. Afterwards, offer the 'Istikhara' prayer, Hadrat Sa'd b. Abi Waqas (God be pleased with him) reports that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) observed:

"It is propitioue for the progeny of Adam to beseeh good ness and welfare from God; and it is also propitious for the progeny of Adam to enbmit to the Will of God; and it is most unfortunate for the progeny of Adam if they do not beseeh goodness and welfare from God and are not happy in the Will of God". (Musand Ahmed)

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) also observed:

"One who observes 'Istikhara' is never disappointed; and the one who takes counsel is never put to shame; and the one who observes economy does not have to depend on others". (Tabarani)

Hadrat Jahir (God be pleased with him) states: "As the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) taught us the Qur'an, so also he (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) instructed us to observe 'lstikhara' in every matter. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to observe: When anyone among you is perplexed over an important matter, he should perform two Rak'ahs of supererogatory prayer and then offer this prayer: (Bukhari)

O Allahl I sak of Thee the good through Thy knowledge,

O Allahi I ask of Thee the good through Thy knowledge, and shillity through Thy power and heg (Thy favours), out Thine infinite bounty. For, behold, Thou hast power, I have none. Thou knowest, I know not; and Thou art the great knower of thinge hidden.

O Allah! If in Thy knowledge this matter be good for my faith, for my livelihood, and for the issue of mine affairs, then ordsin it for me, and make it easy for me and hlese me therewith. But if in Thy knowledge, this matter be bad for my faith, for my livelihood, and for the issue of mine affairs, then turn it away from me, and turn me away therefrom and ordsin for me the good wherever it be, and cause me to be pleased there with.

At this point, the supplicant should describe his need in place of the expression or should think of his need while uttering.

The Excellent Attributes of God

The most authentic and eafe means of achieving purity of soul and contentment of heart is to devote your tongue to the remembrance of God, to commemorate His Attributes; to ponder over the eignificance of these Attributes, and to accuse yoursef to absorb these Attributes in your mind and heart in perfect faith and awatenese. The Holy Qur'an affirms:

Ya-ayyuhalladhina āmanudhkurullāha dhikran kathiran wa sabbihūhu bukratan wa astla. (33 : 42).

"O Believers! Remember Allah abundantly and commemorate Him morning and evening".

Wa lillahil asmāul husnā fad'āhu bihā. And Surah 'Ārāf reveals:

"And for Allah are excellent names. Invocate Him by them.

The detail and wast significance of these names has clearly been revealed in the Holy Qur'an. The Holy Prophet (peace and bleesings of Allah be npon him) has also told us their number and detail and pointing out the great reward that their retention in mind entails, he (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) has urged frequent remembrance of these Attributes. The Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah be upon him) has eaid:

"God has ninety nine——one ehort of a hundred——names. Whoseever preserves these names in his memory shall enter Paradise". (Bukhari).

The preservation of the Divine Attributes in your memory implies that you should understand their significance, absorb them, sheorh their spirit and order your lives in conformity to them---the heet conrec to achieve this end is that you should recite the Qur'an with zeal and fervour; develop the hahit to etudy the meanings of the Qur'an; and make it a rule to reflect upon and evaluate the mandate of the Qnr'an regularly. Study also with devotion and concentration those Traditions of the Holy Prophet (peace and bleesings of Allah he upon him) which explain the meaning and eignificance of these Attributes of God. In addition, make it a point to recite such propitions submissions to Allah and prayers having eanction of the Holy Prophet (peace and hlessings of Allah he upon him) with concentration and devotion as incorporate these Attributes of God. The scholars of the Qur'an have collected these ninety-nine excellent names of God from the text of the Qur'an itself.

ALLAH أألله

This is the Personal Name of the Creator of the universe Who is the fount of all exalted virtues, goodness and hissings. No one ever has heen called by this name before, nor is it lawful to call any one now by this name. Allah is the true object of all your devotions; to Him alone is due all your worship and sacrifice, and His protection is the only refuge against all apprehensions. Hence cherish love for Him in your heart, offer true worship to Him only, and put all your trust and reliance upon Him alone.

Walladhīna āmanū ashaddo hubban lillahi.

(Al-Bagarah)

Prophetic Prayers at a Glance

Memorise prayers incorporated in the Holy Qu'an and Traditions which are meant to he uttered on various occasions and at different timings round the clock and commemorate them. Offer these prayers gegularly with sincerity and understanding, eagerness and concentration and with complete devotion until these prayers and ampplications, hecome the true yearnings of your heart. To beseech God, to beseech concentration, to beseech in the words instructed by God and heseech what has been besonght by His Beloved people—this is the glory of the plous and this alone entails Grace of Allah in both worlds.

In pursuance of this ideal a selection of the prayers from the Qnr'an and Traditions have been incorporated in this book. Since, however, these prayers are interspersed throughout the book under different headings in various chapters, the reader may find it rather difficult to trace them as and when needed for use or reference. Hence we are giving an index of these prayers. The prayers have been arranged in alphabetieal order with page numbers.
